PART III – NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Gafisa S.A. (the “Company”) is unable to file its annual report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2011 within the prescribed time period without unreasonable effort or expense due to the restatement of the Company’s 2009 consolidated financial statements.

On April 1, 2011, the Company issued a Current Report on Form 6-K announcing its decision to restate its previously issued 2009 Form 20-F as a result of errors identified therein. As stated in the Company’s Current Report on Form 6-K furnished June 27, 2011, Ernst & Young Terco Auditores Independentes S.S. resigned as the Company’s independent registered accounting firm with respect to 2009 for purposes of its filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) and, as stated in the Company’s Current Report on Form 6-K furnished July 7, 2011, the Company engaged PricewaterhouseCoopers Auditores Independentes (“PwC”) as its independent registered accounting firm with respect to 2009 for purposes of its filings with the SEC.

Since the engagement of PwC, the Company has been working with PwC to complete the reaudit with respect to 2009. The work and procedures related to the reaudit were complicated significantly because the reaudit was conducted for a period that ended over two years ago, and a substantial portion of the work involved the operations and results of the Company’s subsidiary, Construtora Tenda S.A. (“Tenda”), an entity that was in the process of being merged with the Company. The challenges in completing the audit related primarily to locating documentation requested by PwC relating to Tenda’s operations.

The Company has been working diligently to assist PwC in completing its audit procedures, which took longer than initially expected given the difficulties in locating the additional documentation requested by PwC. The Company expects to complete the reaudit in the coming weeks and, as of the date of this filing, the Company expects to file its amended annual report on Form 20-F for 2009 during May 2012, and expects to file its annual reports on Form 20-F for each of 2010 and 2011, during June 2012.
