PROXY STATEMENT

FOR THE ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS
TO BE HELD ON JUNE 6, 2007

GENERAL INFORMATION ABOUT VOTING

General

The enclosed proxy is solicited on behalf of the board of directors of Stamps.com Inc., for use at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held on June 6, 2007. The Annual Meeting will begin at 10:00 a.m. Pacific Daylight Savings Time at the Ritz Carlton Marina del Rey, 4375 Admiralty Way, Marina del Rey, California 90292.

Voting

On February 28, 2007, 21,868,552 shares of our common stock were issued and outstanding. As of that date we had no outstanding preferred stock. Each share of common stock is entitled to one vote at the Annual Meeting.

The nominees for election to our board of directors who receive the greatest number of votes cast for the election of directors by the shares present at the Annual Meeting, in person or by proxy, will be elected directors. You may not cumulate votes in the election of directors. The adoption of the proposal to ratify the appointment of our independent auditors requires the affirmative vote of a majority of shares present at the Annual Meeting, in person or by proxy.

A majority of the outstanding shares of our common stock present in person or represented by proxy constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business at the Annual Meeting. All votes will be tabulated by the inspector of election appointed for the meeting, who will separately tabulate affirmative and negative votes, abstentions and broker non-votes. Abstentions and broker non-votes are counted as present for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for the transaction of business. Abstentions will be counted towards the tabulations of votes cast on proposals presented to the stockholders and will have the same effect as negative votes, whereas broker non-votes will not be counted for purposes of determining whether a proposal has been approved. In the election of the director, an abstention or broker non-vote will have no effect on the outcome.

Proxies

If you properly sign and return the enclosed form of proxy, your shares represented will be voted at the Annual Meeting in accordance with your specified instructions. If you do not specify how your shares are to be voted, your shares will be voted FOR the election of the directors proposed by the board unless the authority to vote for the election of a director is withheld and, if no contrary instructions are given, the proxy will be voted FOR the ratification of our independent accountants. You may revoke or change your proxy at any time before the Annual Meeting by filing with our Secretary at 12959 Coral Tree Place, Los Angeles, CA 90066-7020, a notice of revocation or another signed proxy with a later date. You may also revoke your proxy by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person.

Solicitation

We will bear the entire cost of solicitation, including the preparation, assembly, printing and mailing of this proxy statement, the proxy and any additional solicitation materials furnished to our stockholders. Copies of solicitation materials will be furnished to brokerage houses, fiduciaries and custodians holding shares in their names that are beneficially owned by others so that they may forward this solicitation material to such beneficial owners. In addition, we may reimburse such persons for costs incurred in forwarding the solicitation materials to such beneficial owners. The original solicitation of proxies by mail may be supplemented by a solicitation by telephone, telegram or other means by our directors, officers or employees. No additional compensation will be paid to these individuals for soliciting. Except as described above, we do not presently intend to solicit proxies other than by mail.

Deadline for Receipt of Stockholder Proposals

Proposals of stockholders that are intended to be presented by such stockholders at our 2008 annual meeting must be received no later than January 12, 2008, in order that they may be included in the proxy statement and form of proxy relating to that meeting. In addition, the proxy solicited by our board of directors for the 2008 annual meeting will confer discretionary authority to vote on any stockholder proposal presented at that meeting, unless our Company receives notice of the proposal not later than March 9, 2008.

COMPENSATION DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

The goals of our executive management compensation program are to align management's interests with those of long-term stockholders, and to attract and retain executive management talent at the Company by providing overall compensation that is comparable to what is available through other employment opportunities for those individuals.

Overall Methodology of Setting Compensation

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors approves all compensation and awards to the chief executive and all executive management. This group typically includes the chief financial officer, the general counsel, the vice president of sales and marketing, the vice president of research and development, the vice president of information technology, and the chief accounting officer. The Compensation Committee reviews the performance and compensation of the chief executive officer and, following discussions with the chief executive officer, establishes his compensation level. For the remaining executive management, the chief executive officer makes recommendations to the Compensation Committee that generally, with minor adjustments, are approved. With respect to equity compensation, the Compensation Committee grants stock options generally based upon the recommendation of the chief executive officer.

To establish overall compensation benchmarks for our executive management, the chief executive officer and the Compensation Committee utilize reports and data from Culpepper & Associates (Culpepper), a nationally recognized firm that conducts worldwide salary surveys and provides benchmark data for compensation and employee benefit programs. The Culpepper database includes compensation data for approximately 1800 IT services, software, hardware and life sciences companies, including over 950 U.S. public companies.

In order to derive an accurate group of comparable companies from the Culpepper database the chief executive officer and the Compensation Committee use several groupings within the database as follows: (a) all companies of similar size based on revenue; (b) all companies located in Southern California (or in areas with similar cost-of-living levels if the number of companies in Southern California is not a sufficiently large enough sample); and (c) all companies that are traded publicly in U.S. public markets. A weighted average of compensation from the companies in each of these groups is then taken. Size (as measured by total revenue) is considered the most important factor among the above factors when comparing compensation at Stamps.com to other companies; therefore, the group of companies with similar size is weighted at 50%. The group of companies in the same geographic region is then weighted at 25% and, finally, the group of U.S. public companies is weighted at 25%. The weighted average analysis results in a weighted average base salary benchmark, and a weighted average total cash compensation benchmark for each member of executive management.

In setting compensation for executive management the chief executive officer and the Compensation Committee also consider several factors for each individual, such as: (a) the performance of each individual; (b) performance of the overall Company during the period which the individual has held a position; and (c) the anticipated level of difficulty of replacing each person with someone of comparable experience and skill.

Each Element of Compensation, Why We Pay It, and How We Determine Amounts

We currently compensate our executive management through three main elements: base salary, incentive pay, and equity participation. Certain members of our executive management also have post-termination compensation arrangements.

We pay a base salary to each of our senior managers in order to allow them to cover their living expenses and in order to correspond with the standard practice of nearly all other employers. We establish base salaries for each individual each year based on a comparison to the benchmarks established using the aforementioned weighted average method. We typically seek to set individual base salaries in a range of 40th to 60th percentile versus the individual's weighted average base salary benchmark; for fiscal 2006, each individual's base salary ended up between the 40th and 57th percentile.

We pay incentive compensation to each of our senior managers in order to provide incentives for them to guide the business toward annual goals that are set by the Compensation Committee. Our incentive-based compensation is set based on a group bonus pool. The total bonus pool each year is determined based on a base pool amount, and certain modifiers that can move the final pool amount up or down from the base pool level based on performance targets for the year. Once the final group bonus pool is set after the year is complete, it is allocated out to individual executive management based on (i) individual performance and contributions to our Company during the year; and (ii) individual compensation relative to the weighted average total compensation benchmarks.

For the bonus pool paid out in fiscal 2006, four separate performance targets were used: (1) our fiscal 2005 total revenue growth from our PC Postage business line; (2) our fiscal 2005 total revenue from our PhotoStamps business line; (3) our fiscal 2005 PhotoStamps total gross profit less directly attributable marketing costs; and (4) our fiscal 2005 total earnings per fully diluted weighted average share, minus the outcome in aforementioned performance target number three. For the bonus pool paid out in fiscal 2006, the range of potential outcomes set for the bonus pool based on the performance targets was zero for well below expectation performance to as much as 3.2 times the original base pool for extraordinary performance. The actual final outcome was to increase the base pool by 1.65, based on the performance of the company relative to the aforementioned performance targets, and based on several intangible factors that drove the overall Company performance in fiscal 2005. The final bonus pool represented approximately 30% of the total compensation for the executive manager group included in the bonus pool program, and, following allocation of the bonus pool, each individual's total compensation for the year ended up between the 31st and the 55th percentile relative to the weighted average total compensation benchmark for that executive manager. In particular, our CEO and CFO ended up with total effective fiscal 2006 compensation which was approximately 45th percentile and 45th percentile, respectively, versus the weighted average total compensation benchmarks for chief executive officers and chief financial officers in our test group.

We grant equity participation to each of our executive managers in order to provide incentives for them to guide the business toward our long-term goal of increasing shareholder value. Historically, the primary form of equity participation that we have awarded our executive management consisted of incentive stock options (ISOs) and non-qualified stock options. We selected this form of equity participation because of the favorable accounting and tax treatments, and the near universal expectation by executive management employed in software and technology that they would receive stock options. When we grant stock options, our practice is for our chief executive officer to meet with the Compensation Committee to discuss appropriate levels of stock option grants for each executive manager. Timing of stock option grants typically relates to (i) new employee hires, (ii) promotions of existing employees, (iii) year end performance reviews of employees, or (iv) company-wide option grants as deemed appropriate by the Compensation Committee.

We provide post-termination compensation arrangements to certain members of our executive management as we believe that it is important to give them some limited protection in the event they are terminated without cause or terminated following a change in control of the Company. Further, it is our belief that the interests of stockholders will be best served if the interests of our executive management are aligned with them, and providing change in control benefits should eliminate, or at least reduce, the reluctance of executive management to pursue potential change in control transactions that may be in the best interests of stockholders. The cash components of all of our executive management post-termination compensation arrangements, if any, range from three to six months of base salary, and typically also include continuing health benefits during the same period.

Other Benefits

As reflected in the Summary Compensation Table, we do not provide perquisites to our executive management. Executive management participates in Stamps.com's standard benefit plans on the same terms as other employees. These plans include medical and dental insurance, 401(k), life insurance, charitable gift matching (limited to 50% matching of up to $200 per employee per year) and the employee stock purchase plan. Relocation benefits for executive management may also be reimbursed but are individually negotiated when they occur.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT

The Compensation Committee, which is composed solely of independent members of the Board of Directors, assists the Board in fulfilling its responsibilities with regard to compensation matters, and is responsible under its Committee charter for determining the compensation of Stamps.com's executive officers. In previous proxy statements, the Committee submitted reports that sought to describe in detail the philosophy and execution of executive compensation at Stamps.com. In accordance with SEC rules that are now effective for this and future proxy statements, a new Compensation Discussion and Analysis section includes this information. In addition, the Executive Compensation section includes more information concerning the compensation of our listed officers than has been published previously.

In this regard, the Compensation Committee has reviewed and discussed the Compensation Discussion and Analysis section of this proxy statement with management, including our Chief Executive Officer, Ken McBride. Based on this review and discussion, the Compensation Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the Compensation Discussion and Analysis section be included in Stamps.com's 2006 Annual Report and in this proxy statement.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENTS, TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT AND CHANGE-IN-CONTROL ARRANGEMENTS

During 2001, in a period of exploring our strategic alternatives, we adopted a bonus plan for a number of our officers, including Mr. McBride. The plan provided the option to elect to receive cash payments or stock options at fair market value upon completion of certain milestones. Benefits under this plan would accrue if certain transactions were completed and we sold assets of the postage business in a transaction that avoided a time consuming wind-down process. A different level of benefits would also be payable under this plan in the event that management was unable to complete a transaction and other alternatives were pursued while we engaged in a time consuming wind-down process. In light of our current circumstances in the Company, this bonus plan is no longer relevant.

All of our named executive officers have executed and delivered a copy of our confidential information and invention assignment agreement in connection with their employment. Messrs. McBride, Huebner, Bortnak and Weisberg have entered into separation agreements with our Company such that in the event of a termination without cause or a termination following a change of control, these officers shall receive six months salary and benefits. Mr. Leon has entered into a separation agreement with our Company such that in the event of a termination without cause or a termination following a change of control, he shall receive three months salary and benefits. Mr. Ogg, our former Vice President of R&D, received six months salary and benefits upon his departure from Stamps.com in January 2005. Mr. Ogg also received an additional payment of $25,000 on July 31, 2005, for support in transitional and other matters. Mr. Stables, our former Vice President of IT, received six months salary and benefits upon his departure from Stamps.com in September 2005.

In April 1999, we amended our 1998 Stock Plan to implement a change in control provision. As a result of this provision, should any optionee have his or her service involuntarily terminated within 18 months following a change in control in which his or her options are assumed by the successor corporation and do not otherwise accelerate at that time, then those options will accelerate and become fully exercisable for all of the option shares as fully-vested shares of common stock upon an involuntary termination. A change in control under the 1998 Stock Plan is defined as a merger or consolidation in which securities possessing more than 50% of the total combined voting power of our outstanding securities are transferred to a person or persons different from those who held those securities immediately prior to the transaction, or the sale, transfer or other disposition of all or substantially all of our assets in complete liquidation or dissolution. Involuntary Termination is defined under the 1998 Stock Plan as the optionee's involuntary dismissal or discharge by us for reasons other than misconduct, or the optionee's voluntary resignation following: a change in his or her position with us which materially reduces his or her responsibilities;

(ii)
a reduction in his or her level of compensation by more than 15%; or

(iii)
a relocation of the optionee's place of employment by more than 50 miles, and this change, reduction or relocation is effected by us without the optionee's consent.

Our 1999 Stock Incentive Plan is a successor plan to our 1998 Stock Plan, and includes change in control provisions which may result in the accelerated vesting of outstanding option grants and stock issuances.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Transactions with Mr. Ananda

Under our initial agreements with Mr. Ananda, we own all of the intellectual property developed by Mr. Ananda during the course of his employment and all of the intellectual property he developed for us before his formal employment began. Mr. Ananda resigned as our Chief Executive Officer on January 1, 1999. In May 1999, we entered into a separation agreement and a license agreement with Mr. Ananda to formalize his resignation and to redefine his intellectual property rights. The new license agreement reaffirmed our ownership of the intellectual property invented by Mr. Ananda prior to and during his employment. In addition, the license agreement clarified and narrowed Mr. Ananda's field of use restrictions to limit his license to a few narrowly defined electronic commerce applications that do not compete with our Internet postage service.

Indemnification of Directors and Officers

In addition to the indemnification provisions contained in our certificate of incorporation and bylaws, we entered into separate indemnification agreements with certain of our directors and officers. These agreements require us, among other things, to indemnify our directors and officers against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and settlements paid by those individuals in connection with any action, suit or proceeding arising out of their status or service as our director or officer (other than liabilities arising from willful misconduct or conduct that is knowingly fraudulent or deliberately dishonest) and to advance expenses incurred in connection with any proceeding against them with respect to which they may be entitled to indemnification by us.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

The members of our board of directors, our executive officers and persons who hold more than ten percent of our outstanding common stock are subject to the reporting requirements of Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act which require them to file reports with respect to their ownership of our common stock and their transactions in our common stock. Based upon the copies of Section 16(a) reports which we received for fiscal year 2006 transactions in our common stock and their common stock holdings, we believe that, other than as detailed below, all reporting requirements under Section 16(a) for that fiscal year were met in a timely manner by our directors, executive officers and greater than ten percent beneficial owners.

On April 21, 2006, James A. Harper filed a Form 4; the correct date of such filing was April 5, 2006. On May 9, 2006, Ken McBride filed a Form 4; the correct date of such filing was May 3, 2006. On June 15, 2006, Mohan Ananda, Kevin Douglas, Brad Jones and Lloyd I. Miller all filed Form 4s; the correct date of such filings was June 9, 2006.
