Pursuant to a 1995 stock purchase agreement with Tekno Simon, a business entity and affiliate of the Simon Property Group and its Co-Chairman, Melvin Simon, Tekno Simon purchased shares of Hollywood Media's Series A Preferred Stock, Series B Preferred Stock and common stock. In May 1999, Tekno Simon converted all of the Series A and Series B Preferred Stock into 300,631 shares of common stock. Pursuant to such Stock Purchase Agreement, Tekno Simon has the right to designate one nominee to Hollywood Media's Board of Directors until such time as Tekno Simon holds less than 25% of the sum of (i) the shares of common stock issued upon conversion of the Series A Preferred Stock, and (ii) the shares of common stock purchased by Tekno Simon in 1995. Certain shareholders of Hollywood Media, including Mitchell Rubenstein, Laurie S. Silvers and Dr. Martin H. Tekno Simon's current nominee on the Board of Directors is Deborah J. Simon.

The Board of Directors has established an Audit Committee in accordance with section 3(a)(58)(A) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. We currently do not have a designated Audit Committee Financial Expert (as defined in Item 407 of SEC Regulation S-K rules) on our audit committee. Although we had discussions with several potential candidates prior to 2006, we did not ultimately reach mutual interest in proceeding to nominate any candidate for election to the Board. We do not currently have any candidates under consideration, but the Board would consider candidates that our Nominating Committee deems qualified and recommends for nomination.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires Hollywood Media's directors, executive officers, and persons who own more than 10% of Hollywood Media's outstanding common stock, to file with the SEC initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership of common stock. Such persons are required by SEC regulation to furnish Hollywood Media with copies of all such reports they file.

To Hollywood Media's knowledge, based solely on a review of the copies of such reports furnished to Hollywood Media or written representations that no other reports were required, all Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to its executive officers, directors and greater-than-10% beneficial owners for the year ended December 31, 2006 have been complied with, other than with respect to Harry Hoffman who filed one Form 4 after the due date to report two stock sales.

Item 11. EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION.

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

Executive Compensation Policies and Objectives

Hollywood Media's executive compensation program, whose principal components generally consist of salary, bonus, and stock options and other stock incentive awards, is designed to achieve the following policies and objectives:

- (a) providing competitive base pay to attract, retain and motivate qualified management;
- (b) delivering performance-based bonuses when results, individual initiative and accomplishments warrant;
- (c) generating returns to shareholders over the long term; and
- (d) aligning management compensation with the achievement of Hollywood Media's goals and performance.

Management believes that its focus on these policies and objectives will benefit Hollywood Media, and ultimately its shareholders, in the long-term by facilitating Hollywood Media's ability to attract and retain highly qualified executives who are committed to Hollywood Media's long-term success.

Role of the Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of Hollywood Media is responsible for approving, determining and/or making recommendations to the Board of Directors concerning the principal components of executive compensation for a defined set of upper level executives, including the Chief Executive Officer and the other named executive officers listed in the Summary Compensation Table below (collectively, the Named Executive Officers), including base salaries, bonuses, and stock options and other equity awards. The Compensation Committee, with input from the Chief Executive Officer and/or other executives, reviews the compensation of executive officers periodically, typically on a case by case basis, to assess and determine compensation under applicable considerations, including the compensation policies and objectives noted above. The Compensation Committee does not typically engage a compensation consultant for advice on Hollywood Media's executive compensation program.

Setting Executive Compensation

In approving executive officer compensation, the Compensation Committee generally reviews and considers, among other factors, each executive's scope of responsibility and commitment, level of performance (with respect to specific areas of responsibility and on an overall basis), contributions to Hollywood Media's achievement of goals and performance, compensation levels at comparable companies and historical compensation levels, and the recommendations, analysis and other relevant information provided by Hollywood Media's management and/or other resources that the Committee may wish to access. However, in making compensation decisions or recommendations the Compensation Committee does not generally apply any specific (formulaic) relationship between objective measures of corporate performance (such as stock price or financial results) to executive compensation, although the Compensation Committee may from time to time approve compensation arrangements or plans containing a quantitative formula for calculating a bonus or other aspects of compensation, as may be contained in the terms of an employment agreement or other compensation plan, award or arrangement.

Table of Contents

Elements of Compensation

Base Salary

The base salary for each of Hollywood Media's executive officers is targeted to recognize that officer's unique value, experience, and actual and potential contribution to Hollywood Media's success. For 2006, Hollywood Media had three Named Executive Officers: Mitchell Rubenstein, its Chairman and Chief Executive Officer; Laurie S. Silvers, its President; and Scott Gomez, its Chief Accounting Officer. During 2006, the Named Executive Officers had preexisting employment agreements specifying salary and other compensation, and received salaries as provided in their respective employment agreements. The Compensation Committee previously approved these existing employment agreements. For additional information about these agreements, see Employment Agreements with Named Executive Officers below.

The current salary structure for Mr. Rubenstein and Ms. Silvers, including their base salaries and provisions for annual cost-of-living adjustments, were established in 2003 pursuant to amendments to their then current employment agreements. In connection with approving the 2003 amendments, the Compensation Committee considered, among other things, the following factors: (i) various financial and operational achievements of Hollywood Media (and the efforts of Mr. Rubenstein and Ms. Silvers to facilitate such achievements), including but not limited to the launch of Hollywood Media's digital cable television network and the successful launch and continued growth of MovieTickets.com; (ii) levels of compensation paid to CEOs, Presidents and other executive officers of other companies; and (iii) the personal cash flow assistance that Mr. Rubenstein and Ms. Silvers provided Hollywood Media, including, among other things, making available from their personal funds a line of credit for Hollywood Media to draw upon, and personally guaranteeing surety bonds on behalf of Hollywood Media. The current salary structure for Scott Gomez, including his base salary and predetermined annual raises, was established in 2005 pursuant to the terms of his existing employment agreement, which was approved by the Compensation Committee upon the recommendation of the Chief Executive Officer, who assisted with the negotiation of the terms of the agreement with Mr. Gomez.

Cash Bonuses

In addition to compensation through base salaries, the Compensation Committee has the authority to grant cash bonus awards and may approve compensation plans or agreements to grant bonuses based on specified terms. Discretionary bonus awards vary depending on the Compensation Committee's review and consideration of the factors noted above including the executive officer's contribution to Hollywood Media's achievement of its goals.

On April 14, 2006, Scott Gomez received a $25,000 cash bonus, payable in accordance with the terms of his employment agreement. On September 19, 2006, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors approved the payment of cash performance bonuses in the amounts of $250,000 to Mr. Rubenstein, $150,000 to Ms. Silvers, and $125,000 to Mr. Gomez in recognition of their respective contributions to the sale of Hollywood Media's wholly-owned subsidiary Baseline Acquisitions Corp (BAC). When considering and approving these discretionary bonuses, the Compensation Committee did not apply any specific quantitative relationship between objective measures of corporate performance and such compensation.

Table of Contents

Other Benefits

Perquisites

Although perquisites are not a primary aspect of Hollywood Media's executive compensation, Hollywood Media provided its Named Executive Officers with the following perquisites during 2006:

Automobile Allowance. The employment agreement between Hollywood Media and Mitchell Rubenstein provides that Mr. Rubenstein is entitled to an automobile allowance of $650 per month. In addition, the employment agreement between Hollywood Media and Laurie S. Silvers provides that Ms. Silvers is entitled to an automobile allowance of $650 per month.

Insurance Coverage. Hollywood Media provides the Named Executive Officers and their dependants with medical, dental, disability and life insurance coverage at the sole expense of Hollywood Media.

401(k) Plan

Hollywood Media maintains a 401(k) retirement savings plan (the Plan) for all of its full time employees, including the Named Executive Officers, who have completed six (6) months of employment with Hollywood Media or any of its subsidiaries. Each participant may contribute to the Plan up to a specified portion of his or her pre-tax gross compensation in accordance with the Plan's limitations (but not greater than the statutorily prescribed limit). Amounts contributed by employee participants in accordance with the Plan requirements and earnings on such contributions are fully vested. The contributions by employees to the Plan may be invested in such investments as selected by each participant from the investment choices provided under the Plan (but may not be invested in securities of Hollywood Media).

The Plan permits, but does not require, Hollywood Media to make additional contributions on behalf of the participating employees in the form of cash and/or property (including without limitation shares of common stock of Hollywood Media), as determined by Hollywood Media in its discretion. Hollywood Media will determine on an annual basis whether a matching contribution will be made and, if so, at what level of contribution. For the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006, Hollywood Media elected to make a matching contribution for each participating employee equal to half of the first 8% of the employee's deferral, payable in shares of common stock of Hollywood Media. The matching contributions vest 25% per year of employment of the participating employee, with such employee becoming fully vested in any matching contributions after four years of employment.

Stock Option Grants and Equity-Based Compensation

Management believes that stock options and other equity-based compensation is an important part of its executive compensation program as it serves to provide significant performance incentives to the executive officers, including the objective of aligning the interests of the executive officers with the interests of Hollywood Media's stockholders.

The Compensation Committee and the Stock Option Committee act as the administrators of Hollywood Media's equity compensation plans for executives and other employees, which plans include the 2000 Stock Incentive Plan and the 2004 Stock Incentive Plan. The Committees' functions include, among other things: (i) selecting plan participants; (ii) determining the timing of any awards under the plans; (iii) determining the types of awards to be granted under the plans; (iv) determining the amount of awards to be granted to each participant under the plans; and (v) determining the exercise price, vesting and other terms of the awards granted under the plans.

Table of Contents

During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006, no stock options or other equity-based compensation awards were granted to the Named Executive Officers.

Policy on Deductibility of Compensation

Section 162(m) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code generally limits the tax deduction to public companies for annual compensation in excess of $1 million paid to an executive who is the chief executive officer or who is one of its other four most highly compensated executive officers. However, compensation which qualifies as performance-based is excluded from the $1 million limit if, among other requirements, the compensation is payable upon attainment of pre-established, objective performance goals under a plan approved by stockholders (stock options often qualify for such exclusion). It is the policy of Hollywood Media's management and the Compensation Committee to consider potential adverse impact of Section 162(m) on Hollywood Media in connection with structuring executive compensation and, if and to the extent deemed necessary and appropriate under the circumstances, take steps intended to limit such adverse impact, while at the same time preserving the objective of providing compensation including incentive or equity-based awards as deemed appropriate by the Committee. The Compensation Committee intends to coordinate with management in evaluating the applicability and implications of Section 162(m) to Hollywood Media's compensation programs and arrangements, but also intends to retain the flexibility necessary to provide cash and other compensation consistent with Hollywood Media's compensation objectives.

Employment Agreements with Named Executive Officers

Employment Agreements with Chief Executive Officer and President. In 1993, Hollywood Media entered into employment agreements with each of Mitchell Rubenstein, to serve as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, and Laurie S. Silvers, to serve as Vice Chairman and President. The current terms of these agreements, as amended, are described below. These agreements were last amended in November 2004.

As of December 1, 2005, the terms of both agreements were automatically extended through December 31, 2006 under the annual renewal provisions of the agreements. The terms of each of the employment agreements are automatically extended for successive one-year terms unless Hollywood Media or the executive officer gives written notice to the other at least 30 days prior to the then-scheduled expiration date. Each of the employment agreements provides for an annual salary (subject to automatic cost-of-living increases based on changes in the consumer price index), an annual bonus in an amount determined by the Board of Directors at its discretion, and an automobile allowance of $650 per month. Pursuant to amendments made in 2003, the agreements provide for annual salaries commencing July 1, 2003 of $400,000 for Mr. Rubenstein and $350,000 for Ms. Silvers. After giving effect to annual cost-of-living adjustments, the current annual salary rates are $437,913 for Mr. Rubenstein and $383,174 for Ms. Silvers.

Pursuant to amendments made in 2003, the employment agreements provide for Hollywood Media to make certain payments to Mr. Rubenstein and Ms. Silvers in the event that Hollywood Media or its subsidiaries or affiliates enter into agreements to carry Hollywood.com Television with (a) two additional Multiple System Operators (MSOs) that are among the largest eight MSOs (excluding Cox Communications and Cablevision Systems Corp.), or (b) with Comcast Corporation. This condition was subsequently satisfied and, as a result, the amendments provide that each such executive officer shall be entitled to payments equivalent to five percent of the net income (as determined in accordance with GAAP) generated operationally by each of the Hollywood.com Television and Hollywood.com divisions of Hollywood Media and, if Hollywood.com Television and/or Hollywood.com were to be sold by Hollywood Media, the executive can elect to receive five percent of the net sale proceeds generated from the sale of such division(s) in lieu of the net income payments continuing after the sale. The employment agreements provide that these payment rights, once earned during the employment term, survive termination or expiration, for any reason, of the executive's employment with Hollywood Media. Mr. Rubenstein and Ms. Silvers have not received any payments to date under these provisions.

Pursuant to amendments made in 2004 to their respective employment agreements, the Chief Executive Officer and the President were each granted 400,000 shares of restricted common stock of Hollywood Media, issued under Hollywood Media's shareholder-approved 2000 Stock Incentive Plan, which shares vest over the course of four years at the rate of 25,000 shares (or 6.25%) on the first day of each calendar quarter until fully vested, commencing in the fourth quarter of 2004, subject to accelerated vesting upon certain events including a Change of Control or in the event that the executive's employment is terminated without cause, or if the executive resigns within 60 days after the occurrence of "Good Reason" (as defined in the employment agreements). These shares may not be sold, pledged or otherwise transferred until vested.

Employment Agreement with Chief Accounting Officer. On May 19, 2005, Hollywood Media entered into an employment agreement with Scott Gomez, the Chief Accounting Officer of Hollywood Media. The term of employment expires on April 13, 2010, unless terminated earlier, subject to automatic extensions for additional one-year periods unless any party gives notice of termination at least thirty days prior to the expiration date. Compensation under the agreement includes annual base salary of $175,000 effective as of April 14, 2005, subject to annual salary increases of $25,000, a $25,000 cash bonus within ten days of the signing of the agreement as well as annual $25,000 cash bonuses on each anniversary date of his employment with Hollywood Media, and a grant of options to purchase 25,000 shares of Hollywood Media's common stock at a price equal to the closing sale price of the common stock on the trading day immediately preceding the date of the employment agreement. The options were fully vested on the date of grant and have a five-year term. The current annual salary rate for Mr. Gomez is $225,000. On August 9, 2006, Hollywood Media and Mr. Gomez amended and restated the original five-year employment agreement. In addition to the terms of the original employment agreement, the amended and restated employment agreement provides that, in the event of a Change of Control of Hollywood Media (as such term is defined in the amended and restated employment agreement), Mr. Gomez will be entitled to receive a lump sum payment in cash equal to the salary and annual bonuses payable to Mr. Gomez under the agreement for the two year period following the date of such Change of Control, subject to the additional terms set forth in the amended and restated employment agreement.

Additional terms of the employment agreements with the Named Executive Officers are described below under the caption Potential Payments upon Termination or Change-in-Control.

Pension Benefits

Hollywood Media does not provide pension arrangements or post-retirement health coverage for its executives or employees. It does provide a 401(k) retirement savings plan (the Plan) for all of its full time employees, including the named executive officers, who have completed six (6) months of employment with Hollywood Media or any of its subsidiaries. Each participant may contribute to the Plan up to a specified portion of his or her pre-tax gross compensation in accordance with the Plan s limitations (but not greater than the statutorily prescribed limit). Amounts contributed by employee participants in accordance with the Plan requirements and earnings on such contributions are fully vested. The contributions by employees to the Plan may be invested in such investments as selected by each participant from the investment choices provided under the Plan (but may not be invested in securities of Hollywood Media).

The Plan permits, but does not require, Hollywood Media to make additional contributions on behalf of the participating employees in the form of cash and/or property (including without limitation shares of common stock of Hollywood Media), as determined by Hollywood Media in its discretion. Hollywood Media will determine on an annual basis whether a matching contribution will be made and, if so, at what level of contribution. For the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006, Hollywood Media elected to make a matching contribution for each participating employee equal to half of the first 8% of the employee s deferral, payable in shares of common stock of Hollywood Media. The matching contributions vest 25% per year of employment of the participating employee, with such employee becoming fully vested in any matching contributions after four years of employment.

Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change-in-Control

Mitchell Rubenstein Chief Executive Officer

Pursuant to the current employment agreement between Hollywood Media and Mitchell Rubenstein, discussed under the caption Employment Agreements with Named Executive Officers above, upon a termination of Mr. Rubenstein's employment by Hollywood Media for any reason other than death, disability or Cause (as defined in the employment agreement), Mr. Rubenstein will continue to receive his salary until the expiration of the then current term of the employment agreement. For purposes of this agreement, a termination by Hollywood Media of Laurie S. Silvers' employment without Cause will constitute a termination without Cause of Mr. Rubenstein. In the event of a termination of employment by Hollywood Media as a result of Mr. Rubenstein's disability, Mr. Rubenstein will continue to receive his salary and benefits (to the extent permissible by law) for a period of 12 months after such termination. Finally, in the event of a termination of employment by Hollywood Media as a result of Mr. Rubenstein's death, Mr. Rubenstein's estate will be entitled to receive a lump sum payment equal to one year's base salary plus a pro rata portion of any bonus to which Mr. Rubenstein would have been entitled. Assuming that Mr. Rubenstein's employment was terminated by Hollywood Media on December 31, 2006 without Cause or as a result of Mr. Rubenstein's disability, Mr. Rubenstein would be entitled to receive $437,913 in salary through December 31, 2007, the expiration of the then current term and the 12 month period following termination, plus $7,800 in automobile allowance and approximately $5,547 in insurance coverage for termination as a result of disability. Assuming that this agreement was terminated on December 31, 2006 as a result of Mr. Rubenstein's death, Mr. Rubenstein's estate would be entitled to receive a lump sum payment of $437,913.

Under Mr. Rubenstein's current employment agreement, if a Change of Control (as defined in the employment agreement) occurs during the term of employment, the employment agreement provides for the continued employment of Mr. Rubenstein until the earlier of two years following the Change of Control or the then-scheduled expiration date of the term of employment. Assuming the occurrence of a Change of Control on December 31, 2006, Mr. Rubenstein would be entitled to receive $437,913 in salary for his continued employment through December 31, 2007, the expiration of the then current term. In addition, following a Change of Control, if (a) Mr. Rubenstein's employment is terminated by Hollywood Media during the term of the agreement, (b) there is a material reduction in Mr. Rubenstein's compensation or benefits, or a material change in his working conditions, management responsibilities or title, and Mr. Rubenstein terminates his employment within 60 days of any such occurrence, or (c) Mr. Rubenstein terminates his employment within sixty days following the Change of Control for any reason, Mr. Rubenstein will receive a lump sum payment equal to three times the base salary and bonuses paid or payable to him during or with respect to the 12 month period preceding the date of termination, to be paid within 15 business days of the date of termination. Assuming the occurrence of a Change of Control and the termination of Mr. Rubenstein's employment for any of the aforementioned reasons on December 31, 2006, Mr. Rubenstein would be entitled to receive a lump sum payment of $2,023,068.

Under Mr. Rubenstein's current employment agreement, the term Change of Control is defined to mean (i) any person's or group's acquisition of 20% or more of the combined voting power of Hollywood Media's outstanding securities (other than as a result of an issuance of securities initiated by Hollywood Media, or open market purchases approved by the Board of Directors of Hollywood Media, as long as the majority of the Board approving the purchases is the majority at the time the purchases are made), (ii) in the event of any cash tender or exchange offer, merger or other business combination, sale of assets or contested election, the persons who were directors of Hollywood Media prior to such transaction ceasing to constitute a majority of the Board of Directors following the transaction, or (iii) the sale or transfer of Hollywood Media in its entirety or all or substantially all of its assets through any structure or form of transaction, including, but not limited to, a direct or indirect acquisition, merger, consolidation, restructuring, liquidation or any similar or related transaction.

As discussed further under the caption Employment Agreements with Named Executive Officers above, pursuant to an amendment made to his employment agreement in 2003, Mr. Rubenstein earned the right to receive annual payments equivalent to five percent of the net income (as determined in accordance with GAAP) generated operationally by each of the Hollywood.com Television and Hollywood.com divisions of Hollywood Media. In addition, if Hollywood.com Television and/or Hollywood.com were to be sold by Hollywood Media, Mr. Rubenstein can elect to receive five percent of the net sale proceeds generated from the sale of such division(s) in lieu of the net income payments continuing after the sale. The employment agreement provides that these payment rights survive termination or expiration, for any reason, of Mr. Rubenstein's employment with Hollywood Media. In addition, Mr. Rubenstein is not entitled to any additional payments upon a Change of Control as a result of these provisions. For purposes of quantifying this interest, Hollywood Media is relying on valuation analyses performed by an independent valuation expert as of October 1, 2006 in connection with Hollywood Media's annual impairment review under SFAS No. 142 conducted in preparing Hollywood Media's 2006 financial statements. As a result of the impairment study which utilized various assumptions and methodologies for purposes of deriving a range of potential value estimates, the fair value of the Hollywood.com Television and Hollywood.com divisions was estimated at approximately $28,156,796. Assuming that Mr. Rubenstein's employment was terminated on December 31, 2006, the present value of the potential future payments under Mr. Rubenstein's five percent interest after such termination, based on the fair value estimate and factoring in a minority interest discount of 10%, is estimated at approximately $1,267,056.

Pursuant to an amendment made to his employment agreement in 2004, Mr. Rubenstein was granted 400,000 shares of restricted common stock of Hollywood Media, issued under Hollywood Media's shareholder-approved 2000 Stock Incentive Plan, which shares vest over the course of four years at the rate of 25,000 shares (or 6.25%) on the first day of each calendar quarter until fully vested, commencing in the fourth quarter of 2004. These shares may not be sold, pledged or otherwise transferred until vested. In the event of (A) a Change of Control, (B) the termination of Mr. Rubenstein's employment by Hollywood Media without Cause or (C) Mr. Rubenstein's resignation within 60 days after the occurrence of Good Reason (as defined in his employment agreement), any unvested shares shall immediately vest in full. Assuming the occurrence on December 31, 2006 of any of the aforementioned events, Mr. Rubenstein would realize $735,000 in value upon such accelerated vesting, representing the market value of the 175,000 unvested shares at the $4.20 closing price per share as of December 29, 2006.

Laurie S. Silvers - President

The current employment agreement between Hollywood Media and Laurie S. Silvers, discussed under the caption Employment Agreements with Named Executive Officers above, contains termination provisions that are identical to the termination provisions described above for Mr. Rubenstein. Assuming that Ms. Silvers' employment was terminated by Hollywood Media on December 31, 2006 without Cause or as a result of Ms. Silvers' disability, Ms. Silvers would be entitled to receive $383,174 in salary through December 31, 2007, the expiration of the then current term and the 12 month period following termination, plus $7,800 in automobile allowance and approximately $11,907 in insurance coverage for termination as a result of disability. Assuming that this agreement was terminated on December 31, 2006 as a result of Ms. Silvers' death, Ms. Silvers' estate would be entitled to receive a lump sum payment of $383,174.

Table of Contents

Ms. Silvers' current employment agreement also contains Change of Control provisions that are identical to the Change of Control provisions described above for Mr. Rubenstein. Assuming the occurrence of a Change of Control on December 31, 2006, Ms. Silvers would be entitled to receive $383,174 in salary for her continued employment through December 31, 2007, the expiration of the then current term. Assuming the occurrence of a Change of Control and the termination of Ms. Silvers' employment on December 31, 2006 for any of the reasons described for Mr. Rubenstein above, Ms. Silvers would be entitled to receive a lump sum payment of $1,563,936.

As discussed further under the caption Employment Agreements with Named Executive Officers above, pursuant to an amendment made to her employment agreement in 2003, Ms. Silvers earned the same rights to payments of five percent of the future net income of the Hollywood.com Television and Hollywood.com divisions of Hollywood Media, or five percent of the net proceeds from the sale of such divisions, as described for Mr. Rubenstein above. Assuming that Ms. Silvers' employment was terminated on December 31, 2006, the present value of the potential future payments under Ms. Silvers' five percent interest after such termination, based on the fair value estimate and factoring in a minority interest discount of 10%, is estimated at approximately $1,267,056.

Pursuant to an amendment made to her employment agreement in 2004, Ms. Silvers was granted 400,000 shares of restricted common stock of Hollywood Media on the same terms as the shares issued to Mr. Rubenstein (described above). Assuming the occurrence on December 31, 2006 of any of the acceleration events described for Mr. Rubenstein above, Ms. Silvers would realize $735,000 in value upon the accelerated vesting of the unvested portion of such restricted shares, representing the market value of the 175,000 unvested shares at the $4.20 closing price per share as of December 29, 2006.

Scott Gomez Chief Accounting Officer

Pursuant to the current employment agreement between Hollywood Media and Scott Gomez, discussed under the caption Employment Agreements with Named Executive Officers above, in the event of the termination of Mr. Gomez's employment by Hollywood Media without Cause or by Mr. Gomez for Good Reason (as such terms are defined in the employment agreement) at any time prior to April 13, 2010, Mr. Gomez will be entitled to receive any bonuses earned as of the date of termination as well as payment of his base salary for the shorter of two years or the remainder of his employment period (the Termination Payments). Hollywood Media has the right, in its sole discretion, to pay all or any portion of the Termination Payments in registered shares of its common stock; provided, that Hollywood Media will guarantee the net proceeds from sales of such shares by Mr. Gomez within 180 days of issuance. Assuming that this agreement was terminated on December 31, 2006 without Cause or for Good Reason, Mr. Gomez would be entitled to receive $460,890 in aggregate salary payments through December 31, 2008, the expiration of the two year period following termination.

Under Mr. Gomez's current employment agreement, if a Change of Control (as defined in the employment agreement) occurs during the term of employment, then Mr. Gomez will be entitled to receive a cash payment equal to the salary and annual bonuses payable to Mr. Gomez under the agreement for the two year period following the date of such Change of Control (the Change of Control Payment), with 50% of the Change of Control Payment payable upon the date of the Change of Control and 50% of the Change of Control Payment to be held in an interest bearing account and paid to Mr. Gomez six months after the date of the Change of Control. As a condition to receiving the second 50% of the Change of Control Payment, Mr. Gomez shall continue his employment during a transition period of at least six months following the date of the Change of Control irrespective of the length of time remaining on the term of the agreement (the Transition Period); provided, that the Transition Period may be extended by Hollywood Media up to an additional six months. During the Transition Period and any extension thereof, the base salary payable to Mr. Gomez in accordance with the terms of the employment agreement shall be increased by 50%. If Mr. Gomez's employment is terminated without Cause or for Good Reason during the Transition Period, Mr. Gomez would be entitled to receive, in lieu of the Termination Payments described above, a lump sum payment equal to (a) any unpaid portion of the Change of Control Payment (plus accrued interest) plus (b) the unpaid portion of the aggregate increased base salary that would have been payable to him during the Transition Period if such termination had not occurred. Assuming the occurrence of a Change of Control on December 31, 2006, Mr. Gomez would be entitled to receive (i) a Change of Control Payment of $510,890, with $255,455 payable on December 31, 2006 and $255,455 (plus accrued interest) payable on June 30, 2007, and (ii) at a minimum, an increased salary of $156,780 payable over the first six months of the Transition Period. Assuming further that Mr. Gomez's employment was terminated without Cause or for Good Reason immediately following the Change of Control on December 31, 2006, he would be entitled to receive a lump sum payment of $667,670 (in lieu of the payments described in the preceding sentence or any Termination Payments).

Finally, if a Change of Control occurs within six months after the termination of the employment agreement without Cause or for Good Reason (or within 12 months of such termination if, prior to such termination, Hollywood Media was involved in documented negotiations that resulted in such Change of Control), then Mr. Gomez shall be entitled to receive, in lieu of receiving any additional Termination Payments as described above, a lump sum payment equal to (A) the Change of Control Payment plus (B) the aggregate increased base salary that would have been payable to him during the Transition Period if such termination had not occurred minus (C) any Termination Payments paid to Mr. Gomez prior to the date of the Change of Control. Assuming the occurrence of a Change of Control on December 31, 2006, Mr. Gomez would be entitled to receive a lump sum payment of $667,670.

Retainer and Meeting Fees

Directors of Hollywood Media who are neither employees nor consultants (non-employee directors) are compensated at the rate of $2,500 for each meeting of the Board of Directors attended in person, $500 for each meeting of the Board attended by telephone, and $500 for each committee meeting attended. Directors are reimbursed for travel and lodging expenses in connection with their attendance at meetings.

Directors Stock Option Plan

Hollywood Media's shareholder-approved Directors Stock Option Plan (the Directors Plan) provides for automatic grants of stock options to each non-employee director, as follows: (1) an initial grant of an option to purchase 15,000 shares of common stock at the time such person first becomes appointed to the Board, and (2) an annual grant of an option to purchase 15,000 shares of common stock on the date of each annual meeting of Hollywood Media's shareholders at which the director is reelected. A total of 300,000 shares of common stock have been reserved for issuance upon exercise of options granted under the Directors Plan. As of December 31, 2006, there were an aggregate of 19,057 options available for future grant under the Directors Plan.

The exercise price per share of any option granted under the Directors Plan is the Fair Market Value per share of common stock (based on the prevailing stock market price per share of common stock, as defined in the Directors Plan) on the date preceding the date the option is granted. These options become exercisable six months after the date of grant and expire ten years after the date of grant, subject to earlier termination upon certain conditions as provided in the plan. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, may cancel all options granted under the Directors Plan that remain unexercised on the date of consummation of certain corporate transactions described in the Directors Plan. No grants may be made under the Directors Plan after July 1, 2008 unless the plan is extended.

(2) Hollywood Media has four shareholder-approved equity compensation plans: the 2004 Stock Incentive Plan, 2000 Stock Incentive Plan, 1993 Stock Option Plan, and the Directors Stock Option Plan. No additional grants of stock options may be made under the 1993 Stock Option Plan because the period for granting options under that plan expired in July 2003. In addition to stock options, each of the 2004 Stock

Incentive Plan and the 2000 Stock Incentive Plan permit the granting of stock awards and other forms of equity compensation and, as of December 31, 2006, the number of shares available for granting additional awards was 699,694 shares under the 2004 Stock Incentive Plan and 191,052 shares under the 2000 Stock Incentive Plan. Additional information about such plans and awards is provided in Note (3) and other Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements included in Item 8 of Hollywood Media's 2006 Form 10-K filed with the SEC.

- (3) Equity compensation not approved by security holders consists primarily of warrants or other equity purchase rights granted to non-employees of Hollywood Media. Additional information about such equity compensation is provided in Note (3) and other Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements included in Item 8 of Hollywood Media's 2006 Form 10-K filed with the SEC.

Item 13. CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS, AND DIRECTOR INDEPENDENCE.

Transactions with Related Persons

Scott Gomez has been an executive officer of Hollywood Media since April 2003. Hollywood Media has employed his father, Jose Gomez, since December 2000 in information systems and business development positions, not as an executive officer, with total 2006 cash compensation (salary and bonus) of $325,277.09. Such employment is currently pursuant to an employment agreement with Hollywood Media entered into in December 13, 2005, as amended on February 7, 2007, which includes, among other things, current salary at an annual rate of $229,500; provided, that for the period from February 1, 2007 through July 31, 2007, Mr. Gomez's salary has been reduced by fifty percent to an annual rate of $114,750, during which time the services provided by Mr. Gomez have also been curtailed by fifty percent.

Review, Approval or Ratification of Transactions with Related Persons

The matters disclosed above under the caption Transactions with Related Persons are disclosed pursuant to Item 404(a) of SEC Regulation S-K. This paragraph is provided under Item 404(b) of SEC Regulation S-K, to describe Hollywood Media's policies and procedures for the review, approval, or ratification of transactions required to be reported under Item 404(a) of SEC Regulation S-K. Hollywood Media's policy is and has been to comply with the requirements of Nasdaq corporate governance rule 4350(h), which requires review and approval of related party transactions required to be disclosed pursuant to Item 404 of SEC Regulation S-K, and that such approval be made by the audit committee or another independent body of the board of directors. Hollywood Media's directors have been made aware of the Nasdaq rule 4350(h) requirements from time to time pursuant to notice provided in written actions of the Board and/or Committees of the Board as well as discussed in Board and/or Committee meetings, and in addition such approval requirements are recognized in the Charter of the Audit Committee; however, as of the date of this Form 10-K/A Hollywood Media has not implemented written policies designating specified procedures or standards for compliance with Nasdaq rule 4350(h). Item 404 transactions are generally reviewed and approved or ratified on a case-by-case basis by a committee of independent directors by meeting or written consent, usually by Hollywood Media's Audit Committee or Compensation Committee. There are no transactions since the beginning of 2006 required to be reported under paragraph Item 404(a) of SEC Regulation S-K that did not require review, approval or ratification or as to which such approval requirements were not followed.

Director Independence

Hollywood Media's Board of Directors consists of six directors. The Board has determined that a majority of the current members of the Board (Harry T. Hoffman, Robert E. McAllan, Deborah J. Simon, and Ira A. Rosenberg) are independent directors of Hollywood Media as defined under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and rules thereunder and under the listing rules of the Nasdaq Stock Market. In making this determination, the Board has concluded that none of these independent Board members has a relationship which, in the opinion of the Board, would interfere with the exercise of independent judgment in carrying out the responsibilities of a director.

The indicated fees of Ernst & Young LLP (Ernst) for 2005 were for Ernst s SAS 100 review of interim unaudited financial statements for the quarter ended March 31, 2005, which review was conducted prior to Hollywood Media s engagement of Kaufman, and did not include any audit fees.

The fee types referenced in the above table, are defined as follows:

All Other Fees are fees billed by Hollywood Media's principal auditing firm for any services not included in the foregoing fee categories.

Audit Committee Pre-Approval Policies and Procedures

SEC rules require that audit services and permitted non-audit services provided by our principal auditing firm be pre-approved by our Audit Committee. Such rules permit such pre-approval to be given either through explicit approval by the Audit Committee on a case-by-case basis, or pursuant to pre-approval policies and procedures as may be established by the Audit Committee from time to time.

For the period January 1, 2005 through the date of this Form 10-K/A, the Audit Committee has not adopted pre-approval policies covering such period or future periods. Accordingly, any services provided by our principal auditing firm during the period January 1, 2005 through the date of this Form 10-K/A were approved by the Audit Committee on a case-by-case basis. However, in the future the Audit Committee may adopt pre-approval policies and procedures in accordance with applicable rules.
