HEALTHSOUTH ANNOUNCES VOLUNTARY RESIGNATION OF JOHN S. CHAMBERLIN AS DIRECTOR

BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA -- HealthSouth Corporation (OTC Pink Sheets: HLSH) today announced that John S. "Jack" Chamberlin has voluntarily resigned from the HealthSouth Board of Directors effective today as part of the previously announced board transition plan. In the past twelve months, HealthSouth has added six new directors and expects another to join in September, as previously announced.

Robert P. May, Chairman of the Board of HealthSouth, said, "We want to thank Jack for his many years of dedicated service and tireless efforts on behalf of HealthSouth and its shareholders. His work over the past 18 months, especially his leadership role in recruiting new board members and chairing the CEO Search Committee, has been an important part in HealthSouth's turnaround efforts and in helping set a new course for the future."

"It has been an honor and privilege to serve as a director of HealthSouth and to guide the Company on its way to recovery," said Chamberlin. "I believe that HealthSouth is well positioned to move ahead and I wish the employees and my fellow board members every success."

necessarily estimates based upon current information, involve a number of risks and uncertainties and are made pursuant to the "safe harbor" provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. HealthSouth's actual results may differ materially from the results anticipated in these forward-looking statements as a result of a variety of factors. While it is impossible to identify all such factors, factors which could cause actual results to differ materially from those estimated by HealthSouth include, but are not limited to: the investigations by the Department of Justice and the Securities and Exchange Commission into HealthSouth's financial reporting and related activity calling into question the accuracy of the Company's previously filed financial statements; HealthSouth's statement that as a result of the investigations, the Company's previously filed financial statements should no longer be relied upon and may result in the Company restating its prior financial statements; the withdrawal by HealthSouth's former accountants of their audit reports on all of the Company's previously filed financial statements; the outcome of pending litigation relating to these matters; significant changes in HealthSouth's management team; HealthSouth's ability to successfully amend, restructure and/or renegotiate its existing indebtedness or cure or receive a waiver of the events of default under such agreements, the failure of which may result in HealthSouth filing a voluntary petition for bankruptcy; HealthSouth's ability to continue to operate in the ordinary course and manage its relationships with its creditors, including its lenders, bondholders, vendors and suppliers, employees and customers; changes, delays in or suspension of reimbursement for HealthSouth's services by governmental or private payors; changes in the regulation of the healthcare industry at either or both of the federal and state levels; changes to or delays in the implementation of the prospective payment system for inpatient rehabilitation services; competitive pressures in the healthcare industry and HealthSouth's response thereto; HealthSouth's ability to obtain and retain favorable arrangements with third-party payors; general conditions in the economy and capital markets; and other factors which may be identified from time to time in the Company's SEC filings and other public announcements.
