CITIC Prudential awarded group life insurance licence in China

Embargo 07.00 Monday 31st January 2005

CITIC Prudential, the 50:50 life insurance joint venture between CITIC and Prudential plc today announced that it has been awarded a licence by the China Insurance Regulatory Commission (CIRC) to sell group life insurance business in the rapidly growing Chinese market.

Wang Chuan, Vice Chairman CITIC Group said, "This new licence for group life insurance complements the company's rapid geographic expansion in China. We are confident CITIC Prudential will continue its impressive track record of growth and look forward to more positive developments in 2005."

Mark Norbom, Chief Executive of Prudential Corporation Asia said "We are very pleased that we have been awarded a group life insurance licence for China. We are committed to meeting more of the savings, protection and investment needs of the Chinese people and this licence will allow us to offer large numbers of new customers our high quality products and services."

Captain Chia, Chief Executive Officer, CITIC Prudential commented, "CITIC Prudential continues to grow its presence in China reaching out to more and more customers. In September 2004 we launched our Suzhou operation, in November 2004 we were awarded a life insurance licence for Shanghai. This latest licence, for group life insurance, is further evidence of CITIC Prudential's strong momentum in the rapidly growing Chinese life insurance market."

CITIC Prudential has seen great success since launching in Guangzhou on 13 October 2000. It is the first Sino-British life insurance joint venture, and is already among the top five providers in the Guangzhou market in terms of new business. In August 2003, CITIC Prudential successfully launched their second operation in Beijing, and in September 2004 their third in Suzhou. In November 2004 CITIC Prudential was awarded a life insurance licence for Shanghai. CITIC Prudential Shanghai branch is expected to be open for business in the first quarter of 2005.

CITIC Prudential will begin offering group life insurance products in Q2 2005.
