Item 4.Description of Securities.

This Item is not applicable.

Item 5.Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

This Item is not applicable.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

The Corporation is a Connecticut corporation subject to the applicable indemnification provisions of the Connecticut Business Corporation Act (the "CBCA"). The following is qualified in its entirety by reference to Sections 33-770 to 33-779, inclusive, of the CBCA, the Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation and the Corporation's Amended and Restated Bylaws.

The CBCA provides for four (4) types of indemnification: permissible; mandatory; obligatory; and court ordered. Permissible indemnification for a director requires the director's conduct to have been taken in good faith and in the reasonable belief that such conduct was in the best interest of the Corporation. Mandatory indemnification is required under the CBCA regardless of the provisions of a corporation's certificate of incorporation or bylaws only when the director has been "wholly successful on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of an action to which he was a party because he is or was a director." Obligatory indemnification occurs by reason of specific provisions in a certificate of incorporation, bylaw, board resolution or contract. Court ordered indemnification arises when a court orders indemnification based upon its finding that mandatory indemnification or obligatory indemnification exists or because the court concludes that it would be fair and reasonable to indemnify the director.

Sections 33-771 and 33-776 of the CBCA permit the indemnification, under certain circumstances, of persons who are or were directors, officers, employees or agents of the Corporation against liability incurred in a proceeding to which such individual is a party. In the case of actions brought by or in the right of the Corporation, Section 33-771(d) provides for indemnification only of reasonable expenses, and only upon a determination by a court of competent jurisdiction or the court in which such action or suit was brought.

Article Seventeenth of the Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation and Article V of the Corporation's Amended and Restated Bylaws provide that the Corporation shall indemnify its directors, officers, employees and agents to the maximum extent permitted or required by the CBCA.

Article Ninth of the Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation provides that the personal liability to the Corporation or its shareholders of a person who is or was a director of the Corporation for monetary damages for breach of duty as a director shall be limited to the amount of compensation received by such director for serving the Corporation during the year of the violation if such breach did not (1) involve a knowing and culpable violation of law; (2) enable the director or an associate as defined in Section 33-840 of the CBCA to receive improper personal economic gain; (3) show a lack of good faith and a conscious disregard for the duty of the director to the Corporation under circumstances in which the director was aware that his conduct or omission created an unjustifiable risk of serious injury to the Corporation; (4) constitute a sustained and unexcused pattern of inattention that amounts to an abdication of duty; or (5) create liability for unlawful distribution under Section 33-757 of the CBCA or under Section 36a-58 of the Connecticut Banking Law. The limitation, however, does not affect the ability of the Corporation or its shareholders to seek nonmonetary remedies, such as an injunction or rescission, against a director for breach of his or her fiduciary duty.

Item 7.Exemption From Registration Claimed.

This Item is not applicable.

Item 9.Undertakings.

(a)The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1)To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
