Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

As previously announced, the Compensation and Human Resources Committee of the Board of Directors of Silicon Graphics, Inc. (the Company) approved the distribution of a discretionary bonus pool for participating employees, including, among others, vice presidents, executive officers and the named executive officers still with the Company. Under the discretionary bonus pool, the Chief Executive Officer determines awards for executive officers (including named executive officers still with the Company) and vice presidents based on individual performance results as determined by the Chief Executive Officer. The Chief Executive Officer is authorized to apply his discretion in awarding such bonuses. On September 25, 2008, the Chief Executive Officer approved final bonus calculations. The table below shows the bonus amounts received by certain of the Company's executive officers, including the Company's named executive officers still with the Company. Mr. Britt's bonus is not part of the discretionary bonus pool as it was guaranteed at the time of his hire and was disclosed in a previous Current Report on Form 8-K.
