RALPH LAUREN CORPORATION

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(In millions, except per share data and where otherwise indicated)

(Unaudited)

1. Description of Business

Ralph Lauren Corporation ("RLC") is a global leader in the design, marketing, and distribution of premium lifestyle products, including apparel, accessories, home furnishings, and other licensed product categories. RLC's long-standing reputation and distinctive image have been developed across an expanding number of products, brands, sales channels, and international markets. RLC's brand names include Ralph Lauren, Ralph Lauren Collection, Ralph Lauren Purple Label, Polo Ralph Lauren, Double RL, Lauren Ralph Lauren, Polo Ralph Lauren Children, Chaps, and Club Monaco, among others. RLC and its subsidiaries are collectively referred to herein as the "Company," "we," "us," "our," and "ourselves," unless the context indicates otherwise.

The Company diversifies its business by geography (North America, Europe, and Asia, among other regions) and channel of distribution (wholesale, retail, and licensing). This allows the Company to maintain a dynamic balance as its operating results do not depend solely on the performance of any single geographic area or channel of distribution. The Company's wholesale sales are made principally to major department stores and specialty stores around the world, as well as to certain unrelated third party-owned stores to which the Company has licensed the right to operate in defined geographic territories using its trademarks. The Company also sells directly to consumers through its integrated retail channel, which includes its retail stores, concession-based shop-within-shops, and digital commerce operations around the world. In addition, the Company licenses to unrelated third parties for specified periods the right to access its various trademarks in connection with the licensees' manufacture and sale of designated products, such as certain apparel, eyewear, fragrances, and home furnishings.

The Company organizes its business into the following three reportable segments: North America, Europe, and Asia. In addition to these reportable segments, the Company also has other non-reportable segments. See Note 17 for further discussion of the Company's segment reporting structure.

2. Basis of Presentation

Interim Financial Statements

These interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and are unaudited. In the opinion of management, these consolidated financial statements contain all normal and recurring adjustments necessary to present fairly the consolidated financial position, income, comprehensive income, and cash flows of the Company for the interim periods presented. In addition, certain information and disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the U.S. ("U.S. GAAP") and the notes thereto have been condensed or omitted from this report as is permitted by the SEC's rules and regulations. However, the Company believes that the disclosures provided herein are adequate to prevent the information presented from being misleading. This report should be read in conjunction with the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the SEC for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2018 (the "Fiscal 2018 10-K").

Basis of Consolidation

These unaudited interim consolidated financial statements present the consolidated financial position, income, comprehensive income, and cash flows of the Company, including all entities in which the Company has a controlling financial interest and is determined to be the primary beneficiary. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

Fiscal Periods

The Company utilizes a 52-53 week fiscal year ending on the Saturday closest to March 31. As such, fiscal year 2019 will end on March 30, 2019 and will be a 52-week period ("Fiscal 2019"). Fiscal year 2018 ended on March 31, 2018 and was also a

52-week period ("Fiscal 2018"). The second quarter of Fiscal 2019 ended on September 29, 2018 and was a 13-week period. The second quarter of Fiscal 2018 ended on September 30, 2017 and was also a 13-week period.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make certain estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and notes thereto. Actual results could differ materially from those estimates.

Significant estimates inherent in the preparation of the consolidated financial statements include reserves for bad debt, customer returns, discounts, end-of-season markdowns, operational chargebacks, and certain cooperative advertising allowances; the realizability of inventory; reserves for litigation and other contingencies; useful lives and impairments of long-lived tangible and intangible assets; fair value measurements; accounting for income taxes and related uncertain tax positions; valuation of stock-based compensation awards and related estimated forfeiture rates; reserves for restructuring activity; and accounting for business combinations, among others.

Reclassifications

Certain reclassifications have been made to the prior period's financial information in order to conform to the current period's presentation.

Seasonality of Business

The Company's business is typically affected by seasonal trends, with higher levels of wholesale sales in its second and fourth fiscal quarters and higher retail sales in its second and third fiscal quarters. These trends result primarily from the timing of seasonal wholesale shipments and key vacation travel, back-to-school, and holiday shopping periods impacting our retail business. As a result of changes in our business, consumer spending patterns, and the macroeconomic environment, historical quarterly operating trends and working capital requirements may not be indicative of our future performance. In addition, fluctuations in sales, operating income, and cash flows in any fiscal quarter may be affected by other events affecting retail sales, such as changes in weather patterns. Accordingly, the Company's operating results and cash flows for the three-month and six-month periods ended September 29, 2018 are not necessarily indicative of the operating results and cash flows that may be expected for the full Fiscal 2019.

3. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenue across all segments of the business when it satisfies its performance obligations by transferring control of promised products or services to its customers, which occurs either at a point in time or over time, depending on when the customer obtains the ability to direct the use of and obtain substantially all of the remaining benefits from the products or services. The amount of revenue recognized considers terms of sale that create variability in the amount of consideration that the Company ultimately expects to be entitled to in exchange for the products or services, and is subject to an overall constraint that a significant revenue reversal will not occur in future periods. Sales and other related taxes collected from customers and remitted to government authorities are excluded from revenue.

Revenue within the Company's wholesale business is generally recognized upon shipment of products, at which point title passes and risk of loss is transferred to the customer. In certain arrangements where the Company retains the risk of loss during shipment, revenue is recognized upon receipt of products by the customer. Wholesale revenue is recorded net of estimates of returns, discounts, end-of-season markdowns, operational chargebacks, and certain cooperative advertising allowances. Returns and allowances require pre-approval from management and discounts are based on trade terms. Estimates for end-of-season markdown reserves are based on historical trends, actual and forecasted seasonal results, an evaluation of current economic and market conditions, retailer performance, and, in certain cases, contractual terms. Estimates for operational chargebacks are based on actual customer notifications of order fulfillment discrepancies and historical trends. The Company reviews and refines these estimates on at least a quarterly basis. The Company's historical estimates of these amounts have not differed materially from actual results.

Revenue within the Company's retail business is recognized when the customer takes physical possession of the products, which occurs either at the point of sale for merchandise purchased at the Company's retail stores and concession-based shop-within-shops, or upon receipt of shipment for merchandise ordered through direct-to-consumer digital commerce sites. Such revenues are recorded net of estimated returns based on historical trends. Payment is due at the point of sale.

Gift cards issued to customers by the Company are recorded as a liability until they are redeemed, at which point revenue is recognized. The Company also estimates and recognizes revenue for gift card balances not expected to ever be redeemed (referred to as "breakage") to the extent that it does not have a legal obligation to remit the value of such unredeemed gift cards to the relevant jurisdiction as unclaimed or abandoned property. Such estimates are based upon historical redemption trends, with breakage income recognized in proportion to the pattern of actual customer redemptions.

Revenue from the Company's licensing arrangements is recognized over time during the period that licensees are provided access to the Company's trademarks (i.e., symbolic intellectual property) and benefit from such access through their sales of licensed products. These arrangements require licensees to pay a sales-based royalty, which for certain arrangements may be subject to a contractually-guaranteed minimum royalty amount. Payments are generally due quarterly and, depending on time of receipt, may be recorded as a liability until recognized as revenue. The Company recognizes revenue for its sales-based royalty arrangements (including those for which the royalty exceeds any contractually-guaranteed minimum royalty amount) as licensed products are sold by the licensee. If a sales-based royalty is not ultimately expected to exceed a contractually-guaranteed minimum royalty amount, the minimum is recognized as revenue ratably over the contractual period. This sales-based output measure of progress and pattern of recognition best represents the value transferred to the licensee over the term of the arrangement, as well as the consideration that the Company is entitled to in exchange for providing access to its trademarks. As of September 29, 2018, contractually-guaranteed minimum royalty amounts expected to be recognized as revenue during future periods were as follows:

	Contractually-Guaranteed Minimum Royalties ^(a) (millions)
Remainder of Fiscal 2019	$ 53.9
Fiscal 2020	88.5
Fiscal 2021	81.5
Fiscal 2022 and thereafter	65.7
Total	$ 289.6

^(a) Amounts presented do not contemplate anticipated contract renewals or royalties earned in excess of the contractually guaranteed minimums.

See Note 4 for discussion of the Company's adoption of the new revenue recognition accounting standard as of the beginning of the first quarter of Fiscal 2019 and the resulting impact to its consolidated financial statements.

Disaggregated Net Revenues

The following tables disaggregate the Company's net revenues into categories that depict how the nature, amount, timing, and uncertainty of revenues and cash flows are affected by economic factors for the periods presented:

(a) Net revenues from the Company's wholesale and retail businesses are recognized at a point in time. Net revenues from the Company's licensing business are recognized over time.

Deferred Income

Deferred income represents cash payments received in advance of the Company's transfer of control of products or services to its customers and is generally comprised of unredeemed gift cards, net of breakage, and advance royalty payments from licensees. The Company's deferred income balances were $20.0 million and $31.7 million as of September 29, 2018 and March 31, 2018, respectively, and were primarily recorded within accrued expenses and other current liabilities within the consolidated balance sheets. During the three-month and six-month periods ended September 29, 2018, the Company recognized $1.6 million and $14.9 million, respectively, of net revenues from amounts recorded as deferred income as of March 31, 2018. The change in deferred income during the six months ended September 29, 2018 also reflected a reduction of $6.1 million related to the Company's initial adoption of ASU 2014-09 (see Note 4). Substantially all of the deferred income balance as of September 29, 2018 is expected to be recognized as revenue within the next twelve months.

Shipping and Handling Costs

The costs associated with shipping goods to customers are accounted for as fulfillment activities and reflected as a component of selling, general, and administrative ("SG&A") expenses in the consolidated statements of operations. The costs of preparing merchandise for sale, such as picking, packing, warehousing, and order charges ("handling costs") are also included in SG&A expenses. Shipping and handling costs billed to customers are included in revenue.

A summary of shipping and handling costs is as follows:

	Three Months Ended September 29, 2018		Six Months Ended September 29, 2018
	2018	2017	2018	2017
	(millions)
Shipping costs	$10.9	$ 9.4	$19.6	$ 16.7
Handling costs	39.0	38.4	74.7	75.6

Net Income per Common Share

Basic net income per common share is computed by dividing net income attributable to common shares by the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding during the period. Weighted-average common shares include shares of the Company's Class A and Class B common stock. Diluted net income per common share adjusts basic net income per common share for the dilutive effects of outstanding stock options, restricted stock units ("RSUs"), and any other potentially dilutive instruments, only in the periods in which such effects are dilutive.

The weighted-average number of common shares outstanding used to calculate basic net income per common share is reconciled to shares used to calculate diluted net income per common share as follows:

	Three Months Ended		Six Months Ended
	September 30, 2018		September 30, 2017
	2018	2017	2018	2017
	(millions)
Basic shares	81.3	81.7	81.6	81.6
Dilutive effect of stock options and RSUs	1.0	0.6	1.2	0.8
Diluted shares	82.3	82.3	82.8	82.4

All earnings per share amounts have been calculated using unrounded numbers. Options to purchase shares of the Company's Class A common stock at an exercise price greater than the average market price of the common stock during the reporting period are anti-dilutive and therefore not included in the computation of diluted net income per common share. In addition, the Company has outstanding performance-based and market-based RSUs, which are included in the computation of diluted shares only to the extent that the underlying performance or market conditions (i) have been satisfied as of the end of the reporting period or (ii) would be considered satisfied if the end of the reporting period were the end of the related contingency period and the result would be dilutive. As of September 29, 2018 and September 30, 2017, there were 1.5 million and 2.3 million, respectively, of additional shares issuable upon exercise of anti-dilutive options and contingent vesting of performance-based RSUs that were excluded from the diluted shares calculations.

Accounts Receivable

In the normal course of business, the Company extends credit to wholesale customers that satisfy defined credit criteria. Payment is generally due within 30 to 120 days and does not include a significant financing component. Accounts receivable is recorded at carrying value, which approximates fair value, and is presented in the Company's consolidated balance sheets net of certain reserves and allowances. These reserves and allowances consist of (i) reserves for returns, discounts, end-of-season markdowns, operational chargebacks, and certain cooperative advertising allowances (see the "Revenue Recognition" section above for further discussion of related accounting policies) and (ii) allowances for doubtful accounts.

A rollforward of the activity in the Company's reserves for returns, discounts, end-of-season markdowns, operational chargebacks, and certain cooperative advertising allowances is presented below:

Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company sells its wholesale merchandise primarily to major department and specialty stores around the world, and extends credit based on an evaluation of each customer's financial capacity and condition, usually without requiring collateral. In the Company's wholesale business, concentration of credit risk is relatively limited due to the large number of customers and their dispersion across many geographic areas. However, the Company has three key wholesale customers that generate significant sales volume. During Fiscal 2018, the Company's sales to its largest wholesale customer, Macy's, Inc. ("Macy's"), accounted for approximately 8% of total net revenues, and the Company's sales to its three largest wholesale customers, including Macy's, accounted for approximately 19% of total net revenues. Substantially all of the Company's sales to its three largest wholesale customers related to its North America segment. As of September 29, 2018, these three key wholesale customers constituted approximately 34% of total gross accounts receivable.

Inventories

The Company holds inventory that is sold through wholesale distribution channels to major department stores and specialty retail stores. The Company also holds retail inventory that is sold in its own stores and digital commerce sites directly to consumers. Substantially all of the Company's inventories are comprised of finished goods, which are stated at the lower of cost or estimated realizable value, with cost determined on a weighted-average cost basis. Inventory held by the Company totaled $994.6 million, $761.3 million, and $864.6 million as of September 29, 2018, March 31, 2018, and September 30, 2017, respectively.

Derivative Financial Instruments

The Company records all derivative financial instruments on its consolidated balance sheets at fair value. Changes in the fair value of derivative instruments that qualify for hedge accounting are either (i) offset against the changes in fair value of the related hedged assets, liabilities, or firm commitments through earnings or (ii) recognized in equity as a component of accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) ("AOCI") until the hedged item is recognized in earnings, depending on whether the derivative is being used to hedge against changes in fair value or cash flows and net investments, respectively.

Each derivative instrument that qualifies for hedge accounting is expected to be highly effective at reducing the risk associated with the exposure being hedged. For each derivative instrument that is designated as a hedge, the Company formally documents the related risk management objective and strategy, including identification of the hedging instrument, the hedged item, and the risk exposure, as well as how hedge effectiveness will be assessed prospectively and retrospectively over the instrument's term. To assess hedge effectiveness, the Company generally uses regression analysis, a statistical method, to compare the change in the fair value of the derivative instrument to the change in fair value or cash flows of the related hedged item. The extent to which a hedging instrument has been and is expected to remain highly effective in achieving offsetting changes in fair value or cash flows is assessed and documented by the Company on at least a quarterly basis.

As a result of its use of derivative instruments, the Company is exposed to the risk that counterparties to such contracts will fail to meet their contractual obligations. To mitigate this counterparty credit risk, the Company has a policy of only entering into contracts with carefully selected financial institutions based upon an evaluation of their credit ratings and certain other factors, adhering to established limits for credit exposure. The Company's established policies and procedures for mitigating credit risk from derivative transactions include ongoing review and assessment of its counterparties' creditworthiness. The Company also enters into master netting arrangements with counterparties, when possible, to mitigate credit risk associated with its derivative instruments. In the event of default or termination (as such terms are defined within the respective master netting arrangement), these arrangements allow the Company to net-settle amounts payable and receivable related to multiple derivative transactions with the same counterparty. The master netting arrangements specify a number of events of default and termination, including, among others, the failure to make timely payments.

The fair values of the Company's derivative instruments are recorded on its consolidated balance sheets on a gross basis. For cash flow reporting purposes, proceeds received or amounts paid upon the settlement of a derivative instrument are classified in the same manner as the related item being hedged, primarily within cash flows from operating activities.

Cash Flow Hedges

The Company uses forward foreign currency exchange contracts to reduce its risk related to exchange rate fluctuations on inventory transactions made in an entity's non-functional currency, intercompany royalty payments made by certain of its international operations, and the settlement of foreign currency-denominated balances. To the extent forward foreign currency exchange contracts are designated as qualifying cash flow hedges, the related gains or losses are initially deferred in equity as a component of AOCI and are subsequently recognized in the consolidated statements of operations as follows:

- Forecasted Inventory Transactions — recognized as part of the cost of the inventory being hedged within cost of goods sold when the related inventory is sold to a third party.

- Intercompany Royalties/Settlement of Foreign Currency Balances — recognized within other income (expense), net during the period that the hedged balance is remeasured through earnings, generally through its settlement when the related payment occurs.

If it is determined that a derivative instrument has not been highly effective, and will continue not to be highly effective in hedging the designated exposure, hedge accounting is discontinued and further gains (losses) are immediately recognized in earnings within other income (expense), net. Upon discontinuance of hedge accounting, the cumulative change in fair value of the derivative instrument previously recorded in AOCI is recognized in earnings when the related hedged item affects earnings, consistent with the originally-documented hedging strategy, unless the forecasted transaction is no longer probable of occurring, in which case the accumulated amount is immediately recognized in earnings within other income (expense), net.

Hedge of a Net Investment in a Foreign Operation

The Company periodically uses cross-currency swap contracts and forward foreign currency exchange contracts to reduce risk associated with exchange rate fluctuations on certain of its net investments in foreign subsidiaries. Changes in the fair values of such derivative instruments that are designated as qualifying hedges of net investments in foreign operations are recorded in equity as a component of AOCI in the same manner as foreign currency translation adjustments. In assessing the effectiveness of such hedges, the Company uses a method based on changes in spot rates to measure the impact of foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations on both its foreign subsidiary net investment and the related derivative hedging instrument. Under this method, changes in the fair value of the hedging instrument other than those due to changes in the spot rate are initially recorded in AOCI as a translation adjustment, and are amortized into earnings as interest expense using a systematic and rational method over the instrument's term. Changes in fair value associated with the effective portion (i.e., those due to changes in the spot rate) are recorded in AOCI as a translation adjustment and are released and recognized in earnings only upon the sale or liquidation of the hedged net investment.

Fair Value Hedges

Changes in the fair value of a derivative instrument that is designated as a fair value hedge, along with offsetting changes in the fair value of the related hedged item attributable to the hedged risk, are recorded in earnings. To the extent that the change in the fair value of the hedged item does not fully offset the change in the fair value of the hedging instrument, the resulting net impact is reflected in earnings within the income statement line item associated with the hedged item.

Undesignated Hedges

All of the Company's undesignated hedges are entered into to hedge specific economic risks, particularly foreign currency exchange rate risk related to foreign currency-denominated balances. Changes in the fair value of undesignated derivative instruments are immediately recognized in earnings within other income (expense), net. See Note 12 for further discussion of the Company's derivative financial instruments.

4. Recently Issued Accounting Standards

Implementation Costs in Cloud Computing Arrangements

In August 2018, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") No. 2018-15, "Customer's Accounting for Implementation Costs Incurred in a Cloud Computing Arrangement That Is a Service Contract" ("ASU 2018-15"). ASU 2018-15 addresses diversity in practice surrounding the accounting for costs incurred to implement a cloud computing hosting arrangement that is a service contract by establishing a model for capitalizing or expensing such costs, depending on their nature and the stage of the implementation project during which they are incurred. Any capitalized costs are to be amortized over the reasonably certain term of the hosting arrangement and presented in the same line as the service arrangement's fees within the statement of operations. ASU 2018-15 also requires enhanced qualitative and quantitative disclosures surrounding hosting arrangements that are service contracts. ASU 2018-15 is effective for the Company beginning in its fiscal year ending March 27, 2021, with early adoption permitted, and may be adopted on either a retrospective or prospective basis. The Company is currently in the process of evaluating the impact that ASU 2018-15 will have on its consolidated financial statements and related disclosures.

Targeted Improvements to Accounting for Hedging Activities

In August 2017, the FASB issued ASU No. 2017-12, "Targeted Improvements to Accounting for Hedging Activities" ("ASU 2017-12"). ASU 2017-12 amends existing hedge accounting guidance by better aligning an entity's financial reporting with its risk management activities and by simplifying its application. Among its provisions, ASU 2017-12 eliminates the requirement to separately measure and report ineffectiveness for instruments that qualify for hedge accounting, and generally requires that the entire change in fair value of such instruments ultimately be presented in the same income statement line as the respective hedged item. Additionally, the updated guidance reduces the overall complexity of the hedge accounting model, including easing documentation and effectiveness assessment requirements and modifying the treatment of components excluded from the assessment of hedge effectiveness. The new guidance also broadens the scope of risks eligible to qualify for hedge accounting and enhances the understandability of hedge results through amended disclosure requirements. ASU 2017-12 is to be applied using a modified retrospective transition approach, except for the amended presentation and disclosure requirements, which are to be applied prospectively.

The Company early-adopted ASU 2017-12 as of the beginning of the first quarter of Fiscal 2019, which resulted in a cumulative adjustment of $0.7 million, net of tax, to increase its opening retained earnings balance. Overall, the adoption of ASU 2017-12 did not have a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

Intra-Entity Transfers of Assets Other Than Inventory

In October 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-16, "Intra-Entity Transfers of Assets Other Than Inventory" ("ASU 2016-16"). ASU 2016-16 requires recognition of income tax consequences of an intra-entity transfer of an asset other than inventory when the transfer occurs, rather than when the asset has been sold to a third party. The Company adopted ASU 2016-16 as of the beginning of the first quarter of Fiscal 2019 using the modified retrospective method, which resulted in a cumulative adjustment of $0.6 million to reduce its opening retained earnings balance. Overall, the adoption of ASU 2016-16 did not have a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

Leases

In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-02, "Leases" ("ASU 2016-02"). ASU 2016-02 requires that a lessee's rights and fixed payment obligations under most leases be recognized as right-of-use assets and lease liabilities on the consolidated balance sheet. ASU 2016-02 retains a dual model for classifying leases as either financing or operating, which governs the pattern of expense recognition to be reflected in the consolidated statement of operations. Variable lease payments based on performance, such as percentage-of-sales-based payments, will not be included in the measurement of right-of-use assets and lease liabilities. Rather, consistent with current practice, such amounts will be recognized as an expense in the period incurred.

The Company is currently in the process of evaluating the impact that ASU 2016-02 will have on its consolidated financial statements and related disclosures. The Company's assessment efforts to date have included reviewing the standard's provisions and gathering information to evaluate the landscape of its real estate, personal property, and other arrangements that may meet the definition of a lease. Based on these efforts, the Company currently anticipates that the adoption of ASU 2016-02 will result in a significant increase to its long-term assets and liabilities as, at a minimum, most of its current operating lease commitments will be subject to balance sheet recognition. The standard also requires enhanced quantitative and qualitative lease-related disclosures. Recognition of lease expense in the consolidated statement of operations is not anticipated to significantly change.

The Company will adopt ASU 2016-02 in the first quarter of its fiscal year ending March 28, 2020 ("Fiscal 2020") using a modified retrospective approach under which the cumulative effect of initially applying the standard will be recognized as an adjustment to opening Fiscal 2020 retained earnings, with no restatement of prior year amounts. In connection therewith, the Company anticipates it will apply an optional package of practical expedients intended to ease transition to the standard by, among its provisions, allowing the Company to carryforward its original lease classification conclusions (i.e., financing or operating) without reassessment. The Company is also evaluating which, if any, of certain other expedients it will elect upon adoption, including the use of hindsight in assessing factors that impact determination of the lease term, such as the likelihood that any renewal or purchase options are exercised.

Revenue from Contracts with Customers

In May 2014, the FASB issued ASU No. 2014-09, "Revenue from Contracts with Customers" ("ASU 2014-09"). ASU 2014-09 provides a single, comprehensive accounting model for revenues arising from contracts with customers that supersedes most previously existing revenue recognition guidance, including industry-specific guidance. Under this model, revenue, representing the amount that an entity expects to be entitled to in exchange for providing promised goods or services (i.e., performance obligations), is recognized upon control of promised goods or services transferring to a customer. ASU 2014-09 also requires enhanced qualitative and quantitative revenue-related disclosures. After its original issuance, the FASB issued several additional related ASUs to address implementation concerns and further amend and clarify certain guidance within ASU 2014-09.

The Company adopted ASU 2014-09 as of the beginning of the first quarter of Fiscal 2019 using the modified retrospective method and applied the standard to all contracts as of the adoption date. The adoption of ASU 2014-09 did not have a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements, as the performance obligations underlying its core revenue streams (i.e., its retail and wholesale businesses) and the timing of recognition thereof, remain substantially unchanged. Revenues for these businesses are generated through the sale of finished products, and continue to be recognized at the point in time when merchandise is transferred to the customer and in an amount that considers the impacts of estimated returns, end-of-season markdowns, and other allowances that are variable in nature. For its licensing business, the Company continues to recognize revenue, including any contractually-guaranteed minimum royalty amounts, over time consistent with historical practice.

The Company's adoption of ASU 2014-09 did have an impact on its accounting for certain ancillary items. Specifically, certain costs associated with the marketing of merchandise to wholesale customers for a particular selling season are now expensed as incurred, rather than deferred and expensed over the course of the season. Additionally, revenue related to gift card breakage is now recognized in proportion to the pattern of actual customer redemptions, rather than when the likelihood of redemption becomes remote. As a result of applying these changes and in order to transition to ASU 2014-09, the Company reduced (i) prepaid expenses and other current assets by $12.1 million related to certain previously deferred wholesale marketing costs and (ii) accrued expenses and other current liabilities by $6.1 million related to outstanding gift cards, which together resulted in a net cumulative adjustment to reduce opening retained earnings by $5.2 million, net of tax, as of the beginning of the first quarter of Fiscal 2019. In addition to these changes, inventory amounts associated with estimated sales returns, which were $19.8 million as of September 29, 2018, are now presented within prepaid expenses and other current assets in the consolidated balance sheet, rather than within inventories. Other than these changes, the Company's adoption of ASU 2014-09 did not have a material impact on its consolidated balance sheet as of September 29, 2018 or its consolidated statements of operations, comprehensive income, and cash flows for the six months ended September 29, 2018. Prior periods have not been restated and continue to be reported under the accounting standards in effect during those periods.

See Note 3 for a detailed discussion regarding the Company's revenue recognition accounting policy.

See Note 11 for further discussion of the non-cash impairment charges recorded by the Company during the fiscal periods presented.

8. Restructuring and Other Charges

A description of significant restructuring and other activities and related costs is included below.

Fiscal 2019 Restructuring Plan

On June 4, 2018, the Company's Board of Directors approved a restructuring plan associated with the Company's strategic objective of operating with discipline to drive sustainable growth (the "Fiscal 2019 Restructuring Plan"). The Fiscal 2019 Restructuring Plan includes the following restructuring-related activities: (i) the rightsizing and consolidation of the Company's global distribution network and corporate offices; (ii) targeted severance-related actions; and (iii) closure of certain of its stores and shop-within-shops.

In connection with the Fiscal 2019 Restructuring Plan, the Company expects to incur total estimated charges of approximately $100 million to $150 million, comprised of cash-related charges of approximately $70 million to $110 million and non-cash charges of approximately $30 million to $40 million.

A summary of the charges recorded in connection with the Fiscal 2019 Restructuring Plan during the three-month and six-month periods ended September 29, 2018 is as follows:

Way Forward Plan

On June 2, 2016, the Company's Board of Directors approved a restructuring plan with the objective of delivering sustainable, profitable sales growth and long-term value creation for shareholders (the "Way Forward Plan"). The Company is refocusing on its core brands and evolving its product, marketing, and shopping experience to increase desirability and relevance. It is also evolving its operating model to enable sustainable, profitable sales growth by significantly improving quality of sales, reducing supply chain lead times, improving its sourcing, and executing a disciplined multi-channel distribution and expansion strategy. As part of the Way Forward Plan, the Company is rightsizing its cost structure and implementing a return on investment-driven financial model to free up resources to invest in the brand and drive high-quality sales. The Way Forward Plan included strengthening the Company's leadership team and creating a more nimble organization by moving from an average of nine to six layers of management. The Way Forward Plan also included the discontinuance of the Company's Denim & Supply brand and the integration of its denim product offerings into its Polo Ralph Lauren brand. Collectively, these actions, which were substantially completed during the Company's fiscal year ended April 1, 2017 ("Fiscal 2017"), resulted in a reduction in workforce and the closure of certain stores and shop-within-shops.

On March 30, 2017, the Company's Board of Directors approved the following additional restructuring-related activities associated with the Way Forward Plan: (i) the restructuring of its in-house global digital commerce platform which was in development and shifting to a more cost-effective, flexible platform through a new agreement with Salesforce's Commerce Cloud, formerly known as Demandware; (ii) the closure of its Polo store at 711 Fifth Avenue in New York City; and (iii) the further streamlining of the organization and the execution of other key corporate actions in line with the Company's Way Forward Plan. These actions are an important part of the Company's efforts to achieve its stated objective to return to sustainable, profitable growth and invest in the future. These additional restructuring-related activities were largely completed during Fiscal 2018 and resulted in a further reduction in workforce and the closure of certain corporate office and store locations. The remaining activities, which are primarily lease-related, are expected to be completed during Fiscal 2019.

In connection with the Way Forward Plan, the Company currently expects to incur total estimated charges of approximately $790 million, comprised of cash-related restructuring charges of approximately $490 million and non-cash charges of approximately $300 million. Cumulative charges incurred since inception were $677.5 million and the Company expects the remaining charges of approximately $115 million will be recorded during the remainder of Fiscal 2019. In addition to these charges, the Company also incurred an additional non-cash charge of $155.2 million during Fiscal 2017 associated with the destruction of inventory out of current liquidation channels in line with its Way Forward Plan.

As of September 29, 2018, the remaining restructuring reserve related to the Company's restructuring plan initiated during its fiscal year ended April 2, 2016 ("Fiscal 2016") was $1.4 million, reflecting $3.2 million of cash payments made during the six months ended September 29, 2018. No other activity occurred in connection with this restructuring plan during the six months ended September 29, 2018. Refer to Note 9 of the Fiscal 2018 10-K for additional discussion regarding this restructuring plan.

Other Charges

The Company recorded other charges of $3.5 million during each of the three-month periods ended September 29, 2018 and September 30, 2017 and $7.0 million during each of the six-month periods ended September 29, 2018 and September 30, 2017 related to depreciation expense associated with the Company's former Polo store at 711 Fifth Avenue in New York City, recorded after the store closed during the first quarter of Fiscal 2018 in connection with the Way Forward Plan. Although the Company is no longer generating revenue or has any other economic activity associated with its former Polo store, it continues to incur depreciation expense due to its involvement at the time of construction.

During the six months ended September 29, 2018, the Company also recorded other charges of $4.2 million, primarily related to its customs audit (see Note 13).

Additionally, during the six months ended September 30, 2017, the Company recorded other charges of $6.7 million (inclusive of accelerated stock-based compensation expense of $2.1 million), primarily related to the departure of Mr. Stefan Larsson as the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer and as a member of its Board of Directors, effective as of May 1, 2017. Refer to the Form 8-K filed on February 2, 2017 for additional discussion regarding the departure of Mr. Larsson.

These other charges were partially offset by the favorable impact of $2.2 million related to the reversal of reserves associated with the settlement of certain non-income tax issues during the second quarter of Fiscal 2018.

9. Income Taxes

U.S. Tax Reform

On December 22, 2017, President Trump signed into law new tax legislation commonly referred to as the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act (the "TCJA"), which became effective January 1, 2018. The TCJA significantly revised U.S. tax law by, among other provisions, lowering the U.S. federal statutory income tax rate from 35% to 21%, creating a territorial tax system that includes a one-time mandatory transition tax on previously deferred foreign earnings, and eliminating or reducing certain income tax deductions.

ASC Topic 740, "Income Taxes," requires the effects of changes in tax laws to be recognized in the period in which the legislation is enacted. However, due to the complexity and significance of the TCJA's provisions, the SEC staff issued Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 118 ("SAB 118") on December 22, 2017, which allows companies to record the tax effects of the TCJA on a provisional basis based on a reasonable estimate, and then, if necessary, subsequently adjust such amounts during a limited measurement period as more information becomes available. The measurement period ends when a company has obtained, prepared, and analyzed the information necessary to finalize its accounting, but cannot extend beyond one year from enactment.

During the third quarter of Fiscal 2018, the Company recorded charges of $231.3 million within its income tax provision in connection with the TCJA, of which $215.5 million related to the mandatory transition tax and $15.8 million related to the revaluation of the Company's deferred tax assets and liabilities. Subsequently, as a result of finalizing its full Fiscal 2018 operating results, the issuance of new interpretive guidance, and other analyses performed, the Company recorded measurement period adjustments during the fourth quarter of Fiscal 2018, whereby it reversed $6.2 million of the charges related to the mandatory transition tax and $5.5 million related to the revaluation of its deferred taxes. These reversals were partially offset by an incremental charge of $1.8 million related to the expected future remittance of certain previously deferred foreign earnings.

During the second quarter of Fiscal 2019, the Company recorded an additional measurement period adjustment as a result of the issuance of new interpretive guidance related to stock-based compensation for certain executives, whereby it recorded an income tax benefit and corresponding deferred tax asset of $4.7 million. This measurement period adjustment reduced the Company's effective tax rate by 220 basis points and 130 basis points during the three-month and six-month periods ended September 29, 2018, respectively.

These cumulative net charges were recorded on a provisional basis based on the Company's present interpretations of the TCJA and are subject to further refinement as additional information becomes available, including potential new or interpretative guidance issued by the FASB or the Internal Revenue Service and other tax agencies, and as further analyses are completed. The Company expects to finalize its accounting for the enactment-related impacts of the TCJA during the third quarter of Fiscal 2019.

The Company is also in the process of assessing various international taxation provisions of the TCJA that became effective for the Company beginning in the first quarter of Fiscal 2019, including a minimum tax on global intangible low-taxed income ("GILTI"). The Company has tentatively decided to account for GILTI tax in the period in which it is incurred and therefore has not provided any deferred tax impacts of GILTI in its consolidated financial statements for the six months ended September 29, 2018. The Company will continue to evaluate this policy election during the remainder of Fiscal 2019.

Effective Tax Rate

The Company's effective tax rate, which is calculated by dividing each fiscal period's income tax provision by pretax income, was 20.7% and 19.7% during the three-month and six-month periods ended September 29, 2018, respectively, and 24.8% and 26.9% during the three-month and six-month periods ended September 30, 2017, respectively. The effective tax rates for the three-month and six-month periods ended September 29, 2018 were slightly lower than the U.S. federal statutory income tax rate of 21% reflecting the favorable impact of the SAB 118 measurement period adjustment recorded during the second quarter of Fiscal 2019, as previously discussed. The effective tax rates for the three-month and six-month periods ended September 30, 2017 were lower than the U.S. federal statutory income tax rate of 35% as a result of the proportion of earnings generated in lower taxed foreign jurisdictions versus the U.S., partially offset by the negative impact of the adoption of ASU No. 2016-09, "Improvements to Employee Share-Based Payment Accounting" ("ASU 2016-09"). Refer to Note 4 of the Fiscal 2018 10-K for further discussion of the Company's adoption of ASU 2016-09.

Uncertain Income Tax Benefits

The Company classifies interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits as part of its income tax provision. The total amount of unrecognized tax benefits, including interest and penalties, was $80.0 million and $79.2 million as of September 29, 2018 and March 31, 2018, respectively, and is included within non-current liability for unrecognized tax benefits in the consolidated balance sheets.

The total amount of unrecognized tax benefits that, if recognized, would affect the Company's effective tax rate was $70.9 million and $68.4 million as of September 29, 2018 and March 31, 2018, respectively.

Future Changes in Unrecognized Tax Benefits

The total amount of unrecognized tax benefits relating to the Company's tax positions is subject to change based on future events including, but not limited to, settlements of ongoing tax audits and assessments and the expiration of applicable statutes of limitations. Although the outcomes and timing of such events are highly uncertain, the Company does not anticipate that the balance of gross unrecognized tax benefits, excluding interest and penalties, will change significantly during the next twelve months. However, changes in the occurrence, expected outcomes, and timing of such events could cause the Company's current estimate to change materially in the future.

The Company files a consolidated U.S. federal income tax return, as well as tax returns in various state, local, and foreign jurisdictions. The Company is generally no longer subject to examinations by the relevant tax authorities for years prior to its fiscal year ended April 3, 2010.

The carrying value of the 2.125% Senior Notes as of March 31, 2018 reflects adjustments of $1.6 million associated with the Company's related interest rate swap contract (see Note 12), and is also presented net of unamortized debt issuance costs and discount of $0.3 million.

The carrying value of the 2.625% Senior Notes as of September 29, 2018 and March 31, 2018 reflects adjustments of $10.6 million and $10.8 million, respectively, associated with the Company's related interest rate swap contract (see Note 12). The carrying value of the 2.625% Senior Notes is also presented net of unamortized debt issuance costs and discount of $0.9 million and $1.2 million as of September 29, 2018 and March 31, 2018, respectively.

The carrying value of the 3.750% Senior Notes is presented net of unamortized debt issuance costs and discount of $4.6 million as of September 29, 2018.

Senior Notes

In August 2015, the Company completed a registered public debt offering and issued $300 million aggregate principal amount of unsecured senior notes due August 18, 2020, which bear interest at a fixed rate of 2.625%, payable semi-annually (the "2.625% Senior Notes"). The 2.625% Senior Notes were issued at a price equal to 99.795% of their principal amount. The proceeds from this offering were used for general corporate purposes.

In August 2018, the Company completed another registered public debt offering and issued an additional $400 million aggregate principal amount of unsecured senior notes due September 15, 2025, which bear interest at a fixed rate of 3.750%, payable semi-annually (the "3.750% Senior Notes"). The 3.750% Senior Notes were issued at a price equal to 99.521% of their principal amount. The proceeds from this offering were used for general corporate purposes, including repayment of the Company's previously outstanding $300 million principal amount of unsecured 2.125% senior notes that matured September 26, 2018 (the "2.125% Senior Notes").

The Company has the option to redeem the 2.625% Senior Notes and 3.750% Senior Notes (collectively, the "Senior Notes"), in whole or in part, at any time at a price equal to accrued and unpaid interest on the redemption date, plus the greater of (i) 100% of the principal amount of the series of Senior Notes to be redeemed or (ii) the sum of the present value of Remaining Scheduled Payments, as defined in the supplemental indentures governing such Senior Notes (together with the indenture governing the Senior Notes, the "Indenture"). The Indenture contains certain covenants that restrict the Company's ability, subject to specified exceptions, to incur certain liens; enter into sale and leaseback transactions; consolidate or merge with another party; or sell, lease, or convey all or substantially all of the Company's property or assets to another party. However, the Indenture does not contain any financial covenants.

Commercial Paper

In May 2014, the Company initiated a commercial paper borrowing program (the "Commercial Paper Program") that allowed it to issue up to $300 million of unsecured commercial paper notes through private placement using third-party broker-dealers. In May 2015, the Company expanded its Commercial Paper Program to allow for a total issuance of up to $500 million of unsecured commercial paper notes.

Borrowings under the Commercial Paper Program are supported by the Global Credit Facility, as defined below. Accordingly, the Company does not expect combined borrowings outstanding under the Commercial Paper Program and Global Credit Facility to exceed $500 million. Commercial Paper Program borrowings may be used to support the Company's general working capital and corporate needs. Maturities of commercial paper notes vary, but cannot exceed 397 days from the date of issuance. Commercial paper notes issued under the Commercial Paper Program rank equally with the Company's other forms of unsecured indebtedness. As of September 29, 2018, there were no borrowings outstanding under the Commercial Paper Program.

Revolving Credit Facilities

Global Credit Facility

In February 2015, the Company entered into an amended and restated credit facility (which was further amended in March 2016) that provides for a $500 million senior unsecured revolving line of credit through February 11, 2020 (the "Global Credit Facility") under terms and conditions substantially similar to those previously in effect. The Global Credit Facility is also used to support the issuance of letters of credit and the maintenance of the Commercial Paper Program. Borrowings under the Global Credit Facility may be denominated in U.S. Dollars and other currencies, including Euros, Hong Kong Dollars, and Japanese Yen. The Company has the ability to expand its borrowing availability under the Global Credit Facility to $750 million, subject to the agreement of one or more new or existing lenders under the facility to increase their commitments. There are no mandatory reductions in borrowing ability throughout the term of the Global Credit Facility. As of September 29, 2018, there were no borrowings outstanding under the Global Credit Facility and the Company was contingently liable for $10.2 million of outstanding letters of credit.

The Global Credit Facility contains a number of covenants that, among other things, restrict the Company's ability, subject to specified exceptions, to incur additional debt; incur liens; sell or dispose of assets; merge with or acquire other companies; liquidate or dissolve itself; engage in businesses that are not in a related line of business; make loans, advances, or guarantees; engage in transactions with affiliates; and make certain investments. The Global Credit Facility also requires the Company to maintain a maximum ratio of Adjusted Debt to Consolidated EBITDAR (the "leverage ratio") of no greater than 3.75 as of the date of measurement for the four most recent consecutive fiscal quarters. Adjusted Debt is defined generally as consolidated debt outstanding plus four times consolidated rent expense for the four most recent consecutive fiscal quarters. Consolidated EBITDAR is defined generally as consolidated net income plus (i) income tax expense, (ii) net interest expense, (iii) depreciation and amortization expense, (iv) consolidated rent expense, (v) restructuring and other non-recurring expenses, and (vi) acquisition-related costs. As of September 29, 2018, no Event of Default (as such term is defined pursuant to the Global Credit Facility) has occurred under the Company's Global Credit Facility.

Pan-Asia Credit Facilities

Certain of the Company's subsidiaries in Asia have uncommitted credit facilities with regional branches of JPMorgan Chase (the "Banks") in China and South Korea (the "Pan-Asia Credit Facilities"). These credit facilities are subject to annual renewal and may be used to fund general working capital and corporate needs of the Company's operations in the respective countries. Borrowings under the Pan-Asia Credit Facilities are guaranteed by the parent company and are granted at the sole discretion of the Banks, subject to availability of the Banks' funds and satisfaction of certain regulatory requirements. The Pan-Asia Credit Facilities do not contain any financial covenants. The Company's Pan-Asia Credit Facilities by country are as follows:

China Credit Facility — provides Ralph Lauren Trading (Shanghai) Co., Ltd. with a revolving line of credit of up to 50 million Chinese Renminbi (approximately $7 million) through April 3, 2019, which is also able to be used to support bank guarantees.

South Korea Credit Facility — provided Ralph Lauren (Korea) Ltd. with a revolving line of credit of up to 47 billion South Korean Won (approximately $42 million) through October 31, 2018. During the third quarter of Fiscal 2019, the Company renewed the South Korea Credit Facility through October 31, 2019, with a reduced borrowing capacity of up to 30 billion South Korean Won (approximately $27 million).

During the first quarter of Fiscal 2019, the Company repaid approximately $10 million in borrowings that were previously outstanding under its Pan-Asia Credit Facilities. As of September 29, 2018, there were no borrowings outstanding under the Pan-Asia Credit Facilities.

11. Fair Value Measurements

U.S. GAAP establishes a three-level valuation hierarchy for disclosure of fair value measurements. The determination of the applicable level within the hierarchy for a particular asset or liability depends on the inputs used in its valuation as of the measurement date, notably the extent to which the inputs are market-based (observable) or internally-derived (unobservable). A financial instrument's categorization within the valuation hierarchy is based upon the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement. The three levels are defined as follows:

Level 1 — inputs to the valuation methodology based on quoted prices (unadjusted) for identical assets or liabilities in active markets.

Level 2 — inputs to the valuation methodology based on quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets for substantially the full term of the financial instrument; quoted prices for identical or similar instruments in markets that are not active for substantially the full term of the financial instrument; and model-derived valuations whose inputs or significant value drivers are observable.

Level 3 — inputs to the valuation methodology based on unobservable prices or valuation techniques that are significant to the fair value measurement.

The following table summarizes the Company's financial assets and liabilities that are measured and recorded at fair value on a recurring basis, excluding accrued interest components:

	September 29, 2018
	March 31, 2018
	(millions)
Investments in commercial paper ^{(a)(b)}	$286.9	$234.2
Derivative assets ^(a)	13.7	12.3
Derivative liabilities ^(a)	40.1	110.0

^(a) Based on Level 2 measurements.

As of September 29, 2018, $19.9 million was included within cash and cash equivalents and $267.0 million was included within short-term investments in the consolidated balance sheet. As of March 31, 2018, $15.0 million was included within cash and cash equivalents and $219.2 million was included within short-term investments in the consolidated balance sheet.

The Company's investments in commercial paper are classified as available-for-sale and recorded at fair value in its consolidated balance sheets using external pricing data, based on interest rates and credit ratings for similar issuances with the same remaining term as the Company's investments. To the extent the Company invests in bonds, such investments are also classified as available-for-sale and recorded at fair value in its consolidated balance sheets based on quoted prices in active markets.

The Company's derivative financial instruments are recorded at fair value in its consolidated balance sheets and are valued using pricing models that are primarily based on market observable external inputs, including spot and forward currency exchange rates, benchmark interest rates, and discount rates consistent with the instrument's tenor, and consider the impact of the Company's own credit risk, if any. Changes in counterparty credit risk are also considered in the valuation of derivative financial instruments.

The Company's cash and cash equivalents, restricted cash, and time deposits are recorded at carrying value, which approximates fair value based on Level 1 measurements.

The Company's debt instruments are recorded at their carrying values in its consolidated balance sheets, which may differ from their respective fair values. The fair values of the senior notes are estimated based on external pricing data, including available quoted market prices, and with reference to comparable debt instruments with similar interest rates, credit ratings, and trading frequency, among other factors. The fair values of the Company's commercial paper notes and borrowings outstanding under its credit facilities, if any, are estimated using external pricing data, based on interest rates and credit ratings for similar issuances with the same remaining term as the Company's outstanding borrowings. Due to their short-term nature, the fair values of the Company's commercial paper notes and borrowings outstanding under its credit facilities, if any, generally approximate their carrying values.

The following table summarizes the carrying values and the estimated fair values of the Company's debt instruments:

	September 29, 2018	March 31, 2018
	Carrying Value ^(a)	Carrying Value ^(a)	Fair Value ^(b)
	(millions)

$400 million 3.750% Senior Notes	395.2	—	—
Borrowings outstanding under credit facilities	—	10.1	10.1

(a) See Note 10 for discussion of the carrying values of the Company's senior notes.

(b) Based on Level 2 measurements.

Unrealized gains or losses resulting from changes in the fair value of the Company's debt do not result in the realization or expenditure of cash, unless the debt is retired prior to its maturity.

Non-financial Assets and Liabilities

The Company's non-financial assets, which primarily consist of goodwill, other intangible assets, and property and equipment, are not required to be measured at fair value on a recurring basis and are reported at carrying value. However, on a periodic basis or whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that their carrying value may not be fully recoverable (and at least annually for goodwill and indefinite-lived intangible assets), non-financial assets are assessed for impairment and, if applicable, written down to and recorded at fair value, considering external market participant assumptions.

During the six-month periods ended September 29, 2018 and September 30, 2017, the Company recorded non-cash impairment charges of $11.1 million and $20.9 million, respectively, to fully write off the carrying values of certain long-lived assets based upon their assumed fair values of zero. The fair values of these assets were determined based on Level 3 measurements. Inputs to these fair value measurements included estimates of the amount and timing of the assets' net future discounted cash flows based on historical experience, current trends, and market conditions. See Note 7 for further discussion of the non-cash impairment charges recorded by the Company during the fiscal periods presented.

No goodwill impairment charges were recorded during either of the six-month periods ended September 29, 2018 or September 30, 2017. The Company performed its annual goodwill impairment assessment using a qualitative approach as of the beginning of the second quarter of Fiscal 2019. In performing the assessment, the Company identified and considered the significance of relevant key factors, events, and circumstances that affected the fair values and/or carrying amounts of its reporting units with allocated goodwill. These factors included external factors such as macroeconomic, industry, and market conditions, as well as entity-specific factors, such as the Company's actual and expected financial performance. Additionally, the results of the Company's most recent quantitative goodwill impairment test indicated that the fair values of these reporting units significantly exceeded their respective carrying values. Based on the results of its qualitative goodwill impairment assessment, the Company concluded that it is not more likely than not that the fair values of its reporting units are less than their respective carrying values, and there were no reporting units at risk of impairment.

12. Financial Instruments

Derivative Financial Instruments

The Company is exposed to changes in foreign currency exchange rates, primarily relating to certain anticipated cash flows and the value of the reported net assets of its international operations, as well as changes in the fair value of its fixed-rate debt obligations attributed to changes in a benchmark interest rate. Consequently, the Company uses derivative financial instruments to manage and mitigate such risks. The Company does not enter into derivative transactions for speculative or trading purposes.

The following table summarizes the Company's outstanding derivative instruments on a gross basis as recorded in its consolidated balance sheets as of September 29, 2018 and March 31, 2018:

The Company records and presents the fair values of all of its derivative assets and liabilities in its consolidated balance sheets on a gross basis, even when they are subject to master netting arrangements. However, if the Company were to offset and record the asset and liability balances of all of its derivative instruments on a net basis in accordance with the terms of each of its master netting arrangements, spread across eight separate counterparties, the amounts presented in the consolidated balance sheets as of September 29, 2018 and March 31, 2018 would be adjusted from the current gross presentation as detailed in the following table:

As of September 29, 2018, it is estimated that $11.8 million of pretax net gains on both outstanding and matured derivative instruments designated as cash flow hedges deferred in AOCI will be recognized in earnings over the next twelve months. The amounts ultimately recognized in earnings will depend on exchange rates in effect when outstanding derivative instruments are settled.

The following table summarizes the pretax impact of gains and losses from the Company's undesignated derivative instruments on its consolidated financial statements for the three-month and six-month periods ended September 29, 2018 and September 30, 2017:

Risk Management Strategies

Forward Foreign Currency Exchange Contracts

The Company uses forward foreign currency exchange contracts to reduce its risk related to exchange rate fluctuations on inventory transactions made in an entity's non-functional currency, intercompany royalty payments made by certain of its international operations, the settlement of foreign currency-denominated balances, and the translation of certain foreign operations' net assets into U.S. dollars. As part of its overall strategy to manage the level of exposure to the risk of foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations, primarily to changes in the value of the Euro, the Japanese Yen, the South Korean Won, the Australian Dollar, the Canadian Dollar, the British Pound Sterling, the Swiss Franc, the Swedish Krona, the Chinese Renminbi, the New Taiwan Dollar, and the Hong Kong Dollar, the Company hedges a portion of its foreign currency exposures anticipated over a two-year period. In doing so, the Company uses forward foreign currency exchange contracts that generally have maturities of two months to two years to provide continuing coverage throughout the hedging period of the respective exposure.

Interest Rate Swap Contracts

During Fiscal 2016, the Company entered into two pay-floating rate, receive-fixed rate interest rate swap contracts which it designated as hedges against changes in the respective fair values of its fixed-rate 2.125% Senior Notes and its fixed-rate 2.625% Senior Notes, attributed to changes in a benchmark interest rate (the "Interest Rate Swaps"). The interest rate swap related to the 2.125% Senior Notes (the "2.125% Interest Rate Swap"), which matured on September 26, 2018 in conjunction with the maturity of the related debt, had a notional amount of $300 million and swapped the fixed interest rate on the 2.125% Senior Notes for a variable interest rate based on the 3-month London Interbank Offered Rate ("LIBOR") plus a fixed spread. The interest rate swap related to the 2.625% Senior Notes (the "2.625% Interest Rate Swap"), which matures on August 18, 2020 and also has a notional amount of $300 million, swaps the fixed interest rate on the 2.625% Senior Notes for a variable interest rate based on 3-month LIBOR plus a fixed spread. Changes in the fair values of the Interest Rate Swaps were offset by changes in the fair values of the 2.125% Senior Notes and 2.625% Senior Notes attributed to changes in the benchmark interest rate, with no resulting net impact reflected in earnings during any of the fiscal periods presented. The following table summarizes the carrying values of the 2.125% and 2.625% Senior Notes and the impacts of the related fair value hedging adjustments as of September 29, 2018 and March 31, 2018, as applicable:

Hedged Item	Balance Sheet Line in which the Hedged Item is Included	Carrying Value of the Hedged Item		Cumulative Amount of Fair Value Hedging Adjustment Included in the Carrying Value of the Hedged Item
		September 29, 2018	March 31, 2018	September 29, 2018	March 31, 2018

$300 million 2.625% Senior Notes	Long-term debt	$288.5	288.0	$(10.6)	(10.8)

Cross-Currency Swap Contracts

During Fiscal 2016, the Company entered into two pay-floating rate, receive-floating rate cross-currency swap contracts, with notional amounts of €280 million and €274 million, that were designated as hedges of its net investment in certain of its European subsidiaries. The €280 million notional cross-currency swap, which was settled during the second quarter of Fiscal 2019, swapped the U.S. Dollar-denominated variable interest rate payments based on 3-month LIBOR plus a fixed spread (as paid under the 2.125% Interest Rate Swap discussed above) for Euro-denominated variable interest rate payments based on the 3-month Euro Interbank Offered Rate ("EURIBOR") plus a fixed spread, which, in conjunction with the 2.125% Interest Rate Swap, economically converted the Company's previously-outstanding $300 million fixed-rate 2.125% Senior Notes obligation to a €280 million floating-rate Euro-denominated obligation. Similarly, the €274 million notional cross-currency swap, which matures on August 18, 2020, swaps the U.S. Dollar-denominated variable interest rate payments based on 3-month LIBOR plus a fixed spread (as paid under the 2.625% Interest Rate Swap discussed above) for Euro-denominated variable interest rate payments based on 3-month EURIBOR plus a fixed spread, which, in conjunction with the 2.625% Interest Rate Swap, economically converts the Company's $300 million fixed-rate 2.625% Senior Notes obligation to a €274 million floating-rate Euro-denominated obligation.

Additionally, in August 2018, the Company entered into pay-fixed rate, receive-fixed rate cross-currency swap contracts with an aggregate notional amount of €346 million that were designated as hedges of its net investment in certain of its European subsidiaries. These contracts, which mature on September 15, 2025, swap the U.S.

Dollar-denominated fixed interest rate payments on the Company's 3.750% Senior Notes for Euro-denominated 1.29% fixed interest rate payments, thereby economically converting the Company's $400 million fixed-rate 3.750% Senior Notes obligation to a €346 million fixed-rate 1.29% Euro-denominated obligation.

See Note 3 for further discussion of the Company's accounting policies relating to its derivative financial instruments.

Investments
As of September 29, 2018, the Company's short-term investments consisted of $1.053 billion of time deposits and $267.0 million of commercial paper, and its non-current investments consisted of $69.9 million of time deposits. As of March 31, 2018, the Company's short-term investment consisted of $480.2 million of time deposits and $219.2 million of commercial paper, and its non-current investments consisted of $86.2 million of time deposits.

No significant realized or unrealized gains or losses on available-for-sale investments or other-than-temporary impairment charges were recorded during any of the fiscal periods presented.

13. Commitments and Contingencies

Lease Obligations

During the first quarter of Fiscal 2019, the Company entered into a 16-year lease with optional renewal periods for a new corporate office in New Jersey, which it expects to take possession of during its fiscal year 2020. Additionally, during the third quarter of Fiscal 2019, the Company amended an existing lease agreement for a corporate office in New York City, whereby it expanded the square footage to be leased and extended the lease term through December 31, 2029, with optional renewal periods. The following table summarizes the Company's future minimum rental payments relating to these lease agreements:

	Minimum Lease Payments ^(a) (millions)

Excludes future minimum commitments related to the original lease term and space for the corporate office in New

^(a) York City, which were previously included in the minimum lease payments table in Note 14 of the Fiscal 2018 10-K.

Customs Audit

In September 2014, one of the Company's international subsidiaries received a pre-assessment notice from the relevant customs officials concerning the method used to determine the dutiable value of imported inventory. The notice communicated the customs officials' assertion that the Company should have applied an alternative duty method, which could have resulted in up to $46 million in incremental duty and non-creditable value-added tax, including $11 million in interest and penalties. The Company believed that the alternative duty method claimed by the customs officials was not applicable to the Company's facts and circumstances and contested their asserted methodology.

In October 2014, the Company filed an appeal of the pre-assessment notice in accordance with the standard procedures established by the relevant customs authorities. In response to the filing of the Company's appeal of the pre-assessment notice, the review committee instructed the customs officials to reconsider their assertion of the alternative duty method and conduct a re-audit to evaluate the facts and circumstances noted in the pre-assessment notice. In December 2015, the Company received the results of the re-audit conducted and a customs audit assessment notice in the amount of $34.1 million, which the Company recorded within restructuring and other charges in its consolidated statements of operations during the third quarter of Fiscal 2016. Although the Company disagreed with the assessment notice, in order to secure the Company's rights, the Company was required to pay the assessment amount and then subsequently file an appeal with the customs authorities.

In October 2017, the tax tribunal presiding over the Company's appeal instructed the customs officials to reconsider their assertions under the alternative duty method and conduct a second re-audit to evaluate the facts and circumstances noted in the pre-assessment notice. In March 2018, the Company received the results of the second re-audit conducted and a related net refund in the amount of $15.6 million. Additionally, in March 2018 and May 2018, the Company filed voluntary disclosure requests to the relevant customs authorities for certain post-audit periods and made related payments of $40.6 million and $7.1 million, respectively, in order to secure its rights to recover value-added tax of $14.8 million and $3.3 million, respectively. In connection with the re-audit refund received and the non-tax portion of the voluntary disclosure payment made, the Company recorded net charges of $10.2 million and $3.8 million, respectively, within restructuring and other charges in its consolidated statements of operations during the fourth quarter of Fiscal 2018 and first quarter of Fiscal 2019, respectively.

Although the Company believes its original filing position was appropriate, in June 2018, the Company decided to resolve the dispute and not further appeal the re-audit decision within the courts for the periods covered by the re-audit in order to avoid incurring additional management time, costs, and uncertainty associated with litigation, as the customs officials' revised methodology results in an incremental annual duty charge that is not material to the Company.

Other Matters

The Company is involved, from time to time, in litigation, other legal claims, and proceedings involving matters associated with or incidental to its business, including, among other things, matters involving credit card fraud, trademark and other intellectual property, licensing, importation and exportation of its products, taxation, unclaimed property, and employee relations. The Company believes at present that the resolution of currently pending matters will not individually or in the aggregate have a material adverse effect on its consolidated financial statements. However, the Company's assessment of any current litigation or other legal claims could potentially change in light of the discovery of facts not presently known or determinations by judges, juries, or other finders of fact which are not in accord with management's evaluation of the possible liability or outcome of such litigation or claims.

In the normal course of business, the Company enters into agreements that provide general indemnifications. The Company has not made any significant indemnification payments under such agreements in the past, and does not currently anticipate incurring any material indemnification payments.

16. Stock-based Compensation

The Company's stock-based compensation awards are currently issued under the 2010 Incentive Plan, which was approved by its stockholders on August 5, 2010. However, any prior awards granted under the 1997 Incentive Plan remain subject to the terms of that plan. Any awards that expire, are forfeited, or are surrendered to the Company in satisfaction of taxes are available for issuance under the 2010 Incentive Plan.

Refer to Note 17 of the Fiscal 2018 10-K for a detailed description of the Company's stock-based compensation awards, including information related to vesting terms, service and performance conditions, and payout percentages (also refer to "Performance-based RSUs" below for information related to payout percentages for certain performance-based RSUs granted during the second quarter of Fiscal 2019). Additionally, during the second quarter of Fiscal 2019, in lieu of granting certain performance-based RSUs to its senior executives and other key employees, the Company granted a new type of award for which vesting is dependent on a market condition based on total shareholder return ("TSR"). Refer to "Market-based RSUs" below for a detailed description.

The Company issues its annual grants of stock-based compensation awards in the first half of each fiscal year. Due to the timing of the annual grants and other factors, including the timing and magnitude of forfeiture and performance goal achievement adjustments, as well as changes to the size and composition of the eligible employee population, stock-based compensation expense recognized during any given fiscal period is not indicative of the level of compensation expense expected to be incurred in future periods.

Restricted Stock Awards and Service-based RSUs

The fair values of restricted stock awards granted to non-employee directors are determined based on the fair value of the Company's Class A common stock on the date of grant. No such awards were granted during the six-month periods ended September 29, 2018 and September 30, 2017. Effective beginning Fiscal 2019, non-employee directors are granted service-based RSUs.

The fair values of service-based RSUs granted to certain of the Company's senior executives and other employees, as well as non-employee directors, are based on the fair value of the Company's Class A common stock on the date of grant, adjusted to reflect the absence of dividends for any awards not entitled to accrue dividend equivalents while outstanding. The weighted-average grant date fair values of service-based RSU awards granted were $114.27 and $72.70 per share during the six-month periods ended September 29, 2018 and September 30, 2017, respectively.

A summary of restricted stock and service-based RSU activity during the six months ended September 29, 2018 is as follows:

Performance-based RSUs

The fair values of the Company's performance-based RSUs granted to its senior executives and other key employees are based on the fair value of the Company's Class A common stock on the date of grant, adjusted to reflect the absence of dividends for any awards not entitled to accrue dividend equivalents while outstanding. The weighted-average grant date fair values of performance-based RSUs granted were $129.78 and $69.40 per share during the six-month periods ended September 29, 2018 and September 30, 2017, respectively.

Additionally, beginning with awards granted in the second quarter of Fiscal 2019, the number of shares that may be earned for performance-based RSUs subject to cliff vesting ranges between 0% (if the specified threshold performance level is not attained) and 200% (if performance meets or exceeds the maximum achievement level) of the awards originally granted. For such awards granted in recent years prior to Fiscal 2019, the payout percentages range from 0% to 150%.

A summary of performance-based RSU activity during the six months ended September 29, 2018 is as follows:

Market-based RSUs

During the second quarter of Fiscal 2019, the Company granted cliff vesting RSU awards to its senior executives and other key employees, which, in addition to being subject to continuing employment requirements, are also subject to a market condition based on TSR performance. The number of shares that vest upon the completion of a three-year period of time is determined by comparing the Company's TSR relative to that of a pre-established peer group over the related three-year performance period. Depending on the Company's level of achievement, the number of shares that ultimately vest may range from 0% to 200% of the awards originally granted.

The weighted-average grant date fair value of TSR awards granted during the six months ended September 29, 2018 was $177.13 per share. The Company estimates the fair value of its TSR awards on the date of grant using a Monte Carlo simulation valuation model. This pricing model uses multiple simulations to evaluate the probability of the Company achieving various stock price levels to determine its expected TSR performance ranking relative to the peer group. Compensation expense, net of estimated forfeitures, is recorded regardless of whether the market condition is ultimately satisfied. The assumptions used to estimate the fair value of TSR awards granted during the six months ended September 29, 2018 were as follows:

	Six Months Ended September 29, 2018
Expected term (years)	2.6
Expected volatility	33.5 %
Expected dividend yield	1.9 %

The Company's retail business in Europe is comprised of its Ralph Lauren stores, its factory stores, its concession-based shop-within-shops, and its various digital commerce sites.

Asia — The Asia segment primarily consists of sales of Ralph Lauren branded apparel, accessories, home furnishings, and related products made through the Company's wholesale and retail businesses in Asia, Australia, and New Zealand. The Company's retail business in Asia is comprised of its Ralph Lauren stores, its factory stores, its concession-based shop-within-shops, and its digital commerce site, www.RalphLauren.cn, which launched in September 2018. In addition, the Company sells its products online through various third-party digital partner commerce sites. In Asia, the Company's wholesale business is comprised primarily of sales to department stores, with related products distributed through shop-within-shops.

No operating segments were aggregated to form the Company's reportable segments. In addition to these reportable segments, the Company also has other non-reportable segments, which primarily consist of (i) sales of Club Monaco branded products made through its retail businesses in the U.S., Canada, and Europe, and its licensing alliances in Europe and Asia, (ii) sales of Ralph Lauren branded products made through its wholesale business in Latin America, and (iii) royalty revenues earned through its global licensing alliances, excluding Club Monaco.

The Company's segment reporting structure is consistent with how it establishes its overall business strategy, allocates resources, and assesses performance of its business. The accounting policies of the Company's segments are consistent with those described in Notes 2 and 3 of the Fiscal 2018 10-K. Sales and transfers between segments are generally recorded at cost and treated as transfers of inventory. All intercompany revenues are eliminated in consolidation and are not reviewed when evaluating segment performance. Each segment's performance is evaluated based upon net revenues and operating income before restructuring-related charges, impairment of assets, and certain other one-time items, if any. Certain corporate overhead expenses related to global functions, most notably the Company's executive office, information technology, finance and accounting, human resources, and legal departments, largely remain at corporate. Additionally, other costs that cannot be allocated to the segments based on specific usage are also maintained at corporate, including corporate advertising and marketing expenses, depreciation and amortization of corporate assets, and other general and administrative expenses resulting from corporate-level activities and projects. Net revenues and operating income for each of the Company's segments are as follows:

OVERVIEW

Our Business

Our Company is a global leader in the design, marketing, and distribution of premium lifestyle products, including apparel, accessories, home furnishings, and other licensed product categories. Our long-standing reputation and distinctive image have been developed across an expanding number of products, brands, sales channels, and international markets. Our brand names include Ralph Lauren, Ralph Lauren Collection, Ralph Lauren Purple Label, Polo Ralph Lauren, Double RL, Lauren Ralph Lauren, Polo Ralph Lauren Children, Chaps, and Club Monaco, among others.

We diversify our business by geography (North America, Europe, and Asia, among other regions) and channel of distribution (wholesale, retail, and licensing). This allows us to maintain a dynamic balance as our operating results do not depend solely on the performance of any single geographic area or channel of distribution. Our wholesale sales are made principally to major department stores and specialty stores around the world, as well as to certain unrelated third party-owned stores to which we have licensed the right to operate in defined geographic territories using our trademarks. We also sell directly to consumers through our integrated retail channel, which includes our retail stores, concession-based shop-within-shops, and digital commerce operations around the world. In addition, we license to unrelated third parties for specified periods the right to access our various trademarks in connection with the licensees' manufacture and sale of designated products, such as certain apparel, eyewear, fragrances, and home furnishings.

We organize our business into the following three reportable segments:

North America — Our North America segment, representing approximately 52% of our Fiscal 2018 net revenues, primarily consists of sales of our Ralph Lauren branded products made through our wholesale and retail businesses in the U.S. and Canada, excluding Club Monaco. In North America, our wholesale business is comprised primarily of sales to department stores, and to a lesser extent, specialty stores. Our retail business in North America is comprised of our Ralph Lauren stores, our factory stores, and our digital commerce site, www.RalphLauren.com.

Europe — Our Europe segment, representing approximately 26% of our Fiscal 2018 net revenues, primarily consists of sales of our Ralph Lauren branded products made through our wholesale and retail businesses in Europe and the Middle East, excluding Club Monaco. In Europe, our wholesale business is comprised of a varying mix of sales to both department stores and specialty stores, depending on the country. Our retail business in Europe is comprised of our Ralph Lauren stores, our factory stores, our concession-based shop-within-shops, and our various digital commerce sites.

Asia — Our Asia segment, representing approximately 15% of our Fiscal 2018 net revenues, primarily consists of sales of our Ralph Lauren branded products made through our wholesale and retail businesses in Asia, Australia, and New Zealand. Our retail business in Asia is comprised of our Ralph Lauren stores, our factory stores, our concession-based shop-within-shops, and our digital commerce site, www.RalphLauren.cn, which launched in September 2018. In addition, we sell our products through various third-party digital partner commerce sites. In Asia, our wholesale business is comprised primarily of sales to department stores, with related products distributed through shop-within-shops.

In addition to these reportable segments, we also have other non-reportable segments, representing approximately 7% of our Fiscal 2018 net revenues, which primarily consist of (i) sales of Club Monaco branded products made through our retail businesses in the U.S., Canada, and Europe, and our licensing alliances in Europe and Asia, (ii) sales of Ralph Lauren branded products made through our wholesale business in Latin America, and (iii) royalty revenues earned through our global licensing alliances, excluding Club Monaco.

Approximately 45% of our Fiscal 2018 net revenues were earned outside of the U.S. See Note 17 to the accompanying consolidated financial statements for a summary of net revenues and operating income by segment, as well as net revenues by geographic location.

Our business is typically affected by seasonal trends, with higher levels of wholesale sales in our second and fourth fiscal quarters and higher retail sales in our second and third fiscal quarters. These trends result primarily from the timing of seasonal wholesale shipments and key vacation travel, back-to-school, and holiday shopping periods impacting our retail business. In addition, fluctuations in net sales, operating income, and cash flows in any fiscal quarter may be affected by other events impacting retail sales, such as changes in weather patterns. Accordingly, our operating results and cash flows for the three-month and six-month periods ended September 29, 2018 are not necessarily indicative of the operating results and cash flows that may be expected for the full Fiscal 2019.

Global Economic Conditions and Industry Trends

The global economy and our industry are impacted by many different influences. The current domestic and international political environment has resulted in uncertainty surrounding the future state of the global economy, including international trade relations. Most recently, the U.S. and China have imposed significant new tariffs on each other related to the importation of certain product categories, and additional tariffs have been proposed. There are also growing concerns regarding the terms and conditions of the United Kingdom's withdrawal from the European Union, commonly referred to as "Brexit." Negotiations to determine the United Kingdom's future relationship with the European Union, including terms of trade and movement of people, have been complex and it is not clear at this time what, if any, agreements will be reached by the current March 29, 2019 deadline. As our international business continues to grow and because the majority of our products are produced outside of the U.S., major changes in global trade relations could have a material adverse effect on our business or operating results. Certain other worldwide events, including political unrest, acts of terrorism, taxation or monetary policy changes, fluctuations in commodity prices, and rising healthcare costs, also increase volatility in the global economy. For example, the U.S. recently enacted new tax legislation known as the TCJA (as defined in "Recent Developments" below), which is intended to stimulate economic growth and capital investment in the U.S. In addition, our results have been and are expected to continue to be impacted by foreign exchange rate fluctuations.

The retail landscape in which we operate is also evolving, with consumers continuing to diversify the channels in which they transact and shifting their shopping preference from physical stores to online. This along with other factors has resulted in many retailers, including certain of our large wholesale customers, becoming highly promotional and aggressively marking down their merchandise in an attempt to offset declines in physical store traffic. The retail industry, particularly in the U.S., has also experienced numerous bankruptcies, restructurings, and ownership changes in recent years. Certain of our operations, including our North America wholesale business, have been negatively impacted by these dynamics. The continuation of these industry trends could further impact consumer spending and consumption behavior in our industry, which could have a material adverse effect on our business or operating results. Additionally, changes in economic conditions may further impact consumer discretionary income levels and spending.

We have implemented various operating strategies globally to help address many of these current challenges, and continue to build a foundation for long-term profitable growth centered around strengthening our consumer-facing areas of product, stores, and marketing across channels and driving a more efficient operating model. In connection with these strategies, we are taking deliberate actions to ensure promotional consistency across channels and enhance the overall brand and shopping experience, including better aligning shipments and inventory levels with underlying demand. Investing in our digital ecosystem remains a primary focus and is a key component of our integrated global omni-channel strategy. Most recently, in September 2018, we launched our digital flagship in China, featuring our signature online shopping experience. In addition, in June 2018, we shifted our European digital commerce operations to the third-party cloud-based platform used by our North America operations, which is delivering a more brand-enhancing and consistent customer experience across our global digital ecosystem. We also remain committed to optimizing our wholesale distribution channel and enhancing our department store consumer experience. Although the investments that we are making in our business and our quality of sales initiatives may create operating profit pressure in the near-term, we expect that these initiatives will create longer-term shareholder value. Further, in response to the recent trade developments between the U.S. and China, we are actively reviewing options to mitigate our exposure in the event any resulting tariffs impact our product categories, including diverting production to and sourcing from other countries. We are also closely monitoring the latest developments regarding Brexit and are assessing risks and opportunities and developing strategies to mitigate our exposure in the event of a "hard" Brexit (e.g., if the United Kingdom exits the European Union without having a final withdrawal agreement in place). We will continue to monitor these conditions and trends and evaluate and adjust our operating strategies and foreign currency and cost management opportunities to help mitigate the related impact on our results of operations, while remaining focused on the long-term growth of our business and protecting and elevating the value of our brand. For a detailed discussion of significant risk factors that have the potential to cause our actual results to differ materially from our expectations, see Part I, Item 1A — "Risk Factors" in our Fiscal 2018 10-K.

Summary of Financial Performance

Operating Results

During the three months ended September 29, 2018, we reported net revenues of $1.691 billion, net income of $170.3 million, and net income per diluted share of $2.07, as compared to net revenues of $1.664 billion, net income of $143.8 million, and net income per diluted share of $1.75 during the three months ended September 30, 2017. During the six months ended September 29, 2018, we reported net revenues of $3.082 billion, net income of $279.3 million, and net income per diluted share of $3.37, as compared to net revenues of $3.011 billion, net income of $203.3 million, and net income per diluted share of $2.47 during the six months ended September 30, 2017. The comparability of our operating results has been affected by restructuring-related charges, impairment of assets, and certain other charges, as discussed further below.

Our operating performance for the three-month and six-month periods ended September 29, 2018 reflected revenue growth of 1.6% and 2.3%, respectively, on a reported basis, and 2.1% and 1.7%, respectively, on a constant currency basis, as defined within "Transactions and Trends Affecting Comparability of Results of Operations and Financial Condition" below. The increase in reported net revenues was primarily driven by our Asia business, which had revenue growth of 12.8% and 15.7% for the three-month and six-month periods ended September 29, 2018, respectively, largely due to new store openings.

Our gross profit as a percentage of net revenues increased by 110 basis points to 60.9% during the three months ended September 29, 2018, and by 120 basis points to 62.5% during the six months ended September 29, 2018. These increases were primarily driven by improved pricing and lower levels of promotional activity in connection with our long-term growth strategy, as well as favorable product and geographic mix.

Selling, general, and administrative ("SG&A") expenses as a percentage of net revenues increased by 50 basis points to 46.9% during the three months ended September 29, 2018, and by 40 basis point to 49.8% during the six months ended September 29, 2018. These increases were primarily due to our increased marketing investment and the unfavorable impact attributable to geographic and channel mix, partially offset by our operational discipline. Net income increased by $26.5 million to $170.3 million during the three months ended September 29, 2018 as compared to the three months ended September 30, 2017, primarily due to a $16.7 million increase in operating income and higher interest income of $8.1 million. Net income increased by $76.0 million to $279.3 million during the six months ended September 29, 2018 as compared to the six months ended September 30, 2017, primarily due to a $56.5 million increase in operating income and higher interest income of $15.3 million. Net income per diluted share increased by $0.32 to $2.07 per share during the three months ended September 29, 2018, and by $0.90 to $3.37 per share during the six months ended September 29, 2018, primarily due to the higher levels of net income. Our operating results during the three-month periods ended September 29, 2018 and September 30, 2017 were negatively impacted by restructuring-related charges, impairment of assets, and certain other charges totaling $25.7 million and $30.4 million, respectively, which had an after-tax effect of reducing net income by $20.6 million, or $0.25 per diluted share, and $20.3 million, or $0.24 per diluted share, respectively. Our operating results during the six-month periods ended September 29, 2018 and September 30, 2017 were negatively impacted by restructuring-related charges, impairment of assets, and certain other charges totaling $49.4 million and $77.6 million, respectively, which had an after-tax effect of reducing net income by $39.5 million, or $0.48 per diluted share, and $51.9 million, or $0.63 per diluted share, respectively. Additionally, during the second quarter of Fiscal 2018, we recorded a measurement period adjustment of $4.7 million within our income tax provision in connection with the TCJA, which increased our net income per diluted share by $0.06 during each of the three-month and six-month periods ended September 29, 2018.

Financial Condition and Liquidity

We ended the second quarter of Fiscal 2019 in a net cash and investments position (cash and cash equivalents plus short-term and non-current investments, less total debt) of $1.259 billion, as compared to $1.494 billion as of the end of Fiscal 2018. The decline in our net cash and investments position at September 29, 2018 as compared to March 31, 2018 was primarily due to our use of cash to support Class A common stock repurchases of $223.9 million, including withholdings in satisfaction of tax obligations for stock-based compensation awards, to invest in our business through $93.1 million in capital expenditures, and to make dividend payments of $91.3 million, partially offset by our operating cash flows of $213.0 million.

We generated $213.0 million of cash from operations during the six months ended September 29, 2018, compared to $437.0 million during the six months ended September 30, 2017. The decline in cash provided by operating activities was due to a net unfavorable change related to our operating assets and liabilities, including our working capital, as compared to the prior fiscal year period, partially offset by an increase in net income before non-cash charges. Our equity increased slightly to $3.462 billion as of September 29, 2018 compared to $3.457 billion as of March 31, 2018, primarily due to our comprehensive income and the impact of stock-based compensation arrangements, offset by our share repurchase activity and dividends declared during the six months ended September 29, 2018.

Recent Developments

Fiscal 2019 Restructuring Plan

On June 4, 2018, our Board of Directors approved a restructuring plan associated with our strategic objective of operating with discipline to drive sustainable growth (the "Fiscal 2019 Restructuring Plan"). The Fiscal 2019 Restructuring Plan includes the following restructuring-related activities: (i) the rightsizing and consolidation of our global distribution network and corporate offices; (ii) targeted severance-related actions; and (iii) closure of certain of our stores and shop-within-shops. When substantially completed by the end of Fiscal 2019, these actions are expected to result in gross annualized expense savings of approximately $60 million to $80 million.

In connection with the Fiscal 2019 Restructuring Plan, we expect to incur total estimated charges of approximately $100 million to $150 million, comprised of cash-related charges of approximately $70 million to $110 million and non-cash charges of approximately $30 million to $40 million. Cumulative charges incurred since inception were $24.6 million. See Note 8 to our accompanying consolidated financial statements for detailed discussions of the charges recorded in connection with the Fiscal 2019 Restructuring Plan.

U.S. Tax Reform

On December 22, 2017, President Trump signed into law new tax legislation commonly referred to as the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act (the "TCJA"), which became effective January 1, 2018. The TCJA significantly revised U.S. tax law by, among other provisions, lowering the U.S. federal statutory income tax rate from 35% to 21%, creating a territorial tax system that includes a one-time mandatory transition tax on previously deferred foreign earnings, and eliminating or reducing certain income tax deductions.

During the second half of Fiscal 2018, we recorded net charges of $221.4 million within our income tax provision in connection with the TCJA, of which $209.3 million related to the mandatory transition tax. Subsequently, during the second quarter of Fiscal 2019, we recorded a measurement period adjustment of $4.7 million within our income tax provision, which reduced our effective tax rate by 220 basis points and 130 basis points during the three-month and six-month periods ended September 29, 2018, respectively.

These cumulative net charges were recorded on a provisional basis as permitted by SEC Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 118 ("SAB 118"). The provisional amounts were based on our present interpretations of the TCJA and are subject to further refinement as additional information becomes available and further analyses are completed. We expect to finalize our accounting for the enactment-related impacts of the TCJA during the third quarter of Fiscal 2019.

Additionally, we reevaluated our permanent reinvestment assertion and determined that undistributed foreign earnings that were subject to the one-time mandatory transition tax were no longer considered to be permanently reinvested, effective December 31, 2017. In connection with this decision, we repatriated $252 million of cash to the U.S. from certain of our foreign subsidiaries during the fourth quarter of Fiscal 2018, and we repatriated an additional $400 million and $179 million during the first and second quarters of Fiscal 2019, respectively, all of which relate to earnings previously taxed under the TCJA.

See Note 9 to the accompanying consolidated financial statements for additional discussion.

Way Forward Plan

On June 2, 2016, our Board of Directors approved a restructuring plan with the objective of delivering sustainable, profitable sales growth and long-term value creation for shareholders (the "Way Forward Plan"). We are refocusing on our core brands and evolving our product, marketing, and shopping experience to increase desirability and relevance. We are also evolving our operating model to enable sustainable, profitable sales growth by significantly improving quality of sales, reducing supply chain lead times, improving our sourcing, and executing a disciplined multi-channel distribution and expansion strategy. As part of the Way Forward Plan, we are rightsizing our cost structure and implementing a return on investment-driven financial model to free up resources to invest in the brand and drive high-quality sales. The Way Forward Plan included strengthening our leadership team and creating a more nimble organization by moving from an average of nine to six layers of management. The Way Forward Plan also included the discontinuance of our Denim & Supply brand and the integration of our denim product offerings into our Polo Ralph Lauren brand. Collectively, these actions, which were substantially completed during our fiscal year ended April 1, 2017 ("Fiscal 2017"), resulted in a reduction in workforce and the closure of certain stores and shop-within-shops, as well as gross annualized expense savings of approximately $200 million.

On March 30, 2017, our Board of Directors approved the following additional restructuring-related activities associated with the Way Forward Plan: (i) the restructuring of our in-house global digital commerce platform which was in development and shifting to a more cost-effective, flexible platform through a new agreement with Salesforce's Commerce Cloud, formerly known as Demandware; (ii) the closure of our Polo store at 711 Fifth Avenue in New York City; and (iii) the further streamlining of the organization and the execution of other key corporate actions in line with the Way Forward Plan. These actions, which are expected to result in additional gross annualized expense savings of approximately $140 million, are an important part of our efforts to achieve our stated objective to return to sustainable, profitable growth and invest in the future. These additional restructuring-related activities were largely completed during Fiscal 2018 and resulted in a further reduction in workforce and the closure of certain corporate office and store locations. The remaining activities, which are primarily lease-related, are expected to be completed during Fiscal 2019.

In connection with the Way Forward Plan, we currently expect to incur total estimated charges of approximately $790 million, comprised of cash-related restructuring charges of approximately $490 million and non-cash charges of approximately $300 million. Cumulative charges incurred since inception were $677.5 million and we expect the remaining charges of approximately $115 million will be recorded during the remainder of Fiscal 2019. In addition to these charges, we also incurred an additional non-cash charge of $155.2 million during Fiscal 2017 associated with the destruction of inventory out of current liquidation channels in line with our Way Forward Plan. See Note 8 to our accompanying consolidated financial statements for detailed discussions of the charges recorded in connection with the Way Forward Plan.

Transactions and Trends Affecting Comparability of Results of Operations and Financial Condition

The comparability of our operating results for the three-month and six-month periods ended September 29, 2018 and September 30, 2017 has been affected by certain events, including restructuring-related charges, impairment of assets, and certain other charges, as summarized below (references to "Notes" are to the notes to the accompanying consolidated financial statements):

	Three Months Ended September 29, 2018		Six Months Ended September 30, 2018		September 30, 2017

Total charges	$ (25.7)	$ (30.4)	$ (49.4)	$ (77.6)

^(a) Non-cash restructuring-related inventory charges are recorded within cost of goods sold in the consolidated statements of operations.

Additionally, during the second quarter of Fiscal 2019, we recorded a measurement period adjustment of $4.7 million within our income tax provision in connection with the TCJA, which reduced our effective tax rate by 220 basis points and 130 basis points during the three-month and six-month periods ended September 29, 2018, respectively. See Note 9 to the accompanying consolidated financial statements for further discussion regarding the TCJA.

Since we are a global company, the comparability of our operating results reported in U.S. Dollars is also affected by foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations because the underlying currencies in which we transact change in value over time compared to the U.S. Dollar. These rate fluctuations can have a significant effect on our reported results. As such, in addition to financial measures prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the U.S. ("U.S. GAAP"), our discussions often contain references to constant currency measures, which are calculated by translating the current-year and prior-year reported amounts into comparable amounts using a single foreign exchange rate for each currency. We present constant currency financial information, which is a non-U.S. GAAP financial measure, as a supplement to our reported operating results. We use constant currency information to provide a framework for assessing how our businesses performed excluding the effects of foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations. We believe this information is useful to investors for facilitating comparisons of operating results and better identifying trends in our businesses. The constant currency performance measures should be viewed in addition to, and not in lieu of or superior to, our operating performance measures calculated in accordance with U.S. GAAP. Reconciliations between this non-U.S. GAAP financial measure and the most directly comparable U.S. GAAP measure are included in the "Results of Operations" section where applicable.

Our discussion also includes reference to comparable store sales. Effective beginning the first quarter of our Fiscal 2019, we changed our definition of comparable store sales to provide a more relevant measure of performance and align with general retail industry practice. Under the new definition, comparable store sales refer to the change in sales of our stores that have been open for at least 13 full fiscal months. Sales from our digital commerce sites are also included within comparable sales for those geographies that have been serviced by the related site for at least 13 full fiscal months. Sales for stores or digital commerce sites that are closed or shut down during the year are excluded from the calculation of comparable store sales. Sales for stores that are either relocated, enlarged (as defined by gross square footage expansion of 25% or greater), or generally closed for 30 or more consecutive days for renovation are also excluded from the calculation of comparable store sales until such stores have been operating in their new location or in their newly renovated state for at least 13 full fiscal months. All comparable store sales metrics are calculated on a constant currency basis. Our previous definition of comparable store sales required a store or digital commerce site to be operational for one full fiscal year to be considered comparable and included in the calculation.

Our "Results of Operations" discussion that follows includes the significant changes in operating results arising from these items affecting comparability. However, unusual items or transactions may occur in any period. Accordingly, investors and other financial statement users should consider the types of events and transactions that have affected operating trends.

Our global average store count increased by 30 stores and concession shops during the three months ended September 29, 2018 compared with the three months ended September 30, 2017, largely driven by new openings in Asia. Freestanding Stores:
North America	221	215

In addition to our stores, we sell products online in North America and Europe through our various digital commerce sites, which include www.RalphLauren.com and www.ClubMonaco.com, among others. In Asia, we sell products online through our digital commerce site, www.RalphLauren.cn, which launched in September 2018, as well as through various third-party digital partner commerce sites.

Net revenues for our segments, as well as a discussion of the changes in each reportable segment's net revenues from the comparable prior fiscal year period, are provided below:

North America net revenues — Net revenues increased by $12.6 million, or 1.4%, during the three months ended September 29, 2018 as compared to the three months ended September 30, 2017, including net unfavorable foreign currency effects of $1.6 million. On a constant currency basis, net revenues increased by $14.2 million, or 1.6%.

The $12.6 million net increase in North America net revenues was driven by:

an $11.1 million net increase related to our North America retail business, inclusive of net unfavorable foreign currency effects of $0.8 million. On a constant currency basis, net revenues increased by $11.9 million driven by increases of $8.3 million in non-comparable store sales and $3.6 million in comparable store sales. The increase in comparable store sales was driven by our Ralph Lauren digital commerce operations. The following table summarizes the percentage change in comparable store sales related to our North America retail business:

	% Change
Digital commerce comparable store sales	9 %
Comparable store sales excluding digital commerce	(1 %)
Total comparable store sales	1 %

a $1.5 million net increase related to our North America wholesale business, largely attributable to a shift in the timing of certain shipments, partially offset by net unfavorable foreign currency effects $0.8 million.

Europe net revenues — Net revenues decreased by $3.8 million, or 0.8%, during the three months ended September 29, 2018 as compared to the three months ended September 30, 2017, including net unfavorable foreign currency effects of $4.4 million. On a constant currency basis, net revenues were approximately flat as compared to the prior fiscal year period.

The $3.8 million net decline in Europe net revenues was driven by:

a $1.9 million net decrease related to our Europe wholesale business, primarily driven by net unfavorable foreign currency effects of $2.5 million and a shift in the timing of certain shipments, partially offset by higher sales due to stronger demand; and a $1.9 million net decrease related to our Europe retail business, inclusive of net unfavorable foreign currency effects of $1.9 million. On a constant currency basis, net revenues were flat, reflecting a $7.9 million decline in comparable store sales largely attributable to assortment and inventory challenges and a decline in traffic, offset by a $7.9 million increase in non-comparable store sales. The following table summarizes the percentage change in comparable store sales related to our Europe retail business:

	% Change
Digital commerce comparable store sales	— %
Comparable store sales excluding digital commerce	(4 %)
Total comparable store sales	(4 %)

Asia net revenues — Net revenues increased by $27.9 million, or 12.8%, during the three months ended September 29, 2018 as compared to the three months ended September 30, 2017, including net unfavorable foreign currency effects of $2.8 million. On a constant currency basis, net revenues increased by $30.7 million, or 14.1%.

The $27.9 million net increase in Asia net revenues was driven by:

a $23.5 million net increase related to our Asia retail business, inclusive of net unfavorable foreign currency effects of $2.2 million. On a constant currency basis, net revenues increased by $25.7 million, reflecting increases of $15.8 million in non-comparable store sales driven by new store openings and $9.9 million in comparable store sales. The following table summarizes the percentage change in comparable store sales related to our Asia retail business:

	% Change
Digital commerce comparable store sales	66 %
Comparable store sales excluding digital commerce	5 %
Total comparable store sales	6 %

a $4.4 million net increase related to our Asia wholesale business, primarily driven by our expansion in Australia, Southeast Asia, and Japan.

Gross Profit. Gross profit increased by $33.5 million, or 3.4%, to $1.029 billion for the three months ended September 29, 2018. Gross profit as a percentage of net revenues increased to 60.9% for the three months ended September 29, 2018 from 59.8% for the three months ended September 30, 2017. The 110 basis point increase was primarily driven by improved pricing and lower levels of promotional activity in connection with our long-term growth strategy, as well as favorable product and geographic mix.

Gross profit as a percentage of net revenues is dependent upon a variety of factors, including changes in the relative sales mix among distribution channels, changes in the mix of products sold, the timing and level of promotional activities, foreign currency exchange rates, and fluctuations in material costs. These factors, among others, may cause gross profit as a percentage of net revenues to fluctuate from period to period.

Selling, General, and Administrative Expenses. SG&A expenses include compensation and benefits, advertising and marketing, rent and occupancy, distribution, information technology, legal, depreciation and amortization, bad debt, and other selling and administrative costs. SG&A expenses increased by $20.9 million, or 2.7%, to $793.6 million for the three months ended September 29, 2018. This increase included a net favorable foreign currency effect of $3.7 million. SG&A expenses as a percentage of net revenues increased to 46.9% for the three months ended September 29, 2018 from 46.4% for the three months ended September 30, 2017. The 50 basis point increase was primarily due to our increased marketing investment and the unfavorable impact attributable to geographic and channel mix, as a greater portion of our revenue was generated by our international retail businesses (which typically carry higher operating expense margins).

The $20.9 million net increase in SG&A expenses was driven by:

During the remainder of Fiscal 2019, we continue to expect to spend on key strategic initiatives including marketing, digital, expanding and renovating our global retail stores and concession shops, and investing in productivity-enhancing infrastructure. We expect to make these investments while continuing to manage our cost base with discipline.

Impairment of Assets. During the three-month periods ended September 29, 2018 and September 30, 2017, we recorded non-cash impairment charges of $9.8 million and $11.2 million, respectively, to write off certain fixed assets related to our domestic and international stores, shop-within-shops, and corporate offices. See Note 7 to the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

Restructuring and Other Charges. During the three-month periods ended September 29, 2018 and September 30, 2017, we recorded restructuring charges of $12.4 million and $17.3 million, respectively, in connection with our restructuring plans, consisting of severance and benefit costs, lease termination and store closure costs, and other cash charges. Additionally, during the three months ended September 29, 2018, we recorded other charges of $3.5 million related to depreciation expense associated with our former Polo store at 711 Fifth Avenue in New York City. During the three months ended September 30, 2017, we recorded net other charges of $1.3 million primarily related to depreciation expense associated with our former Polo store at 711 Fifth Avenue and the reversal of reserves associated with the settlement of certain non-income tax issues. See Note 8 to the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

Operating Income. Operating income increased by $16.7 million, or 8.7%, to $210.0 million for the three months ended September 29, 2018. Our operating results during the three-month periods ended September 29, 2018 and September 30, 2017 were negatively impacted by restructuring-related charges, impairment of assets, and certain other charges totaling $25.7 million and $30.4 million, respectively, as previously discussed. The increase in operating income also included a net favorable foreign currency effect of $4.1 million. Operating income as a percentage of net revenues increased to 12.4% for the three months ended September 29, 2018 from 11.6% for the three months ended September 30, 2017. The 80 basis point increase was primarily driven by the increase in our gross profit margin and the net decline in restructuring-related charges, impairment of assets, and certain other charges, partially offset by the increase in SG&A expenses as a percentage of net revenues, all as previously discussed.

Operating income and margin for our segments, as well as a discussion of the changes in each reportable segment's operating margin from the comparable prior fiscal year period, are provided below:

North America operating margin improved by 50 basis points, primarily due to the favorable impact of 130 basis points related to our wholesale business, largely driven by a decline in SG&A expenses as a percentage of net revenues and an increase in our gross profit margin. This increase in operating margin was partially offset by an 80 basis point decline primarily related to our retail business, largely driven by an increase in SG&A expenses as a percentage of net revenues, partially offset by an increase in our gross profit margin.

Europe operating margin improved by 50 basis points, primarily due to the favorable impact of 160 basis points related to foreign currency effects. Excluding foreign currency effects, operating margin reflected declines of 80 basis points related to our wholesale business and 30 basis points related to our retail business, both largely driven by an increase in SG&A expenses as a percentage of net revenues, partially offset by an increase in our gross profit margin.

Asia operating margin improved by 120 basis points, primarily due to the favorable impacts of 130 basis points related to our retail business and 100 basis points related to our wholesale business, both largely driven by a decline in SG&A expenses as a percentage of net revenues. The increase also reflected the favorable impact of 40 basis points related to channel mix. These increases in operating margin were partially offset by 100 basis points related to higher non-cash charges recorded in connection with our restructuring plans during the three months ended September 29, 2018 as compared to the prior fiscal year period, and unfavorable foreign currency effects of 50 basis points.

Unallocated corporate expenses decreased by $1.4 million to $167.7 million during the three months ended September 29, 2018 due to lower compensation-related expenses of $4.4 million, lower depreciation and amortization of $2.3 million, and lower other expenses of $2.5 million, partially offset by higher marketing and advertising expenses of $7.8 million.

Unallocated restructuring and other charges decreased by $2.7 million to $15.9 million during the three months ended September 29, 2018, as previously discussed above and in Note 8 to the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

Non-operating Income (Expense), Net. Non-operating income (expense), net is comprised of interest expense, interest income, and other income (expense), net, which includes foreign currency gains (losses), equity in income (losses) from our equity-method investees, and other non-operating expenses. During the three months ended September 29, 2018, we reported non-operating income, net, of $4.8 million, as compared to non-operating expense, net, of $2.1 million for the three months ended September 30, 2017. The $6.9 million improvement was primarily driven by higher interest income of $8.1 million due to the increased balance of our investment portfolio, as well as a favorable shift to higher interest rate environments attributable to recent cash repatriations from our foreign subsidiaries.

Income Tax Provision. The income tax provision represents federal, foreign, state and local income taxes. The income tax provision decreased to $44.5 million for the three months ended September 29, 2018, from $47.4 million for the three months ended September 30, 2017. The $2.9 million decrease in the provision for income taxes was primarily due to the 410 basis point decline in our effective tax rate, partially offset by the increase in pretax income. The decline in our effective tax rate was primarily due to a net favorable change related to tax effects of stock-based compensation award settlements. Our effective tax rate during the three months ended September 29, 2018 also reflected the favorable impact of 220 basis points related to a $4.7 million measurement period adjustment recorded in connection with the TCJA. Our effective tax rate will change from period to period based on various factors including, but not limited to, the geographic mix of earnings, the timing and amount of foreign dividends, enacted tax legislation, state and local taxes, tax audit findings and settlements, and the interaction of various global tax strategies.

Net Income. Net income increased to $170.3 million for the three months ended September 29, 2018, from $143.8 million for the three months ended September 30, 2017. The $26.5 million increase in net income was primarily due to the increase in operating income and higher interest income, as previously discussed. Our operating results during the three-month periods ended September 29, 2018 and September 30, 2017 were negatively impacted by restructuring-related charges, impairment of assets, and certain other charges totaling $25.7 million and $30.4 million, respectively, which had an after-tax effect of reducing net income by $20.6 million and $20.3 million, respectively. Net income during the three months ended September 29, 2018 also reflected the favorable impact of $4.7 million related to a measurement period adjustment recorded in connection with TCJA, as previously discussed.

Net Income per Diluted Share. Net income per diluted share increased to $2.07 for the three months ended September 29, 2018, from $1.75 for the three months ended September 30, 2017. The $0.32 per share increase was due to the higher level of net income, as previously discussed. Net income per diluted share for the three-month periods ended September 29, 2018 and September 30, 2017 were negatively impacted by $0.25 per share and $0.24 per share, respectively, as a result of restructuring-related charges, impairment of assets, and certain other charges, as previously discussed. Net income per diluted share for the three months ended September 29, 2018 also reflected the favorable impact of $0.06 per share related to a measurement period adjustment recorded in connection with the TCJA, as previously discussed.

North America net revenues — Net revenues increased slightly by $0.5 million during the six months ended September 29, 2018 as compared to the six months ended September 30, 2017, including net unfavorable foreign currency effects of $0.8 million. On a constant currency basis, net revenues increased by $1.3 million, or 0.1%.

The $0.5 million net increase in North America net revenues was driven by:

a $2.2 million net increase related to our North America retail business, inclusive of net unfavorable foreign currency effects of $0.5 million. On a constant currency basis, net revenues increased by $2.7 million driven by an increase of $10.5 million in non-comparable store sales, partially offset by a decline of $7.8 million in comparable store sales.

The decline in comparable store sales was primarily driven by the timing of Easter, which benefited the fourth quarter of Fiscal 2018. Excluding the impact of Easter timing, comparable store sales were approximately flat as compared to the prior fiscal year period. The following table summarizes the percentage change in comparable store sales related to our North America retail business:

	Change
Digital commerce comparable store sales	4%
Comparable store sales excluding digital commerce	(2)%
Total comparable store sales	(1)%

This increase was partially offset by a $1.7 million net decrease related to our North America wholesale business, largely driven by a strategic reduction of shipments and points of distribution in connection with our long-term growth strategy, partially offset by a shift in timing of certain shipments.

Europe net revenues — Net revenues increased by $23.3 million, or 3.0%, during the six months ended September 29, 2018 as compared to the six months ended September 30, 2017, including net favorable foreign currency effects of $17.8 million. On a constant currency basis, net revenues increased by $5.5 million, or 0.7%.

The $23.3 million net increase in Europe net revenues was driven by:

a $20.5 million net increase related to our Europe wholesale business, primarily driven by higher sales due to stronger demand and a shift in the timing of certain shipments, as well as net favorable foreign currency effects of $4.7 million; and a $2.8 million net increase related to our Europe retail business, inclusive of net favorable foreign currency effects of $13.1 million. On a constant currency basis, net revenues decreased by $10.3 million driven by a decline of $23.5 million in comparable store sales largely attributable to assortment and inventory challenges and a decline in traffic, partially offset by an increase of $13.2 million in non-comparable store sales. The following table summarizes the percentage change in comparable store sales related to our Europe retail business:

	Change
Digital commerce comparable store sales	1 %
Comparable store sales excluding digital commerce	(7 %)
Total comparable store sales	(6 %)

Asia net revenues — Net revenues increased by $66.8 million, or 15.7%, during the six months ended September 29, 2018 as compared to the six months ended September 30, 2017, including net favorable foreign currency effects of $2.6 million. On a constant currency basis, net revenues increased by $64.2 million, or 15.1%.

The $66.8 million net increase in Asia net revenues was driven by:

a $57.7 million net increase related to our Asia retail business, inclusive of net favorable foreign currency effects of $3.0 million. On a constant currency basis, net revenues increased by $54.7 million, reflecting increases of $33.4 million in non-comparable store sales driven by new store openings and $21.3 million in comparable store sales. The following table summarizes the percentage change in comparable store sales related to our Asia retail business:

Digital commerce comparable store sales	57 %
Comparable store sales excluding digital commerce	5 %
Total comparable store sales	6 %

a $9.1 million net increase related to our Asia wholesale business, primarily driven by our expansion in Japan, South Korea, Australia, and Southeast Asia.

Gross Profit. Gross profit increased by $78.0 million, or 4.2%, to $1.925 billion for the six months ended September 29, 2018. The increase in gross profit included a net favorable foreign currency effect of $20.5 million.

Gross profit as a percentage of net revenues increased to 62.5% for the six months ended September 29, 2018 from 61.3% for the six months ended September 30, 2017. The 120 basis point increase was primarily driven by improved pricing and lower levels of promotional activity in connection with our long-term growth strategy, as well as favorable product and geographic mix.

Selling, General, and Administrative Expenses. SG&A expenses increased by $48.4 million, or 3.3%, to $1.536 billion for the six months ended September 29, 2018. This increase included a net unfavorable foreign currency effect of $10.9 million. SG&A expenses as a percentage of net revenues increased to 49.8% for the six months ended September 29, 2018 from 49.4% for the six months ended September 30, 2017. The 40 basis point increase was primarily due to our increased marketing investment and the unfavorable impact attributable to geographic and channel mix, as a greater portion of our revenue was generated by our international retail businesses (which typically carry higher operating expense margins).

The $48.4 million net increase in SG&A expenses was driven by:

Impairment of Assets. During the six-month periods ended September 29, 2018 and September 30, 2017, we recorded non-cash impairment charges of $11.1 million and $20.9 million, respectively, to write off certain fixed assets related to our domestic and international stores, shop-within-shops, and corporate offices. See Note 7 to the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

Restructuring and Other Charges. During the six-month periods ended September 29, 2018 and September 30, 2017, we recorded restructuring charges of $27.1 million and $43.9 million, respectively, in connection with our restructuring plans, consisting of severance and benefit costs, lease termination and store closure costs, and other cash charges. In addition, during the six months ended September 29, 2018, we recorded other charges of $11.2 million primarily related to depreciation expense associated with our former Polo store at 711 Fifth Avenue in New York City and our customs audit. During the six months ended September 30, 2017, we recorded net other charges of $11.5 million primarily related to depreciation expense associated with our former Polo store at 711 Fifth Avenue, the departure of Mr. Stefan Larsson, and the reversal of reserves associated with the settlement of certain non-income tax issues. See Note 8 to the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

Operating Income. Operating income increased by $56.5 million, or 19.9%, to $340.1 million for the six months ended September 29, 2018. Our operating results during the six-month periods ended September 29, 2018 and September 30, 2017 were negatively impacted by restructuring-related charges, impairment of assets, and certain other charges totaling $49.4 million and $77.6 million, respectively, as previously discussed. The increase in operating income also included a net favorable foreign currency effect of $9.6 million. Operating income as a percentage of net revenues increased to 11.0% for the six months ended September 29, 2018 from 9.4% for the six months ended September 30, 2017. The 160 basis point increase was primarily driven by the net decline in restructuring-related charges, impairment of assets, and certain other charges and the increase in our gross profit margin, partially offset by the increase in SG&A expenses as a percentage of net revenues, all as previously discussed.

Operating income and margin for our segments, as well as a discussion of the changes in each reportable segment's operating margin from the comparable prior year period, are provided below:

North America operating margin improved by 110 basis points, primarily due to the favorable impact of 120 basis points related to our wholesale business, largely driven by a decline in SG&A expenses as a percentage of net revenues and an increase in our gross profit margin. Our retail business did not have a meaningful impact on the change in our North America operating margin, as an increase in SG&A expenses as a percentage of net revenues was largely offset by an increase in our gross margin.

Europe operating margin improved by 30 basis points, primarily due to the favorable impacts of 90 basis points related to foreign currency effects and 20 basis points related to lower non-cash charges recorded in connection with our restructuring plans during the six months ended September 29, 2018 as compared to the prior fiscal year period. Excluding the impact of these items, operating margin reflected a decline of 80 basis points related to our retail business, largely driven by an increase in SG&A expenses as a percentage of net revenues.

Asia operating margin improved by 200 basis points, primarily due to the favorable impacts of 160 basis points related to our retail business and 90 basis points related to our wholesale business, both largely driven by a decline in SG&A expenses as a percentage of net revenues. The increase also reflected the favorable impact of 30 basis points related to channel mix. These increases in operating margin were partially offset by 60 basis points related to higher non-cash charges recorded in connection with our restructuring plans during the six months ended September 29, 2018 as compared to the prior fiscal year period, and unfavorable foreign currency effects of 20 basis points.

Unallocated corporate expenses decreased slightly by $0.3 million to $322.5 million during the six months ended September 29, 2018. The decline in unallocated corporate expenses was primarily due to lower impairment of asset charges of $9.0 million, lower compensation-related expenses of $7.9 million, lower depreciation and amortization of $4.3 million, and lower other expenses of $2.7 million, partially offset by higher consulting fees of $12.4 million and higher marketing and advertising expenses of $11.2 million.

Unallocated restructuring and other charges decreased by $17.1 million to $38.3 million during the six months ended September 29, 2018, as previously discussed above and in Note 8 to the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

Non-operating Income (Expense), Net. During the six months ended September 29, 2018, we reported non-operating income, net, of $7.6 million, as compared to non-operating expense, net, of $5.6 million for the six months ended September 30, 2017. The $13.2 million improvement was primarily driven by higher interest income of $15.3 million due to the increased balance of our investment portfolio, as well as a favorable shift to higher interest rate environments attributable to recent cash repatriations from our foreign subsidiaries.

Income Tax Provision. The income tax provision decreased to $68.4 million for the six months ended September 29, 2018, from $74.7 million for the six months ended September 30, 2017. The $6.3 million decrease in the provision for income taxes was primarily due to the 720 basis point decline in our effective tax rate, partially offset by the increase in pretax income. The decline in our effective tax rate was primarily due to a net favorable change related to tax effects of stock-based compensation award settlements. Our effective tax rate during the six months ended September 29, 2018 also reflected the favorable impact of 130 basis points related to a $4.7 million measurement period adjustment recorded in connection with the TCJA.

Net Income. Net income increased to $279.3 million for the six months ended September 29, 2018, from $203.3 million for the six months ended September 30, 2017. The $76.0 million increase in net income was primarily due to the increase in operating income and higher interest income, as previously discussed. Our operating results during the six-month periods ended September 29, 2018 and September 30, 2017 were also negatively impacted by restructuring-related charges, impairment of assets, and certain other charges totaling $49.4 million and $77.6 million, respectively, which had an after-tax effect of reducing net income by $39.5 million and $51.9 million, respectively. Net income during the six months ended September 29, 2018 also reflected the favorable impact of $4.7 million related to a measurement period adjustment recorded in connection with TCJA, as previously discussed.

Net Income per Diluted Share. Net income per diluted share increased to $3.37 for the six months ended September 29, 2018, from $2.47 for the six months ended September 30, 2017. The $0.90 per share increase was due to the higher level of net income, as previously discussed. Net income per diluted share for the six-month periods ended September 29, 2018 and September 30, 2017 were also negatively impacted by $0.48 per share and $0.63 per share, respectively, as a result of restructuring-related charges, impairment of assets, and certain other charges, as previously discussed. Net income per diluted share for the six months ended September 29, 2018 also reflected the favorable impact of $0.06 per share related to a measurement period adjustment recorded in connection with the TCJA, as previously discussed.

FINANCIAL CONDITION AND LIQUIDITY

Financial Condition

The following table presents our financial condition as of September 29, 2018 and March 31, 2018:

	September 29, 2018	March 31, 2018	Change

^(a) Recorded within other non-current assets in our consolidated balance sheets.

^(b) See Note 10 to the accompanying consolidated financial statements for discussion of the carrying values of our debt.

^(c) "Net cash and investments" is defined as cash and cash equivalents, plus short-term and non-current investments, less total debt.

The decrease in our net cash and investments position at September 29, 2018 as compared to March 31, 2018 was primarily due to our use of cash to support Class A common stock repurchases of $223.9 million, including withholdings in satisfaction of tax obligations for stock-based compensation awards, to invest in our business through $93.1 million in capital expenditures, and to make dividend payments of $91.3 million, partially offset by our operating cash flows of $213.0 million.

The slight increase in equity was primarily attributable to our comprehensive income and the impact of stock-based compensation arrangements, offset by our share repurchase activity and dividends declared during the six months ended September 29, 2018.

Cash Flows

The following table details our cash flows for the six-month periods ended September 29, 2018 and September 30, 2017:

	Six Months Ended
	September 29, 2018	September 30, 2017	Change
	($ millions)
Net cash provided by operating activities	$213.0	$ 437.0	$(224.0)
Net cash provided by (used in) investing activities	(732.8)	86.7	(819.5)
Net cash used in financing activities	(218.5)	(109.8)	(108.7)

Net increase (decrease) in cash, cash equivalents, and restricted cash	$(759.0)	$ 447.1	$(1,206.1)

Net Cash Provided by Operating Activities. Net cash provided by operating activities decreased to $213.0 million during the six months ended September 29, 2018, as compared to $437.0 million during the six months ended September 30, 2017. The $224.0 million net decline in cash provided by operating activities was due to a net unfavorable change related to our operating assets and liabilities, including our working capital, as compared to the prior fiscal year period, partially offset by an increase in net income before non-cash charges. The net unfavorable change related to our working capital was primarily driven by:

- a year-over-year increase in our inventory levels largely due to the timing of certain inventory receipts, as well as to support our revenue growth;
- an unfavorable change related to accrued expenses and other current liabilities largely driven by fluctuations associated with our derivative instruments; and
- an unfavorable change related to our prepaid expenses and other current assets, largely driven by the timing of cash payments.

Net Cash Provided by (Used in) Investing Activities. Net cash used in investing activities was $732.8 million during the six months ended September 29, 2018, as compared to net cash provided by investing activities of $86.7 million during the six months ended September 30, 2017. The $819.5 million net increase in cash used in investing activities was primarily driven by:

- a $776.4 million increase in purchases of investments, less proceeds from sales and maturities of investments. During the six months ended September 29, 2018, we made net investment purchases of $611.4 million, as compared to receiving net proceeds from sales and maturities of investments of $165.0 million during the six months ended September 30, 2017;

- a $23.8 million increase in payments to settle net investment hedges; and
- an $18.4 million increase in capital expenditures. During the six months ended September 29, 2018, we spent $93.1 million on capital expenditures, as compared to $74.7 million during the six months ended September 30, 2017. Our capital expenditures during the six months ended September 29, 2018 primarily related to new store openings, retail and department store renovations, and enhancements to our information technology systems.

Net Cash Used in Financing Activities. Net cash used in financing activities was $218.5 million during the six months ended September 29, 2018, as compared to $109.8 million during the six months ended September 30, 2017. The $108.7 million net increase in cash used in financing activities was primarily driven by:

- a $209.3 million increase in cash used to repurchase shares of our Class A common stock. During the six months ended September 29, 2018, we used $192.3 million to repurchase shares of Class A common stock pursuant to our common stock repurchase program, and an additional $31.6 million in shares of Class A common stock were surrendered or withheld in satisfaction of withholding taxes in connection with the vesting of awards under our long-term stock incentive plans. On a comparative basis, during the six months ended September 30, 2017, $14.6 million in shares of Class A common stock were surrendered or withheld for taxes.

This increase in cash used in financing activities was partially offset by:

- an $88.2 million increase in cash proceeds from the issuance of debt, less debt repayments. During the six months ended September 29, 2018, we received $398.1 million in proceeds from our issuance of 3.750% unsecured senior notes in August 2018, a portion of which was used to repay $300.0 million of our 2.125% unsecured senior notes that matured in September 2018. Additionally, during the six months ended September 29, 2018, we repaid $9.9 million of borrowings previously outstanding under our credit facilities. On a comparative basis, during the six months ended September 30, 2017, we did not issue or repay any debt; and
- a $21.7 million increase in proceeds from exercise of stock options.

Sources of Liquidity

Our primary sources of liquidity are the cash flows generated from our operations, our available cash and cash equivalents and short-term investments, availability under our credit facilities, our issuances of commercial paper notes, and other available financing options.

During the six months ended September 29, 2018, we generated $213.0 million of net cash flows from our operations. As of September 29, 2018, we had $1.873 billion in cash, cash equivalents, and short-term investments, of which $600.5 million were held by our subsidiaries domiciled outside the U.S. We are not dependent on foreign cash to fund our domestic operations. Given recent changes to the taxation of undistributed foreign earnings in connection with the TCJA (as discussed within "Recent Developments"), we have reevaluated our permanent reinvestment assertion and determined that undistributed foreign earnings that were subject to the TCJA's one-time mandatory transition tax were no longer considered to be permanently reinvested, effective December 31, 2017. In connection with this decision, we repatriated $252 million of cash to the U.S. from certain of our foreign subsidiaries during the fourth quarter of Fiscal 2018, and we repatriated an additional $400 million and $179 million during the first and second quarters of Fiscal 2019, respectively, all of which relate to earnings previously taxed under the TCJA. The mandatory transition tax does not apply to undistributed foreign earnings generated after December 31, 2017, and therefore we intend to permanently reinvest any such earnings. However, if our plans change and we choose to repatriate post-2017 earnings to the U.S. in the future, we would be subject to applicable U.S. and foreign taxes.

The following table presents our total availability, borrowings outstanding, and remaining availability under our credit facilities and Commercial Paper Program as of September 29, 2018:

Description ^(a)	September 29, 2018
	Total Borrowings Outstanding Availability (millions)	Remaining Availability
Global Credit Facility and Commercial Paper Program ^(b)	$ 500 $ 10	^(c) $ 490
Pan-Asia Credit Facilities ^(d)	49 —	49

^(a) As defined in Note 10 to the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

Borrowings under the Commercial Paper Program are supported by the Global Credit Facility. Accordingly, we do

^(b) not expect combined borrowings outstanding under the Commercial Paper Program and the Global Credit Facility to exceed $500 million.

^(c) Represents outstanding letters of credit for which we were contingently liable under the Global Credit Facility as of September 29, 2018.

^(d) During the third quarter of Fiscal 2019, we renewed the South Korea Credit Facility with a reduced borrowing capacity of up to 30 billion South Korean Won (approximately $27 million). Accordingly, our total availability under the Pan-Asia Credit Facilities was reduced to approximately $34 million during the third quarter of Fiscal 2019. See Note 10 to the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

We believe that our Global Credit Facility is adequately diversified with no undue concentration in any one financial institution. In particular, as of September 29, 2018, there were nine financial institutions participating in the Global Credit Facility, with no one participant maintaining a maximum commitment percentage in excess of 20%.

Borrowings under the Pan-Asia Credit Facilities are guaranteed by the parent company and are granted at the sole discretion of the participating regional branches of JPMorgan Chase (the "Banks"), subject to availability of the Banks' funds and satisfaction of certain regulatory requirements. We have no reason to believe that the participating institutions will be unable to fulfill their obligations to provide financing in accordance with the terms of the Global Credit Facility and the Pan-Asia Credit Facilities in the event of our election to draw funds in the foreseeable future. Our sources of liquidity are used to fund our ongoing cash requirements, including working capital requirements, global retail store and digital commerce expansion, construction and renovation of shop-within-shops, investment in infrastructure, including technology, acquisitions, joint ventures, payment of dividends, debt repayments, Class A common stock repurchases, settlement of contingent liabilities (including uncertain tax positions), and other corporate activities, including our restructuring actions. We believe that our existing sources of cash, the availability under our credit facilities, and our ability to access capital markets will be sufficient to support our operating, capital, and debt service requirements for the foreseeable future, the ongoing development of our businesses, and our plans for further business expansion.

See Note 10 to the accompanying consolidated financial statements and Note 11 of the Fiscal 2018 10-K for detailed disclosure of the terms and conditions of our credit facilities.

Common Stock Repurchase Program

On June 4, 2018, our Board of Directors approved an expansion of our existing common stock repurchase program that allows us to repurchase up to an additional $1.000 billion of Class A Common stock. As of September 29, 2018, the remaining availability under our Class A common stock repurchase program was approximately $907 million. Repurchases of shares of Class A common stock are subject to overall business and market conditions.

See Note 14 to the accompanying consolidated financial statements for additional information relating to our Class A common stock repurchase program.

Dividends

Since 2003, we have maintained a regular quarterly cash dividend program on our common stock. On June 4, 2018 our Board of Directors approved an increase to the quarterly cash dividend on our common stock from $0.50 to $0.625 per share.

We intend to continue to pay regular quarterly dividends on our outstanding common stock. However, any decision to declare and pay dividends in the future will be made at the discretion of our Board of Directors and will depend on our results of operations, cash requirements, financial condition, and other factors that the Board of Directors may deem relevant.

See Note 14 to the accompanying consolidated financial statements for additional information relating to our quarterly cash dividend program.

Debt and Covenant Compliance

In August 2015, we completed a registered public debt offering and issued $300 million aggregate principal amount of unsecured senior notes due August 18, 2020, which bear interest at a fixed rate of 2.625%, payable semi-annually (the "2.625% Senior Notes"). In August 2018, we completed another registered public debt offering and issued an additional $400 million aggregate principal amount of unsecured senior notes due September 15, 2025, which bear interest at a fixed rate of 3.750%, payable semi-annually (the "3.750% Senior Notes").

The indenture and supplemental indentures governing the 2.625% Senior Notes and 3.750% Senior Notes (as supplemented, the "Indenture") contain certain covenants that restrict our ability, subject to specified exceptions, to incur certain liens; enter into sale and leaseback transactions; consolidate or merge with another party; or sell, lease, or convey all or substantially all of our property or assets to another party. However, the Indenture does not contain any financial covenants.

The Global Credit Facility contains a number of covenants, as described in Note 10 to the accompanying consolidated financial statements. As of September 29, 2018, no Event of Default (as such term is defined pursuant to the Global Credit Facility) has occurred under our Global Credit Facility. The Pan-Asia Credit Facilities do not contain any financial covenants.

See Note 10 to the accompanying consolidated financial statements and Note 11 of the Fiscal 2018 10-K for additional information relating to our debt and covenant compliance.

Contractual and Other Obligations

During the first quarter of Fiscal 2019, we entered into a 16-year lease with optional renewal periods for a new corporate office in New Jersey, which we expect to take possession of during our fiscal year 2020. Additionally, during the third quarter of Fiscal 2019, we amended an existing lease agreement for a corporate office in New York City, whereby we expanded the square footage to be leased and extended the lease term through December 31, 2029, with optional renewal periods. The following table summarizes our future minimum rental payments relating to these lease agreements:

	Remainder of Fiscal Fiscal 2019 (millions)	Fiscal 2020-2021 2022-2023	Fiscal 2024 and Thereafter	Total
Minimum lease payments ^(a)	$—$ 29.6	$ 55.2	$ 261.8	$346.6

^(a) Excludes future minimum rental payments related to the original lease term and space for the corporate office in New York City, which were included in the minimum lease payments disclosed in the Fiscal 2018 10-K, as referenced below.

Refer to the "Financial Condition and Liquidity — Contractual and Other Obligations" section of the MD&A in our Fiscal 2018 10-K for detailed disclosure of our other commitments and contractual obligations as of March 31, 2018.

MARKET RISK MANAGEMENT

As discussed in Note 13 of the Fiscal 2018 10-K and Note 12 to the accompanying consolidated financial statements, we are exposed to a variety of risks, including changes in foreign currency exchange rates relating to foreign currency-denominated balances, certain anticipated cash flows from our international operations, and possible declines in the value of reported net assets of our foreign operations, as well as changes in the fair value of our fixed-rate debt obligations relating to changes in interest rates. Consequently, at times, in the normal course of business, we employ established policies and procedures, including the use of derivative financial instruments, to manage such risks. We do not enter into derivative transactions for speculative or trading purposes.

As a result of the use of derivative instruments, we are exposed to the risk that counterparties to our contracts will fail to meet their contractual obligations. To mitigate this counterparty credit risk, we have a policy of only entering into contracts with carefully selected financial institutions based upon an evaluation of their credit ratings and certain other factors, adhering to established limits for credit exposure. Our established policies and procedures for mitigating credit risk from derivative transactions include ongoing review and assessment of the creditworthiness of our counterparties. We also enter into master netting arrangements with counterparties, when possible, to mitigate credit risk associated with our derivative instruments. As a result of the above considerations, we do not believe that we are exposed to any undue concentration of counterparty risk with respect to our derivative contracts as of September 29, 2018. However, we do have in aggregate $9.2 million of derivative instruments in net asset positions with five creditworthy financial institutions.

Foreign Currency Risk Management

We manage our exposure to changes in foreign currency exchange rates through the use of forward foreign currency exchange and cross-currency swap contracts. See Note 12 to the accompanying consolidated financial statements for a summary of the notional amounts and fair values of our forward foreign currency exchange and cross-currency swap contracts outstanding as of September 29, 2018.

Forward Foreign Currency Exchange Contracts

We enter into forward foreign currency exchange contracts as hedges to reduce our risk related to exchange rate fluctuations on inventory transactions made in an entity's non-functional currency, intercompany royalty payments made by certain of our international operations, the settlement of foreign currency-denominated balances, and the translation of certain foreign operations' net assets into U.S. Dollars. As part of our overall strategy to manage the level of exposure to the risk of foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations, primarily to changes in the value of the Euro, the Japanese Yen, the South Korean Won, the Australian Dollar, the Canadian Dollar, the British Pound Sterling, the Swiss Franc, the Swedish Krona, the Chinese Renminbi, the New Taiwan Dollar, and the Hong Kong Dollar, we hedge a portion of our foreign currency exposures anticipated over a two-year period. In doing so, we use forward foreign currency exchange contracts that generally have maturities of two months to two years to provide continuing coverage throughout the hedging period of the respective exposure.

Our foreign exchange risk management activities are governed by our Company's established policies and procedures. These policies and procedures provide a framework that allows for the management of currency exposures while ensuring the activities are conducted within our established guidelines. Our policies include guidelines for the organizational structure of our risk management function and for internal controls over foreign exchange risk management activities, including, but not limited to, authorization levels, transaction limits, and credit quality controls, as well as various measurements for monitoring compliance. We monitor foreign exchange risk using different techniques, including a periodic review of market values and sensitivity analyses.

Cross-Currency Swap Contracts

During our fiscal year ended April 2, 2016 ("Fiscal 2016"), we entered into two pay-floating rate, receive-floating rate cross-currency swaps, with notional amounts of €280 million and €274 million, which we designated as hedges of our net investment in certain of our European subsidiaries. The €280 million notional cross-currency swap, which was settled during the second quarter of Fiscal 2019, swapped the U.S. Dollar-denominated variable interest rate payments based on the 3-month London Interbank Offered Rate ("LIBOR") plus a fixed spread (as paid under the 2.125% Interest Rate Swap discussed below) for Euro-denominated variable interest rate payments based on the 3-month Euro Interbank Offered Rate ("EURIBOR") plus a fixed spread, which, in conjunction with the 2.125% Interest Rate Swap, economically converted our previously-outstanding $300 million fixed-rate 2.125% Senior Notes obligation to a €280 million floating-rate Euro-denominated obligation. Similarly, the €274 million notional cross-currency swap, which matures on August 18, 2020, swaps the U.S. Dollar-denominated variable interest rate payments based on 3-month LIBOR plus a fixed spread (as paid under the 2.625% Interest Rate Swap discussed above) for Euro-denominated variable interest rate payments based on 3-month EURIBOR plus a fixed spread, which, in conjunction with the 2.625% Interest Rate Swap, economically converts our $300 million fixed-rate 2.625% Senior Notes obligation to a €274 million floating-rate Euro-denominated obligation.

Additionally, in August 2018, we entered into pay-fixed rate, receive-fixed rate cross-currency swap contracts with an aggregate notional amount of €346 million which we designated as hedges of our net investment in certain of our European subsidiaries. These contracts, which mature on September 15, 2025, swap the U.S. Dollar-denominated fixed interest rate payments on our 3.750% Senior Notes for Euro-denominated 1.29% fixed interest rate payments, thereby economically converting our $400 million fixed-rate 3.750% Senior Notes obligation to a €346 million fixed-rate 1.29% Euro-denominated obligation.

See Note 3 to the accompanying consolidated financial statements for further discussion of our foreign currency exposures, and the types of derivative instruments used to hedge those exposures.

Interest Rate Risk Management

During Fiscal 2016, we entered into two pay-floating rate, receive-fixed rate interest rate swap contracts which we designated as hedges against changes in the respective fair values of our fixed-rate 2.125% Senior Notes and our fixed-rate 2.625% Senior Notes attributed to changes in the benchmark interest rate. The interest rate swap related to the 2.125% Senior Notes (the "2.125% Interest Rate Swap"), which matured on September 26, 2018 in conjunction with the maturity of the related debt, had a notional amount of $300 million and swapped the fixed interest rate on the 2.125% Senior Notes for a variable interest rate based on 3-month LIBOR plus a fixed spread. The interest rate swap related to the 2.625% Senior Notes (the "2.625% Interest Rate Swap"), which matures on August 18, 2020 and also has a notional amount of $300 million, swaps the fixed interest rate on the 2.625% Senior Notes for a variable interest rate based on 3-month LIBOR plus a fixed spread.

Investment Risk Management

As of September 29, 2018, we had cash and cash equivalents on-hand of $553.1 million, consisting of deposits in interest bearing accounts, investments in money market deposit accounts, and investments in time deposits and commercial paper with original maturities of 90 days or less. Our other significant investments included $1.320 billion of short-term investments, consisting of investments in time deposits and commercial paper with original maturities greater than 90 days; $43.4 million of restricted cash placed in escrow with certain banks as collateral, primarily to secure guarantees in connection with certain international tax matters and real estate leases; and $69.9 million of investments with maturities greater than one year, consisting of time deposits.

We actively monitor our exposure to changes in the fair value of our global investment portfolio in accordance with our established policies and procedures, which include monitoring both general and issuer-specific economic conditions, as discussed further below. Our investment objectives include capital preservation, maintaining adequate liquidity, diversification to minimize liquidity and credit risk, and achievement of maximum returns within the guidelines set forth in our investment policy. See Note 12 to the accompanying consolidated financial statements for further detail of the composition of our investment portfolio as of September 29, 2018.

We evaluate investments held in unrealized loss positions, if any, for other-than-temporary impairment on a quarterly basis. This evaluation involves a variety of considerations, including assessments of risks and uncertainties associated with general economic conditions and distinct conditions affecting specific issuers. We consider the following factors: (i) the length of time and the extent to which the fair value has been below cost, (ii) the financial condition, credit worthiness, and near-term prospects of the issuer, (iii) the length of time to maturity, (iv) anticipated future economic conditions and market forecasts, (v) our intent and ability to retain our investment for a period of time sufficient to allow for recovery of market value, and (vi) an assessment of whether it is more likely than not that we will be required to sell our investment before recovery of market value. No material realized or unrealized gains or losses on available-for-sale investments or other-than-temporary impairment charges were recorded in any of the fiscal periods presented.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Our significant accounting policies are described in Note 3 of the Fiscal 2018 10-K. Our estimates are often based on complex judgments, assessments of probability, and assumptions that management believes to be reasonable, but that are inherently uncertain and unpredictable. It is also possible that other professionals, applying reasonable judgment to the same set of facts and circumstances, could develop and support a range of alternative estimated amounts. For a complete discussion of our critical accounting policies, see the "Critical Accounting Policies" section of the MD&A in our Fiscal 2018 10-K.

There have been no significant changes in the application of our critical accounting policies since March 31, 2018.

Goodwill Impairment Assessment

We performed our annual goodwill impairment assessment using a qualitative approach as of the beginning of the second quarter of Fiscal 2019. In performing the assessment, we identified and considered the significance of relevant key factors, events, and circumstances that affected the fair values and/or carrying amounts of our reporting units with allocated goodwill. These factors included external factors such as macroeconomic, industry, and market conditions, as well as entity-specific factors, such as our actual and expected financial performance. Additionally, the results of our most recent quantitative goodwill impairment test indicated that the fair values of these reporting units significantly exceeded their respective carrying values. Based on the results of our qualitative goodwill impairment assessment, we concluded that it is not more likely than not that the fair values of our reporting units are less than their respective carrying values, and there were no reporting units at risk of impairment.

RECENTLY ISSUED ACCOUNTING STANDARDS

We carried out an evaluation based on criteria established in the Internal Control - Integrated Framework issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (2013 Framework) under the supervision and with the participation of management, including our principal executive and principal financial officers, of the effectiveness of the design and operation of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures pursuant to Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Based on that evaluation, our principal executive and principal financial officers have concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures were effective at the reasonable assurance level as of September 29, 2018.

There has been no change in the Company's internal control over financial reporting during the fiscal quarter ended September 29, 2018 that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.
