Item 8.01. Other Events

Anthracite Capital, Inc. (the "Company" or "Anthracite") reported the following results on November 3, 2004:

On November 3, 2004, the Company reported net income available to common stockholders for the third quarter of 2004 of $0.28 per share versus a net loss to common stockholders of $0.51 per share for the same three-month period last year. For the nine months ended September 30, 2004, net income available to common stockholders was $0.41 per share versus a net loss of $0.60 per share for the nine months ended September 30, 2003.

Chris Milner, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, stated, "In the third quarter we slowed our pace of investment as new capital continued to enter the commercial mortgage-backed security market. We committed to five Controlling Class commercial mortgage-backed security transactions in the first half of 2004, and in response to tighter spreads and lower credit enhancement levels we expect to close only two additional transactions in the second half of 2004. We sold over $68,000 of investment grade CMBS and issued $12,850 of secured debt that was retained from our December 2002 collateralized debt obligation taking advantage of favorable market conditions. In October 2004 we priced another collateralized debt obligation, which is expected to generate approximately $77,000 of reinvestable cash. We expect to deploy these proceeds into the committed CMBS transactions as well as additional commercial loan investments. During the month of October 2004 we have closed on $69,000 of commercial loans. For the remainder of 2004 and into 2005 we will continue to focus on opportunities in the commercial mortgage loan sector and will continue to take an opportunistic approach to commercial mortgage-backed securities."

Richard Shea, Chief Operating Officer and Chief Financial Officer of the Company, added, "Our tactical investment approach has resulted in a portfolio that has been very well received by rating agencies and collateralized debt obligation investors. Therefore, we have been able to match fund substantially all of our commercial mortgage-backed securities while realizing significant spread tightening on our seasoned bonds. The overall result has been an increase in book value, as adjusted for the expected closing of the October 2004 CDO, of $1.98 per share since December 31, 2003."

The Company's debt to capital ratio decreased from 7.5:1 at June 30, 2004 to 6.8:1 at September 30, 2004, and non-recourse borrowing decreased slightly from 1.9:1 to 1.8:1.

Total interest income from commercial real estate assets before the effect of the consolidation of the commercial mortgage loan pools rose 36% from the quarter ended September 30, 2003; in contrast, total interest income from RMBS declined 66% for the same period. The Company believes interest income before the effect of the consolidation of the commercial mortgage loan pools better reflects interest earned on the Company's commercial real estate assets. The chart below summarizes the Company's interest income from commercial real estate assets before the effect of the consolidation of the commercial mortgage loan pools for the quarters ended September 30, 2004 and 2003, respectively.

	For the quarter ended September 30,
	2004	2003

Edgar Filing: ANTHRACITE CAPITAL INC - Form 8-K

Income from:
Commercial real estate securities	$32,408	$26,125
Commercial mortgage loan pools	13,715	-

Total income from commercial real estate assets before the effect of the consolidation of commercial mortgage loan pools
	$38,600	$28,285
	$38,600	$28,285

The Company's weighted average cost of funds increased to 5.04% at September 30, 2004 from 3.86% at September 30, 2003 due to higher interest costs associated with the Company's collateralized debt obligation ("CDO") that closed in March 2004. For the three months ended September 30, 2004 and 2003, respectively, hedging expenses not related to CDOs decreased to $3,825 ($0.07 per share), from $5,496 ($0.11 per share); however, this is an increase of $677 from $3,148 ($0.06 per share) at June 30, 2004. The Company's estimated exposure to a 50 basis point move in short-term interest rates decreased to approximately $0.013 per share annually from approximately $0.026 cents per share annually at June 30, 2004.

The Company's $396,140 RMBS portfolio at September 30, 2004 represents 11% of the Company's portfolio assets. This portfolio is expected to remain between 10% and 15% of the Company's total portfolio assets.

Capital Markets Activity/Liquidity

In July 2004 the Company issued a bond with a par of $12,850 from its December 2002 CDO transaction. Before issuing this security, the Company amended the indenture to reduce the coupon from 9.0% to 7.6%. The Company continues to maintain liquidity in its high credit quality commercial real estate assets and RMBS portfolio. As of September 30, 2004, total assets in these portfolios net of borrowings is $64,619.

Commercial Real Estate Credit Risk

The Company's primary focus is to invest in a diverse portfolio of commercial real estate loans and commercial mortgage-backed securities ("CMBS"). The majority of these investments take the form of CMBS that are collateralized by pools of underlying mortgage loans. The cash flow the Company receives from its CMBS is dependent upon the credit performance of the underlying mortgage loans. The Company assumes a certain amount of losses will occur in the underlying mortgage loan pools and reports income net of these losses. The Company's objective is to maximize the spread between the loss-adjusted income and the cost of financing. Credit performance and the cost of financing the Company's portfolio are the most important factors affecting investment returns.

Credit Performance of Controlling-Class CMBS Investments

The Company considers CMBS securities where it maintains the right to control the foreclosure/workout process on the underlying loans as controlling class CMBS ("Controlling Class CMBS"). At the end of the third quarter of 2004, the Company's Controlling Class CMBS represent $18,550,866 of original balance of underlying commercial mortgage loans compared to $17,596,422 at the end of the second quarter of 2004. As of September 30, 2004, the current par balance of underlying loans securing the Company's Controlling Class portfolio is $16,696,851. The number of Controlling Class CMBS transactions owned by the Company increased from thirteen to fourteen during the third quarter of 2004. One of the Controlling Class CMBS transactions is not accounted for as available-for-sale securities, but rather as "Commercial Mortgage Loan Pools" as previously disclosed in the Company's 10-Q filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on August 9, 2004.

Edgar Filing: ANTHRACITE CAPITAL INC - Form 8-K

Delinquencies of 30 days or more as a percent of current loan balances were 1.24% at the end of the third quarter of 2004, compared with 1.22% at the end of the second quarter of 2004. With the disposition of four loans during the third quarter of 2004, the weighted average loss severity experienced for the 1998 and 1999 Controlling Class securities decreased from 32.7% at June 30, 2004 to 31.1% at September 30, 2004. No losses have been realized for those Controlling Class securities with vintages from 2001 through 2004 and the Company does not own any 2000 vintage Controlling Class securities. Overall, credit performance remains consistent with underwritten expectations. Additionally, during the third quarter of 2004 the Company experienced one credit upgrade on one Controlling Class CMBS in the Company's portfolio.

Commercial Real Estate Securities

The Company sold $58,663 of investment grade CMBS and $9,573 of CMBS interest only securities during the third quarter. Included in the $58,663 of investment grade CMBS is $5,847 of the BBB- rated bond of the Controlling Class CMBS that is classified as commercial mortgage loan pools on the Company's consolidated financial statements. The average yield on the Company's commercial real estate securities (primarily investment grade and below investment grade CMBS, investment grade REIT debt, and CMBS interest only securities) for the third quarter of 2004 was 8.3%, while the average loss adjusted yield on only the below investment grade CMBS was 9.4%. The average yield on the Company's commercial real estate securities (primarily investment grade and below investment grade CMBS, investment grade REIT debt, and CMBS interest only securities) for the third quarter of 2003 was 8.5%, while the average loss adjusted yield on only the below investment grade CMBS was 9.9%. The average cost of financing the commercial real estate securities portfolio during the third quarter of 2004 was 5.1% compared to 5.2% for the third quarter of 2003.

Net interest income from the commercial real estate securities portfolio for the quarters ended September 30, 2004 and 2003, respectively, is as follows:

	For the quarter ended September 30,
	2004	2003
Interest Income	$32,408	$26,125
Interest Expense*	(18,107)	(12,540)
Net Interest Income	14,301	13,585

*Including hedges in the Company's CDOs.

Commercial Real Estate Loans

The Company acquired $118,403 of new commercial loans during the quarter at an average yield of 8.8% and none of the existing assets matured or were sold. The average yield on the Company's commercial real estate loan portfolio for the quarter ended September 30, 2004 was 12.2% compared with 10.4% for the quarter ended September 30, 2003. For the three months ended September 30, 2004 and 2003, respectively, the total cost of borrowings secured by loan assets was 3.3% and 2.8%. The Company has two committed warehouse lines that can be used to finance these commercial loan assets. The Company's investment in Carbon Capital, Inc. ("Carbon Capital") is included in commercial real estate loans. The annualized yield on the Company's investment in Carbon Capital was 17.1% for the quarter ended September 30, 2004. The Company's investment in Carbon Capital as of September 30, 2004 was $44,664.

Edgar Filing: ANTHRACITE CAPITAL INC - Form 8-K

Net interest income from the commercial real estate loan portfolio for the quarters ended September 30, 2004 and 2003, respectively, is as follows:

	For the quarter ended September 30,
	2004	2003
Interest Income	$5,123	$2,160
Interest Expense	(424)	(136)
Net Interest Income from Commercial Real Estate Loans	$4,699	$2,024

Book Value

Net book value per share at the end of the third quarter of 2004 was $7.72. This is an increase of approximately 12.2% from $6.88 at June 30, 2004 due primarily to lower interest rates and tighter credit spreads. During the quarter, Ten-Year Treasury interest rates decreased by 46 basis points and credit spreads decreased by approximately 40 basis points. As the Company's portfolio matures, unrealized losses on credit sensitive CMBS securities are expected to decline provided that the Company's credit loss estimates and actual experience are comparable. The unrealized loss on all Controlling Class CMBS at September 30, 2004 was $35,609.

Subsequent Event

On October 21, 2004, the Company priced a CDO secured by a portfolio of below investment grade CMBS ("Collateral"). The transaction will be accounted for as a sale under relevant accounting guidelines. The Company will receive total consideration of $158,032 consisting of net cash of $121,479 and CDO securities with a fair market value of $36,553 in exchange for the Collateral. The Collateral was carried at a fair market value of $109,933 on the Company's September 30, 2004 consolidated statement of financial condition based on price quotes received from third parties. The difference between total consideration received and the carrying value of the Collateral will increase book value by $48,099, or $0.90 per diluted common share in the fourth quarter of 2004. The following table illustrates the pro forma impact of this transaction on September 30, 2004 reported book value per share:

Book value at September 30, 2004	$7.72	$411,101
Realized and unrealized gains	0.31	16,636
Increase in other comprehensive income	0.59	31,463
Net increase in book value	0.90	48,099
Pro Forma book value at September 30, 2004*	$8.62	$459,200

*Assumes no other changes occur in the market or the Company's portfolio.

The recognition of this gain increases the likelihood that the Company will incur incentive fee expense commencing in the fourth quarter of 2004. Incentive fees are computed using net income based on a rolling four-quarter period (see further discussion in the Company's 10-Q filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on May 10, 2004.) Any recognition of such expense in the fourth quarter of 2004 is not expected to have a material impact on reported earnings.

Dividend Reinvestment Plan

If you are a participant in the Company's Dividend Reinvestment and Stock Purchase Plan (the "Plan"), please note that the dividend reinvestment portion
