Item 8.01 Other Events.

On September 30, 2010, Validus Holdings, Ltd. (the "Company") entered into a written stock purchase plan under Rule 10b5-1 (the "Plan") under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), to facilitate the continuing repurchase by the Company of its common shares (the "Common Shares") pursuant to the Company's current share repurchase program. As of September 30, 2010, the Company had approximately $159 million remaining under its current share repurchase program.

The Plan provides that a broker selected by the Company has the authority to repurchase Common Shares at prevailing market prices on the New York Stock Exchange, any national securities exchange, in the over-the-counter market, on an automated trading system or otherwise, pursuant to the terms of and subject to the limitations specified in the Plan. The Plan will allow the Company's broker to repurchase Common Shares on behalf of the Company during the Company's closed trading period imposed in connection with the Company's third quarter 2010 earnings release, to the extent such purchases are permitted pursuant to Regulation M under the Exchange Act and other applicable securities laws. There can be no assurance that any Common Shares will be repurchased by the Company either through the Plan or otherwise.

The Company may amend or modify the Plan at any time, so long as, among other things, the amendment or modification is made in good faith and not as a part of a plan or scheme to evade the prohibitions of Rule 10b-5 under the Exchange Act, or other applicable securities laws.
