Proxy Statement For Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be Held on May 15, 2002

Our Board of Directors is soliciting proxies for the 2002 Annual Meeting of Shareholders. This proxy statement contains important information for you to consider when deciding how to vote on the matters brought before the meeting. We encourage you to read it carefully.

Voting Information

The Board set April 1, 2002 as the record date for the meeting. Shareholders owning our common stock at the close of business on that date are entitled to attend and vote at the meeting, with each share entitled to one vote. There were 1,150,000 shares of common stock outstanding on the record date. A majority of the outstanding shares of common stock represented at the meeting will constitute a quorum. We will count abstentions and broker non-votes, which are described below, in determining whether a quorum exists.

When you sign the proxy card, you appoint R. Arthur Seaver, Jr. and Mr. Fred Gilmer, Jr. as your representatives at the meeting. Mr. Seaver and Mr. Gilmer will vote your proxy as you have instructed them on the proxy card. If you submit a proxy but do not specify how you would like it to be voted, Mr. Seaver and Mr. Gilmer will vote your proxy for the election to the board of directors of all nominees listed below under "Election of Directors". We are not aware of any other matters to be considered at the meeting. However, if any other matters come before the meeting, Mr. Seaver and Mr. Gilmer will vote your proxy on such matters in accordance with their judgment.

You may revoke your proxy and change your vote at any time before the polls close at the meeting. You may do this by signing and delivering another proxy with a later date or by voting in person at the meeting. Brokers who hold shares for the accounts of their clients may vote these shares either as directed by their clients or in their own discretion if permitted by the exchange or other organization of which they are members. Proxies that brokers do not vote on some proposals but that they do vote on others are referred to as "broker non-votes" with respect to the proposals not voted upon. A broker non-vote does not count as a vote in favor of or against a particular proposal for which the broker has no discretionary voting authority. In addition, if a shareholder abstains from voting on a particular proposal, the abstention does not count as a vote in favor of or against the proposal.

We are paying for the costs of preparing and mailing the proxy materials and of reimbursing brokers and others for their expenses of forwarding copies of the proxy materials to our shareholders. Upon written or oral request, we will promptly deliver a separate copy of our annual report, our annual report on Form 10-KSB, or this proxy statement to our shareholders at a shared address to which a single copy of the document was delivered. Our officers and employees may assist in soliciting proxies but will not receive additional compensation for doing so. We are distributing this proxy statement on or about April 15, 2002.

The Board of Directors is divided into three classes with staggered terms, so that the terms of only approximately one-third of the Board members expire at each annual meeting. The current terms of the Class III directors will expire at the meeting. The terms of the Class I directors expire at the 2003 Annual Shareholders Meeting. The terms of the Class II directors will expire at the 2004 Annual Shareholders Meeting. Our directors and their classes are:

The audit committee discussed with the independent auditors the matters required to be discussed by the Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61. The audit committee received from the independent auditors the written disclosures and the letter required by the Independent Standards Board Standard No. 1 ("Independence Discussions with Audit Committees") and discussed with the independent auditors the independent auditor's independence from the company and its management. The report of the audit committee is included herein at the direction of its members Mr. Cajka, Mr. Hooper, Mrs. Ellefson, Mr. Marrero, Mr. Sturgis, and Mr. Cabbage.

Certain Relationships and Related Transactions

Interests of Management and Others in Certain Transactions

We enter into banking and other transactions in the ordinary course of business with our directors and officers of the company and the bank and their affiliates. It is our policy that these transactions be on substantially the same terms (including price, or interest rates and collateral) as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with unrelated parties. We do not expect these transactions to involve more than the normal risk of collectibility nor present other unfavorable features to us. Loans to individual directors and officers must also comply with our bank's lending policies and statutory lending limits, and directors with a personal interest in any loan application are excluded from the consideration of the loan application. We intend for all of our transactions with our affiliates to be on terms no less favorable to the us than could be obtained from an unaffiliated third party and to be approved by a majority of disinterested directors.

We leased our bank's main facility from Halton Properties, LLC for a term of 20 years beginning in 2001. The lease requires us to make a $26,854 monthly payment for the next year. Mark A. Cothran, one of our directors, is a 50% owner of Halton Properties, LLC. We have conducted two separate appraisals of the lease and the property and believe that the terms of the proposed lease are on substantially the same terms as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with unrelated parties.

Compliance with Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934

As required by Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, our directors, and executive officers and certain other individuals are required to report periodically their ownership of our common stock and any changes in ownership to the SEC. Based on a review of Forms 3, 4, and 5 and any representations made to us, it appears that all such reports for these persons were filed in a timely fashion during 2001 except that a timely filing on Form 4 was not made for the following directors: Ms. Ellefson purchased 2,250 shares during 2001. She purchased 250 shares in February, 250 shares in March, 1,000 shares in June, 500 shares in July, 750 shares in September. We filed a late Form 4 for all of the stated purchases made during the year 2001. We have also amended her original Form 3 filing to correctly show her beneficial ownership prior to becoming a director of our company. Mssr. Ellison purchased 2,275 shares during 2001. He purchased 775 shares in March and 1,500 shares in October for which we filed a late Form 4 in December 2001 to report these transactions. In our initial offering, Mssr. Hooper purchased 15,000 shares, of which he placed 2,000 shares in each of his two children's names. We have amended Mr. Hooper's Form 3 to reflect his beneficial ownership of 13,000 shares. Mssr. Orders's has a minor child who was gifted 100 shares in December 15, 2000 for which Mr. Orders has voting power and we filed a late Form 5. Mssr. Sturgis purchased 2,500 shares on March 15, 2001 for which we filed a late Form 4 in December 2001 to report this transaction. Mssr. Marrero inadvertently reported on his Form 3 for his original purchase his ownership of 5,000 shares. Mssr. Marrero purchased 4,000 shares and has warrants for 2,000 shares. An amended Form 3 was filed to correctly report Mssr. Marrero's ownership.
