Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On February 28, 2017, Stephen V. Conrad announced his retirement and resignation from the Board of Directors of U.S. Energy Corp. (the “Company”) effective March 3, 2017.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On February 1, 2017, the Company and BP Energy (“BP”), entered into a Hedging Agreement, pursuant to which the Company has the ability to hedge oil and gas production for current proven reserves and future drilling programs, including a proposed South Texas drilling program in the Eagle Ford Shale, which is planned for late 2017.

On February 24, 2017, the Company received confirmation from IronHorse Resources, LLC (“Ironhorse”) with respect to the expiration of a previously announced agreement dated January 3, 2017 (the “Agreement”) for the proposed purchase of 40% of IronHorse’s interest in five Wattenberg farmout agreements. Although the Company believes it was able to meet its funding obligations under the Agreement, Ironhorse has indicated its desire to market the opportunity to alternative partners.
