PART II RULES 12b-25(b) AND (c)

If the subject report could not be filed without unreasonable effort or expense and the registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b), the following should be completed. (Check box if appropriate)

- (a) The reason described in reasonable detail in Part III of this form could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense
- (b) The subject annual report, semi-annual report, transition report on Form 10-K, Form 20-F, Form 11-K, Form N-SAR or Form N-CSR, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date; or the subject quarterly report or transition report on Form 10-Q, or subject distribution report on Form 10-D, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date; and
- (c) The accountant's statement or other exhibit required by Rule 12b-25(c) has been attached if applicable.

PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The Registrant is unable to complete and file the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005 by the prescribed filing date. The Registrant and its independent auditor need additional time to review certain matters, primarily the deferred tax liabilities relating to assets acquired in the November 2004 Rouse transaction. Accordingly, the Registrant has not completed its financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2005 and its independent accounting firm has not yet completed its audit of such financial statements. Neither the Registrant nor its independent registered public accounting firm has completed their assessment and opinion, respectively, of the effectiveness of internal controls over financial reporting under Section 404 of Sarbanes-Oxley.

The Registrant's independent registered public accounting firm is completing its audit procedures on the historical tax records of Rouse, including the differences in book and tax values that were recorded prior to the November 2004 transaction, and the related deferred tax adjustments attributable to the purchase price allocation determination required by purchase accounting. Deferred tax liabilities primarily are the Registrant's estimate of the future tax liabilities that would be due if the Registrant were to sell assets in future taxable transactions. As a result, the Registrant does not believe that adjustments, if any, to the deferred tax liabilities resulting from completion of this review will result in a change in the previously reported earnings per share or funds from operations for the year ended December 31, 2005, or in previously published 2006 guidance. The Registrant expects to file its Annual Report on
