Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On November 2, 2006, WebMD Health Corp. (which we refer to as WHC), an 85.6% owned subsidiary of the Registrant, announced that it had agreed to acquire all of the outstanding limited liability company interests (Units) of Subimo, LLC, a provider of healthcare decision support applications to large employers, health plans and financial institutions.

Pursuant to the Unit Purchase Agreement (the Purchase Agreement), dated as of November 2, 2006, by and among WHC, Subimo, Ann Mond Johnson, John R. Fiacco, Joseph R. Donlan, Tracy J. Heilman, Anthony Cagle, Dave Shevock, and Gail Matejcic (the Principal Unitholders) and the other sellers referred to in the Purchase Agreement (which, together with the Principal Unitholders, we refer to as the Sellers), WHC has agreed to pay a base purchase price of $60,000,000, in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Purchase Agreement and subject to adjustment, including adjustment based on amounts of net working capital of Subimo at closing, of indebtedness of Subimo at closing and of certain transaction expenses payable on behalf of the Sellers. The purchase price is payable as follows:

Closing Consideration. A portion of the purchase price equal to $34 million (the Closing Consideration) is payable to the Sellers in cash at the closing, on a pro rata basis in accordance with their holdings of Units. In addition, WHC is required, at the closing, to notify the Sellers whether it will pay the Subsequent Consideration (described below) in cash, shares of WHC Class A Common Stock (WHC Shares), or a combination of cash and WHC Shares. The amount of the Closing Consideration is subject to adjustment, based on pre-closing estimates of the purchase price adjustments contemplated by the Purchase Agreement, as described above.

Subsequent Consideration. WHC has agreed, subject to the terms and conditions in the Purchase Agreement and in accordance with its notification to the Sellers on the closing date described above, to pay the Sellers on a pro rata basis in accordance with their holdings of Units, an aggregate of $26 million in cash and/or WHC Shares (the Subsequent Consideration), such Subsequent Consideration to be payable, except as described below, on the second anniversary of the closing date. The number of WHC Shares, if any, to be included in the Subsequent Consideration shall be determined by dividing the amount of the Subsequent Consideration to be paid in WHC Shares by the five-day trailing average price of WHC Shares as of the closing date.

³/₄ Timing of Payment. Except as described below with respect to certain of the Principal Unitholders, the Subsequent Consideration will be payable on the earlier to occur of (i) the second anniversary of the closing date or (ii) a change in control of WHC (we refer to such date as the "Triggering Date"). Each of the Principal Unitholders has entered into a long term employment agreement with Subimo, effective as of the closing. If any of the four Principal Unitholders who were founders of Subimo is terminated for cause under such person's employment agreement or voluntarily terminates employment prior to the payment of the Subsequent Consideration, such person will not be entitled to receive their pro rata share of the Subsequent Consideration until the date that is the fourth anniversary of the closing date.

applied against such cash portion of the Subsequent Consideration. To the extent that the cash portion of the Subsequent Consideration is insufficient to satisfy WHC's direct right of setoff, WHC may setoff any remaining such amounts against WHC Shares that would otherwise be issued as Subsequent Consideration.

^{3/4} Value of Subsequent Consideration. If WHC elects to pay any portion of the Subsequent Consideration in the form of WHC Shares, such WHC Shares will be issued in a private placement, and WHC will have the option to file a registration statement covering the resale of such WHC Shares by the Sellers. In addition, if WHC elects to pay any portion of the Subsequent Consideration in WHC Shares and, on the later to occur of (i) the Triggering Date, or (ii) in the event WHC elects to file a registration statement covering the WHC Shares issued on the Triggering Date, the date such registration statement is declared effective by the SEC, the aggregate value of the Subsequent Consideration is less than $15.6 million (minus the amount for which a right of setoff, as described above, has been applied), then WHC shall be required to pay the amount by which the aggregate value of the Subsequent Consideration is less than $15.6 million (minus any portion for which a right of setoff has been applied). WHC will have the option of paying the amount described in the preceding sentence in the form of cash or additional WHC Shares.

The Purchase Agreement contains representations and warranties, covenants and indemnification provisions that are customary for transactions of this type. The acquisition is expected to be completed before the end of December 2006, subject to satisfaction or waiver of customary closing conditions.

The above summary of the provisions of the Purchase Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Purchase Agreement. A copy of the Purchase Agreement is incorporated by reference, as Exhibit 2.1 hereto, from Exhibit 2.1 to the Current Report on Form 8-K filed today by WHC and is incorporated herein by this reference.
