Commerce Executive Retirement Plan

Table of Contents

Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

The Commerce Executive Retirement Plan (Plan) is a non-qualified supplemental retirement plan, established in 1995 as a result of changes in law reducing the amount of retirement income payable to certain executives under the Company's defined contribution pension plan. Eleven Commerce executives are participants in this Plan, including its named executives David Kemper, Jonathan Kemper, Seth Leadbeater, Kevin Barth and Ray Stranghoener.

Effective January 1, 2005 the Company has amended this Plan in conjunction with modifications made to the Company's defined contribution pension plan and its 401K plan. Under these modifications, the Company will not make any future contributions to its defined contribution pension plan and instead will increase its matching contribution to the Company's 401K plan based on new criteria of age and length of service. Also, the Commerce Executive Retirement Plan was amended to help offset the effects of IRS limitations on contributions to 401K plans for the participants of this plan. In the future the calculation of benefits for each participant under this plan will be based on 7% times the difference between each participant's eligible salary and the dollar limitation prescribed by IRS code section 401(1)(17) in calculating the executive's eligible contribution by the Company to its 401K plan. In addition, beginning in 2005 the plan benefits will be credited to each executive's account in the Plan as of the last day of the year. It is not expected that these changes to the Plan will materially affect the Company's on-going benefits cost.

A copy of the amended and restated plan is set forth as exhibit 10.1 hereto.
