to be held on February 26, 2007

INTRODUCTION

Your proxy is solicited by the Board of Directors of Star Maritime Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”, “Star”, “we”, “us” or “our”), for use at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held on February 26, 2007, at 5:00 p.m. (Athens Time), at Star Maritime Acquisition Corp., Aethrion Center, 40 Agiou Konstantinou Avenue, 2nd Floor, Suite B34-B38, 15124 Maroussi, Athens, Greece, for the following purposes:

1. to elect, subject to the provisions of our Certificate of Incorporation, one Class A director to serve for a three-year term until his respective successor has been duly elected and qualified;
2. To ratify the appointment of Goldstein Golub Kessler LLP as the Company’s independent public accountants; and
3. To transact any other business as may properly be presented at the Annual Meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof.

The Board of Directors has set December 29, 2006, as the record date (the “Record Date”) to determine those holders of common stock, par value $0.0001 per share, of the Company (“Common Stock”) who are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Annual Meeting. A list of the stockholders entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting may be examined at the Company’s executive office during the 10-day period preceding the meeting.

The Company expects that the Notice of Annual Meeting, Proxy Statement and form of proxy will first be mailed to stockholders on or about January 26, 2007.

GENERAL INFORMATION ABOUT VOTING

Who can vote?

You can vote your shares of Common Stock if our records show that you owned the shares on the Record Date. As of the close of business on the Record Date, a total of 29,026,924 shares of Common Stock are entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. Each share of Common Stock is entitled to one vote on matters presented at the Annual Meeting.

How do I vote by proxy?

Follow the instructions on the enclosed proxy card to vote on each proposal to be considered at the Annual Meeting. Sign and date the proxy card and mail it back to us in the enclosed envelope.

The enclosed proxy, when properly signed and returned to the Company, will be voted by the proxy holders at the Annual Meeting as directed by the proxy. Proxies which are signed by stockholders but which lack any such specification will be voted in favor of the proposals set forth in the Notice of Annual Meeting.

What if other matters come up at the Annual Meeting?

The matters described in this proxy statement are the only matters we know of that will be voted on at the Annual Meeting. If other matters are properly presented at the Annual Meeting, the proxy holders will vote your shares as they see fit.

Can I change my vote after I return my proxy card?

Yes. You may revoke your proxy card at any time before its exercise at the Annual Meeting by (1) giving our Secretary a written notice revoking your proxy card, (2) sending to our Secretary a duly executed proxy bearing a later date, or (3) attending the Annual Meeting and electing to vote in person.

Can I vote in person at the Annual Meeting rather than by completing the proxy card?

Although we encourage you to complete and return the proxy card to ensure that your vote is counted, you can attend the Annual Meeting and vote your shares in person.

How are votes counted?

We will hold the Annual Meeting if holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock entitled to vote in person or by proxy either sign and return their proxy cards or attend the Annual Meeting. If you sign and return your proxy card, your shares will be counted to determine whether we have a quorum even if you abstain or fail to vote on any of the proposals listed on the proxy card. The election of directors under Proposal 1 will be by the plurality of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting. Proposal 2 shall be approved upon the vote of a majority of shares present in person or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting.

Brokers holding shares of Common Stock in street name who do not receive instructions from the beneficial owners of those shares are entitled to vote on "routine" proposals, such as the election of directors and the ratification of the Company's independent auditors.

Who pays for this proxy solicitation?

We do. In addition to sending you these materials, some of our employees may contact you by telephone, by mail, by fax, by email, or in person. None of these employees will receive any extra compensation for doing this.

Why is Star seeking stockholder approval for these proposals?

Proposal No. 1: The General Corporation Law of Delaware and The American Stock Exchange require corporations to hold elections for directors each year.

Proposal No. 2: The Company appointed Goldstein Golub Kessler LLP to serve as the Company's independent public accountants for the 2006 fiscal year. The Company elects to have its stockholders ratify such appointment.

Stockholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Annual Meeting and any adjournment or postponement thereof, are stockholders of record at the close of business on the Record Date. Persons who are not stockholders of record on the Record Date will not be allowed to vote at the Annual Meeting. At the close of business on the Record Date there were 29,026,924 shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding. We have issued no other voting securities as of the Record Date. MEETINGS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors held ten meetings during 2005. No director attended less than 75% of the meetings of any committee of which the director was a member. We do not have a policy with regard to Board members’ attendance at annual meetings of stockholders. Prior to our IPO, we did not hold any stockholder meetings.

BOARD COMMITTEES

The Board of Directors has a Nominating Committee and an Audit Committee. The Board of Directors has not established a Compensation Committee. In accordance with The American Stock Exchange procedures, a majority of the independent directors of the Board will determine the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE

The Nominating Committee was established on October 25, 2005. The purpose of the Nominating Committee is to assist the Board of Directors in identifying qualified individuals to become board members, in determining the composition of the Board of Directors and in monitoring the process to assess Board effectiveness. Prior to the Company’s IPO, the Company did not hold any stockholder meetings at which a proposal to elect directors was presented. Therefore, the Nominating Committee did not hold any meetings during 2005.

The Nominating Committee consists of two directors, each of whom meets the independence requirements and standards currently established by the American Stock Exchange. The members of the Nominating Committee are Koert Erhardt and Tom Søfteland. Each of the above-listed nominating committee members are considered “independent” under Section 121(A) (as currently applicable to the Company) of the listing standards of The American Stock Exchange, as determined by the Board of Directors.

The Nominating Committee operates under a written charter, a copy of which is attached hereto as Appendix A. A copy of the charter is not available to stockholders on the Company’s website. The Nominating Committee may retain search firms to assist in identifying suitable director candidates.

The Nominating Committee will consider director candidates recommended by security holders. Potential nominees to the Board of Directors are required to have such experience in business or financial matters as would make such nominee an asset to the Board of Directors and may, under certain circumstances, be required to be "independent", as such term is defined in the American Stock Exchange Rules and applicable SEC regulations. Security holders wishing to submit the name of a person as a potential nominee to the Board of Directors must send the name, address, and a brief (no more than 500 words) biographical description of such potential nominee to the Nominating Committee at the following address: Nominating Committee of the Board of Directors, 103 Foulk Road, Wilmington, Delaware 19803. Potential director nominees will be evaluated by personal interview, such interview to be conducted by one or more members of the Nominating Committee, and/or any other method the Nominating Committee deems appropriate, which may, but need not, include a questionnaire. The Nominating Committee may solicit or receive information concerning potential nominees from any source it deems appropriate. The Nominating Committee need not engage in an evaluation process unless (i) there is a vacancy on the Board of Directors, (ii) a director is not standing for re-election, or (iii) the Nominating Committee does not intend to recommend the nomination of a sitting director for re-election. A potential director nominee recommended by a security holder will not be evaluated any differently than any other potential nominee.

AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Board of Directors adopted a written charter for the Audit Committee, a copy of which is attached hereto as Appendix B. The Audit Committee's charter states that the responsibilities of the Audit Committee shall include:

- reviewing the Company's charter, annual report to stockholders and reports submitted to the SEC;
- naming the Company's independent auditors, confirming and reviewing their independence, and approving their fees;
 - reviewing the independent auditors' performance;
- considering the independent auditors' judgments about the Company's accounting principals;
- considering and approving major changes to the Company's auditing and accounting principals;
- establishing reporting systems to the committee by management and the independent auditors regarding management's significant judgments in preparing financial statements;
 - following an audit, reviewing significant difficulties encountered during the audit;
- reviewing significant disagreements among management and the independent auditors in the preparation of the Company's financial statements;
- reviewing the extent to which improvements in financial or accounting practices approved by the committee have been implemented; and
- review with counsel any legal matters that could have a significant impact on the Company's financial statements.

The Audit Committee did not meet during 2005, but met one time in 2006 in connection with the filing of the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal period ended December 31, 2005.

The members of the audit committee are Petros Pappas, Koert Erhardt and Tom Søfteland and each are considered "independent" under Section 121(B) (as currently applicable to the Company) of the listing standards of The American Stock Exchange, as determined by the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors has determined that we have at least one audit committee financial expert, as defined in the Exchange Act, serving on our audit committee. Mr. Tom Søfteland is the "audit committee financial expert" and is an independent member of the Board of Directors.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE (1)

The role of the Audit Committee is to assist the Board of Directors in its oversight of the Company's financial reporting process. The Board of Directors, in its business judgment, has determined that all members of the committee are "independent" as required by applicable listing standards of the American Stock Exchange. The Committee operates pursuant to a Charter that was approved by the Board. As set forth in the Charter, management of the Company is responsible for the preparation, presentation and integrity of the Company's financial statements, accounting and financial reporting principles and internal controls and procedures designed to assure compliance with accounting standards and applicable laws and regulations. The independent auditors are responsible for auditing the Company's financial statements and expressing an opinion as to their conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

In the performance of this oversight function, the Committee has reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements with management and the independent auditors. The Committee has discussed with the independent auditors the matters required to be discussed by Statement of Auditing Standards No. 61, Communication with Audit Committee, as currently in effect. Finally, the Committee has received written disclosures and the letter from the independent auditors required by Independence Standard Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees, as currently in effect, and has considered whether the provision of non-audit services by the independent auditors to the Company is compatible with maintaining the auditor's independence and has discussed with the auditors the auditors' independence.

The members of the Audit Committee are not professionally engaged in the practice of auditing or accounting, are not experts in the fields of accounting or auditing, including in respect of auditor independence. Members of the Committee rely without independent verification on the information provided to them and on the representations made by management and the independent accountants. Accordingly, the Audit Committee's oversight does not provide an independent basis to determine that management has maintained appropriate accounting and financial reporting principles or appropriate internal control and procedures designed to assure compliance with accounting standards and applicable laws and regulations. Furthermore, the Audit Committee's consideration and discussions referred to above do not assure that the audit of the Company's financial statements has been carried out in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles or that the Company's auditors are in fact "independent".

Based upon the reports, review and discussions described in this report, and subject to the limitations on the role and responsibilities of the Committee referred to above and in the Charter, the Committee recommended to the Board that the audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005, as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Stockholders wishing to communicate with the Board or any individual director must mail a communication addressed to the Secretary of the Company, 103 Foulk Road, Wilmington, Delaware 19803. Any such communication must state the number of shares of Common Stock beneficially owned by the stockholder making the communication. All of such communications will be forwarded to the full Board of Directors or to any individual director or directors to whom communication is directed unless the communication is clearly of a marketing nature or is inappropriate, in which case we have the authority to discard the communication or taking appropriate legal action regarding the communication.

CODE OF ETHICS

We adopted a code of ethics that applies to our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, and other persons who perform similar functions. A written copy of the Code will be provided upon request at no charge by writing to our Chief Financial Officer, 103 Foulk Road, Wilmington, Delaware 19803. Our Code of Ethics is intended to be a codification of the business and ethical principles which guide us, and to deter wrongdoing, to promote honest and ethical conduct, to avoid conflicts of interest, and to foster full, fair, accurate, timely and understandable disclosures, compliance with applicable governmental laws, rules and regulations, the prompt internal reporting of violations and accountability for adherence to this Code. Our Code of Ethics was filed with our Registration Statement on Form S-1/A (File No. 333-125662) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on November 23, 2005.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Summary Compensation Table

No executive officer has received any cash compensation for services rendered and no compensation of any kind, including finder's and consulting fees, will be paid to any of our officers and directors, or any of their respective affiliates, for services rendered prior to or in connection with a business combination. However, these individuals will be reimbursed for any out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with activities on our behalf such as identifying potential target businesses and performing due diligence on suitable business combinations. Such individuals may be paid consulting, management or other fees from target businesses as a result of the business combination, with any and all amounts being fully disclosed to stockholders, to the extent then known, in the proxy solicitation materials furnished to the stockholders. There is no limit on the amount of these out-of-pocket expenses and there will be no review of the reasonableness of the expenses by anyone other than our board of directors, which includes persons who may seek reimbursement, or a court of competent jurisdiction if such reimbursement is challenged.

Options Granted During 2006.

The Company does not have an incentive plan for the grant of options or other awards. The Board of Directors does not intend to adopt an incentive plan until such time that the Company obtains stockholder approval of a business combination.

Aggregate Option Exercises In Last Fiscal Year and Fiscal Year-End Values

The Company does not have an incentive plan for the grant of options or other awards. The Board of Directors does not intend to adopt an incentive plan until such time that the Company obtains stockholder approval of a business combination.

Directors' Compensation

We will reimburse our directors for any reasonable out-of-pocket business expenses incurred by them in connection with certain activities on our behalf such as identifying and investigating possible target businesses and business combinations. There is no limit on the amount of out-of-pocket expenses reimbursable by us, which will be reviewed only by our board, which includes persons who may seek reimbursement, or a court of competent jurisdiction if such reimbursement is challenged. Because directors seeking reimbursement may not be deemed "independent" we may not have the benefit of independent directors examining the propriety of expenses incurred on our behalf and subject to reimbursement. Although we believe that all actions taken by our directors on our behalf will be in our best interests, we cannot assure you that this will be the case. Other than reimbursable out-of-pocket expenses payable to our directors, no compensation or fees of any kind, including finders and consulting fees, will be paid to any of our directors, or to any of their respective affiliates for services rendered to us prior to or with respect to the business combination.

Employment Contracts

There are no employment contracts between any of the officers and the Company.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

The Board of Directors has not established a Compensation Committee. In accordance with the rules of The American Stock Exchange, a majority of the independent directors of the Board will determine the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer. Messrs. Erhardt, Søfteland and Pappas are the independent directors of the Board. Neither of them was, or has been, an officer or employee of the Company or any of our subsidiaries, or has a relationship that would constitute an interlocking relationship with executive officers or directors of the Company or another entity.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

The Board of Directors has not established a Compensation Committee. In accordance with the rules of The American Stock Exchange, a majority of the independent directors of the Board will determine the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer. As a blank check company formed for the sole purpose of acquiring, through a merger, capital stock exchange, asset acquisition or other similar business combination, one or more businesses in the shipping industry, none of our officers receive or will receive compensation for services rendered to us prior to a business combination, except for reimbursement for out of pocket expenses incurred by the officers in connection with activities on our behalf, such as identifying potential target businesses and performing due diligence on suitable business combination. It is contemplated that when we consummate a business combination, the compensation of our officers will be determined by a Compensation Committee. Such Compensation Committee will be established and be comprised of independent directors as such term is defined by the rules of the American Stock Exchange, or such other exchange act as our securities may in the future be listed. Accordingly, there have been no meetings of the independent board members to discuss the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer, and nothing to report at this time.

STOCK PRICE PERFORMANCE PRESENTATION

Currently, we have no business operations. We were formed as a blank check company for the sole purpose of acquiring, through a merger, capital stock exchange, asset acquisition or other similar business combination, one or more businesses in the shipping industry. Our current Standard Industrial Classification Code (SIC Code) is 6770 for a blank check company, and will remain as such until we complete a business combination. At such time that a business combination is consummated our SIC Code will change to reflect the industry in which we do business. Therefore, at this time we are unable to present stockholder return information since we do not currently have operations within an industry that can be compared to a peer group index by SIC Code or to the Amex Market Index.

APPENDIX B
AUDIT COMMITTEE CHARTER
OF
STAR MARITIME ACQUISITION CORP.

Adopted as of October 25, 2005

MISSION STATEMENT

The Audit Committee of Star Maritime Acquisition Corp. (the “Company”) has been established by the board of directors of the Company (the “Board”) to assist the Board in fulfilling its responsibilities to oversee the Company’s financial and accounting operations. The Audit Committee will review and be responsible for, among other things, the Company’s system of internal controls, its financial reporting process, the audit process, and the Company’s processes for monitoring compliance with laws and regulations. In performing its duties, the Audit Committee will maintain effective working relationships with the Board, management, the Company’s internal auditors, and the independent auditors. The Audit Committee will confirm with the independent auditor its understanding that it has access to the Audit Committee at any time.

ORGANIZATION AND MEETINGS

Audit Committee Composition

The Audit Committee shall consist of such number of members as the Board shall determine, but in no event less than two members until the first anniversary of the effective date of the Company’s initial public offering, after which the Audit Committee shall consist of not less than three members. The Board shall designate one member of the Audit Committee to be the Chairperson. Each member of the Audit Committee must be independent, as defined under applicable Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) and stock exchange rules and regulations as they currently exist and as they may be amended from time to time.

Each member must be able to read and understand fundamental financial statements, including a company’s balance sheet, income statement, and cash flow statement or, if and so long as permitted under applicable stock exchange rules, become able to do so within a reasonable period of time after his or her appointment to the Audit Committee. Audit Committee members shall have such other qualifications as the Board may from time to time deem appropriate in light of the mission of the Audit Committee.

At least one member of the Audit Committee shall qualify as an “audit committee financial expert” in compliance with the requirements established under applicable SEC and stock exchange laws and regulations as they currently exist and as they may be amended from time to time.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this charter, if permitted by applicable SEC and stock exchange laws and regulations in effect from time to time, one director who (i) is not independent as defined under applicable stock exchange rules, and (ii) is not a current employee or an immediate family member (as defined under applicable stock exchange rules) of such employee, may be appointed to the Audit Committee if the Board, under exceptional and limited circumstances, determines that membership on the Audit Committee by the individual is required in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders. In such event, the Board will disclose in the Company’s next annual proxy statement the nature of that director’s relationship with the Company and the reasons for that determination.

If the Company fails to comply with the Audit Committee composition requirements under applicable SEC and stock exchange rules and regulations, the Company shall have an opportunity to cure such defect as provided under such rules.

Term: Meetings

The Committee shall meet at least quarterly, or more frequently as it deems appropriate and as circumstances dictate. Any member of the Committee may call a special meeting of the Committee. Meetings of the Committee may be held telephonically.

The Committee shall periodically meet with each of management (including the Chief Financial Officer) and the independent auditors (including the audit engagement partner) in separate executive sessions to discuss any matters that the Committee or each of these groups believes would be appropriate to discuss privately. In addition, the Committee expects to meet with the independent auditors and management quarterly to review the Company's financial statements.

The Committee may invite to its meetings any director, member of management of the company and such other persons as it deems appropriate in order to carry out its responsibilities. The Committee may also exclude from its meetings any persons it deems appropriate in order to carry out its responsibilities.

ROLE AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The Committee's primary responsibility is one of oversight and it recognizes that the Company's management is responsible for preparing the Company's financial statements and that the independent auditors are responsible for auditing those financial statements. The Committee also recognizes that financial management, as well as the independent auditors, have more time, knowledge and more detailed information on the Company than do Committee members; consequently, in carrying out its oversight responsibilities, the Committee is not providing any expert or special assurance as to the Company's financial statements or any professional certification as to the independent auditor's work. The Committee shall also perform any other activities consistent with this Charter as the Audit Committee or the Board deems necessary or appropriate or as may be required under applicable SEC and stock exchange rules and regulations in effect from time to time.

The Committee may form and delegate authority to subcommittees consisting of one or more members when appropriate, including the authority to grant pre-approvals of audit and permitted non-audit services provided that the decisions of such subcommittee to grant pre-approvals shall be presented to the full Committee at its next scheduled meeting.
