Companies Make First Filing in Process to Combine WPS Resources and Peoples Energy

Yesterday, WPS Resources Corporation and Peoples Energy Corporation filed an application with the Illinois Commerce Commission (ICC) to combine the two companies.

This is one of several regulatory approvals necessary to complete the merger.

The overall result of the combination of WPS Resources and Peoples Energy will be larger, stronger, and more diversified regulated operations in the Midwest, said Larry Weyers, Chairman, President and CEO of WPS Resources, who will serve as President and CEO of the combined company. In a consolidating industry, in which size, scale and diversity of the customer base matter, we are convinced that both companies have found the best possible partner, and that both companies' customers, employees, shareholders and the communities they service will benefit from the merger in ways that would not be possible but for the merger.

The ICC application indicates that Peoples Gas and North Shore Gas will not ask for a base delivery rate increase to be effective until 2008 and then not again until 2010, at the earliest. The cost savings identified from the combination of the companies are expected to limit delivery rate increases after 2008 for Peoples Gas and North Shore Gas from what otherwise may have been necessary without the merger.

The combination of the companies will enable the realization of substantial benefits for all of its customers, employees and shareholders in the form of economies, efficiencies and operating effectiveness across the corporate, shared services, and regulated operating areas. These synergies relate to a variety of operational functions and will result in benefits that will accrue to utility customers now, and in the future.

The companies expect the savings to come from the following areas:

Corporate and Headquarters Staffing position reductions related to redundancies in staffing levels

Utility Back Office Staffing position reductions related to redundancies in operating support areas

Corporate and Administrative Programs reductions in non-labor programs and expenses such as administrative costs for insurance and shareholder services

Information Technology consolidation of operating environments including data centers, network servers, workstations and applications

Supply Chain improved strategic sourcing of materials and contract services

Gas Supply integration of portfolio supply management which allows for improved commodity costs.

The companies are seeking expedited approval of the application by January 1, 2007 in order to begin realizing the anticipated benefits of the merger for all stakeholders as soon as possible and to minimize the uncertainty associated with the pending merger.

The combination also requires the following approvals:

The shareholders of both companies

Expiration or early termination of the applicable Hart-Scott-Rodino waiting period

Federal Energy Regulatory Commission

Public Service Commission of Wisconsin approval of an amendment to its affiliated interest agreement.

Transition Teams Meet to Plan for Future

Kicking off the process of combining WPS Resources with Peoples Energy, about 70 employees of the two companies met earlier this week in Milwaukee to begin to lay the ground work for the transition.

Members of the various teams were provided an overview of the project management process that will be utilized to guide the transition. This process has been used successfully by WPS in its two prior utility transactions. The attendees shared some background information with the group about their regular job and the role they will each be playing on the transition team.

On the second day of meetings, teams gathered individually to discuss and think about the work involved in their respective areas. Each team is required to submit a charter which will detail the scope of their work, timeline, budget, etc. From there, they will determine if additional team members are necessary in order to achieve their goals.

All the teams are being asked to complete their work in order to hit a target transaction close date of January 1, 2007. This, of course, depends on the companies receiving all necessary shareholder and regulatory approvals.

Keeping Yourself Informed: Key to Managing Change

One of the speakers at the kick-off meeting reminded us that we can't manage the change around us, but we can manage how we react to change. Keeping ourselves informed and engaged is key to doing that successfully.

You can keep informed in several ways. You can talk with your work group leader or supervisor and ask questions about what's on your mind. You can watch for future editions of Transition Update and suggest topics we should include here. WPS employees can send a question to transition@wpsr.com and Peoples Energy employees can submit questions via PeoplesNet by clicking the "Answering Your Questions" link. You can monitor our intranets for updates as they occur.
