Item 1.02 Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement.

On July 2, 2008, Critical Therapeutics, Inc. (the Company) provided notice to Dey, L.P., a wholly owned subsidiary of Mylan Inc. (DEY), that the Company is exercising its contractual right to terminate the FFIS Co-Promotion Agreement by and between the Company and DEY dated June 25, 2007 relating to DEY's product Perforomist (formoterol fumarate) Inhalation Solution (PERFOROMIST) for the treatment of chronic obstructive pulmonary disease (the PERFOROMIST Co-Promotion Agreement). The termination is effective September 30, 2008. Under the PERFOROMIST Co-Promotion Agreement, DEY granted to the Company a right and license or sublicense to promote and detail PERFOROMIST in the United States, together with DEY. The Company's separate co-promotion agreement with DEY under which the Company and DEY have agreed to jointly co-promote ZYFLO CR® (zileuton) extended-release tablets and ZYFLO® (zileuton tablets) remains in effect.

Under the terminated PERFOROMIST Co-Promotion Agreement, the Company agreed, at its own expense, to use diligent efforts to promote PERFOROMIST in the United States during the term of the agreement, including providing a minimum number of primary detail equivalents per month for PERFOROMIST to a specified group of office-based physicians and other health care professionals, in return for a co-promotion fee from DEY based on retail sales of PERFOROMIST. During the term of the PERFOROMIST Co-Promotion Agreement and for a period of one year after the expiration or termination of the agreement, the Company has agreed not to manufacture, detail, sell, market or promote in the United States any product containing forms or derivatives of formoterol (FAPI) as one of the active pharmaceutical ingredients for PERFOROMIST's approved indications, other than PERFOROMIST during the term of the agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Company signs a definitive agreement to be acquired by or merged with a third party that markets, manufactures, sells, details or promotes a product containing FAPI for sale in the United States, then, in lieu of the foregoing non-competition provision, the Company has agreed to specified restrictions on the activities of its sales representatives for a specified 180 day period.
