Report of Independent Auditors

(Translation of a report originally issued in Spanish--See Note 2 (b))

To the Shareholders and Directors of Compañía de Telecomunicaciones de Chile S.A.:

We have reviewed the consolidated balance sheets of Compañía de Telecomunicaciones de Chile S.A. and Subsidiaries as of March 31, 2007 and 2006, and the related consolidated statements of income and cash flow for the three-month periods then ended. These interim financial statements and the accompanying notes are the responsibility of the management of Compañía de Telecomunicaciones de Chile S.A. The accompanying Management's Discussion and Analysis of the Consolidated Financial Statements is not an integral part of these financial statements, and therefore this report does not cover this item.

We conducted our reviews in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards in Chile for a review of interim financial information. A review of interim financial information consists principally of applying analytical procedures to the financial statements and making inquiries of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters. The scope of this review is substantially less than an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards in Chile, the objective of which is to express an opinion regarding the consolidated financial statement taken as a whole. Accordingly, we do not have the ability to express, and we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review of the interim consolidated financial statements as of March 31, 2007 and 2006, we are not aware of any material modifications that are required for them to be in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in Chile.

Fixed income securities and shares are recorded at their price-level restated cost plus interest accrued as of each period end using the actual interest yield determined at the purchase date, or their market value, whichever is less.

(i) Inventories:

Depending on the nature of respective items, equipment held for sale is carried at the lower of either its price-level restated acquisition or development cost or at its market value.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies, continued:

(k) Property, plant and equipment:

Property, plant and equipment are carried at their price-level restated acquisition or construction cost.

Property, plant and equipment acquired up to December 31, 1979 are carried at their appraisal value, as stipulated in Article 140 of D.F.L. No. 4. Some assets subsequently acquired were subject to a technical revaluation to their appraisal value recorded as of September 30, 1986, as authorized in SVS Circular No. 550. All these values have been price-level restated.

(l) Depreciation of property, plant and equipment:

Depreciation has been calculated and recorded on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of the assets. The average annual financial depreciation rate of the Company is approximately 8.27% .

The estimated useful lives are summarized as follows:

Assets	Range of years
Buildings	40
Central telephone equipment	7 to 12
Subscriber equipment	4
External plant	20 to 40
Office furniture and equipment	4 to 10
Software	3
Others	4 to 10

(m) Leased assets:

Leased assets with a purchase option, whose contracts satisfy the characteristics of a financial lease, are recorded similarly to the acquisition of property, plant and equipment, recognizing the full obligation and interest on an accrual basis. These assets are not legally owned by the Company; therefore, until it exercises the purchase option, they cannot be freely disposed of.

(n) Intangibles:

i) Rights to underwater cable:

Rights to underwater cable correspond to the rights acquired by the Company for the use of an underwater cable to transmit voice and data. These rights are amortized over the term of the respective contracts, with a maximum of 25 years.

ii) Software licenses:

Software licenses are valued at their price-level restated acquisition cost. Amortization is calculated using the straight-line method over their estimated useful life, which does not exceed 3 years.

(Translation of a report originally issued in Spanish – see Note 2 to the Financial Statements)
Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies, continued:

(ñ) Investments in related companies:

These investments are accounted for under the equity method, which recognizes the investor's share of income on an accrual basis. For investments abroad, the valuation methodology as defined in Technical Bulletin No. 64 is applied. Investments in countries deemed to be unstable and whose activities are not an extension of the operations of the Parent Company are controlled in US dollars.

(o) Goodwill:

This account corresponds to the differences originated when adopting the equity method and adjusting the cost of investments, or with the realization of new acquisitions. Goodwill and negative goodwill amortization periods have been determined considering aspects such as the nature and characteristics of the business and the estimated period of return of the investment (Note 12).

(p) Transactions with repurchase agreements:

Purchases of financial instruments including repurchase agreements are recorded as fixed rate instruments and are classified as Other Current Assets (Note 8).

(q) Obligations with the public:

Bonds payable are presented under liabilities at the par value of the issued bonds (note 17b). The difference between par and placement value, determined on the basis of the actual interest rate for the transaction, is deferred and amortized over the term of the respective bond (Notes 8 and 14).

Commercial papers are presented under liabilities at placement value plus accrued interest (Note 17a).

Costs directly related to the placement of these obligations are deferred and amortized over the term of the respective liability (notes 8 y 14).

(r) Current and deferred income taxes:

Income tax is recorded on the basis of taxable net income. Deferred taxes on all temporary differences, tax loss carry forwards that can be realized as future tax benefits, and other events that create differences between the tax and accounting values are recognized in accordance with Technical Bulletins No. 60 and complementary technical bulletins thereto issued by the Chilean Association of Accountants, and with SVS Circular No.1,466 dated January 27, 2000.

(s) Staff severance indemnities:

For employees who qualify for this benefit, the Company's staff severance indemnities obligation is provided for by applying the present value method to the projected benefit obligation using an annual discount rate of 6%, considering assumptions about the future service period of the employees, mortality rate of employees and salary increases used as the basis of actuarial calculations.

Costs for past services of employees resulting from changes in assumptions used as the actuarial bases, are deferred and amortized over average of the employees' future service periods (Note 8 and 14).

(2) With the implementation of new contractual conditions derived from the organizational changes in the Company, there have been a series of studies that allowed, with primary effect in 2004, the modification in the calculation basis for staff severance indemnities of the variable for future service life of employees. After concluding these studies, in 2005, other changes in estimates were incorporated, such as personnel fluctuation rate, mortality of employees and future salary increases and includes the rate change mentioned in Note 3 b (i) for 2006, all determined on the basis of actuarial calculations, as established in Technical Bulletin No. 8 of the Chilean Association of Accountants. The short-term portion is presented under Other Current Assets (Note 8).

The difference at the beginning of the year as a result of changes in the actuarial estimates constitutes actuarial gains or losses, which are deferred and amortized over the estimated average remaining future service life of the employees that will receive the benefit (see Note 2 (s)).

(3) In conformity with the union agreements between the Company and its employees, loans were granted to employees, the amounts and conditions of which were based, among other aspects, on the accrued balances of staff severance indemnities at the date of the grant. The staff severance indemnities provision has been recorded in part at its current value, deferring and amortizing this effect over the years of average remaining future service life of employees that subscribe to the benefit. The loan is presented under Other Long-term Receivables.

28. Contingencies and commitments:

a) Lawsuits against the Government:

i) On October 31, 2001, Telefónica Chile filed an administrative motion before the Ministry of Transport and Telecommunications and the Ministry of Economy, requesting correction of the errors and illegalities in Rate Decree No. 187 of 1999. On January 29, 2002, the Ministries issued a joint response rejecting the administrative recourse, after having carefully evaluated, only the viability and timeliness of the petition made, considering the set of circumstances that concur in the problem stated and the prudence that must orient public actions, adding that such rejection has had no other motivation than to protect the general interest and progress of the telecommunications services.

Upon extinguishing the administrative instances to correct the errors and illegalities involved in the tariff setting process of 1999, in March 2002, Telefónica Chile filed a lawsuit for damages against the State of Chile for the sum of Ch$181,038,411,056, plus readjustments and interest, which covers past and future damages until May 2004. The process is currently in the judgment stage.

ii) Telefónica Chile and Telefónica Larga Distancia filed a plenary damage indemnity lawsuit against the Government of Chile, claiming damages due to modification of telecommunications networks related to work performed by highway concessionaries from 1996 to 2000.

The Government forced both companies to pay for the transfer of their communications networks due to the construction of public works on concession under the Concessions Law, and the related damages amount to:

a.- Compañía de Telecomunicaciones de Chile S.A.: Ch$1,929,207,445

b.- Telefónica Larga Distancia S.A.: Ch$2,865,208,840

The process is currently in the final judgement stage.

b) Lawsuits:

(i) Voissnet Accusation:

On January 20, 2006, Telefónica Chile responded to the claim made by Voissnet filed before the National Economic Attorney General's Office for alleged events which in its opinion threatened free competition, development and growth of Internet technology, fundamentally of broadband telephony, and access to broadband, since they establish the prohibition of carrying voice using the Internet broadband access provided by Telefónica Chile. Voissnet has requested the Antitrust Commission to force Telefónica Chile to allow third parties to provide IP Telephony through the ADSL Internet owned by Telefónica Chile.

On October 26, 2006, the Company was notified of the sentence dictated by the Antitrust Commission, which partially accepted the complaint filed by Voissnet S.A. and the requirement of the National Economic Attorney General's Office, and fined Telefónica Chile 1,500 Annual Tax Units.

On November 8, 2006, Telefónica Chile S.A. filed an appeal before the Supreme Court requesting the sentence to be revoked exonerating the Company from any sanction. The appeal was accepted for processing and the Supreme Court has not set a date to hear the allegations of the parties.

(Translation of a report originally issued in Spanish see Note 2 to the Financial Statements)
Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

(ii) Complaint filed by VTR Telefónica S.A.:

On June 30, 2000, VTR Telefónica S.A. filed a plenary suit charged in Chilean pesos, requesting payment of Ch$2,204 million plus sums accrued during the suit, to cover access charges for the use of its networks. VTR bases its complaint on the differences that occurred as a result of the reduction of access charge tariffs after Tariff Decree No. 187 came into effect. Telefónica Chile responded to the complaint by arguing that the tariffs for access charges that both parties must pay for the reciprocal use of their networks, are regulated under a contract signed with VTR. VTR, however, does not recognize this contract. VTR's complaint has been accepted and the requested compensation has been ordered. The Company filed an appeal for annulment before the Court of Appeals of Santiago which is currently pending.

In connection to the above proceeding, two additional judicial proceedings are underway. The first was filed by VTR before Subtel in 2002 for alleged non-payment of invoices for access charges set by D.S. 26. VTR has requested that Telefónica Chile be forced to pay such invoices and pay the fines imposed by the General Telecommunications Laws. That case has been suspended by order of the Minister until a judgment is provided in the judicial proceeding filed by VTR in 2000. The second proceeding underway was filed by Telefónica Chile on June 6, 2003, for VTR's non-payment of access charges in accordance with the contract signed between the parties. That case has been suspended until a judgment is provided in the first of the mentioned lawsuits.

In turn, on December 21, 2005 Telefónica Chile sued VTR for non-payment of automatic reversal of charges service (800 service), in the amount of Ch$1,500 million, plus sums accrued during the course of the trial. Based on the same argument, VTR filed a countersuit in the amount of Ch$1,200 million. That judicial process is currently in first instance.

(iii) Manquehue Net

On June 24, 2003, Telefónica Chile filed a forced contract compliance with damage indemnity complaint against Manquehue Net in the amount of ThCh$3,647,689 in addition to the sums accrued during substantiation of the proceeding, before the mixed arbitration court of Mr. Víctor Vial del Río. Likewise, and on the same date, Manquehue Net filed a complaint regarding compliance with discounts (in the amount of UF 107,000), in addition to an obligation to perform complaint (signing of 700 service contract). On June 5, 2004, following the evidence presentation stage, the arbitrator summoned the parties to hear sentencing.

On April 11, 2005, the Court notified the first instance sentence that accepted the complaint filed by Telefónica Chile, condemning Manquehue Net to pay approximately Ch$452 million and at the same time accepted the complaint filed by Manquehue Net condemning Telefónica Chile to pay UF 47,600.

Telefónica Chile filed an appeal for annulment, which is currently pending before the Court of Appeals of Santiago.

28. Contingencies and restrictions, continued:

(iv) Chilectra and CGE:

In June 2006, Telefónica Chile filed complaints against Chilectra S.A. and Río Maipo (currently CGE Distribución), in which it requests a readjusted refund of the Reimbursable Financial Contributions (AFR) (Aportes Financieros Reembolsables) made by the Company between 1992 and 1998, in relation to the Electrical Law. The restitution amounts claimed are ThCh$899,658 and ThCh$117,350, respectively. The lawsuits have recently been notified and are currently in the discussion stage.

(v) Protection Motion:

On June 28, 2006 television channels UCTV and TVN filed a petition for protection against Telefónica Chile requesting suspension of the inclusion of such signals in the Digital Television Plan. On June 30th, the Court of Appeals declared the petition inadmissible. The decision was confirmed on July 4, 2006, when the motion to set aside was rejected.

The complaint filed before the Supreme Court by the channels against the officials of the Court was declared inadmissible on July 13, 2006.

(vi) Labor lawsuits:

In the course of normal operations, labor lawsuits have been filed against the Company.

To date, among others, there are labor proceedings involving former employees, who claim wrongful dismissal. These employees did not sign termination releases or receive staff severance indemnities. On various occasions, the Supreme Court has reviewed the judgments handed down on the matter, accepting the argument of the Company and ratifying the validity of the terminations.

There are, in addition, other lawsuits involving former employees, whose staff severance indemnities have been paid and their termination releases signed, and who in spite of having chosen voluntary retirement plans or having been terminated due to company needs, intend to have the terminations voided. Of these lawsuits, to date, two have received a judgments favorable to the Company, rejecting the annulments.

Certain unions have filed complaints before the Santiago Labor Courts, requesting damage payments for various concepts.

Management and their internal and external legal counsel periodically monitor the evolution of the lawsuits and contingencies affecting the Company in the normal course of its operations, analyzing in each case the possible effect on the financial statements. Based on this analysis and on the information available to date, Management and their legal counsel believe that it is unlikely that the Company's income and equity will be significantly affected by a loss contingency eventually represented by significant liabilities in excess of those already recorded in the financial statements.

(c) Financial restrictions:

In order to develop its investment plans, the Company has obtained financing both in the domestic market and abroad (notes 15, 16 and 17), which establish among other things: clauses on the Company's maximum debt.

The maximum debt ratio for these is 1.60.

Non-compliance with these clauses implies that all the obligations assumed in these financing contracts would be considered due and payable.

As of March 31, 2007 the Company complies with all financial restrictions.

3. ANALYSIS OF INCOME FOR THE PERIOD

3.1 OPERATING INCOME

As of March 31, 2007, operating income amounted to Ch$12,961 million, which represents a 35.1% decrease with respect to the previous year.

Operating Revenue

Operating revenue for the period amounted to Ch$143,034 million, or a decrease of 1.0% in relation to operating revenue for the same period in 2006 of Ch$144,482 million. This variation was mainly the result of the decrease in revenues from basic and corporate communications services due to lower traffic and revenues recorded in the period

Fixed Telephony Revenues: Fixed telephony revenues decreased 0.04% with respect to the previous year, mainly due to a drop of 14.1% in basic telephony revenues, which resulted from a 37.7% decrease in variable charge revenues. This decrease shows the effect of lower revenues derived from the downturn in traffic per line and migration of customers to flexible plans. Similarly, fixed charge revenues from the fixed monthly network connection charge dropped 44.8%. This change is mainly explained by the incorporation of customers to flexible plans, which grew by 52.5% with respect to the previous year. Consequently, the incorporation of customers to flexible plans contributed positively to income, growing Ch$9,465 million with respect to the previous year. Revenues from connections and other installations are 9.0% below the previous year's level, whereas value-added service revenues decreased by 22.2%, mainly due to the drop in average lines in service. Other basic telephony service revenues dropped by 24.6%.

Broadband service revenues increased 53.5% in the period from January to March 2007, to Ch$21,716 million, as compared to Ch$14,143 million for the same period the previous year.

Access charges and interconnections decreased by 2.5%, mainly due to 16.0% lower revenues from domestic long distance access charges, offset by a 4.7% increase in revenues from international long distance. On the other hand there was a 0.4% increase in other interconnection services, primarily due to increases in media rental services, information services and unbundling services and fixed-fixed access charges.

Other fixed telephony services increased by Ch$2,500 million, or 16.8%, explained fundamentally by an increase in revenues from satellite television in the amount of Ch$4,228 million. This increase was offset by revenue decreases of Ch$189 million in commercialization of equipment, Ch$830 million in internal rent and equipment rental, Ch$306 million in advertising in telephone books, Ch$108 million in Telemergencia, Ch$228 million in public telephones and Ch$67 million in switchboard and dedicated ISP.

Long Distance: Revenues from long distance services decreased by 3.2% in comparison to 2006, due to a decrease of 6.3% in DLD and a decrease of 27.4% in circuit rentals. However, the decline was offset by a 15.9% increase in ILD revenues.

Corporate Communications: Revenue from corporate communications decreased 3.7% with respect to the previous year, due to decreases of 8.3% in complementary services and 13.9% in circuits and others. This was partly offset by a 6.9% increase in data services and a 3.0% increase in terminal equipment revenues.

Other Businesses: Revenue from other businesses decreased 37.7%, mainly because of lower revenues from the subsidiaries Instituto Telefónica and t-gestiona.

Operating Costs

Operating costs for the period reached Ch$130,073 million, increasing by 4.5% in relation to the same period in 2006, in which they reached Ch$124,524 million. This is mainly explained by costs generated by the change in the way the Speedy broadband service is commercialized and by the purchase of content for the television business, which was offset by the 6.6% drop in the salary expenses line and the 0.3% drop in depreciation.

3.2 NON-OPERATING INCOME

Non-operating results for the three months ended March 31, 2007 amounted to a loss of Ch$6,537 million, compared to a loss of Ch$15,404 million; that is, there was a 57.6% reduction in non-operating loss, where:

Financial income increased 136.5%, mainly because in 2007 a greater volume of funds was temporarily used for financial investments.

Other non-operating income amounted to Ch$1,968 million, which is higher than the Ch$512 million recorded in 2006. This is mainly due to higher income obtained on the sale of recovered material.

Financial expenses decreased by 20.4% in 2007, as a product of lower interest-bearing debt and an improvement in the international risk rating from BAA2 to BAA1.

Amortization of goodwill decreased Ch$781 million in relation to 2006, mainly because of the full amortization of the goodwill of Tecnonáutica during the first quarter of 2006, due to the restructuring of the Telefónica Chile group.

Other non-operating income reached Ch$1,569 million, Ch$8,821 million less than in 2006. This decrease is explained by the costs incurred in the personnel restructuring that took place at the beginning of 2006.

Price-level restatement in 2006 shows a loss of Ch$4,434 million, mainly because of a temporary accounting effect related to the difference between the market rate and the contract rate for derivative instruments that are used to hedge exchange rate risk. It should be noted that a 100% hedge has been maintained for exchange rate fluctuation and an 84% hedge for interest rate fluctuation.

3.3 NET INCOME FOR THE PERIOD

The Company recorded net income of Ch$1,053 million for the three months ended March 31, 2007, compared to Ch$753 million for the same period in 2006. The higher income obtained in the 2007 period in comparison to 2006 is derived from a 57.6% reduction in non-operating loss, offset by the 4.5% increase in operating costs and by the increase in the level of income taxes.

3.4 RESULTS BY BUSINESS AREA

1. Local Telephony Business: Recorded a net loss of Ch$5,392 million as of March 31, 2007, compared to the loss of Ch$4,562 million recorded in 2006. The difference is due to lower operating income, generated by a decrease in operating revenues added to an increase in operating costs. The lower operating income was offset by the lower non-operating loss, mainly due to the restructuring costs recorded in the first quarter of 2006.

2. Corporate Communications Business: This business contributed net income of Ch$1,522 million in the period, a 43.5% decrease in relation to the Ch$2,696 million recorded in 2006. The main explanation of the difference was lower operating income, due to the increase in depreciation cost, which was offset by the decrease in the cost of goods and services and by the increase in non-operating income.

3. Long Distance Business: As of March 31, 2007 presented net income of Ch$5,216 million, higher than the Ch$3,278 million recorded in 2006. This variation is produced mainly by improved operating income, complemented by an increase in non-operating income, which amounted to Ch$551 million for the first three months of 2007.

4. Other Businesses: Other businesses mainly include the services of Telefónica Multimedia, Instituto Telefónica, t-gestiona and Fundación. These businesses altogether generated a net loss of Ch$302 million in 2007, whereas during the same period the previous year they generated net income of Ch$598 million. This is mainly due to the startup of operations of the television business through Telefónica Multimedia, in addition to lower income obtained by Fundación and Instituto Telefónica Chile (formerly Telepeajes).

4. STATEMENT OF CASH FLOWS

CONSOLIDATED CASH FLOWS

Net change in cash and cash equivalents for the year	(9,135)	36,883	46,018	503.8%

The positive net variation in cash and cash equivalents of Ch$ 36,883 million in cash flows for the period January March 2007, compared to the negative net variation of Ch$ 9,135 million in 2006, is because in 2007 no cash flows were allocated to financing activities. In addition, greater cash flows were obtained from operating activities. Both effects were offset by the greater cash flows allocated to investing activities due to an increase in long-term investment.

(1) Figures at the beginning of the year, restated.

(2) Property, plant and equipment are considered operating assets

The key points from the table above are the following:

The current ratio increase is the result of a 2.0% drop in current assets and an 18.6% drop in current liabilities. The change in current liabilities is explained by a decrease in financial debt in comparison to March of the previous year.

The decrease in the indebtedness ratio is explained by a 6% drop in the level of demand liabilities, whereas shareholders' equity decreased by 4.6%, mainly due to the capital reduction in 2006, for the purpose of distributing additional cash to the shareholders.

6. EXPLANATION OF THE MAIN DIFFERENCES BETWEEN MARKET OR ECONOMIC VALUE AND THE BOOK VALUE OF THE COMPANY'S ASSETS

Due to market imperfections regarding the capital assets of the sector, there is no economic or market value that can be compared to their accounting values. However, there are certain buildings with a book value equal or close to zero. These buildings have a market value, but it is not significant with respect to the Company's assets in the aggregate.

For other assets with a referential market value, such as marketable securities (shares and promissory notes), provisions have been established when the market value is less than the book value.

7. ANALYSIS OF MARKETS, COMPETITION AND RELATIVE MARKET SHARE

Relevant Aspects of the Industry

During the first quarter of 2007 development of broadband, service convergence, wireless solutions development and growth of the mobile sector continued.

In the first quarter the main operators have publicly announced their broadband wireless technology prospects. Telmex commercially launched the Wimax service in March while with the same technology VTR declared its intention to extend its coverage for bidirectional services in 2007. Entel launched 3.5G (technology that allows the granting of mobile connectivity to the Internet).

In keeping with the dynamics of the fixed telephone industry in convergence of services, GDT Manquehue and Telsur operators announced their projects / offers for triple play services (voice, broadband and digital TV).

Market Evolution

It is estimated that lines in service as of March 2007 reached approximately 3.3 million, reflecting a 4.6% decrease with respect to March 2006. Voice services show drops on the order of 6.7% in local, 13.4% in DLD and 16.3% in ILD with respect to the same period the previous year.

According to estimates, as of March 2007 the mobile telephone market had a total of 13.4 million subscribers, which represents growth of 16% in comparison to March 2006.

In the Internet market the migration from narrowband to broadband continues, resulting in a 57% decrease in dial-up connections and a 52% decrease in traffic, falling to approximately 300 million minutes for the first three months of 2007. The broadband market recorded a 33% increase with respect to the same period in 2006, reaching 1,070,000 accesses.

Relative Market Share

The following table shows the relative market share of Telefónica Chile in the markets where it participates, as of March 31, 2007:

Business	Market Share	Market Penetration	Telefónica Chile's Position in the Market
Fixed Telephony	67%	19.7 lines / 100 inhabitants	1
Domestic Long Distance	39%	85 minutes / inhabitant per year	1
International Long Distance	39%	11 minutes / inhabitant per year	2
Corporate Communications	44%	Ch$ 201,161 million	1

Security Services	27%	205,000 Connections	2
Pay TV	11%	1,124,000 Customers	2

8. ANALYSIS OF MARKET RISK

Financial Risk Coverage

Due to the attractive foreign interest rates in certain periods, the Company has obtained financing abroad, denominated mainly in dollars and in certain cases at a floating interest rate. Consequently, the Company faces two types of financial risks: the risk of exchange rate fluctuations and the risk of interest rate fluctuations.

Financial risk due to foreign currency fluctuations

The Company has exchange rate hedging instruments. The purpose of these instruments is to reduce the negative impact of fluctuations of the dollar on Company results. The percentage of interest-bearing debt exposure is defined and continuously reviewed, basically considering the volatility of the exchange rate, its trend, and the cost and availability of hedging instruments for different terms.

The main hedging instruments used are Cross Currency Swaps and dollar/UF and dollar/peso exchange insurance.

As of March 31, 2007, the interest-bearing debt in original currency expressed in dollars was US$ 746 million, including US$ 500 million in dollar denominated financial liabilities, and US$ 246 million of debt expressed in UF. Consequently, US$ 500 million corresponds to debt directly exposed to the variations of the dollar.

During the period, the Company had Cross Currency Swaps, dollar/peso exchange insurance and assets in dollars that resulted, as of the end of the first quarter 2007, in close to 0% exposure to foreign exchange fluctuations.

Financial risk due to floating interest rate fluctuations

The policy for hedging interest rates seeks to reduce the negative impact on financial expenses due to interest rate increases.

As of March 31, 2007, the Company had debt at the variable interest rates Libor and TAB, mainly for bank loans.

To protect the Company from increases in the floating interest rates, derivative financial instruments have been used, particularly Cross Currency Swaps (which cover the Libor rate), to limit the future fluctuation of interest rates. As of March 31, 2007, the use of these swaps has allowed the Company to limit its exposure to 16% of the total interest-bearing debt in Chilean pesos.
