Item 5.02(c). Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On September 1, 2016, Fidus Investment Corporation (the Company) announced the promotion of Thomas C. Lauer, 49, to President of Fidus Investment Corporation. Edward Ross, who had held the title of President, will continue to serve as the Company's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Lauer will continue to serve as a director and member of the investment committee.

Mr. Lauer has more than 25 years of experience investing debt and equity capital in lower middle-market companies and has been a member of the Fidus platform since 2008 and a director of the Company since its IPO in 2011. Prior to joining Fidus, Mr. Lauer was a managing director of Allied Capital Corporation from 2004 to 2008, where he was a member of various investment committees. Earlier in his career, Mr. Lauer held positions at the Global Sponsor Finance Group of GE Capital, the Leveraged Capital Group at Wachovia Securities and its predecessor, First Union Securities, Inc., and the Platform Components Division of Intel Corporation.

There is no arrangement or understanding between Mr. Lauer and any other person pursuant to which he was appointed as President, nor is there any family relationship between Mr. Lauer and any of the Company's directors or other executive officers. There are no transactions since the beginning of the Company's last fiscal year, or any currently proposed transaction, in which the Company is a participant, the amount involved exceeds $120,000, and in which Mr. Lauer had, or will have, a direct or indirect material interest.

The press release announcing Mr. Lauer's appointment is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits.
