NOT FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DANIELSON HOLDING CORPORATION
REACHES DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT TO ACQUIRE AMERICAN COMMERCIAL LINES

DANIELSON INTENDS TO LAUNCH A
$42 MILLION RIGHTS OFFERING AT $5.00 PER SHARE

Transaction to recapitalize, and restructure outstanding debt of,
American Commercial Lines

JEFFERSONVILLE, IN/NEW YORK, NY - MARCH 18, 2002 - American Commercial Lines LLC (ACL) and Danielson Holding Corporation (AMEX:DHC) today announced the execution of a definitive recapitalization agreement on March 15, 2002 for the acquisition of ACL by Danielson. The holders of more than two thirds of ACL's outstanding senior notes, substantially all the indirect preferred and common members of ACL and the management of ACL have agreed to support the recapitalization plan. ACL's senior lenders have executed forbearance agreements pending the negotiation and execution of definitive documentation relating to the amendment and restatement of ACL's senior secured credit facility.

Under the terms of the recapitalization agreement, Danielson will acquire 100% of the membership interests of American Commercial Lines Holdings LLC, ACL's parent holding company. ACL's present indirect preferred equity holders (that are not members of ACL management) will receive $7.0 million in cash. ACL's management will receive approximately $1.7 million of restricted Danielson common stock. In addition, Danielson will deliver $25.0 million in cash, which will be used to reduce borrowings under ACL's senior credit facility, and approximately $58.5 million of ACL's outstanding senior notes to ACL Holdings in connection with the transaction. The recapitalization is expected to close in the second quarter of 2002.

The transaction will result in a reduction of ACL's senior secured bank debt by $25.0 million. In addition, the parties will seek to restructure ACL's 10 1/4% senior notes due 2008 through an exchange offer and consent solicitation. Upon the successful completion of the exchange offer and consent solicitation, up to approximately $236.5 million of ACL's outstanding senior notes (all notes held by parties other than Danielson) will be exchanged for $120.0 million of new 11 1/4% cash pay senior notes due January 1, 2008 and approximately $116.5 million of new 12% pay-in-kind senior subordinated notes due July 1, 2008. ACL will also issue additional new cash pay senior notes in an aggregate principal amount (not to exceed $20.0 million) equal to the accrued and unpaid interest on its outstanding senior notes, other than those held by Danielson, and to the extent that such accrued and unpaid interest exceeds $20.0 million, additional pay-in-kind senior subordinated notes in an amount equal to such excess would be issued in full satisfaction of such accrued and unpaid interest.

In connection with these transactions, Danielson expects to effect a $42 million rights offering to its existing security holders, the proceeds of which will be used to fund Danielson's cash contribution for the recapitalization and for general corporate purposes. Consummation of the recapitalization agreement is not conditioned on the successful completion of the rights offering. Under the terms of the rights offering, holders of Danielson common stock will be entitled to purchase additional shares of Danielson's common stock, at a subscription price of $5.00 per share, up to such holders' pro rata share of the rights offering. This announcement does not constitute notice of the commencement of the rights offering. Further information regarding the terms and conditions for the expected rights offering will be announced prior to the commencement of the rights offering.

The recapitalization agreement provides that the exchange offer and consent solicitation will be made in reliance on a registration exemption provided by Section 3(a)(9) under the Securities Act of 1933, conditioned on the minimum participation of 95% of the outstanding principal amount of ACL's outstanding senior notes, as to which noteholders holding more than two thirds of the outstanding principal amount of such notes have agreed to tender. In the event that the exchange offer and consent solicitation is not consummated by June 15, 2002, the recapitalization agreement provides for the implementation of the recapitalization through a voluntary prepackaged bankruptcy plan under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code, as to which noteholders holding more than two thirds of the outstanding principal amount of ACL's outstanding senior notes have agreed to accept.

American Commercial Lines LLC is an integrated marine transportation and service company operating approximately 5,100 barges and 200 towboats on the inland waterways of North and South America.
