Item 1.01 Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement

Distribution Agreement with Fujitsu Electronics Incorporated (“FEI”)

Cypress Semiconductor Corporation (the “Company”) and FEI entered into a distribution agreement (the “Distribution Agreement”) that will expand FEI’s role as a distribution partner for the Company. In the wake of the Company’s merger with Spansion Inc. in March 2015, the new agreement replaces the two prior agreements between Spansion and FEI and their affiliated entities and provides FEI with access to the products covered by the prior Spansion agreements as well as adding the Company’s entire product line. The agreement took effect on September 10, 2015.

The Distribution Agreement grants FEI the right to (i) non-exclusively distribute products in Japan and (ii) non-exclusively distribute products to certain accounts outside of Japan, in each subject to specified pricing terms.

Subject to various limitations and exceptions, the Company indemnifies FEI from and against third-party actions claiming the Company’s products infringe upon a third-party’s intellectual property rights.

The Distribution Agreement will be effective for one (1) year from its effective date and thereafter will renew automatically for additional one (1) year periods, unless (a) terminated as set forth below, or (b) either party provides ninety (90) days written notice to the other party of its intention to terminate it. In the event that either party materially defaults in the performance of a material obligation under the Distribution Agreement, then the non-defaulting party may terminate the Agreement upon written notice following a thirty (30) day cure period.

The preceding description of the Distribution Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Distribution Agreement, which the Company intends to file as an exhibit to its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 27, 2015.
