PART III NARRATIVE

Edgar Filing: NATIONAL PRESTO INDUSTRIES INC - Form NT 10-Q

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

(Attach Extra Sheets if Needed)

The registrant's filing of its Forms 10-K for the years ended December 31, 2005 and December 31, 2006 did not occur within the proscribed time period due to Grant Thornton LLP's withdrawal of its opinion for the years ending December 31, 2005, 2004, and 2003. Those withdrawals stemmed from the controversy surrounding the SEC's staff's mandate that an investment company footnote be inserted into the Company's financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2005. Subsequently, the firm withdrew from the audit engagement as well. Despite the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals decision on May 15, 2007, in which the court ruled that the Company is not and never has been an investment company, Grant Thornton declined the Company's request to reinstate its opinions. Audited prior year figures are usually a prerequisite to filing an annual report and Form 10-K. Without Grant Thornton's consent, the years ended December 31, 2004 and December 31, 2003 had to be reaudited. The registrant did request concurrence from the SEC staff to file Form 10-K financials for the years ended December 31, 2005 and December 31, 2006 without reaudited 2003 and 2004 figures. That request was denied on or about March 14, 2007. Forms 10-K for the years ended December 31, 2005 and December 31, 2006 were ultimately filed on August 24, 2007 and August 27, 2007, respectively. Forms 10-Q for the 2006 quarters were completed thereafter on October 9, 2007.

Because all of its efforts had previously been directed at completing its filing obligations through 2006, it was and is not possible for the registrant to file Forms 10-Q for the first two quarters of 2007, nor is it possible to file Form 10-Q for the third quarter of 2007, in a timely manner. The registrant anticipates that the above referenced Form 10-Q filings will be made during first quarter of 2008.
