If the subject report could not be filed without unreasonable effort or expense and the registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b), the following should be completed. (Check box if appropriate)

- (a) The reason described in reasonable detail in Part III of this form could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense
- (b) The subject annual report, semi-annual report, transition report on Form 10-K, Form 20-F, Form 11-K, Form N-SAR or Form N-CSR, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date; or the subject quarterly report or transition report on Form 10-Q or subject distribution report on Form 10-D, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date; and

PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The Company is unable to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2007 at this time because the Company is in the process of restating its audited financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006 as well as other financial information included in the Company's 2006 Annual Report on Form 10-K and the unaudited financial statements included in its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2007. The Company currently expects to restate revenue associated with approximately 15 software contracts valued at approximately $2 million and to recognize the associated revenue with the majority of these contracts over a 20 quarter period following completion of software installation at each respective customer site. All such contracts were signed prior to January 1, 2006. The contracts at issue include both a license of software and related maintenance and support. In consultation with its independent public accountant, the Company has determined that, with respect to these contracts, it should recognize the entire value of the bundled contracts as revenue over the period for which maintenance and support may be provided to the customer. This approach is different from the Company's historical practice of recognizing the fair value of the software principally in the initial year of the contract and the fair value of the maintenance over the maintenance period.

As of the date hereof, the restatement has not yet been completed, and accordingly, the financial statements to be included in the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2007 have not been finalized, and the Company's independent public accountant has not completed its review of those financial statements.

Merge Technologies Incorporated
Form 12b-25 With Respect to Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for Quarterly Period Ended September 30, 2007

PART IV

The Company announced the estimated impact of the restatement of its financial statements on previously reported revenues for the years ended December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006 and each quarter thereafter on a press release filed with a Current Report on Form 8-K filed on November 1, 2007. However, such restatement is not complete. Accordingly, the Company is not in a position at this time to provide a reasonable estimate of anticipated changes, if any, in other elements of its results of operations for the quarter ended September 30, 2007 that may be reflected in the statements of operation to be included in the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2007.
