Item 1. Security and Issuer

This statement relates to the Common Units representing Class B Limited Liability Company Interests (“Common Units”) of Constellation Energy Partners LLC, which is located at 1801 Main Street, Suite 1300, Houston, Texas 77002.

Item 2. Identity and Background

The reporting person is Investment Partners Asset Management, Inc., a corporation organized in the State of Delaware that does business as an investment adviser. Its principal office is located at One Highland Avenue, Metuchen, NJ 08840. During the last five years, the reporting person (i) has not been convicted in a criminal proceeding and (ii) has not been a party to a civil proceeding described in Item 2(e) of Schedule 13D.

Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration

The source of all funds used in making purchases was client assets.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

The purpose of the acquisition is investment. However, from time to time the reporting person intends to make recommendations to the issuer's management and/or board of managers with the goal of enhancing unitholder value and the income-paying capacity of the Common Units generally, through operational efficiencies, corporate finance strategies, cost containment, and corporate governance initiatives. The reporting person may also recommend strategic initiatives, such as capital structure and balance sheet restructurings or a sale, merger, acquisition, or other transaction. The reporting person seeks representation on the issuer's board, the removal of anti-takeover mechanisms, the rescission of executives' golden parachutes, and exploration of a near-term financing, merger, or sale of the issuer or similar transaction.

The reporting person on January 23, 2013, sent a further letter to the board of managers of the issuer, (attached hereto as an exhibit), stating that it may soon contact investment bankers, financial professionals, consultants, or other energy-industry specialists, asking them to propose strategies to unlock value for common unitholders and/or reinstate distributions. Some of those tactics may include, among other things, arranging for alternative methods of financing, suggesting cost-cutting methods, merging the issuer or even seeking to acquire the entire company. Should such proposals emerge, it is expected that any such professionals, consultants, or specialists will contact the issuer directly.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer

a) The reporting person believes that the number of Common Units that are outstanding is 23,689,068 as of November 9, 2012, based on information provided in the issuer's most recent quarterly report on Form 10-Q. As of January 23, 2013, the reporting person may have been deemed the beneficial owner of 1,194,193 Common Units, or approximately 5.04% of the total number of Common Units outstanding.

b) The reporting person has sole power to vote and sole dispositive power for 268,023 Common Units, or approximately 1.13% of the total number of Common Units outstanding.

Edgar Filing: Constellation Energy Partners LLC - Form SC 13D/A

The reporting person has shared voting power and shared dispositive power for 926,170 Common Units, approximately 3.91% of the total number of Common Units outstanding.

c) Clients of the reporting person have made the following purchases and sales of shares of the issuer within the past 60 days. Each such transaction was effected by Investment Partners Asset Management, Inc., on behalf of its clients. The listed transactions include year-end sales made for tax purposes.
