Arbitration Update

As previously disclosed by RigNet, Inc. (the Company) is party to arbitration proceedings stemming from a dispute with Inmarsat Global Limited (Inmarsat). In October 2016, Inmarsat initiated arbitration proceedings with the International Centre for Dispute Resolution (the GX Arbitration) concerning the Company's January 2014 take or pay agreement with Inmarsat to purchase up to $65.0 million, under certain conditions, of GX capacity over several years. Phase I of the arbitration concerned whether the Company's take or pay obligation ever commenced under the agreement. Phase II of the arbitration concerns the Company's significant counterclaims against Inmarsat which will be heard at a hearing scheduled in June 2019.

On December 3, 2018, the Company announced the arbitration panel issued a ruling on November 29, 2018 concluding Phase I of the GX Arbitration. The arbitration panel found that the Company's minimum revenue commitment had commenced and calculated that the Company owed Inmarsat $50.8 million, subject to any offsets from the Company's counterclaims in Phase II of the arbitration. The arbitration panel will not enter a final enforceable order until the conclusion of Phase II, and no payment with respect to Phase I is due at this time. The Company currently expects a ruling on Phase II of the arbitration proceedings in the second half of 2019.

The full text of the press release announcing the Phase I ruling of the GX arbitration is furnished as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and shall not be deemed filed for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that Section.
