Item 4. Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant

On February 11, 2003, VisiJet, Inc. ("the Company") dismissed Mendoza Berger & Company, L.L.P. ("Mendoza") as its independent auditors.

During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001, and the subsequent interim period through the date of the dismissal of Mendoza, there have been no disagreements on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of Mendoza, would have caused it to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreements in connection with its report. During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001 and through the date of dismissal, there have been no "reportable events" (as that term is defined in Regulation S-K Item 304(a) (1) (v)).

During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001 or the subsequent interim period through the date of Mendoza's dismissal, Mendoza did not advise the Company that the internal controls necessary for the Company to develop reliable financial statements were inadequate.

No report of Mendoza on the financial statements of the Company for the year ended December 31, 2001 contained an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion or was qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles, except that the report for the year ended December 31, 2001 stated that the Company's accumulated losses and lack of working capital raised substantial doubt about its ability to continue as a going concern.
