The initial term of the Reddic Employment Agreement began on May 14, 2007 and will end on December 31, 2009, unless earlier terminated. Following December 31, 2009, the term will automatically be extended for successive one-year periods unless either party notifies the other party of non-renewal in writing at least 90 days prior to the expiration of the initial term or any subsequent renewal period.

The Reddic Employment Agreement provides for an initial annual base salary of $225,000. In addition to his base salary, Mr. Reddic will be eligible to earn an annual target cash bonus in the following amounts based upon performance criteria to be determined by the Registrant's Chief Executive Officer in consultation with Mr. Reddic: (1) for fiscal year 2007, up to 105% of his pro-rated annual base salary; and (2) for each fiscal year thereafter, up to 105% of his annual base salary. Mr. Reddic is also eligible to participate in the Registrant's 2007 Omnibus Incentive Plan, with grants to be made at such times and in such amounts as determined by the Registrant's compensation committee.

If Mr. Reddic's employment is terminated (1) by the Registrant without cause, (2) by Mr. Reddic for good reason, (3) because the Registrant elects not to renew the Reddic Employment Agreement, or (4) due to Mr. Reddic's death or disability, in addition to certain payments for compensation accrued but unpaid and expenses incurred but not reimbursed, he will be entitled to a pro-rated annual bonus for the then-current year, and upon execution of a release of any claims by him, an amount equal to the sum of (1) his annual salary, and (2) the average of his annual bonus for the three years prior to the year of termination. He will also be entitled to up to twelve months of continuing medical benefits. The Reddic Employment Agreement also provides that, in the event of a termination of employment without cause, for good reason, or resulting from a change of control event, previously issued equity grants subject to time based vesting conditions will immediately vest. If Mr. Reddic's employment is terminated by the Registrant for cause or by Mr. Reddic without good reason, Mr. Reddic will be entitled to payments for accrued but unpaid compensation and expenses incurred but not reimbursed.

Mr. Reddic is subject to a number of restrictive covenants, including provisions relating to non-solicitation, noninterference and confidentiality. Mr. Reddic will be entitled to the same rights to indemnification in connection with the performance of his duties under the Reddic Employment Agreement as other executive officers and directors of the Registrant.

The foregoing description of the Reddic Employment Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Reddic Employment Agreement, which is filed herewith as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein by reference.
