Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On September 13, 2016, Jane Houldsworth El Naggar, Vice President of Research and Development of Cancer Genetics, Inc. (the "Company") notified the Company of her intention to resign from her position with the Company in approximately a month's time to pursue an academic position in cancer research. It is expected that she will continue to collaborate on certain pending projects.

The Company believes it will be able to readily continue its current research and development activities with its current staff and has no immediate plans to fill Dr. Houldsworth's position.
