On April 1, 2006, the Registrant's wholly owned subsidiary, Farequest Holdings, Inc. ("Farequest"), failed to make a required principal payment to CSDH Holdings, LLC ("CSDH") under Farequest's Convertible Promissory Note (the "Note"). As of May 4, 2006, the Note had an outstanding principal balance of $700,000 and accrued but unpaid interest of $208,952 for a total amount outstanding of $908,952. On April 26, Farequest and the Registrant received a written notice of default. CSDH asserts it provided an earlier notice of default, but Farequest and the Registrant do not believe an earlier notice was received. Pursuant to the Security Agreement dated as of March 27, 2004 between Farequest and CSDH (the "Security Agreement"), payment under the Note is secured by a first priority lien on all of the assets of Farequest.

The failure to make the required payment under the Note constituted an event of default under the Security Agreement and the Note. Pursuant to the Note and the Security Agreement, at the election of CSDH, which election may be made three days after Farequest's receipt of the written notice of default, CSDH may, in addition to other remedies provided in the Note and the Security Agreement, declare the entire unpaid principal balance of the Note, and any interest due thereon, immediately due and payable, and after 10 days notice or demand to Farequest, shall have the rights of a secured party under the UCC with respect to the collateral under the Security Agreement, including the right to take possession of the collateral.

The summary of the Note and the Security Agreement contained herein is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Note and the Security Agreement, which are filed as Exhibits 10.1 and 10.2, respectively, to this Current Report on Form 8-K and are incorporated herein by reference.
