Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On October 19, 2011, LTC Properties, Inc. entered into an amended and restated note purchase and private shelf agreement with Prudential Investment Management, Inc. (Prudential). The three-year agreement provides for the issuance of up to an aggregate of $100 million senior unsecured promissory notes to Prudential and one or more of its affiliates and managed accounts, in addition to $100 million of previously issued senior unsecured promissory notes outstanding to Prudential and certain of its affiliates and managed accounts. Any notes sold by the Company to Prudential under the agreement will be in amounts at fixed interest rates and have maturity dates (each note to have a final maturity not greater than 10 years and an average life not greater than 8 years from the date of issuance) subject to agreement by the Company and Prudential.

The agreement contains standard covenants including requirements to maintain financial ratios such as debt to asset value ratios. Under the agreement, maximum total indebtedness shall not exceed 50% of total asset value as defined in the amendment. Borrowings under the Company's note purchase and private shelf agreement are limited by reference to the value of unencumbered assets. Under the agreement, maximum unsecured debt shall not exceed 60% of the value of the unencumbered asset pool as defined in the agreement. As of October 19, 2011, the Company had $50 million outstanding in senior unsecured notes sold by the Company to Prudential in July 2010 and $50 million outstanding in senior unsecured notes sold by the Company to Prudential in July 2011.

The foregoing description of the agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the provisions of the agreement filed as an exhibit hereto.

A copy of the press release is filed as Exhibit 99.1 to this Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.
