If no direction is indicated on the proxy, the shares represented thereby will be voted for the election of each of the nominees for director and in the discretion of the proxy holder on any other matter that may properly come before the meeting.

Submitting a proxy will not affect a shareholder's right to vote in person at the Annual Meeting. Any shareholder who gives a proxy may revoke it at any time before it is exercised by delivering written notice of revocation to the Company, by substituting a new proxy executed on a later date, or by making a written request in person at the Annual Meeting that the proxy be returned. However, mere attendance at the Annual Meeting will not of itself revoke the proxy.

In addition to solicitation by mail, proxies may be solicited by officers and regular employees of the Company by telephone or in person. Such officers and employees who solicit proxies will receive no compensation for their services other than their regular salaries. ("Newcastle"). On November 1, 2002, the Company entered into a promissory note with Newcastle pursuant to which the Company could borrow up to $9,000,000. The promissory note provides for a fixed interest rate of 11.75%. The unpaid principal balance and accrued and unpaid interest is due and payable on demand at any time after September 30, 2003.

On November 1, 2002, the Company borrowed $6,500,000 from Newcastle to purchase from a major bank all of the right, title and interest in a promissory note (the "Millers Note") payable to the bank by Millers American Group, Inc. ("Millers"), together with all related loan documentation and collateral. At the time of such acquisition, the Millers Note was in default and had an outstanding balance of approximately $15,070,000. The Millers Note was guaranteed by Trilogy Holdings, Inc. ("Trilogy"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Millers, and was secured by all of the issued and outstanding capital stock of Millers Insurance Company ("MIC"), a Texas-based property and casualty insurance carrier, and Phoenix Indemnity Insurance Company ("Phoenix"), an Arizona-based property and casualty insurance carrier, each of which was a wholly-owned subsidiary of Trilogy at the time of the acquisition. Effective January 1, 2003, the Company acquired all of the outstanding capital stock of Phoenix in satisfaction of $7,000,000 of the outstanding balance of the Millers Note.

On December 3, 2002, the Company borrowed an additional $2,100,000 from Newcastle to purchase two inactive subsidiaries from Millers and to purchase Millers General Agency, Inc. ("MGA"), an active Texas managing general agency, from MIC.
