Items 2.03 and 3.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant; Material Modification to Rights of Security Holders

Effective May 8, 2012, Ballantyne Strong, Inc. (the Company) entered into a second amendment (the Second Amendment) to its $20 million Revolving Credit Agreement with Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. (the Revolving Credit Agreement). The Second Amendment extended the maturity date to June 30, 2014.

The Company previously entered into the first amendment to the Revolving Credit Agreement (the First Amendment), effective June 28, 2011 which:

- Eliminated a covenant that previously restricted acquisitions over $7.5 million without bank approval.
- Eliminated a covenant that previously restricted dividends over $7.5 million without bank approval.
- Replaced the aforementioned covenants with one pertaining to a limitation that the Company's ratio of total liabilities to total net worth, as defined cannot exceed 2 to 1.

The First Amendment also contained certain other nonmaterial amendments to the Revolving Credit Agreement.

The Revolving Credit Agreement contains certain other covenants, including a financial condition covenant pertaining to the Company maintaining a minimum net profit before taxes plus or minus non-cash equity in income of the Digital Link II LLC joint venture, plus any non-cash charges related to the legacy film projector business, of $1, measured quarterly, on a rolling 4-quarter basis. Other covenants pertain to items such as limits on incurring additional debt or lease obligations, limits on issuing guarantees and certain limits on loans, advances and investments with third parties. Upon the occurrence of any event of default specified in the Revolving Credit Agreement, including a change in control of the Company (as defined in the Revolving Credit Agreement), all amounts due there under may be declared to be immediately due and payable. No amounts are currently outstanding on the Revolving Credit Agreement.

The Company may request an increase in the Revolving Credit Agreement by up to an additional $5 million; however, any advances on the additional $5 million are subject to approval of Wells Fargo, N.A. The borrowings from the Revolving Credit Agreement will primarily be used for working capital purposes and for other general corporate purposes. The Company's accounts receivable, general intangibles and inventory secure the Revolving Credit Agreement. No amounts are currently outstanding under the aforementioned Credit Agreement.

Borrowings under the Revolving Credit Agreement bear interest at a rate equal to LIBOR plus 125 basis points. Interest is repaid on a monthly basis. The Company will pay a fee of 0.15% per annum on any unused portion.
