Item Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement
1.01

On October 25, 2010 and October 26, 2010 Cree, Inc. (the “Company”) entered into an Indemnification Agreement with each of the following persons, each of whom was then serving as a director or executive officer of the Company: Dolph W. von Arx, Clyde R. Hosein, Robert A. Ingram, Stephen D. Kelley, John T. Kurtzweil, John W. Palmour, Franco Plastina, Charles M. Swoboda, Robert L. Tillman, Harvey A. Wagner, and Thomas H. Werner. The material terms of the Indemnification Agreement are described below. Such description is not meant to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the form of agreement filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this report on Form 8-K.

Each Indemnification Agreement requires the Company to indemnify the indemnitee to the fullest extent permitted by the laws of the State of North Carolina currently in effect or as such laws may be amended to increase the scope of permitted indemnification. The Company has agreed to provide indemnity for fees and expenses, damages, losses, liabilities, judgments and amounts paid in settlement, each to the extent actually and reasonably incurred by or on behalf of the indemnitee in any action, demand, suit or proceeding, including any investigation, inquiry, hearing or alternative dispute resolution process, in which an indemnitee is or is threatened to be involved as a party, witness or otherwise by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director or officer of the Company or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director or officer of another entity. Also, the Indemnification Agreement requires the Company to advance expenses in defending such an action and includes an undertaking by the indemnitee to reimburse the Company for any amounts advanced if it is ultimately determined that indemnification is not proper. The Indemnification Agreement also sets forth, among other things, the process for determining entitlement to indemnification, the procedures for enforcement of indemnification rights, the limitations on indemnification rights and requirements relating to the notice and defense of claims for which indemnification is sought. The rights provided to the indemnitee by the Indemnification Agreement are in addition to rights provided in the Company’s Bylaws, the Company’s Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation and the North Carolina Business Corporation Act.
