Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.
Credit Agreements

The Acquisition and the Merger

On June 15, 2014, Medtronic, Inc., a Minnesota corporation (Medtronic), entered into a Transaction Agreement (the Transaction Agreement) by and among Medtronic, Covidien plc, an Irish public limited company (Covidien), Medtronic Holdings Limited (f/k/a Kalani I Limited), a private limited company organized under the laws of Ireland (New Medtronic), Makani II Limited, a private limited company organized under the laws of Ireland and a wholly owned subsidiary of New Medtronic (IrSub), Aviation Acquisition Co., Inc., a Minnesota corporation (U.S. AcquisitionCo), and Aviation Merger Sub, LLC, a Minnesota limited liability company and a wholly owned subsidiary of U.S. AcquisitionCo (MergerSub). Under the terms of the Transaction Agreement, (i) IrSub will acquire Covidien (the Acquisition) pursuant to a scheme of arrangement under Section 201, and a capital reduction under Sections 72 and 74, of the Irish Companies Act of 1963 (the Scheme) and (ii) MergerSub will merge with and into Medtronic, with Medtronic as the surviving corporation in the merger (such merger, the Merger, and the Merger together with the Acquisition, the Transactions). As a result of the Transactions, both Medtronic and Covidien will become wholly owned subsidiaries of New Medtronic. At the effective time of the Scheme, Covidien shareholders will be entitled to receive $35.19 in cash and 0.956 of a newly issued New Medtronic share (the Scheme Consideration) in exchange for each Covidien share held by such shareholders.

Medtronic initially contemplated financing a substantial portion of the cash component of the Scheme Consideration through an intercompany loan from one or more of its non-U.S. subsidiaries to IrSub. However, as announced on October 3, 2014, following the September 22, 2014 announcement by the U.S. Treasury Department and the IRS, Medtronic now expects that it will incur approximately $16.3 billion in external indebtedness to finance the cash component of the Scheme Consideration. Medtronic expects that a substantial portion of such external indebtedness will be incurred by Medtronic prior to the consummation of the Transactions and will be guaranteed by New Medtronic. As a result, Medtronic, or its affiliates, will have a sufficient amount of cash available to it by the time of the consummation of the Transactions to fund the cash component of the Scheme Consideration.

Bridge Credit Agreement

On November 7, 2014, Medtronic entered into a 364-day senior unsecured bridge credit agreement (the Bridge Credit Agreement), among Medtronic, New Medtronic, Medtronic Global Holdings SCA, a partnership limited by shares incorporated in Luxembourg and a wholly owned indirect subsidiary of New Medtronic (Medtronic Luxco), the lenders from time to time party thereto and Bank of America, N.A., as administrative agent. Under the Bridge Credit Agreement, the lenders party thereto have committed to provide Medtronic with unsecured bridge financing in an aggregate principal amount of up to $11.3 billion. The commitments are intended to be available to finance, in part, the cash component of the Scheme Consideration and certain transaction expenses to the extent Medtronic does not arrange for alternative financing prior to the consummation of the Transactions. New Medtronic and Medtronic Luxco have guaranteed the obligations of Medtronic under the Bridge Credit Agreement. If Medtronic draws loans under the Bridge Credit Agreement, it intends to refinance any such loans with the proceeds of other external indebtedness.

Term Loan Credit Agreement

On November 7, 2014, Medtronic also entered into a three-year senior unsecured term loan credit agreement (the Term Loan Credit Agreement and, together with the Bridge Credit Agreement, the Credit Agreements), among Medtronic, New Medtronic, Medtronic Luxco, the lenders from time to time party thereto and Bank of America, N.A., as administrative agent. Under the Term Loan Credit Agreement, the lenders party thereto have committed to provide Medtronic with unsecured term loan financing in an aggregate principal amount of up to $5.0 billion. Medtronic intends to draw upon such commitments upon the consummation of the Transactions to finance, in part, the cash component of the Scheme Consideration and certain transaction expenses. New Medtronic and Medtronic Luxco have guaranteed the obligations of Medtronic under the Term Loan Credit Agreement.

Termination of Existing Bridge Credit Agreements

In connection with entering into the Bridge Credit Agreement and the Term Loan Credit Agreement, on November 7, 2014, Medtronic terminated the unsecured bridge commitments previously provided to it in an aggregate principal amount of $2.8 billion under a 364-day senior unsecured bridge credit agreement dated as of June 15, 2014. On the same date, IrSub terminated the unsecured bridge commitments previously provided to it in an aggregate principal amount of $13.5 billion under a 60-day senior unsecured cash bridge credit agreement dated as of June 15, 2014.

Summary of Terms of the Bridge Credit Agreement and the Term Loan Credit Agreement

The funding of the loans under each Credit Agreement (the Closing Date) is conditioned on, among other things, the consummation of the Transactions and the absence of certain events of defaults described in each Credit Agreement. The commitments under each Credit Agreement automatically terminate on the earliest of (a) the disbursement of the loans to Medtronic on the Closing Date, (b) the occurrence of certain mandatory cancellation events (as defined in the Credit Agreements) or (c) March 15, 2015 (or, if all but certain conditions under the Transaction Agreement have been completed, June 15, 2015).

Loans outstanding under each Credit Agreement will bear interest, at Medtronic's option, either (a) at the base rate (defined as the highest of (1) the prime rate of Bank of America, N.A., (2) the federal funds rate plus 0.50% and (3) the applicable interest rate for a eurodollar loan with a one month interest period beginning on such day plus 1.00%) or (b) at the eurodollar rate, plus, in each case, an applicable margin that will vary depending on the debt rating of Medtronic and, in the case of the Bridge Credit Agreement, the number of days which the loans remain outstanding from the Closing Date. In addition, under each Credit Agreement, Medtronic has agreed to pay (x) nonrefundable ticking interest of 0.05% per annum accrued on a daily basis on the amount of the aggregate commitments thereunder in effect from November 7, 2014 through the termination of such commitments and (y) solely in the case of the Bridge Credit Agreement, a non-refundable duration fee of 0.50%, 0.75% and 1.00% on the 90th, 180th and 270th days, respectively, after the Closing Date on the aggregate principal amount of the loans outstanding on such day.

Medtronic may voluntarily prepay the loans under each Credit Agreement at any time without premium or penalty. The Bridge Credit Agreement also requires mandatory prepayments with the net cash proceeds of certain asset sales, debt or equity issuances and recovery events, subject to customary exceptions. Each Credit Agreement also contains customary events of default, upon the occurrence of which, and for so long as such event of default is continuing, the amounts outstanding under such Credit Agreement will accrue interest at an increased rate and payments of such outstanding amounts could be accelerated by the lenders. In addition, the loan parties under each Credit Agreement will be subject to certain affirmative and negative covenants.

The foregoing descriptions of the terms of the Credit Agreements are only summaries, and do not purport to be complete, and are qualified in their entirety by the complete text of the Credit Agreements, copies of which are filed as Exhibits 10.1 and 10.2 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

Amendment and Restatement Agreement to the Revolving Credit Agreement

On November 7, 2014, Medtronic also entered into an amendment and restatement agreement (the "Revolver Amendment Agreement"), among Medtronic, New Medtronic, Medtronic Luxco, the lenders from time to time party thereto and Bank of America, N.A., as administrative agent and issuing bank. Under the Revolver Amendment Agreement, the parties thereto have agreed to enter into an amendment and restatement (the "Amended and Restated Revolving Credit Agreement") of Medtronic's existing $2.25 billion five-year senior unsecured credit agreement dated as of December 17, 2012, among Medtronic, the lenders from time to time party thereto and Bank of America N.A., as administrative agent and issuing bank.

The effectiveness of the Amended and Restated Revolving Credit Agreement is conditioned on, among other things, the consummation of the Acquisition. Under the Amended and Restated Revolving Credit Agreement, the lenders party thereto will provide Medtronic and Medtronic Luxco with unsecured revolving credit commitments in an aggregate principal amount of up to $3.5 billion. The commitments are intended to be used for general corporate purposes, including acquisitions and working capital of Medtronic and Medtronic Luxco, and to replace the revolving credit facility currently available to Covidien. Medtronic and Medtronic Luxco will be co-borrowers under the Amended and Restated Revolving Credit Agreement and each of Medtronic, Medtronic Luxco and New Medtronic will also guarantee the obligations of the co-borrowers under the Amended and Restated Revolving Credit Agreement.

The foregoing descriptions of the terms of the Revolver Amendment Agreement and the Amended and Restated Revolving Credit Agreement are only summaries, and do not purport to be complete, and are qualified in their entirety by the complete text of the Revolver Amendment Agreement (and the Amended Revolving Credit Agreement attached thereto in the form of an annex), a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.3 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.
