Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

As previously disclosed, Autoliv ASP Inc., a subsidiary of Autoliv, Inc. (the Company), received a grand jury subpoena from the Antitrust Division of the United States Department of Justice (DOJ) on February 8, 2011. The subpoena requested documents and information as part of a broad and long-running investigation into possible anti-competitive behavior among suppliers to the automotive vehicle industry, including the Company. In connection therewith, on June 6, 2012, the Company entered into a plea agreement with the United States of America.

Under the terms of the agreement, which is subject to court approval, the Company will plead guilty to two counts of antitrust law violations involving a Japanese subsidiary and pay a fine of $14.5 million. The DOJ will not otherwise prosecute Autoliv or any of its subsidiaries or present or former directors, officers or employees for the matters investigated. Three employees in the sales organization are excluded from the non-prosecution provision of the agreement, but no decision has been communicated by the DOJ regarding these employees. The Company will continue to cooperate with the DOJ in its investigations of other auto-parts suppliers.

A copy of the Company's press release describing the resolution with the DOJ is attached as Exhibit 99.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.
