CORPORATE STRUCTUREIncorporation of the Issuer

Fairfax Financial Holdings Limited (Fairfax or the Corporation) was incorporated under the Canada Corporations Act on March 13, 1951 and continued under the Canada Business Corporations Act in 1976. Its original name of Markel Service of Canada Limited was subsequently changed to Markel Financial Holdings Limited and, in May 1987, to Fairfax Financial Holdings Limited.

Various amendments to its articles have established the existing classes of shares: preferred shares, and multiple voting and subordinate voting (common) shares.

The registered and head office of the Corporation is located at 95 Wellington Street West, Suite 800, Toronto, Ontario M5J 2N7.

Subsidiaries

The following are Fairfax's principal subsidiaries as at December 31, 2002. Indented companies are subsidiaries of the non-indented company which precedes them. At May 15, 2003, all subsidiaries are wholly owned (TRG Holding Corporation as to a 100% economic and voting interest), directly or through another subsidiary, except for Odyssey Re Holdings, a public company of which Fairfax owns 80.6% and Lindsey Morden Group Inc., a public company of which Fairfax owns 75.0% of the equity and 89.5% of the votes.

GENERAL DEVELOPMENT OF THE BUSINESS

Fairfax Financial Holdings Limited is a financial services holding company which, through its subsidiaries, is engaged in property, casualty and life insurance and reinsurance, investment management and insurance claims management.

The total assets of Fairfax have increased from $32.0 billion as at December 31, 1999 to $35.1 billion as at December 31, 2002. During this same period common shareholders' equity has increased from $3.1 billion to $3.4 billion. For the year ended December 31, 1999 Fairfax had revenue of $5.8 billion and net earnings of $124.2 million. For the year ended December 31, 2002 Fairfax had revenue of $8.0 billion and net earnings of $415.7 million.

Significant events for Fairfax in the last three years include:

Effective August 31, 2000, Crum & Forster purchased Sen-Tech Holdings, Inc. (and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Seneca Insurance Company, Inc.) for US $65 million cash.

Effective December 21, 2000, Crum & Forster purchased Transnational Insurance Company for US $17 million cash.

On June 14, 2001, Odyssey Re Holdings Corp. (OdysseyRe), the U.S. holding company for Odyssey America Re and its subsidiaries, issued 17,142,857 common shares, in an initial public offering, at US$18 per share for net proceeds of US$284.8 million. Fairfax and its wholly-owned subsidiary, TIG, received US$233.5 million in cash from these proceeds. After the offering, Fairfax indirectly held 48 million (73.7%) of OdysseyRe's common shares and a US$200 million OdysseyRe three year term note.

Effective December 16, 2002, there was a comprehensive restructuring of TIG, consisting of the following three components: a) TIG discontinued its MGA-controlled program business in Dallas, which accounted for about half of TIG's net premiums written in 2002, and restructured the remainder of its operations. b) Fairfax acquired the remaining 72 1/2% economic interest in TRG (the parent company of International Insurance Company (IIC)) in exchange for payments over the next 15 years. c) TIG and IIC merged and distributed $1.25 billion of assets to Fairfax (initially held in trust for TIG's benefit).

On March 4, 2003, Fairfax, through a subsidiary, purchased 4,300,000 outstanding common shares of Odyssey Re Holdings Corp. in a private transaction, increasing Fairfax's ownership of Odyssey to 80.6%. As consideration, the subsidiary issued US$78,045,000 principal amount of 3.15% Exchangeable Notes due February 28, 2010 which are exchangeable into 2,150,000 Odyssey Re common shares for two week periods commencing on each of November 19, 2004 and February 16, 2005.

On April 11, 2003, Northbridge Financial Corporation, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Fairfax which will be the holding company for Lombard, Commonwealth, Markel and Federated, Fairfax's Canadian insurance subsidiaries, filed a preliminary prospectus with securities regulatory authorities in all provinces and territories in Canada relating to a proposed initial public offering of its common shares.

On May 2, 2003, reinsurers led by Chubb Re (Bermuda) Ltd., on behalf of Federal Insurance Company, agreed to provide up to US$200 million of the US$300 million adverse development cover relating to TIG's reserves which is currently being provided by Fairfax's ORC Re subsidiary.

Number of Employees

Fairfax (the holding company) has 22 employees; its operating subsidiaries have in aggregate about 7,200 employees.

SELECTED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Dividends

Fairfax did not pay dividends on its subordinate voting or multiple voting shares from 1984 to 2001, although no restrictions existed which would have prevented the payment of dividends. The Corporation paid an initial annual dividend of $1.00 per subordinate voting or multiple voting share on January 24, 2002. On December 23, 2002, the Corporation declared an annual dividend of $1.50 per share on its subordinate voting and multiple voting shares, which was paid on January 27, 2003. Dividend payments on the preferred shares, Series A, commenced during the 2000 calendar year.

MARKET FOR SECURITIES

The subordinate voting shares of Fairfax are listed on The Toronto Stock Exchange and (since December 18, 2002) the New York Stock Exchange (symbol FFH).

DISCLOSURE CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Evaluation of disclosure controls and procedures. The Registrant's principal executive officer and principal financial officer, after evaluating the effectiveness of the Registrant's disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Exchange Act Rules 13a-14(c) and 15d-14(c)) as of a date within 90 days prior to the filing date of this annual report on Form 40-F (the Evaluation Date), have concluded that, as of the Evaluation Date, the Registrant's disclosure controls and procedures were adequate and effective to ensure that material information relating to the Registrant and its consolidated subsidiaries would be made known to them by others within those entities.

Changes in internal controls. There were no significant changes in the Registrant's internal controls or in other factors that could significantly affect the Registrant's disclosure controls and procedures subsequent to the Evaluation Date, nor were there any significant deficiencies or material weaknesses in the Registrant's internal controls. As a result, no corrective actions were required or undertaken.

PRE-APPROVALS OF NON-AUDIT SERVICES

The Registrant's audit committee has pre-approved the performance of the following non-audit services, to the extent requested by the Registrant, by the Registrant's auditors:

accounting or actuarial services regarding matters related to the audit tax compliance or planning services employee benefit and pension plan audits.

UNDERTAKING AND CONSENT TO SERVICE OF PROCESS

A. Undertaking

Fairfax Financial Holdings Limited (the Registrant) undertakes to make available, in person or by telephone, representatives to respond to inquiries made by the staff of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), and to furnish promptly, when requested to do so by the SEC staff, information relating to the securities in relation to which the obligation to file an annual report on Form 40-F arises or transactions in said securities.

B. Consent to Service of Process

The Registrant has previously filed with the SEC a Form F-X in connection with the class of securities in relation to which the obligation to file this report arises.

SIGNATURE

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the Registrant certifies that it meets all of the requirements for filing on Form 40-F and has duly caused this annual report to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned, thereunto duly authorized.
