Item 8.01

Other Events.

On December 28, 2007, The Dixie Group ("the Company"), Inc. entered into an agreement effective on December 29, 2007 to merge its Masland Bargaining Unit Defined Benefit Pension Plan, a single-employer pension plan, into the UNITE HERE National Retirement Fund (NRF), a multi-employer pension plan. As a result of the merger, the Company will cease to be the Plan Sponsor and will become a contributing employer in the NRF.

The Masland Bargaining Unit Defined Benefit Plan covers the bargaining unit associates at its Atmore, Alabama carpet manufacturing facility.

The Company expects to incur approximately $1.6 million of pre-tax expense in the fourth quarter of 2007 relating to the merger of the defined benefit pension plan. Approximately $1.5 million of this expense is non-cash and primarily represents unrecognized actuarial losses previously included in Accumulated Other Comprehensive Loss. Accordingly, such expense will not reduce equity in the Company's Consolidated Balance Sheet. The remaining expense consists of approximately $100,000 of administrative expenses related to the plan merger. The Company will contribute $205,000 to fully fund its defined benefit pension plan.
