Section 5 – Corporate Governance and Management

Item 5.02 – Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

Over the past few months, Buckeye has implemented a number of initiatives to reduce costs and increase cash flow in response to a decrease in sales caused by the global economic slowdown and challenging business environment. Effective April 1, 2009, we have imposed a salary freeze for all salaried personnel. This does not include technicians (hourly workers) since many technicians are experiencing reduced wages as we reduce overtime and take downtime to match production with current demand.

Additionally, as part of the overall cost reduction initiative, effective April 1, 2009, the Company has implemented a temporary reduction in base salary for its officers:

- 10% reduction for Buckeye CEO John B. Crowe;
- 6.7% reduction for President/Chief Operating Officer Kristopher J. Matula;
- 5% reduction for all senior vice presidents; and
- 3.5% reduction for all vice presidents.

Annualized savings from these actions are estimated to total approximately $1.5 million.
