As the second largest stockholder of Specialty Underwriters' Alliance, Inc. (Nasdaq: SUAI), Hallmark Financial Services strongly believes that significant improvements are needed at SUAI: better financial performance, improvements in the company's strategy and business model, stronger corporate governance and Board accountability to stockholders. Hallmark beneficially owns approximately 9.9% of SUAI's outstanding common stock.

Accordingly, Hallmark has nominated a slate of highly qualified nominees for election to SUAI's Board of Directors at the company's Annual Meeting of Stockholders scheduled to be held on May 5, 2009. Hallmark's nominees are Robert M. Fishman, Mark E. Pape and C. Gregory Peters. Hallmark strongly believes that the interests of all SUAI stockholders would benefit from these highly qualified, truly independent director nominees and further believes these nominees possess the right combination of skills and experience to work with the other members of the SUAI Board to make the decisions necessary for restoring and enhancing stockholder value at SUAI.

Hallmark seeks your support to elect its nominees to replace three current members of SUAI's seven-member Board at SUAI's May 5th Annual Meeting. Hallmark invites you to read the materials on this SUAI Town Hall website to learn more about Hallmark's campaign at SUAI and how you can help.

Hallmark Financial Services Files Preliminary Proxy Statement to Elect its Nominees to the Board of Directors of Specialty Underwriters' Alliance

FORT WORTH, Texas, March 18, 2009 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Hallmark Financial Services, Inc. (NASDAQ:HALL) announced today that it has filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission a preliminary proxy statement in connection with its nomination of independent directors to replace three members of the board of directors of Specialty Underwriters' Alliance, Inc. (NASDAQ:SUAI) at SUAI's 2009 Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held on May 5, 2009. Hallmark's three nominees are Robert M. Fishman, Mark E. Pape and C. Gregory Peters.

As the second largest stockholder in SUAI, Hallmark strongly believes there is a need for improved governance and stockholder representation on the board of SUAI. Hallmark believes that the interests of all SUAI stockholders would benefit from its highly qualified, truly independent director nominees that possess a wealth of property and casualty insurance industry expertise. Hallmark beneficially owns approximately 9.9% of SUAI's outstanding common stock.

Background

As previously disclosed, on June 16, 2008, Hallmark delivered to SUAI's board of directors a proposal to acquire SUAI in a stock-for-stock transaction (the "Proposal"). SUAI responded through a public announcement on June 26, 2008 that its board of directors had unanimously rejected the Proposal. On July 1, 2008, Hallmark then delivered to SUAI's board of directors a letter reaffirming the Proposal (the "July 1 Letter"). In the July 1 Letter, Hallmark stated that it was committed to its Proposal and strongly believed that the Proposal offered significant and compelling benefits to SUAI's stockholders, and reiterated that its senior management stood ready to meet with the members of the SUAI board and answer any questions concerning the Proposal. Copies of each of the Proposal and the July 1 Letter are exhibits to Hallmark's Schedule 13D/A for SUAI filed on July 1, 2008 and can be obtained on the SEC's website at <http://www.sec.gov>. For each of the Proposal and the July 1 Letter, the offer price in Hallmark stock in the proposed transaction represented a substantial premium to the then most recent closing price of SUAI common stock as well as its 30 day trailing average price. Nevertheless, on July 2, 2008, SUAI publicly reaffirmed its rejection of Hallmark's proposal. Then, on August 5, 2008, SUAI's board proceeded to adopt certain "defensive" amendments to the company's bylaws, including bylaws eliminating stockholders' rights to fill vacancies on the board and to call special meetings and adding advance notice provisions for board nominations by stockholders. The bylaw amendments were disclosed concurrently with the disclosure of the complete terms of new employment and change of control agreements which provide for the payment of substantial sums to SUAI executives in the event they depart the company in certain circumstances, including following a change of control of SUAI.

Gregory Peters served as Senior Vice President, Equity Research at Raymond James and Associates from November 1999 through June 2007, where Mr. Peters was responsible for launching Raymond James' sell-side research practice for the insurance industry and served as its lead analyst for property and casualty companies.

Dear Courtney,

Thank you for agreeing to meet with me on March 2, 2009. I appreciate having had the opportunity to discuss a variety of matters related to Specialty Underwriters' Alliance, Inc. ("SUA") and Hallmark Financial Services, Inc. ("Hallmark") with you and Scott Goodreau, SUA's Senior Vice President and General Counsel.

During the course of our meeting you posed the question: why did Hallmark feel a need to nominate an alternative slate of directors for election at SUA's upcoming stockholder meeting? I responded: the Hallmark nominees are highly qualified candidates that will do a terrific job representing the interests of all SUA stockholders. In response, you introduced the idea of arranging a meeting between me and the incumbent SUA directors so that I might access their capabilities and share my views regarding SUA with them.

I am writing to you today to formally confirm my interest in meeting with the SUA directors as you suggested. In order to facilitate such a meeting, I commit to making myself available in person to meet with the incumbent directors at any location that is convenient for them.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Very truly yours,

To: the Board of Directors of Specialty Underwriters' Alliance Inc.

I am writing to reaffirm the written proposal by Hallmark Financial Services, Inc. ("Hallmark") to acquire all of the outstanding stock of Specialty Underwriters' Alliance Inc. ("SUAI") delivered in person to Courtney Smith at our dinner meeting on June 16.

Hallmark remains committed to our proposal to acquire SUAI in a stock-for-stock transaction and strongly believes that our proposal offers significant and compelling benefits to SUAI shareholders. Our offer price of $6.50 in Hallmark stock for each outstanding share of SUAI represents a significant 37% premium to SUAI's trailing 30-day average closing price of $4.74 per share on Friday, June 13, the day prior to delivery of our proposal.

Hallmark is deeply disappointed by SUAI's June 26 publicly-stated response to our proposal: "After due deliberation, the SUAI Board unanimously concluded not to accept this offer".

In our June 16 written proposal, we requested a meeting with SUAI's Board of Directors and/or management as soon as possible to discuss our proposal. Beginning on June 17, numerous attempts to speak to you and your advisors went unanswered.

How is it possible that, on behalf of SUAI shareholders, the Board fully and fairly considered Hallmark's proposal while at the same time refusing to engage us in any dialogue? If the Board is truly endeavoring to act in the best interests of its shareholders, why deny yourselves the benefit of having all information available before making an important decision? There is no possible downside, only upside.

In your June 26 press release you state SUAI's unanimous conclusion to "remain independent and continue with the execution of its current business strategy, which the Board believes represents a better long-term value for the company's shareholders". We again question: How is it conceivable to arrive at this conclusion without a willingness to engage in discussions with Hallmark regarding the merits of its proposal.

Hallmark reiterates its wish to enter into constructive dialogue with SUAI to achieve a friendly combination that we believe will be a win-win outcome for SUAI shareholders:

1. SUAI shareholders will receive an immediate significant 37% premium to SUAI's trailing 30-day average closing price as of Friday, June 13.
2. SUAI shareholders' upside potential will not be capped. SUAI shareholders will retain a continuing ownership interest in Hallmark and will benefit from any future gains in Hallmark shares.

As the largest SUAI shareholder, with beneficial ownership of 1,429,615 shares representing 9.7% of the common stock outstanding, we ask that you not summarily dismiss our proposal and deny your shareholders this truly outstanding opportunity. Hallmark is a bona fide buyer, without a financing contingency, and requires no unusual conditions to close. Our proposal is a firm proposal, subject only to confirmatory due diligence, the negotiation of a mutually satisfactory definitive agreement and customary shareholder and regulatory approvals.

As stated previously, Hallmark's senior management stands ready to meet with you and answer any questions concerning our proposal. We look forward to hearing from you.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Mark E. Schwarz

To: Board of Directors of Specialty Underwriters Alliance Inc.

I am pleased to present the enclosed proposal by Hallmark Financial Services, Inc. ("Hallmark") to acquire all of the outstanding stock of Specialty Underwriters' Alliance Inc. ("SUAI" or the "Company").

Our proposal is subject to confirmatory due diligence, which we are prepared to commence immediately, the negotiation of a definitive acquisition agreement and the receipt of all necessary shareholder and regulatory approvals. In addition, because the consideration would consist of our common stock, we would provide you with the opportunity to conduct appropriate due diligence with respect to Hallmark.

We are prepared to deliver a draft merger agreement to SUAI and begin discussions immediately. With SUAI's full cooperation, we are confident that we will be able to complete due diligence, negotiate a definitive agreement, and immediately thereafter begin preparations for the necessary regulatory and shareholder approvals (approval of Hallmark shareholders is assured through the indicated willingness of Newcastle Partners, L.P., our majority stockholder, to support this transaction). Accordingly, we believe a transaction could realistically be completed within approximately 120 days.

We believe Hallmark's proposal to acquire SUAI in a share-for-share transaction offers significant and compelling benefits to SUAI shareholders, including the following:

1. Our offer price of $6.50 in Hallmark stock for each outstanding share of SUAI represents a significant 30% premium to SUAI's closing share price on Friday, June 13, of $4.99 per share. Our offer price represents an even greater 37% premium to SUAI's trailing 30-day average closing price of $4.74.

2. SUAI shareholders' upside potential will not be capped. In addition to realizing an immediate significant 30% premium for their shares today, SUAI shareholders will retain a continuing ownership interest in Hallmark and will participate in any future gains in Hallmark shares.
3. SUAI's business model will be greatly enhanced by the addition of Hallmark's "A-" rated paper. This will allow SUAI to grow through the addition of programs that are rating sensitive, as was initially contemplated in the original SUAI business model.
4. Hallmark enjoys a strong capital position and will commit its capital to support future growth of SUAI's business.
5. Hallmark produced a 16% ROE in 2007 and a 16% ROE in 1Q 2008. SUAI produced a 10% ROE in 2007 and a 10% ROE 1Q 2008 (including a one-time accounting benefit for deferred taxes). SUAI lacks prospects for meaningfully increasing its ROE in the foreseeable future. This transaction will allow SUAI shareholders to enjoy a much higher return on their pro-rata share of invested capital in a combined company.
6. This share-for-share transaction will create a much broader, more actively traded shareholder base. This will benefit not only the existing shareholders through enhanced liquidity, but will enhance the prospect of attracting additional quality investors.

In sum Hallmark believes with a larger, stronger corporate platform, pursuing additional business opportunities in this soft-rate environment, either through acquisition or operating relationships, SUAI shareholders' prospects for future returns will be greatly enhanced through this transaction as compared to what they are today.

As such, we request a meeting with SUAI's board of directors and/or management as soon as possible to discuss our proposal. Hallmark's senior management stands ready to meet with you and answer any questions concerning our proposal. We look forward to receiving your response.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Mark E. Schwarz

Mr. Courtney C. Smith
Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer
Specialty Underwriters Alliance Inc.
222 South Riverside Plaza
Chicago, IL 60606

Dear Courtney:

On behalf of Hallmark Financial Services, Inc. ("Hallmark"), I am pleased to present this proposal to acquire all of the outstanding stock of Specialty Underwriters' Alliance Inc. ("SUAI" or the "Company") in a stock for stock merger.

The following are the key elements of this proposal. It is understood that definitive terms and agreements remain subject to both a due diligence review and negotiations between the parties.

- I. Expected Purchase Price: We contemplate a share exchange whereby Hallmark will acquire all of the outstanding stock of SUAI at an exchange ratio where each share of SUAI is valued at $6.50 in Hallmark common stock.
 - II. Source of Financing: The share exchange will be from currently authorized, but unissued shares of Hallmark. The proposed transaction will result in SUAI shareholders receiving more than 20% the outstanding shares of Hallmark and, accordingly, will require Hallmark shareholder approval. However please note that Newcastle Partners, L.P., which owns approximately 70% of Hallmark's shares, has indicated its willingness to support the transaction.
 - III. Conditions to Closing: We expect limited conditions. SUAI would be expected to obtain all necessary corporate approvals (including shareholder approval) and regulatory approvals. In addition, we would ask that SUAI obtain satisfactory waiver of change in control provisions in existing material contracts and other material third party consents.
 - IV. Timing of Due Diligence: Our proposal is subject to confirmatory due diligence and we would naturally expect that SUAI would want to conduct its own due diligence with respect to Hallmark. Accordingly, each party will provide to the other reasonable access to its management personnel, books, records and other information relating to their business as a party may reasonably request to assist in this effort. All access, investigations, contacts and communications will be made only after communication to and coordination with the other party and in such a manner as not to interfere unduly with the normal conduct of the party's business. Hallmark has an experienced due diligence team and anticipates it can conduct its due diligence rapidly, needing three full days on-site in Chicago, Illinois, with a team of 6-8 individuals and then approximately two weeks thereafter to conclude.

- V. Organizational Assumptions: We anticipate minimal changes to the Company's existing operations or staff. We expect to maintain the continued employment of all key management personal.
- VI. Confidentiality Agreement: Hallmark would expect to execute a customary confidentiality agreement in connection with conducting due diligence. Hallmark understands that such an agreement may contain a customary standstill restriction and is prepared to enter into one to facilitate a transaction with SUAI.
- VII. Definitive Purchase Agreement: Following completion of due diligence, we expect the parties to proceed with negotiation and execution of a definitive purchase agreement ("Definitive Agreement") containing the terms and conditions set forth herein, such additional terms as may be agreed by the parties, and such other reasonable, customary and mutually satisfactory representations, warranties, covenants and indemnities as the parties may mutually agree.
- VIII. Fees & Expenses: Each party hereto will be responsible for and bear all its own costs and expenses incurred at any time in connection with pursuing, negotiating or consummating the Transaction, including without limitation, the preparation, negotiation and execution of this Letter of Interest and the Definitive Agreement.
- IX. Termination: This Letter of Interest may be terminated (a) at any time by the mutual agreement of the parties hereto or (b) at the option of any party, if after 60 days after the acceptance of this letter, a Definitive Agreement has not been executed and delivered for any reason. In any event, this Letter of Interest will terminate upon execution of, and will be superseded by, the Definitive Agreement.
- X. Expiration: The terms of this Letter of Interest are deemed to expire if not agreed and accepted in its entirety by end of the business day (5:00 p.m. CST), June 20, 2008. Acceptance will be constituted by the full execution of the signature page of this letter and the delivery of such to the designated Hallmark contact person.
- XI. Publicity: Except as required by law, no press release or other public announcement with respect to this Letter of Interest or the Transaction shall be made by any party hereto, and each party will direct its representatives not to make directly or indirectly, any such press release or public announcement, without in each case each party's prior written consent. If a party is required by law to make any such disclosure, such party must first provide to the other party the content of the proposed disclosure, the reasons that such disclosure is required by law, and the time and place that the disclosure will be made.
- XII. Counterparts: This Letter of Interest may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original and all of which together shall constitute the same instrument.
- XIII. Other Matters: This proposal letter shall be governed and construed under the laws of the State of Texas without regard to conflicts of laws principles.
