Benchmark Comments on ISS Recommendation

Urges Shareholders to Vote "FOR" Benchmark Director Nominees on the WHITE Proxy Card

ANGLETON, Texas, April 28, 2016 -- Benchmark Electronics, Inc. (NYSE: BHE) today issued the following statement regarding a recent report by Institutional Shareholder Services ("ISS"). The report relates to the election of directors to Benchmark's Board of Directors at the Company's 2016 Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held on May 11, 2016:

We are pleased that ISS supports the election of six of Benchmark's experienced director nominees. We are also pleased that ISS has recommended Benchmark shareholders vote AGAINST Engaged Capital's nominee, Brendan Springstubb. However, we believe that ISS has reached the wrong conclusion in failing to recommend that shareholders elect ALL of Benchmark's highly qualified director nominees. The Benchmark Board recommends that shareholders vote FOR ALL of the Company's nominees by voting the WHITE proxy card today.

As stated in its report, ISS acknowledges that "The company's governance profile hits many of the right notes. The board is significantly independent and annually elected, key committees are entirely independent, the chairman is an independent director, simple majority votes are required for mergers and to amend governing documents, 10 percent of shareholders may call a special meeting, and the company does not have a poison pill."¹

We strongly disagree with ISS' assessment of Engaged Capital director nominees, Robert Gifford and Jeffrey McCreary. Both Mr. Gifford and Mr. McCreary lack relevant business experience and qualifications when compared to Benchmark's nominees.

Engaged Capital has not provided any ideas that add to the actions that Benchmark already has underway. In fact, over the past year, Engaged Capital has presented to the Board and management a series of proposals that were poorly conceived and that Engaged Capital subsequently abandoned once the Board and management invested meaningful time and resources to evaluate and respond to them. We believe the ill-informed strategies that it has advocated reduce Engaged Capital's credibility and demonstrate its unfamiliarity with the EMS industry and Benchmark.

Benchmark's eight directors possess critical knowledge of the Company and our industry that is crucial to the successful execution of management's strategy. Under the leadership of the Board and management team, Benchmark has made significant progress on its portfolio transformation strategy to achieve near- and long-term revenue growth and continued profitability and enhance value for all shareholders.

By voting for Benchmark's experienced nominees, shareholders will ensure that the Company can continue to execute on its strategy that has and will continue to deliver meaningful benefits to shareholders.

Benchmark strongly encourages shareholders to vote "FOR" Benchmark's eight highly qualified director nominees on the WHITE proxy card today. Whether or not you plan to attend the Annual Meeting, you have an opportunity to protect your investment in Benchmark by voting the WHITE proxy card. Shareholders are urged to vote today by telephone, by internet, or by signing and dating the WHITE proxy card. Please do not return or otherwise vote any blue proxy card sent by Engaged Capital. If any shareholder has already sent back the blue card, they can still change their vote using the WHITE proxy card to support the Benchmark Board's highly qualified director nominees.
