PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

As described in the Current Report on Form 8-K filed by AssuranceAmerica Corporation (the Company) on March 30, 2012, the Company determined that it will need to restate its previously issued financial statements for the fiscal years 2009 and 2010, the interim periods contained therein, and the quarterly statements for the first three quarters of 2011. As disclosed in the report, the need to restate these financial statements primarily resulted from a determination by the Company that the process it used to record transactions to its accounting system for insufficient funds on policy payments from insureds resulted in an overstatement of the Company's accounts receivable.

The restatement process has resulted in delays in obtaining and compiling the financial data necessary to complete the restatement and prepare the Company's financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2011. As a result, the Company has been unable to complete the preparation and review of its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2011 in time to file it by the prescribed deadline of March 30, 2012 without unreasonable effort and expense. However, the Company expects to file its Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2011 within the fifteen-day extension provided by Rule 12b-25.
