Dear Stockholder:

Your vote is very important.

You are invited to attend a special meeting of stockholders (the special meeting) of Mercersburg Financial Corporation to be held on September 11, 2018, at 10:00 a.m., local time, at the Mercersburg American Legion Post 517, 100 Keefer Drive, Mercersburg, Pennsylvania. The special meeting is being held to approve, among other things, the merger of Mercersburg Financial Corporation with Orrstown Financial Services, Inc. (the merger) pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger (the merger agreement) by and between Orrstown Financial Services, Inc. and Mercersburg Financial Corporation dated as of May 31, 2018. In connection with the merger agreement, Mercersburg Financial Corporation will be merged with and into Orrstown Financial Services, and its subsidiary, First Community Bank of Mercersburg will be merged with and into Orrstown Bank, a subsidiary of Orrstown Financial Services.

Pursuant to the merger agreement, if the merger agreement is approved by the holders of at least 60% of the shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting and the merger is subsequently completed, each outstanding share of common stock, no par value per share, of Mercersburg Financial Corporation (Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock) will be converted into the right to receive at the election of the holder thereof either (1) $40.00 in cash, without interest, or (2) 1.5291 shares of common stock, no par value per share, of Orrstown Financial Services (Orrstown Financial Services common stock), subject to proration to ensure that in the aggregate 85% of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock will be converted to Orrstown Financial Services common stock and the remaining 15% of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock will be converted to cash. Orrstown Financial Services common stock is traded on NASDAQ under the symbol ORRF.

No fractional shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock will be issued in connection with the merger. Instead, each Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholder will receive an amount of cash, in lieu of any fractional share, based on the average daily closing price of Orrstown Financial Services common stock as reported on NASDAQ for the ten consecutive trading day period ending on the fifth business day prior to the closing date of the merger, rounded to the nearest whole cent.

The exchange ratio was determined based on the volume weighted average stock price of Orrstown Financial Services common stock for the 15 consecutive trading days ending on May 29, 2018 (the measurement period), which was $26.16 per share, which would have resulted in Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders receiving Orrstown Financial Services common stock and cash in lieu of fractional shares in the merger with an implied value per share equal to $40.00. Based on the closing price of Orrstown Financial Services common stock of $[] per share on [], the most recent practicable date prior to the mailing of this proxy statement/prospectus, Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders would receive Orrstown Financial Services common stock and cash in lieu of fractional shares in the merger with an implied value per share equal to $[].

Mercersburg Financial Corporation has the right to terminate the merger agreement if the volume weighted average stock price of Orrstown Financial Services common stock as reported on NASDAQ for the 15 consecutive trading days immediately preceding the date on which all required regulatory and stockholder approvals have been obtained (the determination date) is less than $20.928 per share and Orrstown Financial Services common stock underperforms the NASDAQ Bank Index by more than 20% between May 29, 2018 and the determination date. If Mercersburg Financial Corporation exercises this termination right, Orrstown Financial Services will have the option to increase the amount of Orrstown Financial Services common stock to be provided to Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders to an amount which, when multiplied by the volume weighted average price of Orrstown Financial Services common stock as reported on NASDAQ for the fifteen consecutive trading days immediately preceding the day on which all required regulatory and stockholder approvals have been obtained, equals the lesser of (1) $40.00 or (2) $40.00 multiplied by the index ratio set forth in the merger agreement. If Orrstown Financial Services elects to increase the stock consideration pursuant to the preceding sentence, no termination will occur.

Table of Contents

After careful consideration, our board of directors unanimously approved the merger agreement and determined that the transactions provided for in the merger agreement are advisable to, and in the best interests of, Mercersburg Financial Corporation. Your vote is important, regardless of the number of shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock you own. Q: Why am I receiving this proxy statement/prospectus?

A: Orrstown Financial Services and Mercersburg Financial Corporation have agreed to the merger of Mercersburg Financial Corporation with and into Orrstown Financial Services under the terms of a merger agreement that is described in this proxy statement/prospectus. A copy of the merger agreement is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A. In order to complete the merger, Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders must vote to approve the merger agreement. Mercersburg Financial Corporation will hold a special meeting of holders of its common stock to obtain this required approval. This proxy statement/prospectus contains important information about the merger, the merger agreement, the Mercersburg Financial Corporation special meeting, and other related matters, and you should read it carefully. The enclosed voting materials for the Mercersburg Financial Corporation special meeting allow you to vote your shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock without attending the special meeting of Mercersburg Financial Corporation.

We are delivering this proxy statement/prospectus to you as the proxy statement for the special meeting of stockholders of Mercersburg Financial Corporation and the prospectus for the shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock to be issued in connection with the merger. It is a proxy statement because the Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors is soliciting proxies from stockholders to vote on the approval of the merger agreement and your proxy will be used at the special meeting or at any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting. It is a prospectus because Orrstown Financial Services will issue Orrstown Financial Services common stock to the Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders who receive stock consideration in the merger, and this prospectus contains information about Orrstown Financial Services common stock.

Q: Why are Orrstown Financial Services and Mercersburg Financial Corporation proposing this transaction? (pages 46 and 59)

A: The Orrstown Financial Services and Mercersburg Financial Corporation boards of directors have each approved the merger agreement and have determined that the merger agreement and the transactions provided for thereunder, including the merger, are advisable and in the best interests of the companies. A: Pursuant to the merger agreement, if the merger agreement is approved by the holders of at least 60% of the shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting and the merger is subsequently completed, each outstanding share of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock will be converted into the right to receive at the election of the holder thereof either (1) $40.00 in cash, without interest, or (2) 1.5291 shares of common stock, no par value per share, of Orrstown Financial Services (Orrstown Financial Services common stock), subject to proration to ensure that in the aggregate 85% of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock will be converted to Orrstown Financial Services common stock and the remaining 15% of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock will be converted to cash. Orrstown Financial Services common stock is traded on NASDAQ under the symbol ORRF.

You may elect to receive all cash, all Orrstown Financial Services common stock, or a combination of both cash and Orrstown Financial Services common stock in exchange for your shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock. However, the ability to receive all cash, all stock, or a combination of each will depend on the elections of other Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders. The allocation of the consideration payable to Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders in the merger will not be known until Orrstown Financial Services tallies the results of the elections made by Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders, which will not occur until immediately prior to the closing of the merger.

The exchange ratio was determined based on the volume weighted average stock price of Orrstown Financial Services common stock for the 15 consecutive trading days ending on May 29, 2018 (the measurement period), which was $26.16 per share, which would have resulted in Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders receiving Orrstown Financial Services common stock and cash in lieu of fractional shares in the merger with an implied value per share equal to $40.00. Based on the closing price of Orrstown Financial Services common stock of $[] per share on [], the most recent practicable date prior to the mailing of this proxy statement/prospectus, Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders would receive Orrstown Financial Services common stock and cash in lieu of fractional shares in the merger with an implied value per share equal to $[]. The following table presents the implied value per share to be received in exchange for each share of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock if the stock price of Orrstown Financial Services common stock at the closing of the merger is equal to the prices set forth in the table.

Illustrative

Orrstown Financial Services		Exchange	Implied Value Per Share of
Stock Price at Closing	Ratio	Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock ⁽¹⁾
$25.00	1.5291	$38.49

Mercersburg Financial Corporation has the right to terminate the merger agreement if the volume weighted average stock price of Orrstown Financial Services common stock as reported on NASDAQ for the 15 consecutive trading days immediately preceding the date on which all required regulatory and stockholder approvals have been obtained (the determination date) is less than $20.928 per share and Orrstown Financial Services common stock underperforms the NASDAQ Bank Index by more than 20% between May 29, 2018 and the determination date. If Mercersburg

Financial Corporation exercises this termination right, Orrstown Financial Services will have the option to increase the amount of Orrstown Financial Services common stock to be provided to Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders to an amount which, when multiplied by the volume weighted average price of Orrstown Financial Services common stock as reported on NASDAQ for the fifteen consecutive trading days immediately preceding the determination date, equals the lesser of (1) $40.00 or (2) $40.00 multiplied by the index ratio. The index ratio is the ratio obtained by dividing (1) the volume weighted average of the daily volume weighted price of the Nasdaq Bank Index for the fifteen consecutive trading days immediately preceding the determination date by (2) the volume weighted average of the daily volume weighted price of the Nasdaq Bank Index for the measurement period. If Orrstown Financial Services elects to increase the stock consideration pursuant to the preceding sentence, no termination will occur. In such case, you would receive Orrstown Financial Services common stock and, if applicable, cash with an implied value equal to the minimum implied value that would have avoided triggering the termination right described above. See the section of this proxy statement/prospectus titled "The Merger Agreement Termination" beginning on page 73.

As of July 23, 2018, there were 810,080 shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock issued and outstanding. Based upon these numbers, approximately 1,052,890 shares of Orrstown Financial Services conversion stock will be issued to Mercersburg Financial Corporation shareholders in the merger. This will result in current Orrstown Financial Services stockholders owning approximately 88.8% of the combined company and Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders owning approximately 11.2% of the combined company.

Q: Will Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders receive the form of consideration they elect? (page 64)

A: The form of merger consideration you actually receive may differ from the form of consideration that you elect to receive. This is because the consideration to be received by each Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholder will be subject to allocation procedures that are intended to ensure that 85% of the shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be converted into shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock, and the remaining shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock will be converted into cash.

Q: Will Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders receive any fractional share of Orrstown Financial Services common stock as part of the merger consideration? (page 64)

A: No. Orrstown Financial Services will not issue any fractional shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock in the merger. Instead, Orrstown Financial Services will pay you the cash value of a fractional share measured by the average daily closing price of Orrstown Financial Services common stock as reported on NASDAQ for the ten consecutive trading day period ending on the fifth business day prior to the closing date, rounded to the nearest whole cent.

Q: How do Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders make an election as to the form of merger consideration they wish to receive? (page 65)

A: No later than seven business days after the date of the special meeting (or such other date as Orrstown Financial Services and Mercersburg Financial Corporation shall mutually agree), an election form and letter of transmittal for the surrender of your Mercersburg Financial Corporation stock certificates in exchange for the merger consideration will be mailed to you. You will also receive detailed instructions describing the procedures you must follow to make your election.

We are not making any recommendation to you as to whether you should elect to receive cash, shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock, or a combination of each in the merger. You should evaluate your own specific circumstances and investment preferences in making your election.

Q: Can Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders elect to receive the merger consideration in the form of cash with respect to a portion of their Mercersburg Financial Corporation shares and Orrstown Financial Services common stock with respect to the rest of their Mercersburg Financial Corporation shares? (page 65)

A: The election form and letter of transmittal will permit you, subject to the allocation procedures described in this proxy statement/prospectus, to receive at your election:

all of your merger consideration in the form of cash;

all of your merger consideration in the form of shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock; or a portion of your merger consideration in cash and the remaining portion in shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock.

Table of Contents

Q: Do Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders have to return the election form and letter of transmittal? (page 65)

A: No, but if you do not do so by the election deadline, you will be allocated cash and/or shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock depending entirely upon the elections made by other Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders.

Q: What will happen to shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock in the merger?

A: Nothing. Each share of Orrstown Financial Services common stock outstanding will remain outstanding as a share of Orrstown Financial Services common stock.

Q: What are the material federal income tax consequences of the merger to Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders? (page 87)

A: In general, if you exchange all of your shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock for shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock, you will not recognize either gain or loss for federal income tax purposes on such exchange, except to the extent you receive cash in lieu of fractional shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock. If you exchange all of your shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock for cash, you generally will recognize gain or loss for federal income tax purposes in an amount equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and your adjusted tax basis in your shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock. If you exchange some of your shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock for cash, you generally will recognize gain, but not loss, for federal income tax purposes in an amount equal to the lesser of (1) the amount of cash you receive in the merger, or (2) the amount, if any, by which the sum of the fair market value, as of the effective time of the merger, of any shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock that you receive, and the amount of cash you receive in the merger, exceeds your adjusted tax basis in your shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock. Generally, any gain recognized upon the exchange will be capital gain, and any such capital gain will be long-term capital gain if you have established a holding period of more than one year for your shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock. Depending on certain facts specific to you, any gain could instead be characterized as ordinary dividend income.

Please carefully review the information set forth in the section titled Material Federal Income Tax Consequences beginning on page 87 for a description of the material federal income tax consequences of the merger. This tax treatment may not apply to all Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders. We strongly urge you to consult your own tax advisor for a full understanding of the tax consequences of the merger to you, as the tax consequences will depend upon each stockholder's own situation.

Q: What are the conditions to completion of the merger? (page 71)

A:

The obligations of Orrstown Financial Services and Mercersburg Financial Corporation to complete the merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain closing conditions contained in the merger agreement, including the receipt of required regulatory approvals, tax opinions and the requisite approval by Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders.

Q: When do you expect the merger to be completed? (page 64)

A: We will complete the merger when all of the conditions to completion contained in the merger agreement are satisfied or waived. Some of these conditions, such as the receipt of required regulatory approvals, are not entirely within our control. We currently expect to complete the merger in the fourth quarter of 2018; however, because the merger is subject to these conditions, we cannot predict the actual timing.

Q: What Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholder approvals are required to complete the merger? (page 36)

A: The affirmative vote of the holders of at least 60% of the shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting is required to approve the merger agreement.

The Merger

Orrstown Financial Services and Mercersburg Financial Corporation entered into the merger agreement on May 31, 2018. The merger agreement provides for the merger of Mercersburg Financial Corporation with and into Orrstown Financial Services. The surviving corporation in the merger will be Orrstown Financial Services. The proposed merger will occur following approval of the proposal to approve the merger agreement by the stockholders of Mercersburg Financial Corporation and satisfaction or waiver of all other conditions to the merger, including regulatory approvals. The merger agreement is attached to this document as Annex A. We encourage you to read the merger agreement in its entirety because it is the legal document that governs the merger.

Merger Consideration for Mercersburg Financial Corporation Stockholders (page 64)

If the merger agreement is approved by the holders of at least 60% of the shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting and the merger is subsequently completed, each outstanding share of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock will be converted into the right to receive at the election of the holder thereof either (1) $40.00 in cash, without interest, or (2) 1.5291 shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock, subject to proration to ensure that in the aggregate 85% of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock will be converted to Orrstown Financial Services common stock and the remaining 15% of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock will be converted to cash.

No fractional shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock will be issued in connection with the merger. Instead, each Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholder will receive an amount of cash, in lieu of any fractional share, based on the average daily closing price of Orrstown Financial Services common stock as reported on NASDAQ for the ten consecutive trading day period ending on the fifth business day prior to the closing date of the merger, rounded to the nearest whole cent.

Table of Contents

The exchange ratio was determined based on the volume weighted average stock price of Orrstown Financial Services common stock for the measurement period, which was $26.16 per share, which would have resulted in Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders receiving Orrstown Financial Services common stock and cash in lieu of fractional shares in the merger with an implied value per share equal to $40.00. Based on the closing price of Orrstown Financial Services common stock of $[] per share on [], the most recent practicable date prior to the mailing of this proxy statement/prospectus, Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders would receive Orrstown Financial Services common stock and cash in lieu of fractional shares in the merger with an implied value per share equal to $[]. The following table presents the implied value per share to be received in exchange for each share of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock if the stock price of Orrstown Financial Services common stock at the closing of the merger is equal to the prices set forth in the table.

Illustrative

Orrstown Financial Services Stock Price at Closing	Exchange Ratio	Implied Value Per Share of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock ⁽¹⁾
$25.00	1.5291	$38.49
$25.50	1.5291	$39.14
$26.00	1.5291	$39.79
$26.16	1.5291	$40.00
$26.50	1.5291	$40.44
$27.00	1.5291	$41.09
$27.50	1.5291	$41.74

(1) Assumes each stockholder of Mercersburg Financial Corporation receives merger consideration consisting of 85% Orrstown Financial Services common stock and 15% cash.

Mercersburg Financial Corporation has the right to terminate the merger agreement if the volume weighted average stock price of Orrstown Financial Services common stock as reported on NASDAQ for the 15 consecutive trading days immediately preceding the determination date, is less than $20.928 per share and Orrstown Financial Services common stock underperforms the NASDAQ Bank Index by more than 20% between May 29, 2018 and the determination date. If Mercersburg Financial Corporation exercises this termination right, Orrstown Financial Services will have the option to increase the amount of Orrstown Financial Services common stock to be provided to Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders to an amount which, when multiplied by the volume weighted average price of Orrstown Financial Services common stock as reported on NASDAQ for the fifteen consecutive trading days immediately preceding the determination date, equals the lesser of (1) $40.00 or (2) $40.00 multiplied by the index ratio. If Orrstown Financial Services elects to increase the stock consideration pursuant to the preceding sentence, no termination will occur. In such case, you would receive Orrstown Financial Services common stock and, if applicable, cash with an implied value equal to the minimum implied value that would have avoided triggering the termination right described above. See the section of this proxy statement/prospectus titled "The Merger Agreement Termination" beginning on page 73.

As of July 23, 2018, there were 810,080 shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock issued and outstanding. Based upon these numbers, assuming that 85% of the merger consideration will be paid in the form of Orrstown Financial Services common stock, this will result in current Orrstown Financial Services stockholders owning approximately 88.8% of the combined company and Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders owning approximately 11.2% of the combined company.

Election Procedures for Mercersburg Financial Corporation Stockholders (page 65)

The shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock that you hold will be exchanged for cash, Orrstown Financial Services common stock, or a combination of cash and Orrstown Financial Services common stock as chosen by you, subject to the allocation and proration procedures described in the merger agreement. you may elect to receive $40.00 per share in cash, without interest (the cash consideration), in exchange for all shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock that you hold;

you may elect to receive 1.5291 shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock (the stock consideration) in exchange for all shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock that you hold, plus cash in lieu of any fractional share.

you may elect to receive the cash consideration with respect to a portion of the shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock that you hold, and the stock consideration with respect to your remaining shares; or you may make no election with respect to the consideration to be received by you in exchange for your shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock.

You will have a limited period of time in which to complete the election form and return it as instructed. In order to be effective, a properly completed election form must be received by the exchange agent on or before 5:00 p.m., Eastern time, on the 25th day following the mailing date of the election form to Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders, unless Orrstown Financial Services and Mercersburg Financial Corporation have mutually agreed to another date and time as the election deadline, which date will be publicly announced by Orrstown Financial Services as soon as practicable prior to the election deadline. You will need to surrender your Mercersburg Financial Corporation stock certificates to receive the appropriate consideration, but you should not send us any certificates now. You will receive detailed instructions on how to exchange your stock certificates along with your election form. If you do not submit an election form, you will receive instructions on where to surrender your Mercersburg Financial Corporation stock certificates after the merger is completed.

If your shares or a portion of your shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock are held in street name by a broker, bank or other nominee, an election form will be mailed to the broker, bank or other nominee with respect to those shares.

Allocation Procedures for Mercersburg Financial Corporation Stockholders (page 67)

Your ability to elect to receive cash or shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock in exchange for shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock in the merger will be subject to allocation procedures set forth in the merger agreement. Whether you receive the amount of cash and/or stock you request in your election form will depend in part on the elections of other Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders. You may not receive the form of consideration that you elect in the merger, and you may instead receive a pro rata amount of cash and Orrstown Financial Services common stock.

If you have a preference for receiving either cash or Orrstown Financial Services common stock for your shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock, you should return the election form indicating your preference. Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders who make an election will be accorded priority over those stockholders who make no election in instances where the cash consideration or stock consideration must be re-allocated in order to achieve the required ratio of Mercersburg Financial Corporation shares being converted into the right to receive cash and Orrstown Financial Services common stock. If you do not make an election, you will be allocated cash and/or Orrstown Financial Services common stock depending on the elections made by other Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders. Please see the examples set forth in the section of this proxy statement/prospectus titled The Merger Agreement Allocation Procedures beginning on page 67. However, even if you do make an election, the form of merger consideration you actually receive may differ from the form of merger consideration you elect to receive.

The market price of Orrstown Financial Services common stock will fluctuate between the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the date of your election and the effective time of the merger. Because the exchange ratio is fixed, such fluctuations will alter the value of the shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock that you may receive in the merger. In addition, because the tax consequences of receiving cash will differ from the tax consequences of receiving Orrstown Financial Services common stock, you should carefully read the section of this proxy statement/prospectus titled "Material Federal Income Tax Consequences" beginning on page 87.

Opinion of Mercersburg Financial Corporation's Financial Advisor (page 49)

In connection with the merger, Mercersburg Financial Corporation's financial advisor, Ambassador Financial Group, Inc. ("Ambassador"), delivered a written opinion, dated May 31, 2018, to the Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors as to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of the date of the opinion, to the holders of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock of the merger consideration (defined in the opinion as the stock consideration and the cash consideration, taken together) in the proposed merger. The full text of Ambassador's written opinion to Mercersburg Financial Corporation, which sets forth, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, factors considered and limitations on the review undertaken, is attached as Annex C to this proxy statement/prospectus. Ambassador's opinion to Mercersburg Financial Corporation's board of directors was rendered for the benefit of Mercersburg Financial Corporation's board (in its capacity as such) in connection with its evaluation of the merger. Ambassador's opinion is not intended and does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder as to how such stockholder should vote or act with respect to the merger or any matter relating thereto or whether such shareholder should elect to receive the cash consideration or the stock consideration. Ambassador's opinion does not address the relative merits of the merger as compared to any other transaction or business strategy in which Mercersburg Financial Corporation might engage or the merits of the underlying decision by Mercersburg Financial Corporation to engage in the merger.

Some of the members of Mercersburg Financial Corporation's management and board of directors may be deemed to have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders generally. For example, upon execution of the merger agreement, Orrstown Financial Services and Orrstown Bank entered into an employment agreement and a change in control agreement with Robert J. Fignar, President and Chief Executive Officer of Mercersburg Financial Corporation, to be effective as of the closing date of the merger. The employment agreement provides that Mr. Fignar shall serve as the Market President for the Southern Region, defined as Franklin and Perry Counties in Pennsylvania and Washington County in Maryland, of Orrstown Bank. During the term of the employment agreement, Mr. Fignar's minimum annual base salary will be $230,000. The employment agreement provides for a term of four years, plus an automatic extension for successive additional one year terms, unless Mr. Fignar or Orrstown Financial Services and Orrstown Bank gives at least sixty days' notice of non-renewal. If Mr. Fignar is still employed upon attaining age 65, he may voluntarily provide notice of retirement at any time thereafter in which event he will receive salary continuation for a period of six months plus payment of 150% of the premium cost to maintain his group life insurance benefit for a period of three years. The employment agreement also provides for severance payments to Mr. Fignar if his employment is terminated by Orrstown Financial Services and Orrstown Bank without Cause (as defined in the employment agreement), he resigns for any reason (including death or Disability as defined in the employment agreement) within two years immediately following the closing date of the merger, or he resigns for Good Reason (as defined in the employment agreement) after the second anniversary of the closing date of the merger during the term of the employment agreement. The change in control agreement becomes effective after the second anniversary of the closing date of the merger and provides that Orrstown Financial Services and Orrstown Bank are to pay to Mr. Fignar specified amounts of cash compensation and provide specified health and welfare benefits in the event that his employment is terminated by Orrstown Financial Services or Orrstown Bank or any successor, without cause, within the 90 day period immediately preceding, or the two years following, the occurrence of a Change in Control (as defined in the change in control agreement) or if such termination is initiated by Mr. Fignar for any reason within six months following a change in control. The employment agreement and the change in control agreement also include customary non-competition and non-solicitation provisions.

In addition, members of Mercersburg Financial Corporation's management and board of directors may be deemed to have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition, to the interests of Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders generally, including:

payment of cash severance benefits under existing severance policies to other Mercersburg Financial Corporation employees upon termination of their employment; and

continued indemnification and liability insurance coverage for directors and executive officers with respect to acts or omissions occurring before the merger.

Limitations on Considering Other Acquisition Proposals (page 76)

The merger agreement restricts Mercersburg Financial Corporation's ability to solicit or engage in discussions or negotiations with a third party regarding a proposal to acquire Mercersburg Financial Corporation. However, if Mercersburg Financial Corporation receives a bona fide unsolicited written acquisition proposal from a third party that is, or is reasonably likely to be, more favorable from a financial point of view to Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders than the terms of the merger agreement, Mercersburg Financial Corporation may furnish nonpublic information to that third party and engage in negotiations regarding an acquisition proposal with that third party, subject to specified conditions in the merger agreement. In addition, the Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors may not:

withdraw, qualify, amend, modify, withhold, or propose to withdraw, qualify, amend, modify, or withhold, in a manner adverse to Orrstown Financial Services in connection with the transactions provided for in the merger agreement (including the merger), its recommendation that Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders vote to approve the merger agreement and the merger;

fail to reaffirm its recommendation that Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders vote to approve the merger agreement and the merger within three business days following a request by Orrstown Financial Services;

make any statement, announcement or release, in connection with the special meeting or otherwise, inconsistent with its recommendation that Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders vote to approve the merger agreement and the merger (including taking a neutral position or no position with respect to an acquisition proposal);

enter into (or cause Mercersburg Financial Corporation, or any of its subsidiaries to enter into) any letter of intent, agreement in principle, acquisition agreement or other agreement:

related to any acquisition transaction (other than a confidentiality agreement entered into in accordance with the no solicitation provisions of the merger agreement); or requiring Mercersburg Financial Corporation to abandon, terminate or fail to consummate the merger or any other transaction provided for in the merger agreement;

unless the Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and its independent financial advisor, that an acquisition proposal is a superior proposal and, after consultation with such counsel, that it is required to take such action to comply with the fiduciary standard of conduct required of a board of directors under the applicable law and Mercersburg Financial Corporation's bylaws. In that event, Mercersburg Financial Corporation must provide Orrstown Financial Services with notice of such determination and cooperate and negotiate in good faith with Orrstown Financial Services to adjust or modify the terms and conditions of the merger agreement.

Conditions to the Merger (page 71)

Orrstown Financial Services and Mercersburg Financial Corporation will not complete the merger unless a number of conditions are satisfied or waived, including:

the stockholders of Mercersburg Financial Corporation must approve the merger agreement;

Orrstown Financial Services and Mercersburg Financial Corporation must have obtained all regulatory approvals required to complete the transactions provided for in the merger agreement, all related statutory waiting periods have expired, and none of the regulatory approvals imposed any term, condition or restriction that Orrstown Financial Services reasonably determines would (a) prohibit or materially limit the ownership or operation by Orrstown Financial Services of all or any material portion of the business or assets of Mercersburg Financial Corporation or Orrstown Bank, (b) compel Orrstown Financial Services to dispose of or hold separate all or any material portion of the business or assets of Mercersburg Financial Corporation or Orrstown Bank or (c) compel Orrstown Financial Services to take any action, or commit to take any action, or agree to any condition or request, if the prohibition, limitation, condition or other requirement described in clauses (a)-(c) of this sentence would have a material adverse effect on the future operation by Orrstown Financial Services of its business, taken as a whole (a burdensome condition);

the absence of any order, decree or injunction in effect, or any law, statute or regulation enacted or adopted, that enjoins, prohibits, materially restricts or makes illegal the completion of the transactions provided for in the merger agreement;

Table of Contents

Orrstown Financial Services and Mercersburg Financial Corporation must each receive a legal opinion from their respective counsel, or such other counsel as provided for in the merger agreement, regarding treatment of the merger as a reorganization for federal income tax purposes;

the representations and warranties of each of the parties in the merger agreement must be accurate, subject to exceptions that would not have a material adverse effect;

each of the parties in the merger agreement must have performed in all material respects all obligations required to be performed by it;

holders of no more than ten percent of the outstanding shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock have asserted dissenters' rights of appraisal under the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law; and the registration statement becoming effective.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (page 73)

The parties can mutually agree to terminate the merger agreement before the merger has been completed, and either company can terminate the merger agreement if:

the merger is not consummated by March 31, 2019, unless the terminating party's failure to comply with the merger agreement was the cause of the failure of the merger to occur on or before this date;

the other party materially breaches any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in the merger agreement, the terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in the merger agreement, and the breach is not cured within 30 days of written notice;

(1) any regulatory approval required for consummation of the merger and the other transactions provided for in the merger agreement imposes any term, condition or restriction upon Orrstown Financial Services or any of its subsidiaries that Orrstown Financial Services reasonably determines, after consultation with Mercersburg Financial Corporation, is a burdensome condition or has been denied by final nonappealable action, or (2) any governmental entity has issued a final nonappealable order, injunction or decree enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the transactions provided for in the merger agreement, and the terminating party in either case has used its reasonable best efforts to have the order, injunction or decree lifted or to prevent the burdensome condition from being imposed; or the required approval of the merger agreement by the Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders is not obtained.

In addition, Orrstown Financial Services may terminate the merger agreement if:

the Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors:

withdraws, qualifies, amends, modifies or withholds its recommendation to the Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders to vote in favor of the merger, fails to reaffirm such recommendation within three business days following a request to do so by Orrstown Financial Services, or makes any statement, filing or release that is inconsistent with such recommendation;

materially breaches its obligation to call, give notice of hold and commence the special meeting or to solicit proxies in favor of approval of the merger agreement and the merger;

approves or recommends another acquisition proposal;

enters into, or causes Mercersburg Financial Corporation to enter into, any letter of intent, agreement in principle, acquisition, or other agreement related to an acquisition proposal, or requiring Mercersburg Financial Corporation to abandon, terminate or fail to complete the merger or the transactions contemplated thereby;

resolves or otherwise determines to take, or announces an intention to take, any of the actions listed above; or Mercersburg Financial Corporation or any of its representatives breaches in any material respect the provisions in the merger agreement prohibiting the solicitation of other offers.

Mercersburg Financial Corporation has the right to terminate the merger agreement in connection with entering into a definitive agreement to effect a superior proposal, subject to specified conditions in the merger agreement. In addition, Mercersburg Financial Corporation has the right to terminate the merger agreement if the volume weighted average stock price of Orrstown Financial Services common stock as reported on NASDAQ for the 15 consecutive trading days immediately preceding the determination date, is less than $20.928 per share and Orrstown Financial Services common stock underperforms the NASDAQ Bank Index by more than 20% between May 29, 2018 and the determination date. If Mercersburg Financial Corporation exercises this termination right, Orrstown Financial Services will have the option to increase the amount of Orrstown Financial Services common stock to be provided to Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders to an amount which, when multiplied by the volume weighted average price of Orrstown Financial Services common stock as reported on NASDAQ for the fifteen consecutive trading days immediately preceding the determination date, equals the lesser of (1) $40.00 or (2) $40.00 multiplied by the index ratio. If Orrstown Financial Services elects to increase the stock consideration pursuant to the preceding sentence, no termination will occur.

Termination Fee (page 75)

Under the terms of the merger agreement, Mercersburg Financial Corporation must pay Orrstown Financial Services a termination fee of $1,250,000 if:

Orrstown Financial Services terminates the merger agreement as a result of the Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors:

withdrawing, qualifying, amending, modifying or withholding its recommendation to the Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders to vote in favor of the merger, failing to reaffirm such recommendation within five business days following a request to do so by Orrstown Financial Services, or making any statement, filing or release that is inconsistent with such recommendation;

materially breaching its obligation to call, give notice of hold and commence the special meeting or to solicit proxies in favor of the merger;

approving or recommending another acquisition proposal;

entering into, causing Mercersburg Financial Corporation to enter into, any letter of intent, agreement in principle, acquisition, or other agreement related to an acquisition proposal, or requiring Mercersburg Financial Corporation to abandon, terminate or fail to complete the merger or the transactions contemplated thereby; or resolving or otherwise determining to take, or announcing an intention to take, any of the actions listed above;

Orrstown Financial Services terminates the merger agreement as a result of a material breach by Mercersburg Financial Corporation of the provisions in the merger agreement prohibiting the solicitation of other offers;

Mercersburg Financial Corporation terminates the merger agreement in connection with entering into a definitive agreement to effect a superior proposal;

Table of Contents

Orrstown Financial Services or Mercersburg Financial Corporation terminates the merger agreement as a result of:

the failure of the Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders to approve the merger agreement and the merger, or the merger not having been consummated by March 31, 2019 due to the failure of the Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders to approve the merger agreement, and both an acquisition proposal with respect to Mercersburg Financial Corporation has been publicly announced, disclosed or otherwise communicated to the Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors or senior management of Mercersburg Financial Corporation prior to the Mercersburg Financial Corporation special meeting or March 31, 2019, as applicable; and within 12 months of termination of the merger agreement, Mercersburg Financial Corporation enters into a definitive agreement with respect to, or consummates, another acquisition transaction; or

Orrstown Financial Services terminates the merger agreement as a result of a willful material breach by Mercersburg Financial Corporation of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in the merger agreement, and both:

an acquisition proposal with respect to Mercersburg Financial Corporation has been publicly announced, disclosed or otherwise communicated to the Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors or senior management of Mercersburg Financial Corporation prior to such breach or during the related cure period; and within 12 months of termination of the merger agreement, Mercersburg Financial Corporation enters into a definitive agreement with respect to, or consummates, another acquisition transaction.

Effective Time of the Merger (page 64)

We expect that the merger will be completed as soon as practicable following the satisfaction or waiver of all closing conditions, including approval of the merger agreement and the merger by the Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders and receipt of all regulatory approvals. The parties cannot be certain whether or when any of the conditions to the merger will be satisfied or waived, where permissible. We currently expect to complete the merger during the fourth quarter of 2018; however, because the merger is subject to conditions beyond our control, we cannot predict the actual timing of the closing.

Material Federal Income Tax Consequences for Mercersburg Financial Corporation Stockholders (page 87)

Each of Orrstown Financial Services and Mercersburg Financial Corporation will receive an opinion of counsel to the effect that, based on certain facts, representations and assumptions, the merger will be treated as a reorganization pursuant to section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), for federal income tax purposes. Accordingly, you generally will not recognize any gain or loss on the exchange of shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock solely for shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock, except with respect to any cash received in lieu of fractional shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock. However, you generally will incur a tax obligation if you receive cash in exchange for your shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock. Each of Orrstown Financial Services and Mercersburg Financial Corporation's obligations to complete the merger are conditioned on its receipt of this opinion, dated as of the effective date of the merger, regarding certain federal income tax consequences of the merger.

Tax matters are complicated, and the tax consequences of the merger to you will depend upon the facts of your particular situation and on whether you receive stock, cash or a mix of stock and cash in the merger. In addition, you may be subject to state, local or foreign tax laws that are not discussed in this proxy statement/prospectus.

Accordingly, we strongly urge you to consult your own tax advisor for a full understanding of the tax consequences to you of the merger.

Required Regulatory Approvals (page 85)

To complete the merger, Orrstown Financial Services and Orrstown Bank need the prior approval of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and the Pennsylvania Department of Banking and Securities. The United States Department of Justice is able to provide input into the approval process of federal banking agencies to challenge the approval on antitrust grounds. Orrstown Financial Services and Orrstown Bank have filed all necessary applications and notices with the applicable regulatory authorities. Orrstown Financial Services and Orrstown Bank cannot predict, however, whether or when the required regulatory approvals will be obtained or whether any such approvals will impose any burdensome condition upon Orrstown Financial Services or Orrstown Bank.

Accounting Treatment (page 61)

The merger will be accounted for using the acquisition method of accounting with Orrstown Financial Services treated as the acquiror. Under this method of accounting, Mercersburg Financial Corporation's assets and liabilities will be recorded by Orrstown Financial Services at their respective fair values as of the closing date of the merger and added to those of Orrstown Financial Services. Any excess of purchase price over the net fair values of Mercersburg Financial Corporation's assets and liabilities will be recorded as goodwill. Any excess of the fair value of Mercersburg Financial Corporation's net assets over the purchase price will be recognized in earnings by Orrstown Financial Services on the closing date of the merger. Financial statements of Orrstown Financial Services issued after the merger will reflect these values, but will not be restated retroactively to reflect the historical financial position or results of operations of Mercersburg Financial Corporation prior to the merger. The results of operations of Mercersburg Financial Corporation will be included in the results of operations of Orrstown Financial Services beginning on the day after the effective date of the merger.

Listing of Orrstown Financial Services common stock to be Issued in the Merger (page 79)

Orrstown Financial Services' common stock is quoted on NASDAQ under the trading symbol ORRF. Under the terms of the merger agreement, Orrstown Financial Services will file a notice of additional listing of shares with NASDAQ with respect to the shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock to be issued to the holders of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock in the merger so that these shares will be listed and traded on NASDAQ following the merger.

Differences Between Rights of Holders of Orrstown Financial Services and Mercersburg Financial Corporation Stock (page 91)

The rights of Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders currently are governed by Mercersburg Financial Corporation's articles of incorporation and bylaws, and by the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law. This means that, as a result of the merger, Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders will have different rights when they become holders of Orrstown Financial Services common stock than they currently have as holders of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock.

The information at and for the three months ended March 31, 2018 and 2017 is unaudited. Table of ContentsRISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information contained in or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, including the matters addressed in the section of this proxy statement/prospectus titled Special Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements on page 29, you should carefully consider the following risk factors described below in deciding how to vote. You should also read and consider the risk factors associated with the business of Orrstown Financial Services because these risk factors may affect the operations and financial results of the combined company. These risk factors may be found in the Orrstown Financial Services Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2017.

Risks Relating to the Merger

The value of the merger consideration that Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders receive may vary with changes in Orrstown Financial Services stock price and whether they receive stock or cash consideration.

Upon completion of the merger, 85% of the total number of shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be converted into shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock, and the remaining shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock will be converted into cash. The exchange ratio for the stock portion of the merger consideration is fixed. Accordingly, the dollar value of Orrstown Financial Services common stock that Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders will receive upon completion of the merger will depend upon the market value of Orrstown Financial Services common stock at the time of completion of the merger, which may be lower or higher than the closing price of Orrstown Financial Services common stock on the last full trading day preceding public announcement of the merger, the dates of the special meetings or the date on which elections are due. Thus, at the time of the special meetings and at the time the elections are due, you will not know or be able to determine the dollar value of the stock consideration to be received in the merger. See the section of this proxy statement/prospectus titled The Merger Agreement Merger Consideration beginning on page 64.

Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders may not receive the form of merger consideration that they elect.

If the merger agreement is approved by the holders of at least 60% of the shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting and the merger is subsequently completed, each outstanding share of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock will be converted into the right to receive at the election of the holder thereof either (1) $40.00 in cash, without interest, or (2) 1.5291 shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock, subject to proration to ensure that in the aggregate 85% of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock will be converted to Orrstown Financial Services common stock and the remaining 15% of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock will be converted to cash.

You will have the opportunity to elect to receive all cash, all stock or a combination of cash and stock with respect to the shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock that you hold. Your right as a Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholder to receive the consideration you elect for your shares is limited because of the allocation procedures set forth in the merger agreement, which are intended to ensure that 85% of the total number of shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be converted into shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock, and the remaining shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock will be converted into cash. If the total stock elections by Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders are greater, or less, than the aggregate stock consideration to be paid in the merger, you may not receive the form of consideration that you elect and you may receive a pro rata amount of cash and Orrstown Financial Services common stock. A detailed discussion of the election and allocation provisions of the merger agreement is set forth in the sections of this proxy statement/prospectus titled "The Merger Agreement," "Merger Consideration," "Election Procedures" and "Allocation Procedures," beginning on page 64. We recommend that you carefully read this discussion and the merger agreement attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A.

The federal income tax consequences of the merger for Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders will be dependent upon the merger consideration received.

The federal income tax consequences of the merger to you will depend upon the merger consideration that you receive. You generally will not recognize any gain or loss on the exchange of shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock solely for shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock, except with respect to cash received in lieu of fractional shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock. However, you generally will be taxed if you receive cash in exchange for your shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock. Furthermore, since the merger consideration you receive may differ from what you elected, you cannot control the tax consequences of the merger to you. For a detailed discussion of the federal income tax consequences of the merger to Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders generally, see the section of this proxy statement/prospectus titled "Material Federal Income Tax Consequences" beginning on page 87. We strongly encourage you to consult your own tax advisors as to the effect of the merger on your specific interests.

There is no assurance when or even if the merger will be completed.

The merger agreement is subject to a number of conditions which must be fulfilled in order to complete the merger. Those conditions include:

approval of the merger agreement and the merger by Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders;

the receipt of required regulatory approvals;

absence of orders prohibiting the completion of the merger;

effectiveness of the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part;

the continued accuracy of the representations and warranties by both parties and the performance by both parties of their covenants and agreements; and the receipt by both parties of legal opinions from their respective tax counsels.

There can be no assurance that the parties will be able to satisfy the closing conditions or that closing conditions beyond their control will be satisfied or waived.

The merger agreement may be terminated in accordance with its terms and the merger may not be completed.

The parties can agree at any time to terminate the merger agreement even after Mercersburg Financial Corporation's stockholders have provided their approval. The parties can also terminate the merger agreement under other specified circumstances. See "The Merger Agreement Termination" on page 73. In addition, Mercersburg Financial Corporation may choose to terminate the merger agreement if the volume weighted average stock price of Orrstown Financial Services' common stock as reported on NASDAQ during the 15 trading day period ending on the determination date is less than $20.928 per share and Orrstown Financial Services' common stock underperforms the NASDAQ Bank Index by more than 20% between May 29, 2018 and the determination date. Any such termination would be subject to the right of Orrstown Financial Services to increase the amount of Orrstown Financial Services common stock to be provided to Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders pursuant to the formula prescribed in the merger agreement. See the section of this proxy statement/prospectus titled "The Merger Agreement Termination" beginning on page 73 for a more complete discussion of the circumstances under which the merger agreement could be terminated.

Regulatory approvals may not be received or may take longer than expected in order to be obtained.

Orrstown Financial Services and Orrstown Bank are required to obtain the approvals of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and the Pennsylvania Department of Banking and Securities prior to completing the merger. Obtaining the approval of these regulatory agencies may delay the date of completion of the merger. In addition, you should be aware that, as in any transaction, it is possible that, among other things, restrictions on the combined operations of the two companies may be sought by governmental agencies as a condition to obtaining the required regulatory approvals. This may diminish the benefits of the merger to Orrstown Financial Services or have an adverse effect on Orrstown Financial Services following the merger and prevent it from achieving the expected benefits of the merger. Orrstown Financial Services has the right to terminate the merger agreement if the approval of any governmental authority required for consummation of the merger and the other transactions provided for in the merger agreement, imposes any term, condition or restriction upon Orrstown Financial Services or any of its subsidiaries that Orrstown Financial Services reasonably determines would (a) prohibit or materially limit the ownership or operation by Orrstown Financial Services of any material portion of Mercersburg Financial Corporation's business or assets, (b) compel Orrstown Financial Services to dispose or hold separate any material portion of Mercersburg Financial Corporation's assets or (c) compel Orrstown Financial Services to take any action, or commit to take any action, or agree to any condition or request, if the prohibition, limitation, condition or other requirement described in clauses (a)-(c) of this sentence would have a material adverse effect on the future operation by Orrstown Financial Services of its business, taken as a whole.

If the merger is not completed, Mercersburg Financial Corporation will have incurred substantial expenses without their stockholders realizing the expected benefits.

Mercersburg Financial Corporation has incurred, and will continue to incur, substantial expenses in connection with the transactions described in this proxy statement/prospectus. If the merger is not completed, these expenses may have a material adverse impact on the operating results of Mercersburg Financial Corporation.

Mercersburg Financial Corporation's directors and executive officers have financial interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders.

In considering the information contained in this proxy statement/prospectus, you should be aware that Mercersburg Financial Corporation's executive officers and directors have financial interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders generally. For example, upon execution of the merger agreement, Orrstown Financial Services and Orrstown Bank entered into an employment agreement and a change in control agreement with Robert J. Fignar, President and Chief Executive Officer of Mercersburg Financial Corporation, to be effective as of the closing date of the merger. The employment agreement provides that Mr. Fignar shall serve as the Market President for the Southern Region, defined as Franklin and Perry Counties in Pennsylvania and Washington County in Maryland, of Orrstown Bank. During the term of the employment agreement, Mr. Fignar's minimum annual base salary will be $230,000. The employment agreement provides for a term of four years, plus an automatic extension for successive additional one year terms, unless Mr. Fignar or Orrstown Financial Services and Orrstown Bank gives at least sixty days' notice of non-renewal. If Mr. Fignar is still employed upon attaining age 65, he may voluntarily provide notice of retirement in which event he will receive salary continuation for a period of six months plus payment of 150% of the premium cost to maintain his group life insurance benefit for a period of three years. The employment agreement also provides for severance payments to Mr. Fignar if his employment is terminated without Cause (as defined in the employment agreement), he resigns for any reason (including death or Disability as defined in the employment agreement) within two years of the closing date of the merger, or he resigns for Good Reason (as defined in the employment agreement) after the second anniversary of the closing date of the merger during the term of the employment agreement. The change in control agreement becomes effective after the second anniversary of the closing date of the merger and provides that Orrstown Financial Services and Orrstown Bank are to pay to Mr. Fignar specified amounts of cash compensation and provide specified health and welfare benefits in the event that his employment is terminated by Orrstown Financial Services or Orrstown Bank or any successor, without cause, within the 90 day period immediately preceding, or the two years following, the occurrence of a change in control (as defined in the change in control agreement) or if such termination is initiated by Mr. Fignar for any reason within six months following a change in control. The employment agreement and the change in control agreement also include customary non-competition and non-solicitation provisions.

In addition, members of Mercersburg Financial Corporation's management and board of directors may be deemed to have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders generally, including:

payment of cash severance benefits under existing severance policies to other Mercersburg Financial Corporation employees upon termination of their employment; and

continued indemnification and liability insurance coverage for directors and executive officers with respect to acts or omissions occurring before the merger.

Goodwill incurred in the merger may negatively affect Orrstown Financial Services financial condition.

To the extent that the merger consideration, consisting of the cash and the number of shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock issued or to be issued in the merger, exceeds the fair value of the net assets, including identifiable intangibles, of Mercersburg Financial Corporation, that amount will be reported as goodwill by Orrstown Financial Services. In accordance with current accounting guidance, goodwill will not be amortized but will be evaluated for impairment annually or more frequently if events or circumstances warrant. A failure to realize expected benefits of the merger could adversely impact the carrying value of the goodwill recognized in the merger and, in turn, negatively affect Orrstown Financial Services financial results.

Table of Contents

The termination fee and the restrictions on solicitation contained in the merger agreement may discourage other companies from trying to acquire Mercersburg Financial Corporation.

Until the completion of the merger, Mercersburg Financial Corporation is restricted from soliciting, initiating, encouraging, or with some exceptions, considering any inquiries or proposals that may lead to a proposal or offer for a merger or other business combination transaction with any person other than Orrstown Financial Services except in connection with a superior proposal as provided in the merger agreement. In addition, Mercersburg Financial Corporation has agreed to pay a termination fee of $1,250,000 to Orrstown Financial Services in specified circumstances to terminate the merger agreement. These provisions could discourage other companies from trying to acquire Mercersburg Financial Corporation even though those other companies might be willing to offer greater value to Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders than Orrstown Financial Services has offered in the merger.

Orrstown Financial Services may be unable to successfully integrate Mercersburg Financial Corporation's operations.

The merger involves the integration of two companies that previously operated independently. The difficulties of combining the companies' operations include:

integrating personnel with diverse business backgrounds;

integrating departments, systems, operating procedures and information technologies;

combining different corporate cultures;

retaining existing customers and attracting new customers; and retaining key employees.

The process of integrating operations could cause an interruption of, or loss of momentum in, the activities of one or more of the combined company's businesses and the loss of key personnel. The diversion of management's attention and any delays or difficulties encountered in connection with the merger and the integration of the two companies' operations could have a material adverse effect on the business and results of operations of the combined company.

The success of the merger will depend, in part, on Orrstown Financial Services' ability to realize the anticipated benefits and cost savings from combining the business of Orrstown Financial Services with Mercersburg Financial Corporation. If Orrstown Financial Services is unable to successfully integrate Mercersburg Financial Corporation, the anticipated benefits and cost savings of the merger may not be realized fully or may take longer to realize than expected. For example, Orrstown Financial Services may fail to realize the anticipated increase in earnings and cost savings anticipated to be derived from the acquisition. In addition, as with regard to any merger, a significant change in interest rates or economic conditions or decline in asset valuations may also cause Orrstown Financial Services not to realize expected benefits and result in the merger not being as accretive as expected.

Unanticipated costs relating to the merger could reduce Orrstown Financial Services' future earnings per share.

Orrstown Financial Services believes that it has reasonably estimated the likely costs of integrating the operations of Orrstown Financial Services and Mercersburg Financial Corporation, and the incremental costs of operating as a combined company. However, it is possible that Orrstown Financial Services could incur unexpected transaction costs such as taxes, fees or professional expenses or unexpected future operating expenses such as increased personnel costs or increased taxes, which could result in the merger not being as accretive as expected or having a dilutive effect on the combined company's earnings per share.

Former Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders will have limited ability to influence Orrstown Financial Services' actions and decisions following the merger.

Following the merger, former Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders are expected to hold approximately 11.2% of the outstanding shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock. As a result, former Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders will have limited ability to influence Orrstown Financial Services' business. Former Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders will not have separate approval rights with respect to any actions or decisions of Orrstown Financial Services or have separate representation on Orrstown Financial Services board of directors.

Table of Contents

The shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock to be received by Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders as a result of the merger will have different rights from shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock.

Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders who receive shares of Orrstown Financial Services in the merger will instead be stockholders of Orrstown Financial Services. See the section of this proxy statement/prospectus titled Comparison of Stockholder Rights beginning on page 91 for a discussion of the different rights associated with Orrstown Financial Services common stock and Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock.

The market price of Orrstown Financial Services common stock after the merger may be affected by factors different from those affecting the shares of Orrstown Financial Services or Mercersburg Financial Corporation currently.

The businesses of Orrstown Financial Services and Mercersburg Financial Corporation differ and, accordingly, the results of operations of the combined company and the market price of the combined company's shares of common stock may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting the independent results of operations and market prices of common stock of each of Orrstown Financial Services and Mercersburg Financial Corporation. The market value of Orrstown Financial Services common stock fluctuates based upon various factors, including changes in the business, operations or prospects of Orrstown Financial Services, market assessments of the merger, regulatory considerations, market and economic considerations, and other factors. Further, the market price of Orrstown Financial Services common stock after the merger may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting the common stock of Orrstown Financial Services or Mercersburg Financial Corporation. For a discussion of the businesses of Mercersburg Financial Corporation and Orrstown Financial Services and of certain factors to consider in connection with those businesses, see the section of this proxy statement/prospectus titled The Companies' Orrstown Financial Services and Mercersburg Financial Corporation and the documents incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus and referred to under Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 99.

Pending litigation and legal proceedings and the impact of any finding of liability or damages could adversely impact Orrstown Financial Services and its financial condition and results of operations.

Pending litigation and legal proceedings, and the impact of any finding of liability or damages, could adversely impact Orrstown Financial Services and its financial condition and results of operations. On May 25, 2012, the Southeastern Pennsylvania Transportation Authority (SEPTA) filed a putative class action complaint in the U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Pennsylvania against Orrstown Financial Services, Orrstown Bank, and certain of its current and former directors and executive officers alleging, among other things, that Orrstown Financial Services issued materially false and misleading statements regarding its lending practices and financial results, and did not publicly disclose certain alleged failures of internal controls over loan underwriting, risk management, and financial reporting, in violation of the federal securities laws. Following briefing on defendants' motions to dismiss, the Court dismissed SEPTA's first amended complaint in its entirety. SEPTA then filed a second amended complaint which, after a second round of motions, the Court dismissed in part.

SEPTA's second amended complaint disclosed the existence of a confidential, non-public, fact-finding inquiry regarding the Company conducted by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC). On September 27, 2016, without admitting or denying any of the Commission's findings, Orrstown Financial Services entered into a settlement agreement with the SEC resolving the investigation of accounting and related matters. As part of the settlement agreement, Orrstown Financial Services agreed to pay a civil money penalty of $1 million.

On January 31, 2017, the District Court entered a revised Case Management Order in the SEPTA case establishing the schedule for litigation of the surviving claims against the remaining defendants. The Case Management Order, among other things, set the deadlines for the completion of discovery, the filing of motions, and various pre-trial conferences. A class has not yet been certified. While trial had been scheduled to begin on January 7, 2019, on February 28, 2018, the Court issued an Order continuing all case management deadlines until further order of the Court. Discovery in the case is ongoing.

Orrstown Financial Services believes that the allegations of SEPTA's second amended complaint are without merit and intends to vigorously defend itself against those claims. It is not possible at this time to estimate reasonably possible losses, or even a range of reasonably possible losses, in connection with the litigation. See the section of this proxy statement/prospectus titled "Proposal No. 1 The Merger Recommendation of the Mercersburg Financial Corporation Board of Directors and Mercersburg Financial Corporation's Reasons for the Merger" beginning on page 46.

Mercersburg Financial Corporation will be subject to business uncertainties and contractual restrictions while the merger is pending.

Uncertainty about the effect of the merger on employees and customers may have an adverse effect on Mercersburg Financial Corporation. These uncertainties may impair Mercersburg Financial Corporation's ability to attract, retain and motivate key personnel until the merger is completed, and could cause customers and others who deal with Mercersburg Financial Corporation to seek to change existing business relationships with Mercersburg Financial Corporation. Mercersburg Financial Corporation employee retention and recruitment may be particularly challenging prior to the effective time of the merger, as employees and prospective employees may experience uncertainty about their future roles with the combined company.

The pursuit of the merger and the preparation for the integration may place a significant burden on management and internal resources. Any significant diversion of management attention away from ongoing business and any difficulties encountered in the transition and integration process could affect Mercersburg Financial Corporation's financial results. In addition, the merger agreement requires that Mercersburg Financial Corporation operate in the usual, regular and ordinary course of business and restricts Mercersburg Financial Corporation from taking certain actions prior to the effective time of the merger or termination of the merger agreement without Orrstown Financial Services' consent. These restrictions may prevent Mercersburg Financial Corporation from pursuing attractive business opportunities that may arise prior to the completion of the merger.

This proxy statement/prospectus, including the information incorporated by reference, contains statements that may be considered forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS OF MERCERSBURG FINANCIAL CORPORATION

This section is intended to help readers understand the financial performance of Mercersburg Financial Corporation. The information reflected in this section reflects the financial performance of Mercersburg Financial Corporation and its subsidiary, First Community Bank of Mercersburg.

Overview

Our results of operations depend mainly on our net interest income, which is the difference between the interest income we earn on our loan and investment portfolios and the interest expense we pay on our deposits and borrowings. Results of operations are also affected by provisions for loan losses and noninterest income. Our noninterest expense consists primarily of compensation and employee benefits, office occupancy and general administrative and data processing expenses. Noninterest expenses have been stable in recent years, and tend to track below peers.

Our results of operations are significantly affected by general economic and competitive conditions, particularly with respect to changes in interest rates, government policies and actions of regulatory authorities. Future changes in applicable law, regulations or government policies may materially affect our financial condition and results of operations.

Historically, our business has consisted primarily of originating one-to four-family, five plus family, agricultural and real estate loans secured by property in our market area and investing in municipal investment securities. Typically, one-to four-family loans involve a lower degree of risk and carry a lower yield than commercial real estate, construction and consumer loans. Our loans are primarily funded by low cost deposits such as demand and savings accounts and, to a lesser extent, certificates of deposits. At times, we will utilize advances from the Federal Home Loan Bank of Pittsburgh (FHLB). Certificates of deposit typically have a higher interest rate than savings and demand deposit accounts. The combination of these factors, along with our capital level, has resulted in interest rate margins consistently above 4.00% with 4.14% for the year ended December 31, 2017 and 4.16% for the year ended December 31, 2016. Cost of funds ratios remain low at 0.54% for the year ended December 2017 and 0.51% for the year ended December 31, 2016.

Comparison of Financial Condition at December 31, 2017 and December 31, 2016

Total assets increased by $3,374,000, or 1.9%, to $180,390,000 at December 31, 2017. This increase was principally reflected in a $2,243,000 increase in loans, a $693,000 increase in cash and due from banks and a $461,000 increase in securities available for sale.

Cash and due from banks increased by $693,000, or 9.0%, to $8,436,000 at December 31, 2017 due to normal business fluctuations.

Investment securities available for sale, which excludes our investments in FHLB restricted stock, increased $461,000, or 5.4%, to $8,960,000 at December 31, 2017, from $8,499,000 at December 31, 2016. The increase reflected the reinvestment of proceeds from sales and calls reinvested back into the portfolio and new purchases for increased investment opportunities. Investment in FHLB restricted stock increased $22,000 or 13.8%, from $158,000 at December 31, 2016 to $180,000 at December 31, 2017. We are required to hold FHLB stock to participate in FHLB credit products and the FHLB's mortgage partnership finance program (MPF Loan Program). The amount held is governed by the extent of our participation in those programs.

Net loans increased $2,126,000 from $148,266,000 at December 31, 2016 to $150,392,000 at December 31, 2017, or 1.4%. The net change in the loan portfolio occurred in several areas: real estate mortgages increased $4,910,000, installment loans decreased $332,000, and demand and time loans decreased $1,931,000 for the year ended December 31, 2017.

Total liabilities at December 31, 2017 were $159,355,000, an increase of $2,980,000, or 1.9%, from $156,375,000 at December 31, 2016. The increase principally reflected an increase in deposits of $2,845,000, or 1.8%, from December 31, 2016 to December 31, 2017. There were no borrowed funds outstanding at December 31, 2017 or at December 31, 2016.

Total deposits increased from $153,766,000 at December 31, 2016 to $156,611,000 at December 31, 2017. The increase of $2,845,000, or 1.8%, in total deposits was the result of an increase in demand deposits, a decrease in savings deposits (which include NOW and money market accounts), coupled with an increase in certificates of deposit. Demand deposits increased $1,767,000, from $25,512,000 at December 31, 2016 to $27,279,000 at December 31, 2017, or 6.9%.

Certificates of deposit increased $2,222,000, or 4.8%, from $46,718,000 at December 31, 2016 to $48,940,000 at December 31, 2017. The increase in certificates of deposit included an increase in certificates of deposit over $250,000 of $1,057,000, or 20.2%.

Stockholders' equity was $21,035,000, or 11.7%, of total assets, at December 31, 2017, compared to $20,641,000, or 11.7%, of total assets, at December 31, 2016, and reflected $839,000 in 2017 net income and dividends paid of $454,000 during the year. The dividends paid marked a 16.7%, or $65,000, increase from the year ended December 31, 2016.

Comparison of Operating Results for the Years Ended December 31, 2017 and December 31, 2016

Net Income. Net income decreased $204,000, or 19.6%, to $839,000 for the year ended December 31, 2017, from $1,043,000 for the year ended December 31, 2016. The decrease primarily reflected the enacted income tax rate change as the result of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act, which resulted in an increase in 2017 deferred tax expense of $404,000. Net interest income increased by $188,000, or 3.0%, to $6,540,000; total other expenses increased $165,000, or 2.9% to $5,764,000; and the provision for loan losses decreased by $297,000, or 66.1%, to $153,000 for the year ended December 31, 2017 compared to the year ended December 31, 2016.

Net Interest Income. The $188,000 increase from 2016 to 2017 reflected an increase of $258,000 in interest and dividend income to $7,243,000 in the year ended December 31, 2017, from $6,985,000 in the year ended December 31, 2016, net of an increase of $70,000 in interest expense to $703,000 for the year ended December 31, 2017 from $633,000 for the year ended December 31, 2016. The increase in interest and dividend income was mainly the result of a $2,243,000 increase in the balance of loans in the loan portfolio. Interest expense increased primarily as a result of the increase in average rates paid on certificates of deposits, from 0.91% in 2016 to 0.95% in 2017.

For the year ended December 31, 2017, the average yield on interest-earning assets was 4.58%, compared to 4.56% for the year ended December 31, 2016. The average cost of interest-bearing liabilities was 0.54% for the year ended December 31, 2017, compared to 0.51% for the year ended December 31, 2016. This increase resulted primarily from the gain on sale of loans, as part of the MPF Loan Program, of $196,000 in 2017 compared to $149,000 in 2016.

Noninterest Expense. Noninterest expense increased by $165,000, or 2.9%, to $5,764,000 for the year ended December 31, 2017 from $5,599,000 for the year ended December 31, 2016. The increase was principally in salaries and benefits, hospitalization and item processing services. The increase in salaries and benefits of $92,000, or 2.9%, was a combination of salary increases, officer incentive compensation, and hospitalization cost increases. The increase in item processing services of $24,000 was primarily due to increased transaction volume and a 3% service fee increase.

Income Taxes. Deferred income tax expense was impacted by the enacted income tax rate change from 34% to 21% for tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2018 as the result of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act enacted in December 2017. Included in deferred tax expense for 2017 was $404,000 related to the remeasurement of net deferred tax assets due to the tax rate change. Taxes also increased in 2017 compared to 2016 due to increased pretax income.

3. To consider and act upon such other matters as may properly come before the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement of that meeting.

Votes Required to Transact Business at the Special Meeting

A quorum of Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders is necessary to hold a valid meeting. If the holders of at least a majority of the shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock entitled to be cast are present in person or represented by proxy at the special meeting, a quorum will exist. Mercersburg Financial Corporation will include proxies marked as abstentions as present at the meeting in determining whether a quorum is present.

Record Date; Outstanding Shares; Shares Entitled to Vote

You can vote at the special meeting if you owned Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock at the close of business on July 23, 2018, the record date for the special meeting. As of the close of business on the record date, there were 810,080 shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock outstanding. Each holder of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock is entitled to one vote for each share of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock he, she or it owned as of the record date.

Vote Required to Approve Each Proposal

Approval of the Merger. Approval of this proposal requires the affirmative vote of holders of at least 60% of the outstanding shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting. If you abstain or do not vote, it will have the same effect as voting AGAINST approval of the merger agreement and the merger.

Approval of Adjournments of the Special Meeting. Approval of this proposal requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at the special meeting. If you do not vote, either in person or by proxy, it will have no effect on the outcome of the proposal. Proxies marked abstentions will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST this proposal.

How to Vote Shares Held Directly by the Stockholder

If you are the record holder of your shares, you may vote your shares by:

By Telephone. You may vote by telephone by calling 1-800-652-VOTE (8683). Have your proxy card in hand when you call and then follow the instructions to vote your shares. You must submit your telephonic proxy before 12:00 a.m., Eastern Time, on September 11, 2018, the day of the special meeting, for your proxy to be valid and your vote to count.

If you plan to attend the special meeting and wish to vote in person, you will be given a ballot at the special meeting. Please note, however, that if your shares are held of record by a broker, bank or other nominee and you wish to vote at the special meeting, you must bring additional documentation from the broker, bank or other nominee in order to vote your shares.

How to Vote Shares Held by a Broker, Bank or Other Nominee

If your shares are held through a broker, bank or other nominee, you may vote your shares by following the voting instructions provided by your broker, bank or other nominee. To be able to vote shares not registered in your own name in person at the special meeting, contact your broker, bank or other nominee who holds your shares to obtain a broker's proxy card and bring it with you to the special meeting, along with a bank or brokerage statement or a letter from your nominee evidencing your beneficial ownership of our stock and a form of personal identification. A broker's proxy is not the form of proxy enclosed with this proxy statement/prospectus.

Broker Non-Votes and Abstentions

If you are the beneficial owner of shares held in street name by a broker, bank or other nominee and you do not give instructions to the broker, bank or other nominee on how to vote your shares at the special meeting, your broker, bank or other nominee may not vote your shares with respect to any of the proposals. Proxies submitted by a broker that do not exercise this voting authority are also known as broker non-votes.

An abstention is a decision by a stockholder to take a neutral position on a proposal being submitted to stockholders at a meeting.

Effect of Broker Non-Votes and Abstentions on Quorum and the Votes Required at the Special Meeting

The affirmative vote of holders of at least 60% of the outstanding shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting is required to approve the merger agreement and the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the votes cast at the special meeting is required to approve any adjournment proposal. Because broker non-votes and abstentions are not considered a vote approving any proposal submitted at the special meeting, broker non-votes and abstentions will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal to approve the merger agreement. However, broker non-votes will have no effect on the outcome of the adjournment proposal, but abstentions will have the same effect as a vote against the adjournment proposal.

How Will Shares be Voted

All shares represented by valid unrevoked proxies will be voted in accordance with the instructions on the proxy card. If you return a signed proxy card, but make no specification on the card as to how you want your shares voted, your proxy will be voted FOR approval of the foregoing proposals. The board of directors of Mercersburg Financial Corporation is presently unaware of any other matter that may be presented for action at the special meeting of stockholders. If any other matter does properly come before the special meeting, the board of directors of Mercersburg Financial Corporation intends that shares represented by properly submitted proxies will be voted, or not voted, by and in accordance with the directions of the Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors.

Submitting a new signed proxy card by mail bearing a later date, or by submitting a new vote over the Internet or by telephone (any earlier proxies will be revoked automatically); or

Attending the special meeting and voting in person provided you are the holder of record of your shares and have filed a written revocation of your grant of proxy with the Secretary of Mercersburg Financial Corporation as indicated above.

If you hold your shares in the name of a broker, bank or other nominee, you will need to contact your nominee in order to revoke your proxy. If you hold your shares in street name through a broker or bank, you may only change your vote in person if you have a legal proxy in your name from Broadridge Financial Solutions or your broker or bank.

Proxy Solicitation

The board of directors of Mercersburg Financial Corporation is soliciting these proxies. Mercersburg Financial Corporation will pay the expenses of soliciting proxies to be voted at the special meeting. In addition to sending you this proxy statement/prospectus, some of Mercersburg Financial Corporation's directors and officers as well as management and non-management employees may contact you by telephone, mail, e-mail, or in person.

Dissenters' Rights

Dissenters' rights are statutory rights that enable stockholders who object to extraordinary transactions, such as mergers, to demand that the corporation pay such stockholders the fair value of their shares as determined by a court in a judicial proceeding instead of receiving the consideration offered to stockholders in connection with the extraordinary transaction. Dissenters' rights are not available in all circumstances and exceptions to those rights are set forth in the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law (PBCL). The term fair value in this instance means the value of a share of Mercersburg Financial Corporation's common stock immediately before the day of the merger, taking into account all relevant factors, but excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the merger.

Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders are entitled to dissenters' rights in connection with the merger.

Set forth below is a summary of the terms under the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law, describing the steps that must be taken in order to exercise dissenting stockholder rights. Any Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholder considering exercising the stockholder's right to dissent from the proposed action and receive the fair value of his shares should read both this summary and the full text of the law, which is attached hereto as Annex B. Written notices or demands that are required concerning the exercise of dissenters' rights should be sent to Mercersburg Financial Corporation, 12 South Main Street, Mercersburg, Pennsylvania 17236 Attention: Corporate Secretary or at such other address as may be indicated in subsequent instructions related to the exercise of such rights.

Any Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholder who wishes to dissent and exercise rights to an appraisal must:

file a written notice of intention to demand payment of the fair value of his or her shares (if the merger is completed), prior to the vote of stockholders on the merger at the special meeting;

make no change in the stockholder's beneficial ownership of stock from the date of the written notice through the day of the merger; and not vote his or her stock for approval of the merger.

Voting in favor of the merger constitutes a waiver of dissenters' rights of appraisal. Further, neither a proxy marked against approval of the merger nor a vote at the special meeting against approval of the merger satisfies the necessary written notice of intention to dissent. A separate written notice must be filed with Mercersburg Financial Corporation prior to the vote of stockholders on the merger, as described above.

If the merger is approved by the required vote of stockholders, Mercersburg Financial Corporation will mail a notice to all dissenters who gave due notice of intention to demand payment of fair value and who did not vote for approval of the plan of merger. The notice will state where and when the dissenting stockholder must deliver a written demand for payment and where certificates for stock should be deposited in order to obtain payment. The notice will include a form for demanding payment and a copy of the law. The time set for receipt of the demand for payment and deposit of stock certificates will be not less than 30 days from the date of mailing of the notice.

Any dissenting Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholder who wishes to exercise appraisal rights must take each step in the indicated order and in strict compliance with the statute to preserve dissenters' rights. Any such stockholder who fails to follow the steps will lose his or her right to dissent and will, instead, receive the merger consideration.

Promptly after the merger, Orrstown Financial Services will send dissenters, who have timely filed the demand for payment and deposited their stock certificates, the amount that Orrstown Financial Services estimates to be the fair value of the stock. The remittance or notice will be accompanied by:

a closing balance sheet and statement of income of Mercersburg Financial Corporation for a fiscal year ending not more than 16 months before the date of remittance or notice together with the latest available interim financial statements; a statement of Orrstown Financial Services' estimate of the fair value of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock; and a notice of the right of the dissenter to demand supplemental payment, accompanied by a copy of the law. If a dissenting stockholder believes that the amount stated or remitted by Orrstown Financial Services is less than the fair value of the stock, the dissenter may send an estimate of the fair value of the stock to Orrstown Financial Services. If Orrstown Financial Services remits payment of the estimated value of a dissenter's stock and the dissenter does not file his or her own estimate within 30 days after Orrstown Financial Services mailed its remittance, the dissenter will be entitled to no more than the amount remitted by Orrstown Financial Services.

If any demands for payment remain unsettled within 60 days after the latest to occur of: (1) the merger, (2) the timely receipt of any stockholder demands for payment, or (3) the timely receipt of any estimates by dissenters of the fair value, then Orrstown Financial Services may file an application in the Court of Common Pleas of Cumberland County requesting that the court determine the fair value of the stock. If this happens, all dissenters, no matter where they reside, whose demands have not been settled, shall be made parties to the proceeding. In addition, a copy of the application will be delivered to each dissenter.

If Orrstown Financial Services fails to file the application, then any dissenter, on behalf of all dissenters who have made a demand and who have not settled their claim may file an application in the name of Mercersburg Financial Corporation at any time within the 30-day period after the expiration of the 60-day period and request that the Cumberland County Court determine the fair value of the shares. The fair value determined by the court may, but need not, equal the dissenters' estimates of fair value. If no dissenter files an application, then each dissenter entitled to do so shall be paid Orrstown Financial Services' estimate of the fair value of the common stock and no more, and may bring an action to recover any amount not previously remitted, plus interest at a rate the court finds fair and equitable.

The costs and expenses of any valuation proceedings in court, including the reasonable compensation and expenses of any appraiser appointed by the court to recommend a decision on the issue of fair value, will be determined by the court and assessed against Mercersburg Financial Corporation except that any part of the costs and expenses may be apportioned and assessed by the court against all or any of the dissenters who are parties and whose action in demanding supplemental payment the court finds to be arbitrary, vexatious or in bad faith. In addition, dissenting stockholders generally will be responsible for their own costs and expenses, including, without limitation, the fees and expenses of their own legal counsel and experts. Investment banker opinions as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration payable in a transaction such as the merger are not opinions as to, and do not address in any respect, fair value under the PBCL.

Stock Certificates

You should not send in any certificates representing Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock at this time. It is expected that at least 20 business days prior to the anticipated closing date of the merger you will receive instructions for the exchange of certificates representing Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock. For more information regarding these instructions, please see the section of this proxy statement/prospectus titled "The Merger Agreement Election Procedures" beginning on page 65.

Proposal to Approve Adjournment of the Special Meeting

Mercersburg Financial Corporation is also submitting a proposal for consideration at the special meeting to authorize the named proxies to approve one or more adjournments of the special meeting if there are not sufficient votes to approve the merger agreement and the merger at the time of the special meeting. Even though a quorum may be present at the special meeting, it is possible that Mercersburg Financial Corporation may not have received sufficient votes to approve the merger agreement and the merger by the time of the special meeting. In that event, Mercersburg Financial Corporation would need to adjourn the special meeting in order to solicit additional proxies.

To allow the proxies that have been received by Mercersburg Financial Corporation at the time of the special meeting to be voted for an adjournment, if necessary, Mercersburg Financial Corporation is submitting a proposal to approve one or more adjournments, and only under those circumstances, to you for consideration. If the new date, time and place are announced at the special meeting before the adjournment, Mercersburg Financial Corporation is not required to give notice of the time and place of the adjourned meeting, unless the board of directors fixes a new record date for the special meeting.

The adjournment proposal relates only to an adjournment of the special meeting occurring for purposes of soliciting additional proxies for approval of the merger agreement and the merger in the event that there are insufficient votes to approve that proposal. The Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors retains full authority to the extent set forth in the Mercersburg Financial Corporation bylaws and applicable law to adjourn the special meeting for any other purpose, or to postpone the special meeting before it is convened, without the consent of any Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders.

Share Ownership of Management; Voting Agreements

In connection with the merger agreement, Mercersburg Financial Corporation's directors and executive officers executed voting agreements with Orrstown Financial Services under which they agreed to vote their shares in favor of the merger. As of the record date, there were 41,598 shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock, or approximately 5.1% of the outstanding shares, subject to the voting agreements. See the section of this proxy statement/prospectus titled "The Voting Agreements" beginning on page 86 for further information regarding these voting agreements.

PROPOSAL NO. 1 THE MERGER

General

Under the terms and conditions set forth in the merger agreement, Mercersburg Financial Corporation will merge with and into Orrstown Financial Services. The surviving corporation in the merger will be Orrstown Financial Services. Pursuant to the merger agreement, if the merger agreement is approved by the holders of at least 60% of the shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting and the merger is subsequently completed, each outstanding share of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock will be converted into the right to receive at the election of the holder thereof either (1) $40.00 in cash, without interest, or (2) 1.5291 shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock subject to proration to ensure that in the aggregate 85% of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock will be converted to Orrstown Financial Services common stock and the remaining 15% of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock will be converted to cash.

No fractional shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock will be issued in connection with the merger. Instead, each Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholder will receive an amount of cash, in lieu of any fractional share, based on the average daily closing price of Orrstown Financial Services common stock as reported on NASDAQ for the ten consecutive trading day period ending on the fifth business day prior to the closing date of the merger, rounded to the nearest whole cent.

The exchange ratio was determined based on the 15-day volume weighted average stock price of Orrstown Financial Services common stock for the measurement period, which was $26.16 per share, which would have resulted in Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders receiving Orrstown Financial Services common stock and cash in lieu of fractional shares in the merger with an implied value per share equal to $40.00. Based on the closing price of Orrstown Financial Services common stock of $[] per share on [], the most recent practicable date prior to the mailing of this proxy statement/prospectus, Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders would receive Orrstown Financial Services common stock and cash in lieu of fractional shares in the merger with an implied value per share equal to $[].

Mercersburg Financial Corporation has the right to terminate the merger agreement if the volume weighted average stock price of Orrstown Financial Services common stock as reported on NASDAQ for the 15 consecutive trading days immediately preceding the date on which all required regulatory and stockholder approvals have been obtained (the determination date), is less than $20.928 per share and Orrstown Financial Services common stock underperforms the NASDAQ Bank Index by more than 20% between May 29, 2018 and the determination date. If Mercersburg Financial Corporation exercises this termination right, Orrstown Financial Services will have the option to increase the amount of Orrstown Financial Services common stock to be provided to Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders to an amount which, when multiplied by the volume weighted average price of Orrstown Financial Services common stock as reported on NASDAQ for the fifteen consecutive trading days immediately preceding the determination date, equals the lesser of (1) $40.00 or (2) $40.00 multiplied by the index ratio. If Orrstown Financial Services elects to increase the stock consideration pursuant to the preceding sentence, no termination will occur.

Background of the Merger

The board of directors of Mercersburg Financial Corporation held off-site strategic planning meetings in October 2014, 2015, 2016 and 2017. While the board of directors recognized that Mercersburg Financial Corporation would be more likely to grow larger and more quickly through a business combination with a strategic acquirer or a strategic merger of equals than as a standalone independent community bank, it also determined that Mercersburg Financial Corporation was doing well as a standalone independent community bank in comparison to its peers and was making a significant contribution to its local Mercersburg community, both as a source of economic and financial support and as a source of employment. As a result, the board of directors believed that while Mercersburg Financial Corporation could continue to be successful as a standalone independent community bank, a strategic merger of equals would be a preferable alternative growth strategy to a business combination with a strategic acquirer because a strategic merger of equals would be more likely to enable the Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors and management team to stay meaningfully involved in the management and operation of the combined institution and to thereby assure continuing involvement in and support for the local Mercersburg community than would a business combination with a larger institution.

In 2017, Mercersburg Financial Corporation entered into separate discussions as more fully described below with two institutions regarding a possible strategic transaction. In the spring of 2017, Robert J. Fignar, the President and Chief Executive Officer of Mercersburg Financial Corporation, met with the chief executive officer of one of the two institutions (Party A) to discuss what a combined institution might look like. Although Party A was a larger institution than Mercersburg Financial Corporation, the two discussed incorporating aspects of a merger of equals. Afterwards, in order to facilitate further discussions, the chief executive officer of Party A delivered a written term sheet to Mercersburg Financial Corporation. The Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors determined, however, that the terms set forth in the term sheet did not accurately represent what had been discussed at the earlier meeting of the chief executive officers and were more representative of terms the board of directors would have anticipated receiving from a strategic acquirer than from a partner in a merger of equals. When considered together with the limited trading volume for the common stock of Party A, the Board determined that it would be more likely to receive a better deal in a business combination with a larger institution having greater trading volume for its common stock than in the transaction proposed by Party A and discontinued discussions with Party A.

Later in the summer of 2017, Mr. Fignar and William E. Sanders, Jr., the Chairman of the Board of Mercersburg Financial Corporation, met with the chief executive officer and chairman of the board of the second institution (Party B). Mercersburg Financial Corporation and Party B had been having on again, off again discussions about a possible transaction between them over the past five or so years. The summer of 2017 meeting was followed by a social get acquainted meeting between the boards of directors of the two institutions and, in October, the Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors focused on what a merger of equals between the two institutions would look like at its annual strategic planning meeting. After a number of attempts to schedule follow up meetings with Party B were unsuccessful, Party B informed Mercersburg Financial Corporation that it would not be interested in having serious discussions about a transaction for a few more years.

In December 2017, Mr. Fignar received a telephone call from Thomas R. Quinn, Jr., the President and Chief Executive Officer of Orrstown Financial Services, during which they agreed to meet. The meeting was scheduled for February 1, 2018. At the February 1, 2018 meeting, Mr. Quinn outlined Orrstown Financial Services' vision of a combined company that would include Mercersburg Financial Corporation.

On February 7, 2018, the board of directors of Mercersburg Financial Corporation held a special meeting at which Mr. Fignar reported on his earlier meeting with Mr. Quinn. The board of directors directed Mr. Fignar to engage in further discussions with Mr. Quinn.

Additional meetings involving Mr. Fignar and Mr. Quinn occurred on February 15, 2018, which included David Boyle, Chief Financial Officer of Orrstown Financial Services; March 15, 2018, which included additional executive officers of Orrstown Financial Services; and April 9, 2018, which included Mr. Sanders and Joel R. Zullinger, the Chairman of the Board of Orrstown Financial Services.

Following the meeting on April 9, 2018, Orrstown Financial Services delivered to Mercersburg Financial Corporation proposed forms of a mutual confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement and a letter of intent. The letter of intent proposed for Mercersburg Financial Corporation to merge with and into Orrstown Financial Services with Orrstown Financial Services continuing as the surviving corporation, and for Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders to receive merger consideration in the amount of $40.00 per share for each share of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock held, in the form of cash or Orrstown Financial Services common stock, based upon a floating exchange ratio and subject to a collar limiting the maximum number of shares issuable by Orrstown Financial Services in the transaction. The amount of cash consideration payable also would be limited to not more than 15% of the total amount of merger consideration.

A special meeting of the board of directors of Mercersburg Financial Corporation was held on April 18, 2018 to review the terms and conditions proposed by Orrstown Financial Services in the letter of intent. Also in attendance at the invitation of the board of directors were representatives of the law firm of Stevens & Lee, legal counsel to Mercersburg Financial Corporation, and Ambassador. The representative of Stevens & Lee made a presentation regarding the fiduciary duties of directors under the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law. The representative of Ambassador reviewed financial aspects of the floating exchange ratio proposed by Orrstown Financial Services as compared to a fixed exchange ratio or a collar setting both a maximum and minimum number of shares issuable by Orrstown Financial Services in the transaction. The representative of Ambassador also provided information regarding merger transaction pricing in the banking industry over a four year period from 2014 through 2017 on both national and Pennsylvania bases and information regarding six potential transaction partners, including Orrstown Financial Services and Party A, that had been identified in consultation with Mr. Fignar, which information included their respective apparent capacity to pay. There was also a discussion of the strengths and weaknesses generally associated with a negotiated transaction and an auction process.

Table of Contents

The board of directors considered Orrstown Financial Services' proposed $40.00 per share price in relation to the five other potential transaction partners discussed by Ambassador and believed that none of the other potential transaction partners appeared likely to offer a materially better price. The board observed that two of the other potential transaction partners appeared to have the capacity to pay the same or more than Orrstown Financial Services, but that one of the two was Party A and the other of two (Party C) was then occupied with completing a similar transaction with another party. The board noted that Orrstown Financial Services and Party C were the only two potential partners having a stock trading on NASDAQ, with the others, including Party A, trading in the over-the-counter market, and that two of the other potential partners, including Party C, were then occupied with completing similar transactions with other parties. The board of directors also discussed Orrstown Financial Services' proposals for severance pay for Mercersburg Financial Corporation employees who would not be retained by Orrstown Financial Services after the closing of the transaction, a retention bonus fund and the employment of Mr. Fignar as Orrstown Bank's Southern Region President. The board of directors discussed Orrstown Financial Services' proposal that Mercersburg Financial Corporation fully fund its pension plan prior to closing, the implications of the SEPTA litigation involving Orrstown Financial Services and the scope of the reverse due diligence that would be necessary for Mercersburg Financial Corporation to undertake. The board of directors discussed Orrstown Financial Services' proposal in relation to the board's assessment of Mercersburg Financial Corporation's strategic vision and future, while expressing a desire to better understand Orrstown Financial Services' visions for the local Mercersburg community served and supported by Mercersburg Financial Corporation and Mercersburg Financial Corporation's contributions to Orrstown Financial Services' business strategy following the completion of the transaction.

As a result of the foregoing discussions, the Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors directed Ambassador to communicate the following counterproposals to Orrstown Financial Services' financial advisor:

A fixed exchange ratio rather than a floating exchange ratio;

A 30 percent cash portion rather than a 15 percent cash portion; and

Two weeks of severance pay per year of service, rather than the one week initially proposed by Orrstown Financial Services, with a minimum of two weeks and a maximum of 26 weeks.

Mercersburg Financial Corporation received a revised letter of intent from Orrstown Financial Services on April 18, 2018 following Ambassador's conversation with Orrstown Financial Services' financial advisor. Orrstown Financial Services agreed to a fixed exchange ratio based upon the same $40.00 per share price, with the cash portion limited to 15%.

The board of directors met by conference telephone on April 20, 2018 to review the revised letter of intent. Representatives of Stevens & Lee and Ambassador participated in the call.

The board of directors expressed satisfaction with the proposed fixed exchange ratio, $40.00 per share price and the cash portion limited to 15%. Because, however, Orrstown Financial Services' financial advisor had told Ambassador that in establishing the $40.00 per share price Orrstown Financial Services had assumed in its pricing models that it would realize cost-savings of 45% in connection with combining the separate operations of the two companies, the board of directors discussed at length the implications of cost-savings at a 45% level on Mercersburg Financial Corporation employees and the Mercersburg community. As a result, the board of directors directed Ambassador to invite Mr. Quinn to make a presentation to the Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors regarding Orrstown Financial Services' vision for the Mercersburg community and the contribution Mercersburg Financial Corporation would make to Orrstown Financial Services' business strategy following completion of the merger. In order to enable the exchange of confidential and proprietary information that would facilitate preparations for such a presentation, the Board of Directors also authorized and directed Stevens & Lee to negotiate the terms and conditions of the non-disclosure agreement.

Mercersburg Financial Corporation and Orrstown Financial Services entered into a non-disclosure agreement on April 23, 2018.

Mr. Quinn, together with Mr. Boyle, made a presentation to the Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors on April 26, 2018.

On May 1, 2018, the Mercersburg board of directors met by conference telephone to discuss the revised letter of intent received from Orrstown Financial Services following the presentation by Mr. Quinn and Mr. Boyle on April 26, 2018. Representatives of Stevens & Lee and Ambassador again participated in the call. The board discussed the impacts they would anticipate from a transaction with Orrstown Financial Services under the terms of the letter of intent upon three key constituencies (i) stockholders, (ii) employees and (iii) community. The directors acknowledged that the $40.00 per share price, proposed fixed exchange rate and 15% cash portion could be fair to Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders.

Table of Contents

They discussed the potential impact of the SEPTA litigation on Orrstown Financial Services' financial position, results of operations and the price of Orrstown Financial Services' common stock. They discussed the potential impact of Orrstown Financial Services' proposed 45% cost savings upon Mercersburg Financial Corporation employees and Orrstown Financial Services' vision for the Mercersburg community and Mercersburg Financial Corporation's contribution to Orrstown Financial Services' business strategy following completion of the merger.

The board of directors also discussed possible alternatives to a transaction with Orrstown Financial Services, including a transaction with other likely strategic partners or continuing to pursue an independence strategy. The board of directors believed that none of the other potential partners that it considered at the April 18, 2018 meeting appeared likely to offer a materially better price than the $40.00 per share price offered by Orrstown Financial Services and concluded that no transaction with any other potential partner would be likely to have a more favorable impact on Mercersburg Financial Corporation's employees or the Mercersburg community than a transaction with Orrstown Financial Services. With respect to anticipated prospects for continuing to pursue an independence strategy, the board of directors determined that it would be relatively difficult for Mercersburg Financial Corporation to materially enhance its franchise value while pursuing an independence strategy due to its relatively small size and limited opportunity to grow materially, whether by acquisition or organically, and that it would be unlikely that the corporation would be able to position itself to receive a proposal for a transaction in the future upon materially more favorable terms than the terms proposed by Orrstown Financial Services in the letter of intent.

The board of directors also discussed the terms of employment being offered to Mr. Fignar and the severance compensation proposed to be paid to terminated Mercersburg Financial Corporation employees by Orrstown Financial Services. The board of directors directed that Mercersburg Financial Corporation negotiate a restricted area having a radius of 35 miles from the banking offices of First Community Bank of Mercersburg as of the effective date of the merger consistently with the terms of Mr. Fignar's current employment agreement with Mercersburg Financial Corporation, rather than the 75 mile radius from Orrstown Bank's headquarters being proposed by Orrstown Financial Services, for purposes of the covenant not to compete to be included in the proposed employment agreement between Mr. Fignar and Orrstown Financial Services. The board of directors also directed that Mercersburg Financial Corporation negotiate for an agreement by Orrstown Financial Services to pay severance compensation to terminated Mercersburg Financial Corporation employees at the rate of two weeks of pay for each year of service rather than the rate of one week of pay for each year of service proposed by Orrstown Financial Services.

The Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors met again by conference telephone on May 3, 2018 to discuss the further revised letter of intent received from Orrstown Financial Services on May 2, 2018, which the board determined satisfactorily addressed the restricted area and severance compensation matters the board had discussed during its May 1, 2018 meeting. Representatives of Stevens & Lee and Ambassador also participated in the call. The board of directors also discussed again the other matters the board had discussed on May 1, 2018, reaching the same determinations it had before.

The Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors directed that Mercersburg Financial Corporation negotiate for a further agreement by Orrstown Financial Services to provide for an initial four year term under the employment agreement to be offered to Mr. Fignar and to provide for a base salary for Mr. Fignar commensurate with that of Orrstown Financial Services' own similarly situated executive officers. The board of directors then authorized Mr. Fignar to execute and deliver to Orrstown Financial Services on behalf of Mercersburg Financial Corporation a letter of intent in the form presented by Orrstown Financial Services on May 2, 2018, but conditioned upon Orrstown Financial Services agreeing to the four year term and base salary provisions discussed above.

Orrstown Financial Services subsequently agreed to the four year term and base salary provisions and promptly delivered a revised letter of intent to Mercersburg Financial Corporation, which Mr. Fignar executed on behalf of Mercersburg Financial Corporation and returned to Orrstown Financial Services on May 3, 2018.

On May 4, 2018, Orrstown Financial Services began its due diligence investigation of Mercersburg Financial Corporation. On May 15, 2018, Orrstown Financial Services delivered to Mercersburg Financial Corporation an initial draft of a definitive merger agreement.

On May 24, 2018, members of senior management of Mercersburg Financial Corporation, together with representatives of Stevens & Lee, conducted on-site reverse due diligence of Orrstown Financial Services. Representatives of Ambassador also were present. The reverse due diligence included review of Orrstown Financial Services loan portfolio, investment holdings, product offerings, policies and procedures, pending legal matters including the SEPTA litigation, and financial information. Descriptions of the SEPTA litigation set forth by Orrstown Financial Services in its annual reports on Form 10-K and current reports on Form 10-Q filed with the SEC and materials filed with the Court by the parties to the SEPTA litigation were reviewed, and questions about the SEPTA litigation were asked of senior management of Orrstown Financial Services and its litigation counsel. While senior management of Mercersburg Financial Corporation determined due diligence findings to be satisfactory overall, no opinion with respect to the outcome of the SEPTA litigation or with respect to the merits of SEPTA's claims or Orrstown Financial Services' and the other defendants' defenses is expressed or is to be inferred.

From May 15, 2018 to May 31, 2018, representatives of Stevens & Lee, in consultation with Mr. Fignar and representatives of Ambassador and with directions from the Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors, negotiated the terms of the definitive merger agreement. On May 23, 2018, at a regular meeting of the board of directors of First Community Bank of Mercersburg, the board of directors of Mercersburg Financial Corporation met to receive a report on the status of negotiations with Orrstown Financial Services on the definitive merger agreement. Representatives of Stevens & Lee and Ambassador also attended in person or by telephone.

The discussion by the board of directors focused on the fact that the initial draft of the definitive merger agreement delivered to Mercersburg Financial Corporation by Orrstown Financial Services on May 15, 2018 did not contain a double trigger walk-away provision. The purpose of a double trigger walk-away provision is to protect stockholders of the target corporation from a material reduction in the market price of the acquirer's stock from the date of the definitive merger agreement to the closing date of the merger. The terms of the double trigger walk-away provision generally allow the board of directors of the target corporation to give notice of termination of the definitive merger agreement to the acquirer if the market price of the acquirer's stock has decreased below an agreed-upon threshold, on both an absolute basis and relative to an agreed upon bank stock index. The acquirer then generally has the option to increase the number of shares of its stock into which shares of the target corporation's stock are to be exchanged in order to preserve the value of the transaction to target corporation stockholders. In the event the acquirer would decline to contribute additional stock, the definitive merger agreement would terminate.

On May 23, 2018, Mercersburg Financial Corporation delivered a revised version of the definitive merger agreement to Orrstown Financial Services, setting forth Mercersburg Financial Corporation's written comments on the terms and conditions of the definitive merger agreement initially proposed by Orrstown Financial Services. Mercersburg Financial Corporation included a double trigger walk-away provision among its written comments.

On May 25, 2018, Orrstown Financial Services delivered to Mercersburg Financial Corporation a revised draft of the definitive merger agreement that again did not include a double trigger walk-away provision.

On May 29, 2018, the board of directors of Mercersburg Financial Corporation met by conference telephone. Representatives of Stevens & Lee and Ambassador participated in the call. The board of directors again discussed the absence of the double trigger walk-away provision from the definitive merger agreement. In addition to the protection accorded generally to target corporation stockholders, the board of directors discussed the further protection a double trigger walk-away provision could provide to Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders in the event a judgment in or settlement of the SEPTA litigation would occur prior to the closing date of merger and have a material adverse effect on the market price of Orrstown Financial Services common stock and, thereby, the value of the merger consideration. The Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors voted unanimously that a double trigger walk-away provision must be included in the definitive merger agreement and directed that Mercersburg Financial Corporation negotiate for the inclusion of a double trigger walk-away provision. Orrstown Financial Services subsequently agreed to include a double trigger walk-away provision in the definitive merger agreement upon the terms and conditions therein set forth.

A special meeting of the Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors was held on May 31, 2018. Representatives of Stevens & Lee and Ambassador attended in person. The representative of Stevens & Lee again reminded the Mercersburg Financial Corporation directors of their fiduciary duties under the PBCL and reviewed with them the terms and conditions of the proposed definitive merger agreement. Ambassador reviewed with the board Ambassador's financial analysis of the merger consideration and delivered its opinion to Mercersburg Financial Corporation's board of directors to the effect that, as of such date and based upon and subject to various considerations set forth in the opinion, the merger consideration to be received by the holders of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock in the merger was fair to such holders from a financial point of view. Following further discussion and consideration of the factors described under Reasons for the Merger beginning on page 46, the Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors unanimously approved the definitive merger agreement and recommended that Mercersburg Financial Corporation's stockholders approve and adopt the definitive merger agreement and all related transactions provided for in the agreement.

Recommendation of the Mercersburg Financial Corporation Board of Directors and Mercersburg Financial Corporation's Reasons for the Merger

Recommendation of the Mercersburg Financial Corporation Board of Directors

Our board of directors unanimously approved the merger agreement and determined that the transactions provided for in the merger agreement are advisable to, and in the best interests of, Mercersburg Financial Corporation and our stockholders. Our board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the approval of the merger agreement and FOR the adjournment proposal, if necessary.

Reasons for the Merger

After careful consideration, the Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors determined it was advisable and in the best interests of Mercersburg Financial Corporation to enter into the merger agreement with Orrstown Financial Services.

In the process of making the recommendation to approve the merger with Orrstown Financial Services, the Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors evaluated the merger in consultation with Mercersburg Financial Corporation's senior management team as well as Mercersburg Financial Corporation's legal and financial advisors. In determining that the proposed merger with Orrstown Financial Services is in the best interests of Mercersburg Financial Corporation, the Mercersburg Financial Corporation's board considered the following factors, which are not necessarily all-inclusive:

The changing regulatory environment, including, in particular, issuance of additional regulations to implement various provisions of the Dodd-Frank Act, and the expectant material increase in legal and compliance costs to Mercersburg Financial Corporation as greater human and technological resources and expertise are required to remain compliant with applicable law and regulations;

The current relative size of Mercersburg Financial Corporation, its growth over its 109 year history and the expected scale that would be necessary going forward for Mercersburg Financial Corporation to continue as an independent, high-performing community banking institution in comparison to the benefits of aligning with another institution in an acquisition transaction with a larger, high-performing institution;

The current merger and acquisition market, including the attractive prices being paid by acquirers and the uncertainty that such pricing would continue or that Mercersburg Financial Corporation's future earnings would remain at a level sufficient to attract such prices;

The ability of Mercersburg Financial Corporation to attract and retain qualified individuals to replace members of its senior management team and members of its board of directors as individuals serving in such positions retire over the next several years;

The challenging environment for Mercersburg Financial Corporation to grow profitably in its current market, as reflected by the limited growth in terms of total assets from $172 million at December 31, 2012 to $180 million at December 31, 2017, and its flat net income levels from $1.1 million in 2012 to $1.24 million in 2017 (as adjusted for the one time deferred tax asset adjustment related to the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act);

The substantial and costly investments in information technology required to permit Mercersburg Financial Corporation to satisfy regulatory requirements and remain competitive in the marketplace, and the anticipated impact of such investments on Mercersburg Financial Corporation's future earnings;

The process conducted by Mercersburg Financial Corporation's management and board of directors, with the assistance of Ambassador, to identify potential strategic acquirers or mergers of equal partners;

Table of Contents

The inability of Mercersburg Financial Corporation to interest preferred mergers of equal partners to enter into a merger of equals transaction upon terms and conditions acceptable to the Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors;

The consideration offered in the transaction, valued at approximately $32.4 million, which represents a premium to tangible book value multiple of approximately 1.53 times;

The 85% stock/15% cash consideration offered in the merger;

The fact that Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders will have the opportunity to receive shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock in the merger on a tax-free basis, which would allow Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders to participate in the future performance of the combined company's businesses and synergies resulting from the merger;

The increased liquidity for Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders who receive Orrstown Financial Services common stock in the transaction;

The fact that up to 15% of the merger consideration would be composed of cash at $40.00 per share, thereby permitting Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders who wish to receive cash to elect an all cash exchange or an exchange comprised of part Orrstown Financial Services common stock and part cash, subject to the election, allocation and proration provisions of the merger agreement;

The opportunity to expand relationships with Mercersburg Financial Corporation's existing customer base through the increased lending capacity afforded by the combined institution;

The anticipated positive impact to Mercersburg Financial Corporation's existing customers resulting from Orrstown Financial Services having a community banking business model similar to Mercersburg Financial Corporation;

The proposed board and management arrangements, including Orrstown Financial Services' commitment to appoint one Mercersburg Financial Corporation board member to the Orrstown Financial Services board of directors, and to retain Robert J. Fignar, President and Chief Executive Officer of Mercersburg Financial Corporation, as President of Orrstown Bank's Southern Region, comprised of Perry and Franklin Counties in Pennsylvania and Washington County in Maryland;

The likelihood and anticipated time of completion of the merger;

The understanding that aligning with Orrstown Financial Services would provide more robust technology and systems, broader product offerings, more favorable terms with vendors and more sophisticated marketing;

The mutual understanding that Mercersburg Financial Corporation and Orrstown Financial Services share similar operating cultures, core values and approaches to servicing their respective markets;

The Mercersburg Financial Corporation board's belief that multiple areas of risk, including regulatory, financial, legal, servicing, and customer retention, could be substantially reduced by combining with a larger institution having access to greater financial and operational resources; and

The opinion, dated May 31, 2018, of Ambassador to the Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors as to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of the date of the opinion, to the holders of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock of the merger consideration in the proposed merger, as more fully described under Opinion of Mercersburg Financial Corporation's Financial Advisor below. The Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors also considered a variety of potential risks associated with the merger, including the following:

The possibility the merger might not close and the negative impact that could have on Mercersburg Financial Corporation's reputation and earnings;

The risk that potential benefits and synergies sought in the merger may not be realized or may not be realized within the expected time period, and the risks associated with the integration of Mercersburg Financial Corporation and Orrstown Financial Services;

The fact that because the stock consideration in the merger is based upon a fixed exchange ratio of shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock to Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock, Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders who receive Orrstown Financial Services common stock could be adversely affected by a decrease in the trading price of Orrstown Financial Services common stock during the pendency of the merger;

The fact that certain provisions of the merger agreement prohibit Mercersburg Financial Corporation from soliciting, and limit its ability to respond to, proposals for alternative transactions, and the obligation to pay a termination fee of $1,250,000 in the event that the merger agreement is terminated in certain circumstances, including if Mercersburg Financial Corporation terminates the merger agreement to accept a superior proposal;

The potential for diversion of management and employee attention, and for employee attrition, during the period prior to the completion of the merger and the potential effect on Mercersburg Financial Corporation's business and relations with customers, service providers and other stakeholders, whether or not the merger is consummated; and

The fact that pursuant to the merger agreement, Mercersburg Financial Corporation must generally conduct its business in the ordinary course and Mercersburg Financial Corporation is subject to a variety of other restrictions on the conduct of its business prior to the completion of the merger or termination of the merger agreement, which may delay or prevent Mercersburg Financial Corporation from undertaking business opportunities that may arise pending completion of the merger.

The risk that a judgment or settlement in the SEPTA litigation could have a material adverse effect on the financial condition, results of operation or reputation of Orrstown Financial Services or on the market price of its common stock. See the section of this proxy statement/prospectus titled Risk Factors Pending litigation and legal proceedings and the impact of any finding of liability or damages could adversely impact Orrstown Financial Services and its financial condition and results of operations beginning on page 27.

In considering the risk that a judgment or settlement in the SEPTA litigation could have a material adverse effect on the financial condition, results of operation or reputation of Orrstown Financial Services, the Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors considered the fact that the merger agreement contains a double trigger walk-away provision that could allow the Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors to give notice of termination of the Merger Agreement if such a judgment or settlement would occur prior to the closing date of the merger and the conditions under the double trigger walk-away provision allowing for termination would be triggered. In addition, the board of directors further considered that because the January, 2019 trial date has been indefinitely continued, and because Orrstown Financial Services common stock, being listed on NASDAQ, is relatively liquid, Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders who receive Orrstown Financial Services common stock in the merger and who are concerned about the risk of the SEPTA litigation could have a reasonable opportunity before a trial would be likely to occur to sell their shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock.

Mercersburg Financial Corporation's board of directors realizes there can be no assurance about future results, including results expected or considered in the factors listed above. However, the Mercersburg Financial Corporation board concluded the potential positive factors outweighed the potential risks of completing the merger.

During its consideration of the merger, Mercersburg Financial Corporation's board of directors was also aware that some of its directors and executive officers may have interests in the merger that are different from or in addition to those of its shareholders generally, as described under Interests of Mercersburg Financial Corporation Directors and Executive Officers beginning on page 62.

The foregoing discussion of the factors considered by the Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors in evaluating the transaction is not intended to be exhaustive, but, rather, includes all material factors considered by the Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors. In reaching its decision to approve the transaction, the Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors did not quantify or assign relative weights to the factors considered, and individual directors may have given different weights to different factors. The Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors evaluated the factors described above and determined that the transaction was in the best interests of Mercersburg Financial Corporation. It should be noted that this explanation of the reasoning of Mercersburg Financial Corporation's board of directors and all other information in this section is forward-looking in nature and, therefore, should be read in light of the factors discussed under the heading Special Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements on page 29.

Ambassador undertook no independent evaluation of any potential or actual litigation to which Mercersburg Financial Corporation or Orrstown Financial Services was or may be a party or was or may be subject. Ambassador expressed no view or opinion as to the pending federal securities litigation against Orrstown Financial Services and certain current and former officers of Orrstown Financial Services, as to which Ambassador understood that Orrstown Financial Services and Mercersburg Financial Corporation conducted such diligence and other investigations, and obtained such advice from legal counsel, as they deemed necessary and against which Orrstown Financial Services advised Ambassador it intends to vigorously defend itself. With Mercersburg Financial Corporation's consent, Ambassador did not consider such litigation or any aspect, implication or effect thereof for purposes of Ambassador's analyses or opinion. If the outcome of such litigation had been known or assumed to have a material effect on Orrstown Financial Services, then the conclusion reached in Ambassador's opinion could have been affected.

Ambassador's opinion was based on conditions as they existed and the information Ambassador received, as of the date of Ambassador's opinion. Ambassador does not have any obligation to update, revise or reaffirm its opinion. Ambassador also assumed, with Mercersburg Financial Corporation's consent, that, in the course of obtaining the necessary governmental, regulatory and other third party approvals, consents and releases for the merger, including with respect to any divestiture or other requirements, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition would be imposed that would have an adverse effect on Mercersburg Financial Corporation, Orrstown Financial Services or the merger (including the contemplated benefits thereof). Ambassador also assumed, with Mercersburg Financial Corporation's consent, that the final merger agreement would not differ from the draft reviewed by Ambassador in any respect material to Ambassador's analyses or opinion. Ambassador further assumed, with Mercersburg Financial Corporation's consent, that the merger would qualify for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

Ambassador expressed no view or opinion as to any terms or other aspects (other than the merger consideration to the extent expressly specified in Ambassador's opinion) of the merger or any related transaction, including, without limitation, the form of the merger consideration or the allocation thereof between cash and Orrstown Financial Services common stock or the relative fairness of the cash consideration and the stock consideration. In connection with Ambassador's engagement, Ambassador was not authorized to, and Ambassador did not, solicit indications of interest from third parties with respect to the possible sale of Mercersburg Financial Corporation.

In performing its analyses, Ambassador made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters, which are beyond the control of Ambassador, Mercersburg Financial Corporation and Orrstown Financial Services. Any estimates contained in the analyses performed by Ambassador are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by these analyses. Additionally, estimates of the value of businesses or securities do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which such businesses or securities might actually be sold. Accordingly, these analyses and estimates are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty. In addition, Ambassador's opinion was among several factors taken into consideration by Mercersburg Financial Corporation's board of directors in making its determination to approve the merger agreement and the merger. Consequently, the analyses described below should not be viewed as determinative of the decision of the Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors with respect to the fairness of the merger consideration. The type and amount of consideration payable in the merger were determined through negotiation between Mercersburg Financial Corporation and Orrstown Financial Services and the decision of Mercersburg Financial Corporation to enter into the merger agreement was solely that of Mercersburg Financial Corporation's board of directors.

This summary is not a complete description of the analyses and procedures performed by Ambassador in the course of arriving at its opinion. The financial analyses summarized below include information presented in tabular format. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex analytical process involving various determinations as to appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. Therefore, a fairness opinion is not readily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. In arriving at its opinion, Ambassador did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor that it considered, but rather made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. Accordingly, Ambassador believes that its analyses and the summary of its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses and factors or focusing on the information presented below in tabular format, without considering all analyses and factors or the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the process underlying its analyses and opinion. their understanding of the current environment in the financial services industry and current financial market conditions;

the compatibility of the businesses, operations and cultures of the two companies, particularly with respect to meeting local banking needs;

the pro forma financial effects of the proposed transaction, including the expected dilution to tangible book value per share;

the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, including the financial terms, and the structure of the merger;

the challenges of combining the businesses of two corporations;

the fact that the integration of Orrstown Financial Services and Mercersburg Financial Corporation may be complex and time consuming and may require substantial resources and effort, and the risk that if the combined bank is not successfully integrated, the anticipated benefits of the merger may not be realized fully or at all or may take longer to realize than expected;

the potential risk of diverting management focus and resources from other strategic opportunities and from operational matters while working to implement the merger;

the transaction costs to be incurred by Orrstown Financial Services in connection with the merger; and the opinion, dated May 31, 2018, of Hovde Group to the board of directors of Orrstown Financial Services as to the fairness, from a financial point of view as of the date of the opinion, to the holders of Orrstown Financial Services common stock of the merger consideration per share to be paid by Orrstown Financial Services to holders of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock.

Fignar, President and Chief Executive Officer of Mercersburg, with the employment agreement to be effective as of the closing date of the merger and the change in control agreement to be effective as of the second anniversary of the closing date of the merger.

The employment agreement provides that Mr. Fignar shall serve as the Market President for the Southern Region, defined as Franklin and Perry Counties in Pennsylvania and Washington County in Maryland, of Orrstown Bank. During the term of the employment agreement, Mr. Fignar's minimum annual base salary will be $230,000. The employment agreement provides for a term of four years, plus an automatic extension for successive additional one year terms, unless Mr. Fignar or Orrstown Financial Services and Orrstown Bank gives at least sixty days' notice of non-renewal. If Mr. Fignar is still employed upon attaining age 65, he may voluntarily provide notice of retirement at any time thereafter in which event he will receive salary continuation for a period of six months plus payment of 150% of the premium cost to maintain his group life insurance benefit for a period of three years.

In the event that Mr. Fignar's employment is terminated on or prior to the second anniversary of the closing date of the merger by Orrstown Financial Services or Orrstown Bank without Cause (as defined in the employment agreement) or by Mr. Fignar for any reason, including death, disability or Good Reason (as defined in the employment agreement), then Mr. Fignar will be paid severance equal to 2.99 times the sum of (1) his highest annual base salary during the three calendar years immediately preceding the closing date of the merger and (2) the highest cash bonus and other cash incentive compensation earned by him with respect to one of the three calendar years immediately preceding the closing date of the merger. Mr. Fignar would also be entitled to continue to participate in employee benefit plans for three years or receive a cash contribution in lieu thereof.

In the event that Mr. Fignar's employment is terminated after the second anniversary of the closing date of the merger by Orrstown Financial Services or Orrstown Bank without Cause, or by Mr. Fignar for Good Reason (as those terms are defined in the employment agreement), then Mr. Fignar will be paid severance in a one-time lump sum cash payment equal to (1) salary continuation for six months or the remaining duration of the term of the employment agreement, whichever is greater, and (2) the average annual cash bonus earned by him with respect to the three calendar years immediately preceding the date of termination. Mr. Fignar would also be entitled to continue to participate in employee benefit plans for one year or receive a cash contribution in lieu thereof including, if applicable, a contribution equal to 150% of the premium cost to maintain his group life insurance benefit for a period of three years. Payment of this cash compensation is to be made in a single lump sum within thirty-five days after the termination of employment.

The change in control agreement becomes effective after the second anniversary of the closing date of the merger and provides that Orrstown Financial Services and Orrstown Bank are to pay to Mr. Fignar specified amounts of cash compensation and provide specified health and welfare benefits, each described below, in the event that his employment is terminated by Orrstown Financial Services or Orrstown Bank or any successor, without cause, within the 90-day period immediately preceding, or the two years following, the occurrence of a change in control (as defined in the change in control agreement) or if such termination is initiated by Mr. Fignar for any reason within six months following a change in control.

Upon a termination pursuant to a change in control occurring after the second anniversary of the closing date of the merger, Orrstown Financial Services and Orrstown Bank or any successor are obligated to pay to Mr. Fignar cash compensation in an amount equal to 2.99 times the sum of (1) his annual base salary in effect immediately prior to the change in control and (2) his highest annual cash bonus and other annual incentive cash compensation awarded over the past three years (exclusive of any election to defer receipt of compensation he may have made during such three-year period). Mr. Fignar will also receive (A) an amount equal to any unvested employer contribution to his 401(k), profit sharing, deferred compensation or other similar individual account plan plus an amount sufficient to pay federal, state and local income taxes on such unvested employer contributions and (B) up to $10,000 for outplacement services. Payment of this cash compensation is to be made in a single lump sum within thirty-five days after the termination of employment. The change in control agreement further provides that, upon a change in control, if the plans governing the vesting and exercise rights of stock options, shares of restricted stock and other equity-based compensation units are silent on the subject of change in control, all such options, shares and units shall immediately become vested and exercisable as to all or part of the shares and rights covered thereby. In addition, Mr. Fignar would also be entitled to continue to participate in the expense reimbursement plan described in his employment agreement, as well as participate in employee benefit plans for two years or receive a cash contribution in lieu thereof, including, if applicable, a contribution equal to 150% of the premium cost to maintain his group life insurance benefit for a period of three years. Mr. Fignar, however, will continue to be responsible for the costs of such benefits to the same extent as other similarly situated active employees of Orrstown Bank and his spouse and/or eligible dependents will continue to be covered on the same terms that they were covered prior to the termination of employment. Orrstown Financial Services and Orrstown Bank or any successor are also obligated to pay two additional years of retirement plan contributions under each retirement plan in which Mr. Fignar was a participant prior to his termination equal to two years of the actuarial present value of two additional years of benefit accruals under each such plan.

The change in control agreement provides that in the event any benefit or payment from Orrstown Financial Services or Orrstown Bank to Mr. Fignar is deemed to be an excess parachute payment, as defined in Section 280G(b)(1) of the Code, then the aggregate present value of amounts or benefits payable to Mr. Fignar shall be reduced to the greater of (1) the highest aggregate present value of the amount due under the agreement that can be made without causing any payments or benefits to be an excess parachute payment or (2) the largest portion of the amount due under the agreement that after taking into account all applicable state and federal taxes, including any taxes payable pursuant to Section 4999 of the Code, results in a greater after-tax benefit to Mr. Fignar than the after-tax benefit to Mr. Fignar calculated under (1) above.

Mr. Fignar has agreed in the employment agreement to a two year period following termination of employment or services, not to directly or indirectly engage in business competition with Orrstown Financial Services or Orrstown Bank with respect to its services, products, processes, customers, methods of doing business and similar matters (1) within a 35 mile radius from any banking office of Mercersburg Financial Corporation if Mr. Fignar's employment is terminated by Orrstown Bank without cause or by Mr. Fignar for any reason on or prior to the second anniversary of the closing date of the merger and (2) within a 75 mile radius of Orrstown Financial Services' then current headquarters if his employment is terminated for any reason after the second anniversary of the closing date of the merger. In addition, during the employment period and for one year thereafter, Mr. Fignar will not solicit or attempt to solicit, divert or appeal to any employees, customers, clients or referral sources of Orrstown Financial Services, Orrstown Bank or any of their respective subsidiaries. If Mr. Fignar's employment is terminated in connection with a change in control, the two year non-compete period is reduced under the change in control agreement to a period equal to the greater of six (6) months or the period extending from the date of termination to the first anniversary of the change in control.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following is a brief summary of the significant provisions of the merger agreement. The summary is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the merger agreement, which is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A and is incorporated into this proxy statement/prospectus by reference. You should read the merger agreement carefully and in its entirety.

Structure of the Merger

The merger agreement provides for the merger of Mercersburg Financial Corporation with and into Orrstown Financial Services. The surviving corporation in the merger will be Orrstown Financial Services. It is anticipated that First Community Bank of Mercersburg will merge with and into Orrstown Bank, with Orrstown Bank continuing as the surviving bank, immediately following the merger.

Closing of the Merger

The closing of the merger will occur on a date that is no later than five business days after the satisfaction or waiver of all of the closing conditions described in the merger agreement, unless this date is extended by the mutual agreement of the parties. The merger will become effective upon the filing of articles of merger with the Secretary of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

We currently expect to complete the merger during the fourth quarter of 2018; however, because the merger is subject to a number of conditions, we cannot predict the actual timing of the closing of the merger.

Board of Directors of Orrstown Financial Services and Orrstown Bank

Upon completion of the merger, the board of directors of both Orrstown Financial Services and Orrstown Bank will consist of the current board of directors and one director of Mercersburg Financial Corporation who will be agreed upon by the board of directors of both Orrstown Financial Services and Mercersburg Financial Corporation and appointed to the board of directors of both Orrstown Financial Services and Orrstown Bank at the effective time of the merger.

Merger Consideration

If the merger agreement is approved by the holders of at least 60% of the shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting and the merger is subsequently completed, each outstanding share of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock will be converted into the right to receive at the election of the holder thereof either (1) $40.00 in cash, without interest, or (2) 1.5291 shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock, subject to proration to ensure that in the aggregate 85% of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock will be converted to Orrstown Financial Services common stock and the remaining 15% of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock will be converted to cash. Orrstown Financial Services common stock is traded on NASDAQ under the symbol ORRF.

No fractional shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock will be issued in connection with the merger. Instead, each Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholder will receive an amount of cash, in lieu of any fractional share, based on the average daily closing price of Orrstown Financial Services common stock as reported on NASDAQ for the ten consecutive trading day period ending on the fifth business day prior to the closing date of the merger, rounded to the nearest whole cent.

The exchange ratio was determined based on the volume weighted average stock price of Orrstown Financial Services common stock for the measurement period, which was $26.16 per share, which would have resulted in Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders receiving Orrstown Financial Services common stock and cash in lieu of fractional shares in the merger with an implied value per share equal to $40.00. Based on the closing price of Orrstown Financial Services common stock of $[] per share on [], the most recent practicable date prior to the mailing of this proxy statement/prospectus, Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders would receive Orrstown Financial Services common stock and cash in lieu of fractional shares in the merger with an implied value per share equal to $[]. The following table presents the implied value per share to be received in exchange for each share of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock if the stock price of Orrstown Financial Services common stock at the closing of the merger is equal to the prices set forth in the table.

(1) Assumes each stockholder of Mercersburg Financial Corporation receives merger consideration consisting of 85% Orrstown Financial Services common stock and 15% cash.

Mercersburg Financial Corporation has the right to terminate the merger agreement if the volume weighted average stock price of Orrstown Financial Services common stock as reported on NASDAQ for the 15 consecutive trading days immediately preceding the determination date, is less than $20.928 per share and Orrstown Financial Services common stock underperforms the NASDAQ Bank Index by more than 20% between May 29, 2018 and the determination date. If Mercersburg Financial Corporation exercises this termination right, Orrstown Financial Services will have the option to increase the amount of Orrstown Financial Services common stock to be provided to Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders to an amount which, when multiplied by the volume weighted average price of Orrstown Financial Services common stock as reported on NASDAQ for the fifteen consecutive trading days immediately preceding the determination date, equals the lesser of (1) $40.00 or (2) $40.00 multiplied by the index ratio. If Orrstown Financial Services elects to increase the stock consideration pursuant to the preceding sentence, no termination will occur. In such case, you would receive Orrstown Financial Services common stock and, if applicable, cash with an implied value equal to the minimum implied value that would have avoided triggering the termination right described above. See the section of this proxy statement/prospectus titled "The Merger Agreement Termination" beginning on page 73.

As of July 23, 2018, there were 810,080 shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock issued and outstanding. Based upon these numbers, assuming that 85% of the merger consideration will be paid in the form of Orrstown Financial Services common stock, this will result in current Orrstown Financial Services stockholders owning approximately 88.8% of the combined company and Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders owning approximately 11.2% of the combined company.

No interest will be paid on any cash merger consideration.

Election Procedures

The shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock that you hold will be exchanged for cash, Orrstown Financial Services common stock, or a combination of cash and Orrstown Financial Services common stock as chosen by you, subject to the allocation and proration procedures described in the merger agreement. No later than twenty business days prior to the closing date (or such other date as Orrstown Financial Services and Mercersburg Financial Corporation shall mutually agree), you will be sent an election form and detailed instructions to permit you to choose your preferred consideration. You will have the following choices:

you may elect to receive $40.00 per share in cash, without interest (the cash consideration), in exchange for all shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock that you hold;

you may elect to receive 1.5291 shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock (the stock consideration) in exchange for all shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock that you hold, plus cash in lieu of any fractional share.

you may elect to receive the cash consideration with respect to a portion of the shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock that you hold, and the stock consideration with respect to your remaining shares; or you may make no election with respect to the consideration to be received by you in exchange for your shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock.

If your shares or a portion of your shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock are held in street name by a broker, bank or other nominee, you should receive or seek instructions from the institution holding your shares concerning how to make your election. Any instructions must be given to your broker, bank or other nominee in advance of the election deadline in order to allow your broker, bank or other nominee sufficient time to make an election as described above. Orrstown Financial Services will publicly announce the election deadline. Street name holders of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock may be subject to an election deadline earlier than the announced election deadline applicable to record holders. Therefore, you should carefully read any materials you receive from your broker, bank or other nominee. If you instruct a broker, bank or other nominee to submit an election for your shares, you must follow such broker's, bank's or other nominee's directions for revoking or changing those instructions.

An election form must be either accompanied by the Mercersburg Financial Corporation stock certificates as to which the election is being made, or must be accompanied by an appropriate guarantee of delivery of those stock certificates. Any election form may be revoked or changed by the person submitting such election form to the exchange agent by written notice to the exchange agent only if such notice of revocation or change is actually received by the exchange agent at or prior to the election deadline. Stock certificates relating to any revoked election form will be promptly returned without charge.

In order to be effective, a properly completed election form must be received by the exchange agent on or before 5:00 p.m., Eastern time, on the 25th day following the mailing date of the election form to Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders, unless Orrstown Financial Services and Mercersburg Financial Corporation have mutually agreed to another date and time as the election deadline, which date will be publicly announced by Orrstown Financial Services as soon as practicable prior to the election deadline. Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders are urged to carefully read and follow the instructions for completion of the election form and to submit the form along with the stock certificate(s) in advance of the election deadline.

If a Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholder either:

does not submit a properly completed election form in a timely fashion; or revokes his, her or its election form prior to the deadline for the submission of the election form and does not resubmit a properly completed election form by the election form deadline, the shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock held by the stockholder will be designated non-election shares. The exchange agent will have reasonable discretion in determining whether any election, revocation or change was properly or timely made and to disregard any immaterial defects in the election form.

If you have a preference for receiving either cash or Orrstown Financial Services common stock for your shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock, you should return the election form indicating your preference. Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders who make an election will be accorded priority over those stockholders who make no election in instances where the cash consideration or stock consideration must be re-allocated in order to achieve the required ratio of Mercersburg Financial Corporation shares being converted into the right to receive cash and Orrstown Financial Services common stock. If you do not make an election, you will be allocated cash and/or Orrstown Financial Services common stock depending entirely on the elections made by other Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders. However, even if you do make an election, the form of merger consideration you actually receive may differ from the form of merger consideration you elect to receive due to the allocation procedures described below.

Table of Contents

The market price of Orrstown Financial Services common stock will fluctuate between the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the date of your election and the effective time of the merger. Because the exchange ratio is fixed, such fluctuations will alter the value of the shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock that you may receive in the merger. In addition, because the tax consequences of receiving cash will differ from the tax consequences of receiving Orrstown Financial Services common stock, you should carefully read the section of this proxy statement/prospectus titled "Material Federal Income Tax Consequences" beginning on page 87.

Allocation Procedures

A stockholder's ability to elect to receive cash or shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock in exchange for shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock in the merger will be subject to allocation procedures set forth in the merger agreement. These allocation procedures are designed to ensure that 85% of the total number of shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be converted into shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock, and the remaining shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock will be converted into cash. In the event that the tax opinions to be delivered at closing cannot be rendered as a result of the merger failing to satisfy the continuity of interest requirements under applicable federal income tax principles relating to reorganizations under Section 368(a) of the Code, Orrstown Financial Services will increase the stock consideration to the minimum extent necessary to enable the tax opinions to be rendered.

Whether you receive the amount of cash and/or stock you request in your election form will depend in part on the elections of other Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders. You may not receive the form of consideration that you elect in the merger, and you may instead receive a pro-rata amount of cash and Orrstown Financial Services common stock.

Through the use of examples, we illustrate below the possible adjustments to elections in connection with these allocation procedures. The first of our three examples assumes you make an effective stock election with respect to all of your Mercersburg Financial Corporation shares. The second example assumes you make no election with respect to your Mercersburg Financial Corporation shares. Finally, the third example assumes that you make an effective cash election with respect to all of your Mercersburg Financial Corporation shares. You should note, however, that you are not required to elect to receive only cash or only Orrstown Financial Services common stock. You may instead elect to receive cash with respect to a portion of your Mercersburg Financial Corporation shares and shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock with respect to the rest of your Mercersburg Financial Corporation shares. You also should note that the examples below are included for illustrative purposes only, and the pro-rated amounts of cash and stock that a stockholder may receive in the merger are subject to the application of the allocation provisions in the merger agreement by the exchange agent, including the exchange agent's procedures for rounding the various amounts.

Allocation if Too Many Shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock are Elected. If Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders elect to receive more Orrstown Financial Services common stock than Orrstown Financial Services has agreed to issue in the merger, then all Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders who elected to receive cash or who have made no election would receive the cash consideration with respect to their Mercersburg Financial Corporation shares, and all Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders who elected to receive Orrstown Financial Services common stock would receive a pro-rata portion of the available shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock calculated in the manner described below.

EXAMPLE #1: Assume that (1) 800,000 shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock are outstanding immediately prior to the merger, (2) holders of 720,000 shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock have made effective stock elections, (3) holders of 40,000 shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock have made effective cash elections and (4) holders of 40,000 shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock have made no election with respect to their shares. You hold 10,000 Mercersburg Financial Corporation shares and have made an effective election to receive the stock consideration for those shares. In this example, pro-ration would be required with respect to the Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders who elected the stock consideration because stockholders have elected to receive Orrstown Financial Services common stock in the merger with respect to more than 85% of the outstanding shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock.

EXPLANATION #1:

Step 1. Derive the stock fraction: the stock fraction equals the stock conversion number divided by the aggregate number of Mercersburg Financial Corporation shares for which an effective stock election was made, and represents the fraction to be used in pro-rating the stock consideration. The stock conversion number is the number of shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock that are to be converted into the right to receive the stock consideration in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement. The stock conversion number is equal to 680,000 shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock. The stock fraction for the example above is calculated as follows:

$$\frac{\text{stock conversion number}}{\text{stock election shares}} = \frac{680,000 \text{ shares}}{720,000 \text{ shares}} = 0.94$$

Step 2. Derive the stock consideration: the pro-rated stock consideration is the product of the stock fraction multiplied by the number of Mercersburg Financial Corporation shares as to which you have made an effective stock election. This amount is then multiplied by the exchange ratio, which is 1.5291. The pro-rated stock consideration for the example above is calculated as follows:

$$10,000 \times 0.94 = 9,400$$

$$9,400 \times 1.5291 = 14,373 \text{ shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock}$$

Step 3. Derive the cash consideration: the cash consideration that you will receive for your Mercersburg Financial Corporation shares is the product of $40.00, multiplied by the remaining number of Mercersburg Financial Corporation shares as to which you made an effective stock election. The cash consideration for the example above is calculated as follows:

$$$40.00 \times (10,000 - 9,400) = $40.00 \times 600 = $24,000$$

Thus, in this example, if you own 10,000 shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock and have made an effective stock election for all of those shares, you would receive (subject to rounding):

14,373 shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock; and $24,000 in cash.

Allocation if Too Few Shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock are Elected. If Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders elect less Orrstown Financial Services common stock than the merger agreement provides for Orrstown Financial Services to issue in the merger, then all shares with respect to which Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders have elected to receive stock consideration would be converted into the right to receive Orrstown Financial Services common stock, and the shares for which Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders have elected to receive cash or with respect to which no election was made would be treated in the manner illustrated below.

EXAMPLE #2: Assume that (1) 800,000 shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock are outstanding immediately prior to the merger, (2) holders of 500,000 shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock have made effective stock elections, (3) holders of 100,000 shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock have made effective cash elections and (4) holders of 200,000 shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock have made no election with respect to their shares. You hold 10,000 Mercersburg Financial Corporation shares and have made no election with respect to those shares. In this example, pro-ration would be required with respect to the stockholders who made no election with respect to their Mercersburg Financial Corporation shares because holders of less than 85% of the outstanding Mercersburg Financial Corporation shares have elected to receive Orrstown Financial Services common stock in the merger, and the shortfall is less than the number of non-election shares.

EXPLANATION #2:

Step 1. Derive the shortfall number: the shortfall number is the amount by which the stock conversion number exceeds the aggregate number of Mercersburg Financial Corporation shares with respect to which the stock consideration was elected. The stock conversion number is the number of shares of Mercersburg Financial

Corporation common stock that are to be converted into the right to receive the stock consideration in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement. The stock conversion number is equal to 680,000 shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock. The shortfall number for the example above is calculated as follows:

$$680,000 - 500,000 = 180,000 \text{ shares}$$

Step 2. Determine whether the shortfall number is less than or equal to the number of non-election shares: In this example, the shortfall number (180,000 shares) is less than the number of non-election shares (200,000 shares). As a result, all Mercersburg Financial Corporation shares with respect to which an effective cash election was made would be converted into the right to receive the cash consideration, and the holders of non-election shares would receive a mix of stock consideration and cash consideration.

Step 3. Derive the stock fraction: the stock fraction equals the shortfall number divided by the aggregate number of Mercersburg Financial Corporation shares for which no election was made, and represents the fraction to be used in pro-rating the stock consideration. The stock fraction for the example above is calculated as follows:

$$\frac{\text{shortfall number}}{\text{non-election shares}} = \frac{180,000 \text{ shares}}{200,000 \text{ shares}} = 0.9$$

Step 4. Derive the stock consideration: the pro-rated stock consideration is the product of the stock fraction multiplied by the number of Mercersburg Financial Corporation shares as to which you have made no election. This amount is then multiplied by the exchange ratio, which is 1.5291. The pro-rated stock consideration for the example above is calculated as follows:

$$10,000 \times 0.9 = 9,000$$

$$9,000 \times 1.5291 = 13,761 \text{ shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock}$$

Step 5. Derive the cash consideration: the cash consideration that you will receive for your Mercersburg Financial Corporation shares is the product of $40.00, multiplied by the remaining number of Mercersburg Financial Corporation shares as to which you made no election. The cash consideration for the example above is calculated as follows:

$$$40.00 \times (10,000 - 9,000) = $40.00 \times 1,000 = $40,000$$

Thus, in this example, if you own 10,000 shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock and made no election with respect to those shares, you would receive (subject to rounding):

13,761 shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock; and

$40,000 in cash.

EXAMPLE #3: Assume that (1) 800,000 shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock are outstanding immediately prior to the merger, (2) holders of 100,000 shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock have made effective stock elections, (3) holders of 500,000 shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock have made effective cash elections and (4) holders of 200,000 shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock have made no election with respect to their shares. You hold 10,000 Mercersburg Financial Corporation shares and have made an effective election to receive the cash consideration for those shares. In this example, pro-ration would be required with respect to the stockholders who made cash elections with respect to their Mercersburg Financial Corporation shares because holders of less than 85% of the outstanding Mercersburg Financial Corporation shares have elected to receive stock in the merger, and the shortfall is more than the number of non-election shares.

EXPLANATION #3:

Step 1. Derive the shortfall number: the shortfall number is the amount by which the stock conversion number exceeds the aggregate number of Mercersburg Financial Corporation shares with respect to which the stock consideration was elected. The stock conversion number is the number of shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock that are to be converted into the right to receive the stock consideration in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement. The stock conversion number is equal to 680,000 shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock. The shortfall number for the example above is calculated as follows:

$$680,000 - 100,000 = 580,000 \text{ shares}$$

Step 2. Determine whether the shortfall number is less than or equal to the number of non-election shares: In this example, the shortfall number (580,000 shares) is greater than the number of non-election shares (200,000 shares). As a result, all Mercersburg Financial Corporation shares with respect to which no election was made would be converted into the right to receive the stock consideration, and the holders of shares with respect to which an effective cash election was made would receive a mix of stock consideration and cash consideration.

Step 3. Derive the stock fraction: the stock fraction equals the amount by which the shortfall number exceeds the total number of non-election shares, divided by the aggregate number of Mercersburg Financial Corporation shares for which an effective cash election was made, and represents the fraction to be used in pro-rating the stock consideration. The stock fraction for the example above is calculated as follows:

$$\frac{\text{shortfall number} - \text{non-election shares}}{\text{cash election shares}} = \frac{(580,000 - 200,000)}{500,000} = \frac{380,000}{500,000} = 0.76$$

Step 4. Derive the stock consideration: the pro-rated stock consideration is the product of the stock fraction multiplied by the number of Mercersburg Financial Corporation shares as to which you have made an effective cash election. This amount is then multiplied by the exchange ratio, which is 1.5291. The pro-rated stock consideration for the example above is calculated as follows:

$$10,000 \times 0.76 = 7,600$$

$$7,600 \times 1.5291 = 11,621 \text{ shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock}$$

Step 5. Derive the cash consideration: the cash consideration that you will receive for your Mercersburg Financial Corporation shares is the product of $40.00, multiplied by the remaining number of Mercersburg Financial Corporation shares as to which you made an effective cash election. The cash consideration for the example above is calculated as follows:

$$$40.00 \times (10,000 - 7,600) = $40.00 \times 2,400 = $96,000$$

Thus, in this example, if you own 10,000 shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock and made an effective cash election for all of those shares, you would receive (subject to rounding):

11,621 shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock; and

$96,000 in cash.

Exchange of Mercersburg Financial Corporation Stock Certificates for Orrstown Financial Services common stock

On or before the closing date of the merger, Orrstown Financial Services will cause to be delivered to the exchange agent certificates representing the shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock to be issued in the merger. In addition, Orrstown Financial Services will deliver to the exchange agent an aggregate amount of cash sufficient to pay the aggregate amount of cash consideration payable in the merger, including an estimated amount of cash to be paid in lieu of fractional shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock. Orrstown Financial Services has selected Broadridge Corporate Issuer Solutions to act as exchange agent in connection with the merger.

Table of Contents

When such Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders deliver their Mercersburg Financial Corporation stock certificates to the exchange agent with a properly completed and duly executed letter of transmittal and any other required documents, their Mercersburg Financial Corporation stock certificates will be cancelled and in exchange Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders will receive, as allocated to them:

the number of whole shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock that they are entitled to receive under the merger agreement;

a check representing the amount of cash that they are entitled to receive under the merger agreement; and/or a check representing the amount of cash that they are entitled to receive in lieu of any fractional shares.

No interest will be paid or accrued on any cash constituting merger consideration.

Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders who are receiving the stock consideration in the merger are not entitled to receive any dividends or other distributions on Orrstown Financial Services common stock with a record date after the closing date of the merger until they have surrendered their Mercersburg Financial Corporation stock certificates in exchange for a Orrstown Financial Services stock certificate. After the surrender of their Mercersburg Financial Corporation stock certificates, Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders of record will be entitled to receive any dividend or other distribution, without interest, which had become payable with respect to their Orrstown Financial Services common stock.

actions and omissions of Mercersburg Financial Corporation or Orrstown Financial Services and its subsidiaries taken with the prior written consent of the other party in furtherance of the transactions provided for in the merger agreement or otherwise permitted to be taken by Mercersburg Financial Corporation or Orrstown Financial Services and its subsidiaries under the merger agreement;

any fact, change, event, development, effect or circumstance resulting from the announcement or pendency of the transactions provided for in the merger agreement;

transaction expenses required by Mercersburg Financial Corporation or Orrstown Financial Services of a type and in an amount customary for transactions similar to the merger;

any failure by Mercersburg Financial Corporation or Orrstown Financial Services to meet any internal or published industry analyst projections or forecasts or estimates of revenues or earnings for any period; and changes in the trading price or trading volume of Orrstown Financial Services' common stock.

Termination

The merger agreement may be terminated and the merger and the transactions provided for in the merger agreement abandoned as follows:

by mutual written consent of the parties;

by Orrstown Financial Services or Mercersburg Financial Corporation if the merger is not consummated by March 31, 2019, unless the terminating party's failure to comply with the merger agreement was the cause of the failure of the merger to occur on or before this date;

by Orrstown Financial Services or Mercersburg Financial Corporation if the other party materially breaches any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in the merger agreement (provided that the terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in the merger agreement), and the breach cannot be or has not been cured within 30 days of written notice of the breach and such breach would entitle the non-breaching party not to consummate the transactions provided for in the merger agreement;

by Orrstown Financial Services or Mercersburg Financial Corporation if (1) any regulatory approval required for consummation of the merger and the other transactions provided for in the merger agreement (A) will impose any term, condition or restriction upon Orrstown Financial Services or any of its subsidiaries that Orrstown Financial Services reasonably determines, after consultation with Mercersburg Financial Corporation, is a burdensome condition, or (B) has been denied by final nonappealable action of any regulatory authority, or (2) any governmental entity has issued a final nonappealable order, injunction or decree enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the transactions provided for in the merger agreement, provided in either case that the terminating party has used its reasonable best efforts to have the order, injunction or decree lifted or to prevent such burdensome condition from being imposed;

by Orrstown Financial Services or Mercersburg Financial Corporation if the required approval of the merger agreement and the merger by the Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders is not obtained;

by Orrstown Financial Services, if the Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors or any committee thereof:

withdraws, qualifies, amends, modifies or withholds its recommendation to the Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders to vote in favor of the merger, fails to reaffirm such recommendation within five business days following a request to do so by Orrstown Financial Services, or makes any statement, filing or release that is inconsistent with such recommendation;

materially breaches its obligation to call, give notice of hold and commence the special meeting or to solicit proxies in favor of approval of the merger agreement and the merger;

approves or recommends another acquisition proposal;

enters into, or causes Mercersburg Financial Corporation to enter into, any letter of intent, agreement in principle, acquisition, or other agreement related to an acquisition proposal, or requiring Mercersburg Financial Corporation to abandon, terminate or fail to complete the merger or the transactions contemplated thereby; or resolves or otherwise determines to take, or announces an intention to take, any of the actions listed above;

by Orrstown Financial Services if Mercersburg Financial Corporation or any of Mercersburg Financial Corporation's representatives breaches in any material respect the provisions in the merger agreement prohibiting the solicitation of other offers; or by Mercersburg Financial Corporation, if its board of directors so determines by a majority vote of the members of its entire board, at any time during the two business day period commencing on the determination date, if both of the following conditions are satisfied:

the volume weighted average stock price of Orrstown Financial Services common stock as reported on NASDAQ for the 15 trading day period immediately preceding the determination date, rounded to the nearest whole cent, is less than $20.928 (which represents 80% of the 15-day volume weighted average stock price of Orrstown Financial Services common stock, as reported on NASDAQ, for the measurement period); and the number obtained by dividing the 15-day volume weighted average stock price of Orrstown Financial Services common stock as reported on NASDAQ for the measurement period, rounded to the nearest whole cent, by the 15-day volume weighted average stock price of Orrstown Financial Services common stock, as reported on NASDAQ, for the 15 consecutive trading day period ending on the determination date, rounded to the nearest whole cent, is less than the quotient obtained by dividing the average of the volume weighted average stock price of the NASDAQ Bank Index for the 15 consecutive trading day period ending on the determination date, rounded to the nearest whole cent, by the 15-day volume weighted average stock price of the NASDAQ Bank Index for the measurement period (the index ratio), minus 0.20.

If the Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors exercises the termination right described above, Mercersburg Financial Corporation shall promptly notify Orrstown Financial Services of its decision. Within two business days of receipt of such notice, Orrstown Financial Services may elect to increase the merger consideration to be provided to Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders by increasing the stock consideration to an amount which, when multiplied by volume weighted average stock price of Orrstown Financial Services common stock as reported on NASDAQ for the 15 trading day period immediately preceding the determination date, equals the lesser of (1) $40.00 or (2) $40.00 multiplied by the index ratio.

If Orrstown Financial Services elects to increase the stock consideration ratio pursuant to the preceding sentence, no termination will occur.

Under the merger agreement, an acquisition proposal means any inquiry, offer or proposal (other than an inquiry, offer or proposal from Orrstown Financial Services), whether or not in writing, contemplating, relating to, or that could reasonably be expected to lead to, an acquisition transaction. An acquisition transaction means:

any transaction or series of transactions involving any merger, consolidation, recapitalization, share exchange, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction involving Mercersburg Financial Corporation or any of its subsidiaries;

any transaction pursuant to which any third party or group acquires or would acquire (whether through sale, lease or other disposition), directly or indirectly, any assets of Mercersburg Financial Corporation representing, in the aggregate, 15% or more of the assets of Mercersburg Financial Corporation on a consolidated basis;

any issuance, sale or other disposition of (including by way of merger, consolidation, share exchange or any similar transaction) securities (or options, rights or warrants to purchase or securities convertible into, such securities) representing 15% or more of the votes attached to the outstanding securities of Mercersburg Financial Corporation or any of its subsidiaries;

any tender offer or exchange offer that, if consummated, would result in any third party or group beneficially owning 15% or more of any class of equity securities of Mercersburg Financial Corporation or any of its subsidiaries; or any transaction which is similar in form, substance or purpose to any of the transactions listed above, or any combination of these types of transactions.

For purposes of the termination fee provisions described below, all references to 15% in the definition of acquisition transaction shall instead refer to 50%.

Termination Fee

Under the terms of the merger agreement, Mercersburg Financial Corporation must pay Orrstown Financial Services a termination fee of $1,250,000 if:

Orrstown Financial Services terminates the merger agreement as a result of the Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors:

withdrawing, qualifying, amending, modifying or withholding its recommendation to the Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders to vote in favor of the merger, failing to reaffirm such recommendation within five business days following a request to do so by Orrstown Financial Services, or making any statement, filing or release that is inconsistent with such recommendation;

materially breaching its obligation to call, give notice of hold and commence the special meeting or to solicit proxies in favor of the merger;

approving or recommending another acquisition proposal;

entering into, causing Mercersburg Financial Corporation to enter into, any letter of intent, agreement in principle, acquisition, or other agreement related to an acquisition proposal, or requiring

Mercersburg Financial Corporation to abandon, terminate or fail to complete the merger or the transactions contemplated thereby; or resolving or otherwise determining to take, or announcing an intention to take, any of the actions listed above;

Orrstown Financial Services terminates the merger agreement as a result of a material breach by Mercersburg Financial Corporation or any of Mercersburg Financial Corporation's representatives of the provisions in the merger agreement prohibiting the solicitation of other offers;

Orrstown Financial Services or Mercersburg Financial Corporation terminates the merger agreement as a result of:

the failure of the Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders to approve the merger agreement and the merger, or the merger not having been consummated by March 31, 2019 due to the failure of the Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders to approve the merger agreement and the merger, and both:

an acquisition proposal with respect to Mercersburg Financial Corporation has been publicly announced, disclosed or otherwise communicated to the Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors or senior management of Mercersburg Financial Corporation prior to March 31, 2019 or prior to the special meeting, as applicable; and within 12 months of termination of the merger agreement, Mercersburg Financial Corporation enters into a definitive agreement with respect to, or consummates, another acquisition transaction; or

Orrstown Financial Services terminates the merger agreement as a result of a willful material breach by Mercersburg Financial Corporation of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in the merger agreement, if both:

an acquisition proposal with respect to Mercersburg Financial Corporation has been publicly announced, disclosed or otherwise communicated to the Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors or senior management of Mercersburg Financial Corporation prior to such breach or during the related cure period; and within 12 months of termination of the merger agreement, Mercersburg Financial Corporation enters into a definitive agreement with respect to, or consummates, another acquisition transaction.

No Solicitation

Mercersburg Financial Corporation has agreed that neither it nor its subsidiaries nor any of its respective officers, directors, employees, investment bankers, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, consultants, affiliates and other of its agents (which we refer to as Mercersburg Financial Corporation's representatives) will, directly or indirectly:

initiate, solicit, induce or knowingly encourage, or take any action to facilitate the making of, any inquiry, offer or proposal which constitutes, or could reasonably be expected to lead to, an acquisition proposal;

participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding any acquisition proposal or furnish, or otherwise afford access, to any person (other than Orrstown Financial Services) any information or data with respect to Mercersburg Financial Corporation or any of its subsidiaries or otherwise relating to an acquisition proposal;

release any person from, waive any provisions of, or fail to enforce any confidentiality agreement or standstill agreement to which Mercersburg Financial Corporation is a party; or enter into any agreement, agreement in principle or letter of intent with respect to any acquisition proposal or approve or resolve to approve any acquisition proposal or any agreement, agreement in principle or letter of intent relating to an acquisition proposal.

If Mercersburg Financial Corporation receives a bona fide unsolicited written acquisition proposal that did not result from a breach by Mercersburg Financial Corporation of any of the provisions in the merger agreement as discussed above, the Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors may participate in discussions or negotiations regarding the unsolicited acquisition proposal or furnish the third party with, or otherwise afford access to the third party of, any information or data with respect to Mercersburg Financial Corporation or any of its subsidiaries or otherwise relating to the acquisition proposal if:

the Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors first determines in good faith, (1) after consultation with its outside legal counsel and its independent financial advisor, that such acquisition proposal constitutes or is reasonably likely to lead to a superior proposal, and (2) after consultation with its outside legal counsel, that it is required to take such actions to comply with the fiduciary standard of conduct required of a board of directors under applicable law and Mercersburg Financial Corporation's bylaws;

Table of Contents

Mercersburg Financial Corporation has provided Orrstown Financial Services with at least 24 hours prior notice of such determination; and prior to furnishing or affording access to any information or data with respect to Mercersburg Financial Corporation or any of its subsidiaries or otherwise relating to an acquisition proposal, the third party enters into a confidentiality agreement with Mercersburg Financial Corporation containing terms not materially less favorable to Mercersburg Financial Corporation than those contained in its confidentiality agreement with Orrstown Financial Services.

A superior proposal means any bona fide written proposal (on its most recently amended or modified terms, if amended or modified) made by a third party to enter into an acquisition transaction on terms that the Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors determines in its good faith judgment, after consultation with outside legal counsel and its independent financial advisor:

would, if consummated, result in the acquisition of all, but not less than all, of the issued and outstanding shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation's common stock or all, or substantially all, of the assets of Mercersburg Financial Corporation;

would result in a transaction that:

involves consideration to the Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders that is more favorable, from a financial point of view, than the consideration to be paid to Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders pursuant to the merger agreement, considering, among other things, the nature of the consideration being offered and any material regulatory approvals or other risks associated with the proposed transaction, including without limitation the timing thereof, beyond or in addition to those specifically provided for in the merger agreement, and which proposal is not conditioned upon obtaining additional financing; and is, in light of the other terms of such proposal, more favorable to Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders than the merger and the transactions provided for in the merger agreement; and is reasonably likely to be completed on the terms proposed, in each case taking into account all legal, financial, regulatory and other aspects of the proposal.

Mercersburg Financial Corporation has agreed to promptly, and in any event within 24 hours, notify Orrstown Financial Services in writing if any proposals or offers are received by, any information is requested from, or any negotiations or discussions are sought to be initiated or continued with, Mercersburg Financial Corporation or any of its representatives, in each case in connection with any acquisition proposal. Any such notice will indicate the name of the person initiating such discussions or negotiations or making such inquiry, proposal, offer or information request, the material terms and conditions of any proposals or offers. Mercersburg Financial Corporation is also required to keep Orrstown Financial Services informed, on a reasonably current basis, and in any event within 24 hours, of the status and terms of any material developments with respect to such proposal, offer, information request, negotiations or discussions (including any amendments or modifications to such proposal, offer or request).

Mercersburg Financial Corporation has also agreed to promptly provide Orrstown Financial Services with any non-public information about Mercersburg Financial Corporation or any of its subsidiaries provided to any other person that was not previously provided to Orrstown Financial Services.

In addition, under the merger agreement, Mercersburg Financial Corporation agreed that its board of directors, or any committee of the board, will not:

withdraw, qualify, amend, modify, withhold, or propose to withdraw, qualify, amend, modify, or withhold, in a manner adverse to Orrstown Financial Services in connection with the transactions provided for in the merger agreement (including the merger), its recommendation that Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders vote to approve the merger agreement and the merger;

fail to reaffirm its recommendation that Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders vote to approve the merger agreement and the merger within five business days following a request by Orrstown Financial Services;

make any statement, announcement or release, in connection with the special meeting or otherwise, inconsistent with its recommendation that Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders vote to approve the merger agreement and the merger (including taking a neutral position or no position with respect to an acquisition proposal);

approve or recommend, or propose to approve or recommend, any acquisition proposal; or enter into any letter of intent, agreement in principle, acquisition agreement or other agreement:

related to any acquisition transaction (other than a confidentiality agreement entered into in accordance with the no solicitation provisions of the merger agreement); or requiring Mercersburg Financial Corporation to abandon, terminate or fail to consummate the merger or any other transaction provided for in the merger agreement.

However, prior to the date of the special meeting of stockholders, the Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors may withdraw, qualify, amend or modify its recommendation that Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders vote to approve the merger agreement and the merger if the Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors reasonably determines in good faith, after consultation with outside legal counsel, that it is required to do so in order to comply with the fiduciary standard of conduct required of a board of directors under applicable law and Mercersburg Financial Corporation's bylaws. In the event that the Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors makes this determination, Mercersburg Financial Corporation must provide five business days' prior written notice to Orrstown Financial Services that its board has decided that a bona fide unsolicited written acquisition proposal that Mercersburg Financial Corporation received (that did not result from a breach of the no solicitation provisions of the merger agreement) constitutes a superior proposal. During the five business days after Orrstown Financial Services' receipt of the notice of a superior proposal, Mercersburg Financial Corporation and its board must cooperate and negotiate in good faith with Orrstown Financial Services to make any adjustments, modifications or amendments to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement as would enable Mercersburg Financial Corporation to proceed with its board's original recommendation with respect to the merger agreement without requiring Mercersburg Financial Corporation to approve or recommend to its stockholders a superior proposal and withdraw, qualify or modify its board's recommendation with respect to the merger agreement. At the end of the five business day period, and after taking into account any such adjusted, modified or amended terms as may have been proposed by Orrstown Financial Services during that period, the Mercersburg Financial Corporation board of directors must again determine in good faith, after consultation with outside legal counsel, that:

it is required to approve or recommend to its stockholders a superior proposal and withdraw, qualify, amend or modify its recommendation with respect to the merger agreement to comply with its fiduciary duties to its stockholders under applicable law; and the acquisition proposal is a superior proposal.

Notwithstanding any withdrawal, qualification, amendment or modification to recommendation of the board of directors of Mercersburg Financial Corporation that the stockholders of Mercersburg Financial Corporation vote to approve the merger agreement and the merger, Mercersburg Financial Corporation must submit the merger agreement to its stockholders at the special meeting for the purpose of voting on the approval of the merger agreement and the merger; provided, however, that if the board of directors of Mercersburg Financial Corporation shall have withdrawn, qualified, amended or modified its recommendation, then the board of directors of Mercersburg Financial Corporation may communicate the basis for its lack of a recommendation to the stockholders of Mercersburg Financial Corporation in this proxy statement/prospectus or an appropriate amendment or supplement thereto. In addition, the board of directors of Mercersburg Financial Corporation may not submit to the vote of its stockholders any acquisition proposal other than the merger at the special meeting.

Mercersburg Financial Corporation Stockholders Meeting

Mercersburg Financial Corporation has agreed to call, hold and convene a meeting of its stockholders as promptly as practicable (and in any event within 45 days following the time when the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part becomes effective) to consider and vote upon the approval of the merger agreement and the merger and any other matter required to be approved by the stockholders of Mercersburg Financial Corporation in order to consummate the merger.

In the event that this premium limit is insufficient for such coverage, Mercersburg Financial Corporation may enter into an agreement to spend up to that amount to purchase such lesser coverage as may be obtained with such amount.

Conduct of Business Pending the Merger

Under the merger agreement, Mercersburg Financial Corporation has agreed that, until the effective time of the merger or the termination of the merger agreement, and except as expressly permitted by the merger agreement or with the prior written consent of Orrstown Financial Services, Mercersburg Financial Corporation will not, and will cause each of its subsidiaries not to:

fail to use reasonable best efforts to preserve intact its business organizations and assets, and maintain its rights, franchises, and existing relations with customers, suppliers, employees and business associates;

Amendments

Orrstown Financial Services and Mercersburg Financial Corporation may amend the merger agreement by executing a written amendment approved by the boards of directors of Orrstown Financial Services and Mercersburg Financial Corporation. However, after approval of the merger agreement and the merger by the stockholders of Mercersburg Financial Corporation, no amendment of the merger agreement may be made which by law requires further approval of the Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders without obtaining that approval.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger

Before Orrstown Financial Services and Mercersburg Financial Corporation may complete the merger, they must obtain a number of regulatory approvals from, or give notices to, federal and state bank regulators.

Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System. The merger of First Community Bank of Mercersburg with and into Orrstown Bank is subject to approval by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (the Federal Reserve), under Section 18(c) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act, as amended, also known as the Bank Merger Act. Under the Bank Merger Act, the Federal Reserve may not approve a transaction that would result in a monopoly or otherwise substantially lessen competition or restrain trade, unless it finds that the anti-competitive effects of the transaction are clearly outweighed by the public interest. In addition, the Federal Reserve considers the financial and managerial resources and future prospects of the depository institutions involved in the proposed merger, the convenience and needs of the communities to be served, and the risk to the financial stability of the United States banking or financial system. Under the Community Reinvestment Act of 1977, as amended (the CRA), the Federal Reserve must take into account the record of performance of each party to the proposed merger in meeting the credit needs of its entire community, including low and moderate income neighborhoods. The Federal Reserve also must consider the effectiveness of each party involved in the proposed transaction in combating money laundering activities. Federal law requires publication of notice of, and the opportunity for public comment on, the application submitted by Orrstown Bank for Federal Reserve approval. The public comment period commenced on [] and ended on [].

In connection with its review of the application submitted by Orrstown Bank, the Federal Reserve will request a report on competitive factors from the United States Department of Justice (the DOJ). The Federal Reserve or the DOJ may challenge the merger on competitive grounds, and may require Orrstown Bank to divest certain of its branches or branches it proposes to acquire from First Community Bank of Mercersburg in order to complete the merger. The level of divestitures that the Federal Reserve and the DOJ may require might be unacceptable. Such divestitures could delay the date of completion of the merger or may diminish the benefits of the merger.

Following Federal Reserve approval, the Bank Merger Act imposes a waiting period of up to 30 days after the Federal Reserve approval in order to permit the United States Department of Justice to file any objections to the proposed merger of First Community Bank of Mercersburg with and into Orrstown Bank under the federal antitrust laws. This waiting period may be reduced to 15 days if the DOJ has not provided any adverse comments relating to the competitive factors of the transaction, which the parties expect to occur. In reviewing these transactions, the DOJ could analyze the effect of the transactions on competition differently than the Federal Reserve, and thus it is possible that the DOJ could reach a different conclusion than the Federal Reserve regarding the anti-competitive effects of these transactions. If the DOJ were to commence an antitrust action, it would stay the effectiveness of the Federal Reserve's approval unless a court specifically orders otherwise.

After the merger, Orrstown Bank expects to close or relocate three branch offices of First Community Bank of Mercersburg. Orrstown Bank has filed all required notices with the Federal Reserve and Pennsylvania Department of Banking and Securities for these branch closures or relocations simultaneously with the application submitted pursuant to the Bank Merger Act.

In addition, Orrstown Financial Services has notified the Federal Reserve of Orrstown Financial Services' intent to avail itself of the exemption from the application requirements of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended, provided by Section 225.12(d)(1) of Regulation Y.

Pennsylvania Department of Banking and Securities. The merger of Mercersburg Financial Corporation with and into Orrstown Financial Services is subject to the prior approval of the Pennsylvania Department of Banking and Securities under Section 115 of the Pennsylvania Banking Code of 1965 relating to business combinations involving a holding company of a Pennsylvania-chartered bank. Additionally, the merger of First Community Bank of Mercersburg with and into Orrstown Bank is subject to the prior approval of the Pennsylvania Department of Banking and Securities under Chapter 16 of the Pennsylvania Banking Code of 1965. Generally, in determining whether to approve a bank merger, the Pennsylvania Department of Banking and Securities considers the same factors that are considered by the Federal Reserve Board under the Bank Merger Act.

Prior to the date of the special meeting, Orrstown Financial Services, Orrstown Bank, Mercersburg Financial Corporation, and First Community Bank of Mercersburg have filed all applications and notices and have taken or will take all other appropriate action with respect to any requisite approvals or other action of any governmental authority.

The following discussion does not address state, local or foreign tax consequences of the merger. You are urged to consult your tax advisors to determine the specific tax consequences of the merger, including any state, local or foreign tax consequences of the merger.

For purposes of this discussion, the term U.S. holder means a beneficial owner of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock that is:

a U.S. citizen or resident, as determined for federal income tax purposes; or a corporation, or entity taxable as a corporation, created or organized in or under the laws of the United States or any state thereof or the District of Columbia.

ALL HOLDERS OF MERCERSBURG FINANCIAL CORPORATION COMMON STOCK SHOULD CONSULT THEIR TAX ADVISORS AS TO THE SPECIFIC TAX CONSEQUENCES TO THEM OF THE MERGER, INCLUDING THE APPLICABILITY AND AFFECT OF THE ALTERNATIVE MINIMUM TAX AND ANY STATE, LOCAL, FOREIGN, AND OTHER TAX LAWS.

Tax Consequences of the Merger

Based on facts and representations and assumptions regarding factual matters that were provided by Orrstown Bank and Mercersburg Financial Corporation and that are consistent with the state of facts that Orrstown Bank and Mercersburg Financial Corporation believe will be existing as of the effective time of the merger, Goodwin Procter LLP and Stevens & Lee are each of the opinion that the merger, when consummated in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, will constitute a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. None of the tax opinions given in connection with the merger or the opinions described below will be binding on the Internal Revenue Service or the courts. Neither Orrstown Financial Services nor Mercersburg Financial Corporation intends to request any ruling from the Internal Revenue Service as to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger. Consequently, no assurance can be given that the Internal Revenue Service will not assert, or that a court would not sustain, a position contrary to any of those set forth below.

If the merger is treated as a reorganization within the meaning of section 368(a) of the Code, neither Orrstown Financial Services nor Mercersburg Financial Corporation will recognize any taxable gain or loss as a result of the merger.

The federal income tax consequences of the merger to a Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholder generally will depend on whether the stockholder receives cash, Orrstown Financial Services common stock or a combination of cash and stock in exchange for the stockholder's shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock.

Receipt of Solely Orrstown Financial Services Common Stock

In general, a Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholder who receives solely Orrstown Financial Services common stock in exchange for all of that stockholder's shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock pursuant to the merger will not recognize gain or loss on the exchange, except to the extent the stockholder receives cash in lieu of a fractional share of Orrstown Financial Services common stock. The stockholder's tax basis in the Orrstown Financial Services common stock received pursuant to the merger will equal that stockholder's tax basis in the shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock being exchanged, reduced by any amount allocable to a fractional share of Orrstown Financial Services common stock for which cash is received. The holding period of Orrstown Financial Services common stock received will include the holding period of the shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock being exchanged.

Table of Contents

Receipt of Solely Cash

A Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholder who receives solely cash in exchange for all of that stockholder's shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock pursuant to the merger generally will recognize capital gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the stockholder's aggregate tax basis for such shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock, which gain or loss generally will be long-term capital gain or loss if such shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock were held for more than one year. If, however, any such Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholder constructively owns shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock that are exchanged for shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock in the merger or owns shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock actually or constructively after the merger, such actual or constructive ownership of Orrstown Financial Services common stock may prevent any gain recognized in the merger from qualifying for capital gain rates and instead result in any gain being treated as the distribution of a dividend. Under the constructive ownership rules of the Code, a stockholder may be treated as owning stock that is actually owned by another person or entity. You should consult your tax advisors as to the possibility that all or a portion of any cash received in exchange for your shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock will be treated as a dividend. U.S. holders that are individuals or estates or trusts that do not fall into a special class of trusts that is exempt from such tax, may be subject to an additional 3.8% tax, generally referred to as the Medicare tax or NIIT. If you are a U.S. holder that is an individual, estate, or trust, please consult your tax advisors regarding the applicability of the Medicare tax with respect to your disposition of shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock pursuant to the merger.

Receipt of Orrstown Financial Services Common Stock and Cash

A Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholder who receives both Orrstown Financial Services common stock and cash consideration in exchange for all of his, her or its shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock generally will recognize gain, but not loss, to the extent of the lesser of:

the excess, if any, of (a) the sum of the aggregate fair market value of the Orrstown Financial Services common stock received (including any fractional share of Orrstown Financial Services common stock deemed to be received and exchanged for cash) and the amount of cash received (excluding any cash received in lieu of a fractional share of common stock) over (b) the stockholder's aggregate tax basis in the shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock exchanged in the merger; and the amount of cash received by the stockholder.

In general, for this purpose, gain or loss must be calculated separately for each block of shares surrendered in the exchange, and a loss realized on one block of shares may not be used to offset gain realized on another block of shares. Any such gain will be long-term capital gain if the shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock exchanged were held for more than one year, unless the receipt of cash has the effect of a distribution of a dividend under the provisions of the Code, in which case such gain will be treated as a dividend to the extent of the stockholder's ratable share of the undistributed accumulated earnings and profits of Mercersburg Financial Corporation. You should consult your tax advisors as to the possibility that all or a portion of any cash received in exchange for your Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock will be treated as a dividend.

The stockholder's aggregate tax basis in the Orrstown Financial Services common stock received pursuant to the merger will equal that stockholder's aggregate tax basis in the shares of Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock being exchanged, reduced by any amount allocable to a fractional share of Orrstown Financial Services common stock for which cash is received and by the amount of any cash consideration received, and increased by the amount of taxable gain, if any, recognized by that stockholder in the merger (including any portion of such gain that is treated as a dividend).

Cash in Lieu of Fractional Shares

No fractional shares of Orrstown Financial Services common stock will be issued in the merger. A Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholder who receives cash in lieu of such a fractional share will be treated as having received that fractional share pursuant to the merger and then as having exchanged such fractional share for cash in a redemption by Orrstown Financial Services. A Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholder will generally recognize capital gain or loss on such a deemed redemption of the fractional share in an amount determined by the excess of the amount of cash received and the stockholder's tax basis in the fractional share. Any capital gain or loss generally will be long-term capital gain or loss if the Mercersburg Financial Corporation common stock exchanged was held for more than one year.

Tax Opinions

Tax opinions of Goodwin Procter LLP and Stevens & Lee have been filed as Exhibits 8.1 and 8.2, respectively, to the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part. Additionally, it is a condition to the obligations of Orrstown Financial Services and Mercersburg Financial Corporation to complete the merger that Orrstown Financial Services receive an opinion of Goodwin Procter LLP, counsel to Orrstown Financial Services, or such other counsel as contemplated by the merger agreement, and that Mercersburg Financial Corporation receive an opinion of Stevens & Lee, counsel to Mercersburg Financial Corporation, or such other counsel as contemplated by the merger agreement, each dated as of the closing date of the merger and each to the effect that, based on representations of Orrstown Financial Services and Mercersburg Financial Corporation and on certain customary assumptions and conditions, the merger will be treated for United States federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. The tax opinions in Exhibits 8.1 and 8.2 are not intended to satisfy this closing condition.

The tax opinions delivered or to be delivered to Orrstown Financial Services and to Mercersburg Financial Corporation in connection with the merger are not binding on the Internal Revenue Service, or the IRS, or the courts, and neither Orrstown Financial Services nor Mercersburg Financial Corporation have sought or will seek any ruling from the IRS, regarding any matters relating to the merger. Consequently, there can be no assurance that the IRS will not disagree with or challenge any of the conclusions contained in the tax opinions delivered to Orrstown Financial Services or Mercersburg Financial Corporation, or the federal income tax consequences of the merger described in this proxy statement/prospectus.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

Cash payments received in the Merger by a U.S. holder may, under certain circumstances, be subject to information reporting and backup withholding, unless the holder provides proof of an applicable exemption or furnishes its taxpayer identification number, and otherwise complies with all applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules.

If withholding results in an overpayment of taxes, a refund or credit against an Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholder's United States federal income tax liability may be obtained from the IRS, provided the stockholder furnishes the required information to the IRS. A holder that does not furnish their correct taxpayer identification number may be subject to penalties imposed by the IRS.

Mercersburg Financial Corporation stockholders who receive Orrstown Financial Services common stock as a result of the merger will be required to retain records pertaining to the merger and will be required to file with their United States federal income tax return for the year in which the merger takes place a statement setting forth certain facts relating to the merger.

Other Tax Consequences

The state and local tax treatment of the merger may not conform to the federal income tax consequences discussed above. Consequently, you should consult your own tax advisors regarding the treatment of the merger under state and local tax laws.

The preceding discussion is intended only as a general discussion of material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger. It is not a complete analysis or discussion of all potential tax effects that may be important to you. Thus, you are strongly encouraged to consult your tax advisor as to the specific tax consequences resulting from the merger, including tax return reporting requirements, the applicability and effect of federal, state, local, and other tax laws, and the effect of any proposed changes in tax laws.

Dividends

Under Pennsylvania law, the board of directors of a Pennsylvania corporation may declare and pay dividends unless, after giving effect to the payment of such dividends, (1) the corporation would be unable to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of its business or (2) the total assets of the corporation would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus the amount that would be needed, if the corporation were to be dissolved at the time as of which the distribution is measured, to satisfy the preferential rights upon dissolution of stockholders whose preferential rights are superior to those receiving the distribution.

Under Pennsylvania law, the board of directors of a Pennsylvania-chartered commercial bank and trust company may from time to time, declare, and the institution may pay, dividends on its outstanding shares subject to the restrictions set forth in the law and to the restrictions, if any, in its articles of incorporation. Dividends generally may be declared and paid out of accumulated net earnings of the institution or accumulated net earnings acquired as a result of a merger and transferred to surplus, if used within seven years of the date of merger, and may be paid in cash or property other than its own shares.

Pennsylvania law generally provides that the stockholders entitled to vote have the power to adopt, amend and repeal the bylaws, and that subject to certain exceptions specified by law, the authority to adopt, amend and repeal bylaws may be expressly vested by the bylaws in the board of directors, subject to the power of the stockholders to change such action.

Orrstown Financial Services. Orrstown Financial Services' bylaws provide that the stockholders entitled to vote thereon shall have the power to alter, amend, or repeal the bylaws, by the vote of stockholders entitled to cast at least a majority of the votes which all stockholders are entitled to cast thereon, at any regular or special meeting, duly convened after notice to the stockholders of such purpose. In addition, the board of directors, by a majority vote of those voting, shall have the power to alter, amend, and repeal the bylaws, at any regular or special meeting duly convened after notice of such purpose, subject always to the power of the stockholders to further alter, amend or repeal the bylaws. Notwithstanding the foregoing, amendments to Article 7 of the bylaws (indemnification and insurance) reducing the limitation of directors' liability or limiting indemnification or the advancement of expenses in any manner shall require either the unanimous vote of the directors then serving or the affirmative vote of stockholders entitled to cast at least a majority of the votes that all stockholders are entitled to cast in the election of directors; provided that no such amendment shall have retroactive effect.

Mercersburg Financial Corporation. Mercersburg Financial Corporation's bylaws provide that the board of directors may amend or repeal the bylaws, in whole or in part, with the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office.

Both Mercersburg Financial Corporation and Orrstown Financial Services permit their directors to amend their bylaws by a majority vote of directors voting, in the case of Orrstown Financial Services and by a majority of directors then in office, in the case of Mercersburg Financial Corporation. Orrstown Financial Services stockholders may amend the bylaws by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the voting power of all of the then-outstanding shares of Orrstown Financial Services capital stock entitled to vote. Mercersburg Financial Corporation shareholders may amend the bylaws by the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by the shareholders at a meeting at which a quorum is present.

Stockholder Approval of a Merger

Orrstown Financial Services. In order to approve a merger under Pennsylvania law, the board of directors of a Pennsylvania corporation, such as Orrstown Financial Services, must adopt a resolution approving a plan of merger. The merger agreement must also be submitted to and approved by the holders of a majority of the votes cast by all stockholders entitled to vote thereon, unless the articles of incorporation requires a greater vote, provided that no vote of the stockholders is required if:

the surviving association is a domestic business corporation and its articles of incorporation are identical to the articles of incorporation of the corporation for which stockholder approval is not required, except for changes that could otherwise be made without stockholder approval;

each share of the corporation outstanding immediately prior to the effectiveness of the merger is to continue as or be converted into, except as may be otherwise agreed by the holder thereof, an identical share of the surviving association; and the plan of merger provides that the stockholders of the corporation are to hold in the aggregate shares of the surviving association to be outstanding immediately after the effectiveness of the merger entitled to cast at least a majority of the votes entitled to be cast generally for the election of directors.

Mercersburg Financial Corporation. In order to approve a merger, the articles of incorporation of Mercersburg Financial Corporation require that the plan of merger be approved by the board of directors and be submitted to a vote at a meeting of stockholders. At the meeting of stockholders, the plan of merger must be approved by the affirmative vote of:

the holders of at least 75% of the outstanding shares of common stock of the corporation; or the holders of at least 60% of the outstanding shares of common stock of the corporation, provided that such transaction has received the prior approval of 75% of the entire board of directors.

Business Combinations with Interested Stockholders

Orrstown Financial Services. The articles of incorporation of Orrstown Financial Services provide that any business combination (including a plan of merger or consolidation) or sale or transfer of all or substantially all of the assets of the corporation with or to a stockholder of the Corporation who, directly or indirectly, has voting control over 10% or more of any class of shares of the corporation or with or to an entity which, directly or indirectly, is controlled by such a stockholder, shall require the approval by the board of directors of the corporation and approval by stockholders entitled to cast at least three-fourths of the votes which all stockholders are entitled to cast thereon; provided, however, if such business combination or sale or transfer is approved by at least three-fourths of the directors of the corporation, then approval by stockholders entitled to cast a majority of the votes which all stockholders are entitled to cast shall be sufficient.

The articles of incorporation of Orrstown Financial Services also provide that, if any person (including any individual, corporation, partnership or other entity) directly or indirectly acquires shares of the corporation entitling the owner to cast at least 10% of the votes which all stockholders would be entitled to cast in the election of directors of the corporation, then any business combination (including a plan of merger or consolidation) with such person or an entity directly or indirectly controlled by such person shall require such person to offer to pay the other stockholders of the corporation at least the highest price paid directly or indirectly by such person for any of the shares then directly or indirectly owned by such person. For purposes of this provision price shall mean the sum of any cash and the fair value of any other consideration paid for any of such shares.

Mercersburg Financial Corporation. The articles of incorporation of Mercersburg Financial Corporation provide that any business combination (including a plan of merger or consolidation) or sale or transfer of all or substantially all of the assets of the corporation with or to a stockholder of the corporation who, directly or indirectly, has voting control over 5% or more of any class of shares of the corporation or with or to an entity which, directly or indirectly, is controlled by such a stockholder, shall require the approval by the board of directors of the corporation and approval by the affirmative vote of:

the holders of at least 75% of the outstanding shares of common stock of the corporation; or the holders of at least 60% of the outstanding shares of common stock of the corporation, provided that such transaction has received the prior approval of 75% of the entire board of directors, in each case excluding shares of common stock held by the interested stockholder.

Table of Contents

The articles of incorporation of Mercersburg Financial Corporation also provide that, if any person (including any individual, corporation, partnership or other entity) directly or indirectly acquires shares of the corporation entitling the owner to cast at least 5% of the votes which all stockholders would be entitled to cast in the election of directors of the corporation, then any business combination (including a plan of merger or consolidation) with such person or an entity directly or indirectly controlled by such person will be invalid unless the consideration to be paid to stockholders is at least equal to the higher of (1) the highest price paid directly or indirectly by such person for any of the shares then directly or indirectly owned by such person and (2) the market value per share of common stock on the announcement date of the business combination.

Pennsylvania Anti-Takeover Provisions

Under Pennsylvania business corporation law, certain anti-takeover provisions apply to Pennsylvania registered corporations (e.g., publicly traded companies) including those relating to (i) control share acquisitions, (ii) disgorgement of profits by certain controlling persons, (iii) business combination transactions with interested shareholders and (iv) the rights of shareholders to demand fair value for their stock following a control transaction. Pennsylvania law allows registered corporations to opt-out of any of these anti-takeover provisions. Orrstown Financial Services is a registered corporation under the PBCL and has opted out of the anti-takeover provision listed in (iv) above. Mercersburg Financial Corporation is not a registered corporation and is therefore not subject to these anti-takeover provisions. A general summary of the applicable anti-takeover provisions is set forth below.

Control Share Acquisitions. Pennsylvania law limits control share acquisitions relating to the act of acquiring for the first time voting power over voting shares (other than shares owned since January 1, 1988 and any additional shares distributed with respect to such shares) equal to at least 20%, 33 1/3% and 50% of the voting power of the corporation. Once a control share acquisition has occurred, then all shares in excess of the triggering threshold, plus shares purchased at any time with the intention of acquiring such voting power and shares purchased within 180 days of the date the triggering threshold was exceeded, are considered control shares. Control shares cannot vote either until their voting rights have been restored by two separate votes of the shareholders, described below, at a meeting or until they have been transferred to a person who does not thereby also become the holder of control shares.

The holder of control shares may wait until the next annual or special meeting after the acquisition took place to submit the request for the restoration of voting rights to the shareholders, or the acquiring person may accelerate the process by agreeing to underwrite the cost of a special meeting of shareholders for that purpose. In either case, the acquiring person is required to furnish for distribution to the shareholders an information statement containing a detailed disclosure concerning the acquiring person, its intentions with respect to ownership of securities of the corporation and other matters. As an alternative, a person proposing to make a control share acquisition may request prospective approval by the shareholders of the exercise of the voting rights of the shares proposed to be acquired. Two shareholders' votes are required to approve the restoration of voting rights: (i) the approval of an absolute majority of all voting power must be obtained, and all voting shares are entitled to participate in this vote; and (ii) the approval of an absolute majority of all disinterested shareholders must be obtained.

For a period of 24 months after the later of (i) a control share acquisition by an acquiring person who does not properly request consideration of voting rights, or (ii) the denial of such a request or lapse of voting rights, the corporation may redeem all the control shares at the average public market sales price of the shares on the date notice of the call for redemption is given by the corporation.

Disgorgement of Profits by Certain Controlling Persons. Pennsylvania law regarding disgorgement of profits by certain controlling persons applies in the event that (i) any person or group publicly discloses that the person or group may acquire control of the corporation, or (ii) a person or group acquires (or publicly discloses an intent to acquire)

20% or more of the voting power of the corporation and, in either case, sells shares within 18 months thereafter. Any profits from sales of equity securities of the corporation received by the person or group during such 18-month period will belong to the corporation if the securities that were sold were acquired during the 18-month period or within 24 months prior thereto.

Business Combination Transactions with Interested Shareholders. Pennsylvania law prohibits certain business combinations with certain interested shareholders, persons who acquire the direct or indirect beneficial ownership of shares entitled to cast at least 20% of the votes entitled to be cast for the election of directors. A corporation subject to this provision may not effect mergers or certain other business combinations with the interested shareholder for a period of five years, unless:

the business combination or the acquisition of stock by means of which the interested shareholder became an interested shareholder is approved by the corporation's board of directors prior to such stock acquisition;

the business combination is approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of all the outstanding common shares of the corporation; or the business combination is approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of all shares entitled to vote, excluding votes of shares held by the interested shareholders, and at the time of such vote, the interested shareholder is the beneficial owner of at least 80% of the voting shares of the corporation. This exception applies only if the value of the consideration to be paid by the interested shareholder in connection with the business combination satisfies certain fair price requirements.

After the five-year restricted period, an interested shareholder of the corporation may engage in a business combination with the corporation if (i) the business combination is approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares other than those beneficially owned by the interested shareholder and its affiliates, or (ii) the merger is approved at a shareholders meeting and certain fair price requirements are met.

Rights of Shareholders to Demand Fair Value for Stock Following a Control Transaction. Pennsylvania law regarding the ability of shareholders to dispose of their stock following a control transaction provides, generally, that a person or group that acquires more than 20% of the voting power to elect directors of the corporation is a controlling person and must give prompt notice to each shareholder of record. The other shareholders are then entitled to demand that the controlling person pay them the fair value of their shares under specified procedures. Fair value may not be less than the highest price paid per share by the controlling person at any time during the 90-day period ending on and including the date on which the controlling person became such, plus any increment representing any value, such as a control premium, that is not reflected in such price.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Closing may take place at such other place, time or date as may be mutually agreed upon in writing by Buyer, the Company.

The director of the Company appointed to the Boards of Directors of the Surviving Corporation and Buyer Bank shall serve as a director of each such entity for the remainder of the term of the class to which such director is appointed. Upon the expiration of the term to which he is initially appointed, the Board of Directors of the Surviving Corporation shall nominate and recommend such director for election by the shareholders of the Surviving Corporation to a successive three (3) year term on the Board of Directors of the Surviving Corporation, and the Board of Directors of Buyer Bank shall nominate such director for election to the Board of Directors of Buyer Bank for successive terms such that his terms of service as a director of Buyer Bank are coterminous with this terms of service as a director of the Surviving Corporation, provided that in each case he continues to meet the eligibility requirements for a director under the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Surviving Corporation or Buyer Bank, as applicable.

Subject to the foregoing and, following the execution and delivery of this Agreement, Buyer will cause Buyer Bank, and the Company will cause the Company Bank, to execute and deliver an agreement and plan of merger in respect of the Bank Merger in a form reasonably acceptable to Buyer and the Company. It is intended that the Bank Merger qualify as a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code, and that the agreement and plan of merger in respect of the Bank Merger constitute a plan of reorganization for purposes of Sections 354 and 361 of the Code.

1.10 Tax Consequences. It is intended that the Merger shall qualify as a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code, and that this Agreement shall constitute a plan of reorganization for purposes of Sections 354 and 361 of the Code.

1.11 Dissenters Rights.

(a) Each outstanding share of Company Common Stock, the holder of which has perfected his right to dissent under applicable law and has not effectively withdrawn or lost such right as of the Effective Time (the Dissenting Shares), shall not be converted into or represent a right to receive the Merger Consideration hereunder, and the holder thereof shall be entitled only to such rights as are granted by the PBCL. The Company shall give Buyer prompt notice upon receipt by the Company of any such demands for payment of the fair value of such shares of Company Common Stock and of withdrawals of such notice and any other related communications served pursuant to the applicable provisions of the PBCL (any stockholder duly making such demand being hereinafter called a Dissenting Stockholder), and Buyer shall have the right to participate in all discussions, negotiations and proceedings with respect to any such demands. The Company shall not, except with the prior written consent of Buyer, voluntarily make any payment with respect to, or settle or offer to settle, any such demand for payment, or waive any failure to timely deliver a written demand for appraisal or the taking of any other action by such Dissenting Stockholder as may be necessary to perfect appraisal rights under the PBCL. Any payments made in respect of Dissenting Shares shall be made by the Surviving Corporation.

(b) If any Dissenting Stockholder withdraws or loses (through failure to perfect or otherwise) his, her or its right to such payment at or prior to the Effective Time, such holder's shares of Company Common Stock shall be converted into a right to receive the Merger Consideration in accordance with the applicable provisions of this Agreement. If such holder withdraws or loses (through failure to perfect or otherwise) his right to such payment after the Effective Time, each share of Company Common Stock of such holder shall be entitled to receive the Merger Consideration.

ARTICLE II MERGER CONSIDERATION; ELECTION AND EXCHANGE PROCEDURES

2.1 Merger Consideration. Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, at the Effective Time, automatically by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of Buyer, the Company or any stockholder of the Company:

(a) Each share of common stock, no par value per share, of Buyer (Buyer Common Stock) that is issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall remain outstanding following the Effective Time and shall be unchanged by the Merger.

(b) Each share of Company Common Stock held in the treasury of the Company (Treasury Stock) immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be cancelled and retired at the Effective Time without any conversion thereof, and no payment shall be made with respect thereto.

(c) Each share of Company Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than Treasury Stock and Dissenting Shares) shall become and be converted into, as provided in and subject to the limitations set forth in this Agreement, the right to receive at the election of the holder thereof as provided in Section 2.4 either (1) $40.00 in cash, without interest (the Cash Consideration), or (2) 1.5291 shares (the Exchange Ratio) of Buyer Common Stock (the Stock Consideration). The Cash Consideration and the Stock Consideration are sometimes referred to herein collectively as the Merger Consideration.

2.2 Rights as Stockholders; Stock Transfers. All shares of Company Common Stock, when converted as provided in Section 2.1(c), shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be cancelled and retired and shall cease to exist and, except as to Dissenting Shares, each certificate (a Certificate) previously evidencing such shares shall thereafter represent only the right to receive, for each such share of Company Common Stock, the Merger Consideration and, if applicable, any cash in lieu of fractional shares of Buyer Common Stock in accordance with Section 2.3. At the Effective Time, holders of Company Common Stock shall cease to be, and shall have no rights as, stockholders of the Company, other than the right to receive the Merger Consideration and cash in lieu of fractional shares of Buyer Common Stock as provided under this Article II. After the Effective Time, there shall be no transfers on the stock transfer books of the Company of shares of Company Common Stock, other than transfers of Company Common Stock that have occurred prior to the Effective Time.

2.3 Fractional Shares. Notwithstanding any other provision hereof, no fractional shares of Buyer Common Stock and no certificates or scrip therefor, or other evidence of ownership thereof, will be issued in the Merger. In lieu thereof, Buyer shall pay to each holder of a fractional share of Buyer Common Stock an amount of cash (without interest) determined by multiplying the fractional share interest to which such holder would otherwise be entitled by the average of the daily closing prices during the regular session of Buyer Common Stock on The

2.4 Election Procedures.

(a) An election form and other appropriate and customary transmittal materials (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to Certificates shall pass, only upon proper delivery of such Certificates to a bank or trust company designated by Buyer and reasonably satisfactory to the Company (the Exchange Agent) in such form as the Company and Buyer shall mutually agree (the Election Form), shall be mailed no less than 20 Business Days prior to the anticipated Closing Date or such other date as the Company and Buyer shall mutually agree (the Mailing Date) to each holder of record of Company Common Stock as of five Business Days prior to the Mailing Date. Each Election Form shall permit the holder of record of Company Common Stock (or in the case of nominee record holders, the beneficial owner through proper instructions and documentation) to (i) elect to receive the Cash Consideration for all or a portion of such holder's shares (a Cash Election), (ii) elect to receive the Stock Consideration for all or a portion of such holder's shares (a Stock Election), or (iii) make no election with respect to the receipt of the Cash Consideration or the Stock Consideration (a Non-Election); provided, however, that, notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, but subject to Section 2.5, eighty-five percent (85%) of the shares of Company Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (the Stock Conversion Number) shall be converted into the Stock Consideration and the remaining shares of Company Common Stock shall be converted into the Cash Consideration. A record holder acting in different capacities or acting on behalf of other Persons (as defined in Section 9.3) in any way will be entitled to submit an Election Form for each capacity in which such record holder so acts with respect to each Person for which it so acts. Shares of Company Common Stock as to which a Cash Election has been made are referred to herein as Cash Election Shares. Shares of Company Common Stock as to which a Stock Election has been made are referred to herein as Stock Election Shares. Shares of Company Common Stock as to which no election has been made (or as to which an Election Form is not properly completed and returned in a timely fashion) are referred to herein as Non-Election Shares. The aggregate number of shares of Company Common Stock with respect to which a Stock Election has been made is referred to herein as the Stock Election Number.

(b) To be effective, a properly completed Election Form shall be received by the Exchange Agent on or before 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on the 25th day following the Mailing Date (or such other time and date as mutually agreed upon by the parties (which date shall be publicly announced by Buyer as soon as practicable prior to such date)) (the Election Deadline), accompanied by the Certificates as to which such Election Form is being made or by an appropriate guarantee of delivery of such Certificates, as set forth in the Election Form, from a member of any registered national securities exchange or a commercial bank or trust company in the United States (provided, however, that such Certificates are in fact delivered to the Exchange Agent by the time required in such guarantee of delivery; failure to deliver shares of Company Common Stock covered by such guarantee of delivery within the time set forth on such guarantee shall be deemed to invalidate any otherwise properly made election, unless otherwise determined by Buyer, in its sole discretion). If a holder of Company Common Stock either (i) does not submit a properly completed Election Form in a timely fashion or (ii) revokes the holder's Election Form prior to the Election Deadline (without later submitting a properly completed Election Form prior to the Election Deadline), the shares of Company Common Stock held by such holder shall be designated Non-Election Shares. Subject to the terms of this Agreement and of the Election Form, the Exchange Agent shall have reasonable discretion to determine whether any election, revocation or change has been properly or timely made and to disregard immaterial defects in any Election Form, and any good faith decisions of the Exchange Agent regarding such matters shall be binding and conclusive. Neither Buyer nor the Exchange Agent shall be under any obligation to notify any Person of any defect in an Election Form.

(c) Subject to Section 1.11, the allocation among the holders of shares of Company Common Stock of rights to receive the Cash Consideration and the Stock Consideration will be made as set forth in this Section 2.4(c) (with the Exchange Agent to determine, consistent with Section 2.4(a), whether fractions of Cash Election Shares, Stock Election Shares or Non-Election Shares, as applicable, shall be rounded up or down).

(i) If the Stock Election Number exceeds the Stock Conversion Number, then all Cash Election Shares and all Non-Election Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration, and, subject to Section 2.3 hereof, each holder of Stock Election Shares will be entitled to receive the Stock Consideration in respect of that number of Stock Election Shares held by such holder equal to the product obtained by multiplying (x) the number of Stock Election Shares held by such holder by (y) a fraction, the numerator of which is the Stock Conversion Number and the denominator of which is the Stock Election Number, with the remaining number of such holder's Stock Election Shares being converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration;

(ii) If the Stock Election Number is less than the Stock Conversion Number (the amount by which the Stock Conversion Number exceeds the Stock Election Number being referred to herein as the Shortfall Number), then all Stock Election Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Stock Consideration and the Non-Election Shares and the Cash Election Shares shall be treated in the following manner:

(A) if the Shortfall Number is less than or equal to the number of Non-Election Shares, then all Cash Election Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration and, subject to Section 2.3 hereof, each holder of Non-Election Shares shall receive the Stock Consideration in respect of that number of Non-Election Shares held by such holder equal to the product obtained by multiplying (x) the number of Non-Election Shares held by such holder by (y) a fraction, the numerator of which is the Shortfall Number and the denominator of which is the total number of Non-Election Shares, with the remaining number of such holder's Non-Election Shares being converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration; or

(B) if the Shortfall Number exceeds the number of Non-Election Shares, then all Non-Election Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Stock Consideration, and, subject to Section 2.3 hereof, each holder of Cash Election Shares shall receive the Stock Consideration in respect of that number of Cash Election Shares equal to the product obtained by multiplying (x) the number of Cash Election Shares held by such holder

by (y) a fraction, the numerator of which is the amount by which (1) the Shortfall Number exceeds (2) the total number of Non-Election Shares and the denominator of which is the total number of Cash Election Shares, with the remaining number of such holder's Cash Election Shares being converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration.

2.5 Adjustments to Preserve Tax Treatment. If either the tax opinion referred to in Section 7.2(b) or the tax opinion referred to in Section 7.3(b) cannot be rendered (as reasonably determined, in each case, by the counsel charged with giving such opinion) as a result of the Merger potentially failing to satisfy the continuity of interest requirements under applicable federal income tax principles relating to reorganizations under Section 368(a) of the Code, then Buyer shall increase the Stock Conversion Number to the minimum extent necessary to enable the relevant tax opinions to be rendered.

2.6 Exchange Procedures.

(a) On or before the Closing Date, for the benefit of the holders of Certificates, (i) Buyer shall cause to be delivered to the Exchange Agent, for exchange in accordance with this Article II, certificates representing the shares of Buyer Common Stock issuable pursuant to this Article II (New Certificates) and (ii) Buyer shall deliver, or shall cause to be delivered, to the Exchange Agent an aggregate amount of cash sufficient to pay the aggregate amount of cash payable pursuant to this Article II (including the estimated amount of cash to be paid in lieu of fractional shares of Buyer Common Stock) (such cash and New Certificates, being hereinafter referred to as the Exchange Fund).

(b) As promptly as practicable following the Effective Time, and provided that the Company has delivered, or caused to be delivered, to the Exchange Agent all information which is necessary for the Exchange Agent to perform its obligations as specified herein, the Exchange Agent shall mail to each holder of record of a Certificate or Certificates who has not previously surrendered such Certificate or Certificates with an Election Form, a form of letter of transmittal (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates shall pass, only upon delivery of the Certificates to the Exchange Agent) and instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Certificates in exchange for the Merger Consideration into which the shares of Company Common Stock represented by such Certificate or Certificates shall have been converted pursuant to Sections 2.1, 2.3 and 2.4 of this Agreement. Upon proper surrender of a Certificate for exchange and cancellation to the Exchange Agent, together with a properly completed letter of transmittal, duly executed, the holder of such Certificate shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor, as applicable, (i) a New Certificate representing that number of shares of Buyer Common Stock (if any) to which such former holder of Company Common Stock shall have become entitled pursuant to this Agreement, (ii) a check representing that amount of cash (if any) to which such former holder of Company Common Stock shall have become entitled pursuant to this Agreement and/or (iii) a check representing the amount of cash (if any) payable in lieu of a fractional share of Buyer Common Stock which such former holder has the right to receive in respect of the Certificate surrendered pursuant to this Agreement, and the Certificate so surrendered shall forthwith be cancelled. Until surrendered as contemplated by this Section 2.6(b), each Certificate (other than Certificates representing Treasury Stock and Dissenting Shares) shall be deemed at any time after the Effective Time to represent only the right to receive upon such surrender the Merger

Consideration provided in Sections 2.1, 2.3 and 2.4 and any unpaid dividends and distributions thereon as provided in Section 2.6(c). No interest shall be paid or accrued on (x) any cash constituting Merger Consideration (including any cash in lieu of fractional shares) or (y) any such unpaid dividends and distributions payable to holders of Certificates.

(c) No dividends or other distributions with a record date after the Effective Time with respect to Buyer Common Stock shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Certificate until the holder thereof shall surrender such Certificate in accordance with this Section 2.6. After the surrender of a Certificate in accordance with this Section 2.6, the record holder thereof shall be entitled to receive any such dividends or other distributions, without any interest thereon, which theretofore had become payable with respect to shares of Buyer Common Stock represented by such Certificate.

(d) The Exchange Agent and Buyer, as the case may be, shall not be obligated to deliver cash and/or a New Certificate or New Certificates representing shares of Buyer Common Stock to which a holder of Company Common Stock would otherwise be entitled as a result of the Merger until such holder surrenders the Certificate or Certificates representing the shares of Company Common Stock for exchange as provided in this Section 2.6, or an appropriate affidavit of loss and indemnity agreement and/or a bond in an amount as may be required in each case by Buyer. If any New Certificates evidencing shares of Buyer Common Stock are to be issued in a name other than that in which the Certificate evidencing Company Common Stock surrendered in exchange therefor is registered, it shall be a condition of the issuance thereof that the Certificate so surrendered shall be properly endorsed or accompanied by an executed form of assignment separate from the Certificate and otherwise in proper form for transfer, and that the Person requesting such exchange pay to the Exchange Agent any transfer or other tax required by reason of the issuance of a New Certificate for shares of Buyer Common Stock in any name other than that of the registered holder of the Certificate surrendered or otherwise establish to the satisfaction of the Exchange Agent that such tax has been paid or is not payable.

(e) Any portion of the Exchange Fund that remains unclaimed by the stockholders of the Company for six months after the Effective Time (as well as any interest or proceeds from any investment thereof) shall be delivered by the Exchange Agent to Buyer. Any stockholders of the Company who have not theretofore complied with Section 2.6(b) shall thereafter look only to the Surviving Corporation for the Merger Consideration deliverable in respect of each share of Company Common Stock such stockholder holds as determined pursuant to this Agreement, in each case without any interest thereon. If outstanding Certificates for shares of Company Common Stock are not surrendered, or the payment for them is not claimed prior to the date on which such shares of Buyer Common Stock or cash would otherwise escheat to or become the property of any governmental unit or agency, the unclaimed items shall, to the extent permitted by abandoned property and any other applicable law, become the property of Buyer (and to the extent not in its possession shall be delivered to it), free and clear of all claims or interest of any Person previously entitled to such property. Neither the Exchange Agent nor any party to this Agreement shall be liable to any holder of shares of Company Common Stock represented by any Certificate for any consideration paid to a public official pursuant to applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws. Buyer and the Exchange Agent shall be entitled to rely upon the stock transfer books of the Company to establish the identity of those Persons entitled to receive the Merger Consideration specified in this Agreement, which books shall be conclusive with respect thereto. In the event of a dispute with respect to ownership of any shares of Company Common Stock represented by any Certificate, Buyer and the Exchange Agent shall be entitled to deposit any Merger Consideration represented thereby in escrow with an independent third party and thereafter be relieved with respect to any claims thereto.

(f) Buyer (through the Exchange Agent, if applicable) shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from any amounts otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement to any holder of shares of Company Common Stock such amounts as Buyer is required to deduct and withhold under applicable law. Any amounts so deducted and withheld shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of Company Common Stock in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made by Buyer.

2.7 Anti-Dilution Provisions. In the event Buyer or the Company changes (or establishes a record date for changing) the number of, or provides for the exchange of, shares of Buyer Common Stock or Company Common Stock issued and outstanding prior to the Effective Time as a result of a stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization, reclassification, or similar transaction with respect to the outstanding Buyer Common Stock or Company Common Stock and the record date therefor shall be prior to the Effective Time, the Exchange Ratio and/or the Cash Consideration shall be proportionately and appropriately adjusted; provided, however, that, for the avoidance of doubt, no such adjustment shall be made with regard to the Buyer Common Stock if (i) Buyer issues additional shares of Buyer Common Stock and receives consideration for such shares in a bona fide third party transaction or (ii) Buyer issues employee or director stock grants or similar equity awards or shares of Buyer Common Stock underlying the same.

2.8 Reservation of Right to Revise Structure. Buyer may at any time change the method of effecting the business combination contemplated by this Agreement if and to the extent that it deems such a change to be desirable; provided, however, that no such change shall (a) alter or change the amount of the consideration to be issued to holders of Company Common Stock as merger consideration as currently contemplated in this Agreement, (b) reasonably be expected to materially impede or delay consummation of the Merger, (c) adversely affect the federal income tax treatment of holders of Company Common Stock in connection with the Merger, or (d) require submission to or approval of the Company's stockholders after the plan of merger set forth in this Agreement has been approved by the Company's stockholders. In the event that Buyer elects to make such a change, the parties agree to execute appropriate documents to reflect the change.

Except for the Voting Agreements, there are no agreements to which the Company is a party with respect to the voting, sale or transfer, or registration of any securities of the Company. Each of Buyer and the Company agree to use its reasonable best efforts to cause the Registration Statement to be declared effective by the SEC as promptly as reasonably practicable after the filing thereof. The Company agrees to cooperate with Buyer and Buyer's counsel and accountants in requesting and obtaining appropriate opinions, consents and letters from the Company's independent registered public accounting firm and other representatives, as applicable, in connection with the Registration Statement and the Proxy Statement/Prospectus. After the Registration Statement is declared effective under the Securities Act, the Company, at its expense, shall promptly mail the Proxy Statement/Prospectus to its stockholders.

Each of Buyer and the Company further agrees that if it shall become aware, prior to the Company Meeting, of any information that would cause any of the statements in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus to be false or misleading with respect to any material fact, or to omit to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein not false or misleading, it shall promptly inform the other party thereof and shall take the necessary steps to correct the Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

Neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries shall be required to provide access to or to disclose information where such access jeopardizes the attorney client privilege of the institution in possession or control of such information or contravenes any law, rule, regulation, order, judgment or decree. (b) Buyer agrees to hold all information and documents obtained pursuant to this Section 6.4 in confidence (as provided in, and subject to the provisions of, the Confidentiality Agreement (as defined in Section 9.3), as if it were the party receiving the confidential information as described therein). No investigation by one party of the business and affairs of the other party shall affect or be deemed to modify or waive any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement in this Agreement, or the conditions to each party's obligation to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

6.5 No Solicitation.

(a) The Company shall not, and shall cause its Subsidiaries and the respective officers, directors, employees, investment bankers, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, consultants, affiliates and other agents of the Company and its Subsidiaries (collectively, the Company Representatives) not to, directly or indirectly, (i) initiate, solicit, induce or knowingly encourage, or take any action to facilitate the making of, any inquiry, offer or proposal which constitutes, or could reasonably be expected to lead to, an Acquisition Proposal; (ii) participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding any Acquisition Proposal or furnish, or otherwise afford access, to any Person (other than Buyer) any information or data with respect to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or otherwise relating to an Acquisition Proposal; (iii) release any Person from, waive any provisions of, or fail to enforce any confidentiality agreement or standstill agreement to which the Company is a party; or (iv) enter into any agreement, agreement in principle or letter of intent with respect to any Acquisition Proposal or approve or resolve to approve any Acquisition Proposal or any agreement, agreement in principle or letter of intent relating to an Acquisition Proposal. Any violation of the foregoing restrictions by any of the Company Representatives, whether or not such Company Representative is so authorized and whether or not such Company Representative is purporting to act on behalf of the Company or otherwise, shall be deemed to be a breach of this Agreement by the Company. The Company and its Subsidiaries shall, and shall cause each of the Company Representatives to, immediately (i) cease and cause to be terminated any and all existing discussions, negotiations, and communications with any Persons with respect to any existing or potential Acquisition Proposal and (ii) request the prompt return or destruction of all confidential information previously made available by it or on its behalf in connection with any actual or potential Acquisition Proposals.

For purposes of this Agreement, Acquisition Proposal shall mean any inquiry, offer or proposal (other than an inquiry, offer or proposal from Buyer), whether or not in writing, contemplating, relating to, or that could reasonably be expected to lead to, an Acquisition Transaction. For purposes of this Agreement, Acquisition Transaction shall mean (A) any transaction or series of transactions involving any merger, consolidation, recapitalization, share exchange, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction involving the Company or any of its Subsidiaries; (B) any transaction pursuant to which any third party or group acquires or would acquire (whether through sale, lease or other disposition), directly or indirectly, any assets of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries representing, in the aggregate, 15% or more of the assets of the Company and its Subsidiaries on a consolidated basis; (C) any issuance, sale or other disposition of (including by way of merger, consolidation, share exchange or any similar transaction) securities (or options, rights or warrants to purchase or securities convertible into, such securities) representing 15% or more of the votes attached to the outstanding securities of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries; (D) any tender offer or exchange offer that, if consummated, would result in any third party or group beneficially owning 15% or more of any class of equity securities of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries; or (E) any transaction which is similar in form, substance or purpose to any of the foregoing transactions, or any combination of the foregoing.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 6.5(a), prior to the date of the Company Meeting, the Company may take any of the actions described in clause (ii) of Section 6.5(a) if, but only if, (i) the Company has received a bona fide unsolicited written Acquisition Proposal that did not result from a breach of this Section 6.5; (ii) the Company Board determines in good faith, (A) after consultation with its outside legal counsel and its independent financial advisor, that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes or is reasonably likely to lead to a Superior Proposal and (B) after consultation with its outside legal counsel, that it is required to take such actions to comply with the standard of conduct required of a board of directors under the PBCL or other fiduciary duties owed to the Company's stockholders under applicable law; (iii) the Company has provided Buyer with at least three Business Days' prior notice of such determination; and (iv) prior to furnishing or affording access to any information or data with respect to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or otherwise relating to an Acquisition Proposal, the Company receives from such Person a confidentiality agreement with terms no less favorable to the Company than those contained in the Confidentiality Agreement. The Company shall promptly provide to Buyer any non-public information regarding the Company or its Subsidiaries provided to any other Person which was not previously provided to Buyer, such additional information to be provided no later than the date of provision of such information to such other party.

For purposes of this Agreement, Superior Proposal shall mean any bona fide written proposal (on its most recently amended or modified terms, if amended or modified) made by a third party to enter into an Acquisition Transaction on terms that the Company Board determines in its good faith judgment, after consultation with outside legal counsel and its independent financial advisor (i) would, if consummated, result in the acquisition of all, but not less than all, of the issued and outstanding shares of Company Common Stock or all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company and its Subsidiaries on a consolidated basis; (ii) would result in a transaction that (A) involves consideration to the holders of the shares of Company Common Stock that is more favorable, from a financial point of view, than the consideration to be paid to the Company's stockholders pursuant to this Agreement, considering, among other things, the nature of the consideration being offered and any material regulatory approvals or other risks associated with the proposed transaction including, without limitation, the timing thereof, beyond or in addition to those specifically contemplated hereby, and which proposal is not conditioned upon obtaining financing and (B) is, in light of the other terms of such proposal, more favorable to the Company's stockholders than the Merger and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; and (iii) is reasonably likely to be completed on the terms proposed, in each case taking into account all legal, financial, regulatory and other aspects of the proposal.

(c) The Company shall promptly (and in any event within 24 hours) notify Buyer in writing if any inquiries, proposals or offers are received by, any information is requested from, or any negotiations or discussions are sought to be initiated or continued with, the Company or the Company Representatives, in each case in connection with any Acquisition Proposal, and such notice shall indicate the name of the Person initiating such discussions or negotiations or making such inquiry, proposal, offer or information request and the material terms and conditions of any proposals or offers and, in the case of written materials relating to such inquiry, proposal, offer, information request, negotiations or discussion, providing copies of such materials (including e-mails or other electronic communications). The Company agrees that it shall keep Buyer informed, on a reasonably current basis (and in any event within 24 hours), of the status and terms of any material developments with respect to such inquiry, proposal, offer, information request, negotiations or discussions (including, in each case, any amendments or modifications thereto). The Company shall provide Buyer and Buyer Bank with at least 48 hours prior notice of any meeting of the Company Board at which the Company Board is reasonably expected to consider any Acquisition Proposal.

(d) Neither the Company Board nor any committee thereof shall (i) withdraw, qualify, amend, modify or withhold, or propose to withdraw, qualify, amend, modify or withhold, in a manner adverse to Buyer in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (including the Merger), the Company Recommendation, fail to reaffirm the Company Recommendation within three Business Days following a request by Buyer, or make any statement, announcement, or release, in connection with the Company Meeting or otherwise, inconsistent with the Company Recommendation (it being understood that taking a neutral position or no position with respect to an Acquisition Proposal shall be considered an adverse modification of the Company Recommendation); (ii) approve or recommend, or propose to approve or recommend, any Acquisition Proposal; or (iii) enter into (or cause the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to enter into) any letter of intent, agreement in principle, acquisition agreement or other agreement (A) related to any Acquisition Transaction (other than a confidentiality agreement entered into in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.5(b)) or (B) requiring the Company to abandon, terminate or fail to consummate the Merger or any other transaction contemplated by this Agreement.

(e) Notwithstanding Section 6.5(d), prior to the date of the Company Meeting, the Company Board may withdraw, qualify, amend or modify the Company Recommendation (a Company Subsequent Determination) after the fifth Business Day following Buyer's receipt of a notice (the Notice of Superior Proposal) from the Company advising Buyer that the Company Board has decided that a bona fide unsolicited written Acquisition Proposal that it received (that did not result from a breach of this Section 6.5) constitutes a Superior Proposal if, but only if, (i) the Company Board has reasonably determined in good faith, after consultation with outside legal counsel, that it is required to take such actions to comply with the standard of conduct required of a board of directors under the PBCL or other fiduciary duties owed to the Company's stockholders under applicable law, (ii) during the five Business Day period after receipt of the Notice of Superior Proposal by Buyer (the Notice Period), the Company and the Company Board shall have cooperated and negotiated in good faith with Buyer to make such adjustments, modifications or amendments to the terms and conditions of this Agreement as would enable the Company to proceed with the Company Recommendation without a Company Subsequent Determination; provided, however, that Buyer shall not have any obligation to propose any adjustments, modifications or amendments to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and (iii) at the end of the Notice Period, after taking into account any such adjusted, modified or amended terms as may have been proposed by Buyer since its receipt of such Notice of Superior Proposal, the Company Board has again in good faith made the determination (A) in clause (i) of this Section 6.5(e) and (B) that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal. In the event of any material revisions to the Superior Proposal, the Company shall be required to deliver a new Notice of Superior Proposal to Buyer and again comply with the requirements of this Section 6.5(e), except that the Notice Period shall be reduced to three Business Days.

(f) Notwithstanding any Company Subsequent Determination, this Agreement shall be submitted to the Company's stockholders at the Company Meeting for the purpose of voting on, the approval of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby (including the Merger) and nothing contained herein shall be deemed to relieve the Company of such obligation; provided, however, that if the Company Board shall have made a Company Subsequent Determination, then the Company Board may submit this Agreement to the Company's stockholders without recommendation (although the resolutions adopting this Agreement as of the date hereof may not be rescinded), in which event the Company Board may communicate the basis for its lack of a recommendation to the Company's stockholders in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus or an appropriate amendment or supplement thereto. In addition to the foregoing, the Company Board shall not submit to the vote of its stockholders any Acquisition Proposal other than the Merger at the Company Meeting.

6.6 Takeover Laws. No party shall take any action that would cause the transactions contemplated by this Agreement to be subject to requirements imposed by any Takeover Laws, as applicable, and each party shall take all necessary steps within its control to exempt (or ensure the continued exemption of) the transactions contemplated by this Agreement from, or if necessary challenge the validity or applicability of, any applicable Takeover Laws, as now or hereafter in effect, that purports to apply to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby.

6.7 Shares Listed. Prior to the Effective Time, to the extent required by NASDAQ, Buyer shall file a notice of additional listing of shares with NASDAQ with respect to the shares of Buyer Common Stock to be issued to the holders of the Company Common Stock in the Merger.

6.8 Regulatory Applications; Filings; Consents. Buyer and the Company and their respective Subsidiaries shall cooperate and use their respective reasonable best efforts (a) to promptly prepare all documentation, effect all filings and obtain all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and Governmental Authorities necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including, without limitation, the Regulatory Approvals, and (b) to comply with the terms and conditions of such permits, consents, approvals and authorizations; provided, however, that in no event shall Buyer be required to (i) agree to any prohibition, limitation, condition or other requirement which would (A) prohibit or materially limit the ownership or operation by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, or by Buyer or any of its Subsidiaries, of all or any material portion of the business or assets of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or Buyer or any of its Subsidiaries, (B) compel Buyer or any of its Subsidiaries to dispose of or hold separate all or any material portion of the business or assets of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or Buyer or any of its Subsidiaries, or (C) compel Buyer or any of its Subsidiaries to take any action, or commit to take any action, or agree to any condition or request, if the prohibition, limitation, condition or other requirement described in clauses (A)-(C) of this sentence would have a material adverse effect on the future operation by Buyer and its Subsidiaries of their business, taken as a whole, or (ii) agree to any condition or make any commitment that (A) is not comparable to those imposed in connection with comparable transactions in the United States and that would not be reasonably foreseeable based upon publicly available information or discussions or communications prior to the date of this Agreement involving Buyer or any of its Subsidiaries and any regulatory authority and (B) would have a material adverse effect on the future operation by Buyer and its Subsidiaries of their business, taken as a whole ((i) and (ii) together, the Burdensome Conditions). Provided that the Company has cooperated as required above, Buyer agrees to file the requisite applications or notices to be filed by it with the FRB and the Pennsylvania Department of Banking and Securities. Each of Buyer and the Company shall have the right to review in advance, and to the extent practicable each will consult with the other, in each case subject to applicable laws relating to the exchange of information, with respect to, all material written information submitted to any third party or any Governmental Authority in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. In exercising the foregoing right, each of the parties hereto agrees to act reasonably and as promptly as practicable. Each party hereto agrees that it will consult with the other parties hereto with respect to the obtaining of all material permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and Governmental Authorities necessary or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and each party will keep the other parties reasonably apprised of the status of material matters relating to completion of the transactions contemplated hereby.

6.9 Indemnification; Directors and Officers Insurance.

(a) Buyer agrees that all rights to indemnification and all limitations of liability existing in favor of any director, officer or employee of the Company or its Subsidiaries (the Indemnified Parties) as provided in the Company's Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws or in the similar governing documents of the Company's Subsidiaries or as provided in applicable law as in effect as of the date hereof with respect to matters occurring on or prior to the Effective Time shall survive the Merger.

(b) Prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall purchase an extended reporting period endorsement under the Company's existing directors and officers liability insurance coverage for the Company's directors and officers in a form acceptable to the Company which shall provide such directors and officers with coverage for six years following the Effective Time of not less than the existing coverage under, and have other terms at least as favorable to, the insured persons than the directors and officers liability insurance coverage presently maintained by the Company, so long as the aggregate cost is not more than 200% of the annual premium currently paid by the Company for such insurance (the Premium Limit). In the event that the Premium Limit is insufficient for such coverage, the Company may enter into an agreement to spend up to that amount to purchase such lesser coverage as may be obtained with such amount.

(c) In the event Buyer or any of its successors or assigns (i) consolidates with or merges into any other Person and shall not be the continuing or surviving corporation or entity of such consolidation or merger, or (ii) transfers or conveys all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any Person, then, and in each such case, to the extent necessary, proper provision shall be made so that the successors and assigns of Buyer shall assume the obligations set forth in this Section 6.9.

(d) The provisions of this Section 6.9 are intended to be for the benefit of, and to grant third party rights to, and shall be enforceable by, each Indemnified Party and his or her heirs and representatives.

6.10 Employees and Benefit Plans.

(a) From and for, at least, the 12 month period after the Effective Time, Buyer agrees to provide the employees of the Company and any of its Subsidiaries who remain employed after the Effective Time (collectively, the Company Employees) with at least the types and levels of employee benefits substantially comparable in the aggregate to those then maintained by Buyer for similarly-situated employees of Buyer. Buyer will treat, and cause its applicable Buyer Employee Programs to treat, the service of the Company Employees with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries as service rendered to Buyer or any of its Subsidiaries for purposes of eligibility to participate, vesting and for level of benefits (but not for benefit accrual under any defined benefit plan) attributable to any period before the Effective Time. Without limiting the foregoing, but subject to the terms and conditions of Buyer's applicable Employee Programs, Buyer shall take commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Company's employees to receive credit for their prior service for eligibility and vesting purposes in Buyer's 401(k) plan and for purposes of determining the length of vacation, sick time, paid time off and severance under Buyer's applicable plan or policy. Buyer shall also provide that the Company's employees shall not be treated as new employees for purposes of any exclusions under any health or similar plan of Buyer for a pre-existing medical condition to the extent that any such exclusion did not apply under a health or similar plan of the Company or its Subsidiaries immediately prior to the Effective Time, and shall use commercially reasonable efforts to provide that any deductibles, co-payments or out-of-pocket expenses paid under any of the Company's or any of its Subsidiaries' health plans shall be credited towards deductibles, co-payments or out-of-pocket expenses under Buyer's health plans upon delivery to Buyer of appropriate documentation, subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable Employee Program. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 6.10, service and other amounts shall not be credited to Company Employees (or their eligible dependents) to the extent the crediting of such service or other amounts would result in the duplication of benefits. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing to the contrary, none of the provisions contained herein shall operate to duplicate any benefit provided to any Company Employee or the funding of any such benefit.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, Buyer shall have sole discretion with respect to the determination as to whether or when to terminate, merge or continue any employee benefit plans and programs of the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, unless a Company Employee affirmatively terminates coverage (or causes coverage to terminate) under a Company health plan prior to the time such Company Employee becomes eligible to participate in a health plan of Buyer or Buyer's Subsidiary, no coverage of any of the Company Employees or their dependents shall terminate under any of the Company health plans prior to the time such Company Employees and their dependents become eligible to participate in the health plans, programs and benefits common to all employees of Buyer or any Buyer Subsidiary and their dependents.

ANNEX B

STATUTORY PROVISIONS RELATING TO DISSENTERS RIGHTS

THE PENNSYLVANIA BUSINESS CORPORATION LAW OF 1988, AS AMENDED

Excerpt from Chapter 15 Subchapter C, 15 PA. CONS. STAT. § 333

§ 333. Approval of merger.

(a) Approval by domestic entities. A plan of merger shall not be effective unless it has been approved in both of the following ways:

(1) The plan is approved by a domestic entity that is a merging association in accordance with the applicable provisions of Subchapter B (relating to approval of entity transactions).

(2) The plan is approved in record form by each interest holder, if any, of a domestic entity that is a merging association that will have interest holder liability for debts, obligations and other liabilities that arise after the merger becomes effective, unless, as to an interest holder that does not approve the plan, both of the following apply:

(i) The organic rules of the domestic entity provide in record form for the approval of a merger in which some or all of its interest holders become subject to interest holder liability by the vote or consent of fewer than all the interest holders.

(ii) The interest holder consented in record form to or voted for that provision of the organic rules or became an interest holder after the adoption of that provision.

(b) Approval by foreign associations. A merger under this subchapter in which a foreign association is a merging association is not effective unless the merger is approved by the foreign association in accordance with the laws of its jurisdiction of formation.

(c) Approval by domestic banking institutions. A merger under this subchapter in which a domestic banking institution that is not a domestic entity is a merging association is not effective unless the merger is approved by the domestic banking institution in accordance with the requirements in its organic laws and organic rules for approval of a merger.

(d) Dissenters rights.

(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), if a shareholder of a domestic business corporation that is to be a merging association objects to the plan of merger and complies with Subchapter D of Chapter 15 (relating to dissenters rights), the shareholder shall be entitled to dissenters rights to the extent provided in that subchapter.

(2) Except as provided under section 317 (relating to contractual dissenters rights in entity transactions), dissenters rights shall not be available to shareholders of a domestic business corporation that is a merging association in a merger described in section 321(d)(1)(i) or (4) (relating to approval by business corporation).

(3) If a shareholder of a domestic banking institution that is to be a merging association objects to the plan of merger and complies with section 1222 of the act of November 30, 1965 (P.L.847, No.356), known as the Banking Code of 1965, the shareholder shall be entitled to the rights provided in that section.

(4) See section 329 (relating to special treatment of interest holders).

(1) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (2), the holders of the shares of any class or series of shares shall not have the right to dissent and obtain payment of the fair value of the shares under this subchapter if, on the record date fixed to determine the shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the meeting at which a plan specified in any of section 333, 343, 353, 363 or 1932(c) is to be voted on or on the date of the first public announcement that such a plan has been approved by the shareholders by consent without a meeting, the shares are either:

(3) The shareholders of a corporation that acquires by purchase, lease, exchange or other disposition all or substantially all of the shares, property or assets of another corporation by the issuance of shares, obligations or otherwise, with or without assuming the liabilities of the other corporation and with or without the intervention of another corporation or other person, shall not be entitled to the rights and remedies of dissenting shareholders provided in this subchapter regardless of the fact, if it be the case, that the acquisition was accomplished by the issuance of voting shares of the corporation to be outstanding immediately after the acquisition sufficient to elect a majority or more of the directors of the corporation.

(c) Grant of optional dissenters rights. The bylaws or a resolution of the board of directors may direct that all or a part of the shareholders shall have dissenters rights in connection with any corporate action or other transaction that would otherwise not entitle such shareholders to dissenters rights. See section 317 (relating to contractual dissenters rights in entity transactions).

(d) Notice of dissenters rights. Unless otherwise provided by statute, if a proposed corporate action that would give rise to dissenters rights under this subpart is submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, there shall be included in or enclosed with the notice of meeting:

(e) Other statutes. The procedures of this subchapter shall also be applicable to any transaction described in any statute other than this part that makes reference to this subchapter for the purpose of granting dissenters rights.

(f) Certain provisions of articles ineffective. This subchapter may not be relaxed by any provision of the articles.

(g) Computation of beneficial ownership. For purposes of subsection (b)(1)(ii), shares that are held beneficially as joint tenants, tenants by the entirety, tenants in common or in trust by two or more persons, as fiduciaries or otherwise, shall be deemed to be held beneficially by one person.

(h) Cross references. See:

§ 1572. Definitions.

The following words and phrases when used in this subchapter shall have the meanings given to them in this section unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

Corporation. The issuer of the shares held or owned by the dissenter before the corporate action or the successor by merger, consolidation, division, conversion or otherwise of that issuer. A plan of division may designate which one or more of the resulting corporations is the successor corporation for the purposes of this subchapter. The designated successor corporation or corporations in a division shall have sole responsibility for payments to dissenters and other liabilities under this subchapter except as otherwise provided in the plan of division.

Dissenter. A shareholder who is entitled to and does assert dissenters rights under this subchapter and who has performed every act required up to the time involved for the assertion of those rights.

Fair value. The fair value of shares immediately before the effectuation of the corporate action to which the dissenter objects, taking into account all relevant factors, but excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the corporate action.

B-3

Table of Contents

Interest. Interest from the effective date of the corporate action until the date of payment at such rate as is fair and equitable under all the circumstances, taking into account all relevant factors, including the average rate currently paid by the corporation on its principal bank loans.

Shareholder. A shareholder as defined in section 1103 (relating to definitions) or an ultimate beneficial owner of shares, including, without limitation, a holder of depository receipts, where the beneficial interest owned includes an interest in the assets of the corporation upon dissolution.

§ 1573. Record and beneficial holders and owners.

(a) Record holders of shares. A record holder of shares of a business corporation may assert dissenters rights as to fewer than all of the shares registered in his name only if he dissents with respect to all the shares of the same class or series beneficially owned by any one person and discloses the name and address of the person or persons on whose behalf he dissents. In that event, his rights shall be determined as if the shares as to which he has dissented and his other shares were registered in the names of different shareholders.

(b) Beneficial owners of shares. A beneficial owner of shares of a business corporation who is not the record holder may assert dissenters rights with respect to shares held on his behalf and shall be treated as a dissenting shareholder under the terms of this subchapter if he submits to the corporation not later than the time of the assertion of dissenters rights a written consent of the record holder. A beneficial owner may not dissent with respect to some but less than all shares of the same class or series owned by the owner, whether or not the shares so owned by him are registered in his name.

§ 1574. Notice of intention to dissent.

If the proposed corporate action is submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders of a business corporation, any person who wishes to dissent and obtain payment of the fair value of his shares must file with the corporation, prior to the vote, a written notice of intention to demand that he be paid the fair value for his shares if the proposed action is effectuated, must effect no change in the beneficial ownership of his shares from the date of such filing continuously through the effective date of the proposed action and must refrain from voting his shares in approval of such action. A dissenter who fails in any respect shall not acquire any right to payment of the fair value of his shares under this subchapter. Neither a proxy nor a vote against the proposed corporate action shall constitute the written notice required by this section.

§ 1575. Notice to demand payment.

(a) General rule. If the proposed corporate action is approved by the required vote at a meeting of shareholders of a business corporation, the corporation shall deliver a further notice to all dissenters who gave due notice of intention to demand payment of the fair value of their shares and who refrained from voting in favor of the proposed action. If the proposed corporate action is approved by the shareholders by less than unanimous consent without a meeting or is taken without the need for approval by the shareholders, the corporation shall deliver to all shareholders who are entitled to dissent and demand payment of the fair value of their shares a notice of the adoption of the plan or other corporate action. In either case, the notice shall:

(1) State where and when a demand for payment must be sent and certificates for certificated shares must be deposited in order to obtain payment.

(2) Inform holders of uncertificated shares to what extent transfer of shares will be restricted from the time that demand for payment is received.

(3) Supply a form for demanding payment that includes a request for certification of the date on which the shareholder, or the person on whose behalf the shareholder dissents, acquired beneficial ownership of the shares.

(4) Be accompanied by a copy of this subchapter.

(b) Time for receipt of demand for payment. The time set for receipt of the demand and deposit of certificated shares shall be not less than 30 days from the delivery of the notice.

B-4

Table of Contents

§ 1576. Failure to comply with notice to demand payment, etc.

(a) Effect of failure of shareholder to act. A shareholder who fails to timely demand payment, or fails (in the case of certificated shares) to timely deposit certificates, as required by a notice pursuant to section 1575 (relating to notice to demand payment) shall not have any right under this subchapter to receive payment of the fair value of his shares.

(b) Restriction on uncertificated shares. If the shares are not represented by certificates, the business corporation may restrict their transfer from the time of receipt of demand for payment until effectuation of the proposed corporate action or the release of restrictions under the terms of section 1577(a) (relating to failure to effectuate corporate action).

(c) Rights retained by shareholder. The dissenter shall retain all other rights of a shareholder until those rights are modified by effectuation of the proposed corporate action.

§ 1577. Release of restrictions or payment for shares.

(a) Failure to effectuate corporate action. Within 60 days after the date set for demanding payment and depositing certificates, if the business corporation has not effectuated the proposed corporate action, it shall return any certificates that have been deposited and release uncertificated shares from any transfer restrictions imposed by reason of the demand for payment.

(b) Renewal of notice to demand payment. When uncertificated shares have been released from transfer restrictions and deposited certificates have been returned, the corporation may at any later time send a new notice conforming to the requirements of section 1575 (relating to notice to demand payment), with like effect.

(c) Payment of fair value of shares. Promptly after effectuation of the proposed corporate action, or upon timely receipt of demand for payment if the corporate action has already been effectuated, the corporation shall either remit to dissenters who have made demand and (if their shares are certificated) have deposited their certificates the amount that the corporation estimates to be the fair value of the shares, or give written notice that no remittance under this section will be made. The remittance or notice shall be accompanied by:

(1) The closing balance sheet and statement of income of the issuer of the shares held or owned by the dissenter for a fiscal year ending not more than 16 months before the date of remittance or notice together with the latest available interim financial statements.

(2) A statement of the corporation's estimate of the fair value of the shares.

(3) A notice of the right of the dissenter to demand payment or supplemental payment, as the case may be, accompanied by a copy of this subchapter.

(d) Failure to make payment. If the corporation does not remit the amount of its estimate of the fair value of the shares as provided by subsection (c), it shall return any certificates that have been deposited and release uncertificated shares from any transfer restrictions imposed by reason of the demand for payment. The corporation may make a notation on any such certificate or on the records of the corporation relating to any such uncertificated shares that such demand has been made. If shares with respect to which notation has been so made shall be transferred, each new certificate issued therefor or the records relating to any transferred uncertificated shares shall bear a similar notation, together with the name of the original dissenting holder or owner of such shares. A transferee of such shares shall not acquire by such transfer any rights in the corporation other than those that the original dissenter had after making demand for payment of their fair value.

§ 1578. Estimate by dissenter of fair value of shares.

(a) General rule. If the business corporation gives notice of its estimate of the fair value of the shares, without remitting such amount, or remits payment of its estimate of the fair value of a dissenter's shares as permitted by section 1577(c) (relating to payment of fair value of shares) and the dissenter believes that the amount stated or remitted is less than the fair value of his shares, he may send to the corporation his own estimate of the fair value of the shares, which shall be deemed a demand for payment of the amount or the deficiency.

(b) Effect of failure to file estimate. Where the dissenter does not file his own estimate under subsection (a) within 30 days after the mailing by the corporation of its remittance or notice, the dissenter shall be entitled to no more than the amount stated in the notice or remitted to him by the corporation.

§ 1579. Valuation proceedings generally.

(a) General rule. Within 60 days after the latest of:

- (1) effectuation of the proposed corporate action;
- (2) timely receipt of any demands for payment under section 1575 (relating to notice to demand payment); or
- (3) timely receipt of any estimates pursuant to section 1578 (relating to estimate by dissenter of fair value of shares);

if any demands for payment remain unsettled, the business corporation may file in court an application for relief requesting that the fair value of the shares be determined by the court.

(b) Mandatory joinder of dissenters. All dissenters, wherever residing, whose demands have not been settled shall be made parties to the proceeding as in an action against their shares. A copy of the application shall be served on each such dissenter. If a dissenter is a nonresident, the copy may be served on him in the manner provided or prescribed by or pursuant to 42 Pa.C.S. Ch. 53 (relating to bases of jurisdiction and interstate and international procedure).

(c) Jurisdiction of the court. The jurisdiction of the court shall be plenary and exclusive. The court may appoint an appraiser to receive evidence and recommend a decision on the issue of fair value. The appraiser shall have such power and authority as may be specified in the order of appointment or in any amendment thereof.

(d) Measure of recovery. Each dissenter who is made a party shall be entitled to recover the amount by which the fair value of his shares is found to exceed the amount, if any, previously remitted, plus interest.

(e) Effect of corporation's failure to file application. If the corporation fails to file an application as provided in subsection (a), any dissenter who made a demand and who has not already settled his claim against the corporation may do so in the name of the corporation at any time within 30 days after the expiration of the 60-day period. If a dissenter does not file an application within the 30-day period, each dissenter entitled to file an application shall be paid the corporation's estimate of the fair value of the shares and no more, and may bring an action to recover any amount not previously remitted.

§ 1580. Costs and expenses of valuation proceedings.

(a) General rule. The costs and expenses of any proceeding under section 1579 (relating to valuation proceedings generally), including the reasonable compensation and expenses of the appraiser appointed by the court, shall be determined by the court and assessed against the business corporation except that any part of the costs and expenses may be apportioned and assessed as the court deems appropriate against all or some of the dissenters who are parties and whose action in demanding supplemental payment under section 1578 (relating to estimate by dissenter of fair value of shares) the court finds to be dilatory, obdurate, arbitrary, vexatious or in bad faith.

(b) Assessment of counsel fees and expert fees where lack of good faith appears. Fees and expenses of counsel and of experts for the respective parties may be assessed as the court deems appropriate against the corporation and in favor of any or all dissenters if the corporation failed to comply substantially with the requirements of this subchapter and may be assessed against either the corporation or a dissenter, in favor of any other party, if the court finds that the party against whom the fees and expenses are assessed acted in bad faith or in a dilatory, obdurate, arbitrary or vexatious manner in respect to the rights provided by this subchapter.

(c) Award of fees for benefits to other dissenters. If the court finds that the services of counsel for any dissenter were of substantial benefit to other dissenters similarly situated and should not be assessed against the corporation, it may award to those counsel reasonable fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded to the dissenters who were benefited implication or effect thereof for purposes of our analyses or opinion. If the outcome of such litigation had been known or assumed to have a material effect on Orrstown, then the conclusion reached in our opinion could have been affected.

This opinion is based on conditions as they existed and the information we received, as of the date of this opinion. Ambassador does not have any obligation to update, revise or reaffirm this opinion. Ambassador expresses no opinion as to the actual value of Orrstown Common Stock when issued in the Merger or the prices at which Mercersburg Common Stock or Orrstown Common Stock might trade at any time.

We also have assumed, with your consent, that, in the course of obtaining the necessary governmental, regulatory and other third party approvals, consents and releases for the Merger, including with respect to any divestiture or other requirements, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition will be imposed that would have an adverse effect on Mercersburg, Orrstown or the Merger (including the contemplated benefits thereof). We also have assumed, with your consent, that the final Merger Agreement will not differ from the draft reviewed by us in any respect material to our analyses or opinion. We further have assumed, with your consent, that the Merger will qualify for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

We express no view or opinion as to any terms or other aspects (other than the Merger Consideration to the extent expressly specified herein) of the Merger or any related transaction, including, without limitation, the form of the Merger Consideration or the allocation thereof between cash and Orrstown Common Stock or the relative fairness of the Cash Consideration and the Stock Consideration. Our opinion does not address the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any other transaction or business strategy in which Mercersburg might engage or the merits of the underlying decision by Mercersburg to engage in the Merger. Ambassador expresses no opinion with respect to the fairness of the amount or nature of any compensation to any of the officers, directors, or employees of any party to the Merger, or any class of such persons, relative to the Merger Consideration or otherwise.

Ambassador's fairness committee has approved the issuance of this fairness opinion letter.

Mercersburg has engaged the services of Ambassador to act as its financial advisor in connection with the Merger and has agreed to pay Ambassador a fee for such services, a portion of which is payable upon presentation of this opinion and execution of the Merger Agreement and a significant portion of Ambassador's fee is contingent upon the closing of the Merger. In addition, portions of Ambassador's fee became payable upon the signing of our engagement agreement and upon the signing of the exclusivity agreement between Mercersburg and Orrstown, and a portion of Ambassador's fee will be payable upon the mailing of Mercersburg's proxy statement to its shareholders regarding the Merger. Our opinion is not intended to and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder as to how such shareholder should vote or act with respect to the Merger or any matter relating thereto or whether such shareholder should to elect to receive the Cash Consideration or the Stock Consideration.

Based on the foregoing, our experience, and other factors we deemed relevant, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, that the Merger Consideration to be received by the holders of Mercersburg Common Stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement is fair to such holders from a financial point of view.

PART II

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

The following is only a general summary of certain aspects of Pennsylvania law and Orrstown Financial Services articles of incorporation and bylaws related to the indemnification of directors and officers, and does not purport to be complete. It is qualified in its entirety by reference to the detailed provisions of Sections 1741-1850 of the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, or PBCL.

Sections 1741-1743 of the PBCL provide that a business corporation may indemnify directors and officers against liabilities they may incur in such capacities provided certain standards are met, including good faith and the belief that the particular action is in the best interests of the corporation. In general, this power to indemnify does not exist in the case of actions against a director or officer by or in the right of the corporation if the person entitled to indemnification shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless and only to the extent a court determines that the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification. A corporation is required to indemnify directors and officers against expenses they may incur in defending actions against them in such capacities if they are successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of such actions. Section 1746 of the PBCL provides that the foregoing provisions shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which a person seeking indemnification may be entitled under, among other things, any by-law provision, provided that no indemnification may be made in any case where the act or failure or act giving rise to the claim for indemnification is determined by a court to have constituted willful misconduct or recklessness. Section 1747 of the PBCL authorizes a corporation to purchase insurance for directors and other representatives. The foregoing statement is subject to the detailed provisions of Section 1741-1850 of the PBCL.

The bylaws of Orrstown Financial Services, Inc. provide for indemnification of directors and officers to the extent provided in the PBCL. In accordance with Section 1713 of the PBCL, the bylaws of the Registrant also include a provision that the directors of the Registrant shall not be personally liable for monetary damages such for any action taken, or failure to take any action, unless: (1) the director has breached or failed to perform the duties of his office in good faith, in a manner he reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the company and with such care, including reasonable inquiry, skill and diligence, as a person of ordinary prudence would use under similar circumstances; and (2) the breach or failure to perform constitute self-dealing, willful misconduct or recklessness. Pursuant to Section 1713 of the PBCL, this limitation of personal liability does not apply to (i) the responsibility or liability of a director pursuant to any criminal statute or (ii) the liability of a director for the payment of taxes pursuant to federal state or local law.

Further, the Registrant may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the Registrant or is or was serving at the request of the Registrant as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Registrant would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of the articles of incorporation.

(c) Not applicable.

Item 22. Undertakings.

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

II-1

Table of Contents

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective registration statement; and

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(4) That, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser, each prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) as part of a registration statement relating to an offering, other than registration statements relying on Rule 430B or other than prospectuses filed in reliance on Rule 430A, shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the date it is first used after effectiveness. Provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such first use, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such date of first use.

(5) That, in a primary offering of securities of the undersigned registrant pursuant to this registration statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, the undersigned registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser:

(i) Any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of the undersigned registrant relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424 (§230.424 of this chapter);

(ii) Any free writing prospectus relating to the offering prepared by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant or used or referred to by the undersigned registrant;

(iii) The portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about the undersigned registrant or its securities provided by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant; and

(iv) Any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the undersigned registrant to the purchaser.

(6) That, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(7) That prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to offerings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of the applicable form.

(8) That every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (7) immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(9) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

(10) To respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11 or 13 of this Form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

(11) To supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the registration statement when it became effective.
