PART III — NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Four purported shareholder derivative suits were filed recently against certain current and former officers and directors of the Registrant relating to the timing of stock option grants. In light of these suits, the Registrant initiated and completed a review of its historical stock option granting practices, including all option grants since the Registrant's initial public offering in May 1998, and reported the results of the review to the Audit Committee of the Registrant's Board of Directors. The review identified a small number of immaterial exceptions to non-cash compensation expense. The review identified no material inaccuracies requiring adjustment with respect to the current and historical financial statements of the Registrant, and the Audit Committee concluded that no further action was necessary.

The Registrant's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended September 30, 2006 could not be filed within the prescribed time without unreasonable effort or expense because additional time was required to complete this review. The Registrant expects to file its Quarterly Report on November 14, 2006.
