NOTES TO INTERIM UNAUDITED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 1 - NATURE OF BUSINESS AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

NATURE OF BUSINESS: Eye Dynamics, Inc. (the "Company") designs, develops, produces and markets diagnostic equipment that measures, tracks and records human eye movements, utilizing the Company's proprietary technology and computer software. The products perform separate, but related, functions and target two separate markets. First, the Company markets a neurological diagnostic product that tracks and measures eye movements during a series of standardized tests, as an aid in diagnosing problems of the vestibular (balance) system and other balance disorders. Second, the Company's impairment detection devices target the corporate and criminal justice markets and are designed to test individuals for impaired performance resulting from the influences of alcohol, drugs, illness, stress and other factors that affect eye and pupil performance. The Company is a Nevada corporation formed in 1989.

A summary of significant accounting policies follows:

PRESENTATION OF INTERIM INFORMATION: The financial information at March 31, 2004 and for the three months ended March 31, 2004 and 2003 is unaudited but includes all adjustments (consisting only of normal recurring adjustments) that the Company considers necessary for a fair presentation of the financial information set forth herein, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("U.S. GAAP") for interim financial information, and with the instructions to Form 10-QSB. Accordingly, such information does not include all of the information and footnotes required by U.S. GAAP for annual financial statements. For further information refer to the Consolidated Financial Statements and footnotes thereto included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-KSB for the year ended December 31, 2003.

The results for the three months ended March 31, 2004 may not be indicative of results for the year ending December 31, 2004 or any future periods.

RECLASSIFICATION: Certain prior period balances have been reclassified to conform to the current period presentation.

NEW ACCOUNTING STANDARDS: In December 2003, the SEC issued Staff Accounting Bulletin (SAB) No. 104, "Revenue Recognition," which codifies, revises and rescinds certain sections of SAB No. 101, "Revenue Recognition," in order to make this interpretive guidance consistent with current authoritative accounting and auditing guidance and SEC rules and regulations. The changes noted in SAB No. 104 did not have a material effect on the Company's results of operations, financial positions or cash flows.

NOTE 2 - WIND DOWN OF SUBSIDIARY

On September 15, 2003, the Board of Directors approved to wind down the Company's sole subsidiary, Oculokinetics, Inc., which was inactive and has no asset or liability as of that date.

NOTE 4 - NET INCOME PER SHARE

The following table sets forth the computation of basic and diluted net income per share for three months ended March 31st:

	2004	2003

	-----	-----
Diluted earnings per common share	$ 0.01	$ 0.01

Approximately, 200,000 shares outstanding stock warrants were excluded from the calculation of diluted earnings per share for 2003 because the exercise price of the stock warrants was greater than the average share price of the common stock and, therefore, the effect would have been antidilutive.

NOTE 5 - INCOME TAXES

The Company accounts for income taxes using a balance sheet approach whereby deferred tax assets and liabilities are determined based on the differences in financial reporting and income tax basis of assets and liabilities. The differences are measured using the income tax rate in effect during the year of measurement.

The Company experienced significant net losses in prior fiscal years resulting in a net operating loss carryforward ("NOLC") for federal income tax purposes of approximately $1,531,790 at December 31, 2003. The Company's NOLC will expire through 2021. The Company also has state NOLC of $901,140, which was suspended in years of 2002 and 2003. The state NOLC will expire through 2013.

NOTE 6 - MAJOR CUSTOMERS

During the three months ended March 31, 2004, two major customers accounted for $463,070 or 76.1% of total revenues.

Special Instrument Dealer 37.0%
Private label distributor 39.1%

During the three months ended March 31, 2003, the private label distributor accounted for $410,764 or 62.9% of total revenues.

NOTE 7 - SEGMENT INFORMATION

Edgar Filing: EYE DYNAMICS INC - Form 10QSB

SFAS No. 131 "Disclosures about Segments of an Enterprise and Related Information" requires that a publicly traded company must disclose information about its operating segments when it presents a complete set of financial statements. Since the subsidiary did not have any operations in 2004 or 2003, and the Company has only one segment; accordingly, detailed information of the reportable segment is not presented.

NOTE 8 - MANUFACTURING, SALES, LICENSING, AND SOFTWARE AGREEMENT

On March 22, 2004, the Company entered into an exclusive manufacturing, sales, and licensing and software ownership agreement with its private label distributor ("Distributor"). Under the terms and conditions of the contract, the Distributor agrees to purchase all of its current and future Video ENG products exclusively from the Company. In addition, the Company grants the Distributor the exclusive marketing rights for all of its Video ENG products throughout the United States.

NOTE 9 - GUARANTEES AND PRODUCT WARRANTIES

The Company from time to time enters into certain types of contracts that contingently require the Company to indemnify parties against third party claims. These contracts primarily relate to: (i) divestiture agreements, under which the Company may provide customary indemnifications to purchasers of the Company's businesses or assets; (ii) certain real estate leases, under which the Company may be required to indemnify property owners for environmental and other liabilities, and other claims arising from the Company's use of the applicable premises; and (iii) certain agreements with the Company's officers, directors and employees, under which the Company may be required to indemnify such persons for liabilities arising out of their employment relationship.

The terms of such obligations vary. Generally, a maximum obligation is not explicitly stated. Because the obligated amounts of these types of agreements often are not explicitly stated, the overall maximum amount of the obligations cannot be reasonably estimated. Historically, the Company has not been obligated to make significant payments for these obligations, and no liabilities have been recorded for these obligations on its balance sheet as of March 31, 2004.

NOTE 9 - GUARANTEES AND PRODUCT WARRANTIES (CONTINUED)

In general, the Company offers a one-year warranty for most of the products it sold. To date, the Company has not incurred any material costs associated with these warranties. The Company provides reserves for the estimated costs of product warranties based on its historical experience of known product failure rates, use of materials to repair or replace defective products and service delivery costs incurred in correcting product failures. In addition, from time to time, specific warranty accruals may be made if unforeseen technical problems arise with specific products. The Company periodically assesses the adequacy of its recorded warranty liabilities and adjusts the amounts as necessary.

The following table presents the changes in the Company's warranty reserve during the first quarter of 2004:

Balance of December 31, 2003	$ 8,044

ITEM 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis or Plan of Operation

THREE MONTHS ENDING MARCH 31, 2004 COMPARED TO THREE MONTHS ENDED MARCH 31, 2003

Revenues from the sale of medical products during the first quarter were $608,976, with a profit after taxes of $140,365. This is a 7% decrease in revenues compared to the same quarter in 2003. Profit after taxes decreased commensurately, but is still 23% of revenues for the quarterly period. Earnings per share of $0.01 is the same as the first quarter of 2003. Slightly lower sales can be attributed to rule changes by Medicare regarding reimbursements for ENG tests, which is always done at the beginning of each year. In addition, a Medicare rule change was made regarding need for increased qualifications of personnel using our products for Video ENG testing. These changes caused many customers to delay their purchases until the Medicare notices are fully clarified.

The private label portion of our business accounted for 39% of revenues for the quarter, as opposed to 58% of revenues during the same quarter of 2003, and reflects the increase in Eye Dynamics brand product sales. The market increase in the ENT segment of the medical market is not substantial, but the neurology and mobile diagnostic testing continues to be successful.

Gross profit for the quarter was 51%, the same as in prior quarters. The Company's goal is to maintain a gross profit of at least 50% for each quarter and year to date. The Company is making efforts to contain expenses and to reduce product costs in order to achieve the gross profit percent goal. Principal operating expense increase in first quarter was insurance, product liability, workers compensation and general liability. Product liability insurance was the greatest change, at four times the rate of 2003.

The Company incurred only the minimum California state income tax because the moratorium on the use of tax loss carryovers for the years 2002 and 2003 expired, and the use of net operating loss carryovers is reinstated. Federal tax loss carryovers were not affected, and because of substantial NOL's, the Company is not required to accrue federal income taxes for 2004.

An agreement was reached with our private label customer, MedTrak Technologies, Inc. of Scottsdale, Arizona, for MedTrak to purchase all its current and future Video ENG products exclusively from Eye Dynamics. In addition, Eye Dynamics granted MedTrak the exclusive marketing rights for all of its Video ENG products throughout the United States. This agreement enhances the future of the company and consummates an evolving, profitable relationship that has grown over the last six years.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Cash and cash equivalents as of March 31, 2004 of $518,413 allows for payment of all outstanding invoices and our single note payment on a current basis. Accounts payable are current and the Company has not borrowed against credit lines.

Inventory of $359,871 at March 31, 2004 includes $25,000 of SafetyScope Impairment Detection Device items, which are not currently being actively marketed, but are used as production samples and demonstrators for capital-raising activities related to that business. The inventory balance of $335,000 represents 2.5 months of consumption, and is balanced in content. However, the amount is too high for the volume of sales and is in process of being reduced to an appropriate level. The higher inventory is the result of a tightening of sales and sufficient time has not yet passed to reduce the inventory to an acceptable level.

Accounts receivable of $366,000 represents almost 60 days accounts receivable aging, which is acceptable, but efforts to reduce it to a 30 day level have shown some progress. The company's private label customer makes payments within the net 15 days term of sale. We are encouraging other customers to utilize leasing and credit cards with more frequency, providing for quicker collection of receivables.

The Company continues to seek financing for the business plan to commercialize the SafetyScope product, which is an Impairment Detection Device. The plan requires substantial financial resources to fully implement the commercialization of the product. Discussions and explorations of strategic alliances are ongoing with the goal of securing the financing; however the Company has no arrangements or agreements as to any such financing.

The Company continues to search out and evaluate other products and alliances to enhance its product lines and to augment revenues. The search for new products is an ongoing project.

Sales prospects for the rest of the year are encouraging. Customers are now moving forward with purchases that had been delayed earlier in the year.

Item 3. Controls and Procedures.

Under the supervision and with the participation of our Chief Executive and Financial Officer, we conducted an evaluation of our disclosure controls and procedures, as such term is defined under Rule 13a-14(c) promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), within 90 days of the filing date of this report. Based on this evaluation, our Chief Executive and Financial Officer concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures are effective. Disclosure controls and procedures are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed in reports under the Exchange Act are processed and reported within the time periods specified by law.

Since the date of the evaluation described above, there have been no significant changes in our internal controls or in other factors that could significantly affect these controls.
