INTRODUCTION

This Proxy Statement is furnished to the shareholders of SM&A, a California corporation (the Company), in connection with the solicitation of proxies by and on behalf of the Board of Directors of the Company. The proxies solicited hereby will be presented at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders (the Annual Meeting) of the Company to be held at 10:00 AM local time on Tuesday, June 6, 2006, at the Company's Corporate Headquarters, 4695 MacArthur Court, 9th Floor, Newport Beach, California 92660. This Proxy Statement, the accompanying form of proxy, and the Company's Annual Report for fiscal year ending December 31, 2005, are being furnished to shareholders beginning on or about May 1, 2006.

Shareholders Entitled to Vote

Only holders of record of the Company's Common Stock (the Common Stock) at the close of business on April 7, 2006 (the Record Date) are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting and at any and all adjournments and postponements thereof. As of the Record Date, a total of 19,606,259 shares of the Company's Common Stock were issued and outstanding. The presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the shares of Common Stock outstanding on the Record Date is required for a quorum with respect to the matters on which action is to be taken at the meeting. Each such shareholder is entitled to one (1) vote for each share of Common Stock registered in their name and may vote such shares either in person or by proxy.

Voting of Proxies

Your vote is important. A form of proxy is enclosed for your use. Whether or not you expect to attend in person, we urge you to vote your shares via the Internet, by telephone, or by signing, dating, and returning the enclosed proxy card at your earliest convenience. Promptly voting your shares will save the Company the expense and extra work of additional solicitation. An addressed envelope, for which no postage is required if mailed in the United States, is enclosed if you wish to vote your shares by mail. Please be aware that, if you vote over the Internet or by telephone, you may incur costs such as telecommunication and Internet access charges for which you will be responsible.

Unless otherwise directed, all proxies will be voted FOR the election of each of the individuals nominated to serve as a director, FOR approval of the amendment of the Company's Amended and Restated Employee Stock Purchase Plan, FOR approval of the Reincorporation from California to Delaware; and FOR the ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's Independent Auditors. The votes of shareholders present in person or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting will be tabulated by an inspector of elections appointed by the Company. The nominees for directors of the Company who receive the greatest number of votes cast by shareholders present in person or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting and entitled to vote thereon will be elected directors of the Company. The other proposals will be approved if the affirmative votes exceed the votes cast against. Abstentions and broker non-votes are each included in the determination of the number of shares present and voting, for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for the transaction of business at the Annual Meeting. A non-vote occurs when a nominee (such as a broker) holding shares for a beneficial owner abstains from voting on a particular proposal because the nominee does not have discretionary voting power for that proposal and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner on how to vote those shares. Any shares not voted, whether by withheld authority, broker non-vote or otherwise, will have no effect on the outcome of the voting.

Revocation of Proxy

A proxy given may be revoked at any time before it is exercised by filing with the Corporate Secretary of the Company an instrument revoking such proxy or by the filing of a duly executed proxy bearing a later date. Any shareholder present at the Annual Meeting who has given a proxy may withdraw it and vote his or her shares in person if such shareholder so desires.

Voting at the Annual Meeting

The method by which you vote will in no way limit your right to vote at the Annual Meeting if you later decide to attend in person. If your shares are held in the name of a bank, broker or other holder of record, you must obtain a legal proxy or letter from the holder of record confirming your ownership of shares in order to be able to vote in person at the Annual Meeting.

In no event, however, will the proxies be voted for a greater number of persons than the number of nominees named.

Proxies, if not revoked, will be voted in favor of the Board's nominees for the Board of Directors at the Annual Meeting, unless the shareholder specifies otherwise.

ITEM 2. APPROVAL OF AMENDMENT TO THE AMENDED AND RESTATED EMPLOYEE STOCK PURCHASE PLAN

The Company adopted an employee stock purchase plan effective March 1, 1999 and has been subsequently amended several times. The amended and restated employee stock purchase plan (the ESPP) was adopted by the Board to (i) give eligible employees of the Company and its subsidiaries the opportunity to purchase stock in the Company at a five percent (5%) discount from the fair market value price, and to (ii) attract and retain employees. The ESPP permits participants to purchase shares of the Company's Common Stock directly from the Company by authorizing payroll withholdings over a predetermined period (each, an Offering Period), and purchase such shares at the end of each Offering Period with the payroll amounts withheld. Such purchase rights are granted solely to eligible employees of the Company and its subsidiaries. The ESPP is intended to be an employee stock purchase plan as defined in Section 423 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

On February 15, 2006, the Board of Directors approved an amendment to the ESPP, which is subject to shareholder approval. The amendment adds an additional 100,000 shares to the ESPP reserve account, thereby increasing the number of shares of Common Stock that may be issued under the ESPP from 1,400,000 to 1,500,000. This amendment to the ESPP is being proposed to allow future purchases of Company Stock by employees. As of April 7, 2006, there were 128,175 shares available for purchase under the ESPP.

No other amendment to the ESPP is proposed requiring shareholder approval. The ESPP, as proposed for amendment, is included as Appendix A to this Proxy Statement.

The approval of a majority of the shares of Common Stock is required to approve the proposed amendment to the ESPP.

Proxies, if not revoked, will be voted in favor of the approval of the amendment of the ESPP at the Annual Meeting unless the shareholder specifies otherwise.

ITEM 3. APPROVAL OF THE REINCORPORATION FROM CALIFORNIA TO DELAWARE

For the reasons set forth below, the Board of Directors (the Board) believes that the best interests of SM&A (SM&A or the Company) and its shareholders will be served by changing the state of incorporation of SM&A from California to Delaware (the Reincorporation Proposal). In proposing the reincorporation, the Board has purposefully drafted the proposed Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws so that they retain certain features of the existing Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of SM&A. Attention has also been given to the inclusion of provisions commonly maintained by companies incorporated in Delaware and friendly to shareholders in order to maximize management efficiency, maximize value for SM&A and to preserve shareholder rights.

Shareholders are urged to read carefully the following sections of this Proxy Statement, including the related appendices, before voting on the Reincorporation Proposal. Throughout this Proxy Statement, the term SM&A California refers to the existing California corporation and the term SM&A Delaware refers to a newly-created, wholly owned Delaware subsidiary of SM&A California and the proposed successor to SM&A California. The principal executive offices of both SM&A California and SM&A Delaware are located at 4695 MacArthur Court, 8th Floor, Newport Beach, California 92660.

Approval of the Reincorporation Proposal by the Company's shareholders will implicitly constitute such shareholders' approval of each of the following: (i) the Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) pursuant to which SM&A California will be merged with and into SM&A Delaware; (ii) the Certificate of Incorporation of SM&A Delaware; (iii) the Bylaws of SM&A Delaware; and (iv) the form of Indemnification Agreement of SM&A Delaware, each in form and substance as attached hereto as Appendices B, C, D and E, respectively.

Principal Reasons for Reincorporation

As the Board and management of SM&A considers its future, the importance of their ability to look to well-established principles of corporate governance and legal decisions is highlighted. Further, the responsiveness of the Delaware courts and legislature to the evolving legal and business requirements of corporations incorporated in the state make it a favorable environment for the conduct of SM&A's business. SM&A believes that any direct benefit that Delaware law provides to a corporation indirectly benefits the shareholders, who are the owners of the corporation. The Board and management believe that there are several reasons why a reincorporation to Delaware is in the best interests of SM&A which are summarized briefly as follows:

- greater predictability, flexibility and responsiveness of Delaware law to corporate needs;
- enhanced ability to protect shareholder interests in the event of a takeover attempt;
- increased ability of Delaware corporations to attract and retain qualified independent directors; and
- more certainty regarding indemnification and limitation of liability for directors.

Table of Contents

Predictability, Flexibility and Responsiveness of Delaware Law

SM&A's decision to reincorporate in the state of Delaware is due in large part to Delaware's reputation for the comprehensiveness and flexibility of its corporate laws and its tradition of promoting progressive principles of corporate governance. SM&A carefully compared the corporate laws of Delaware and California and observed favorably that Delaware offers laws that are responsive to the ever-changing legal and business needs of corporations. Furthermore, SM&A's Board believes that Delaware's corporate legal regime provides greater protection to shareholders and their interests in the event of an unsolicited takeover attempt. SM&A is currently unaware of any hostile attempts to acquire control of the Company, to obtain representation on the Company's Board or of any actions by any person or entity to materially, and potentially adversely, impact the governance of the Company or its business.

The following benefits of Delaware's corporate legal framework were carefully considered by management in deciding to propose reincorporating in Delaware:

the Delaware General Corporation Law (the "DGCL"), which is generally acknowledged to be the most advanced and flexible corporate statute in the country;

the Delaware General Assembly, which annually considers and adopts statutory amendments that the Corporation Law Section of the Delaware State Bar Association proposes in an effort to ensure that the corporate statute continues to be responsive to the changing needs of businesses;

the Delaware Court of Chancery, which handles complex corporate issues with a level of experience and a degree of sophistication and understanding unmatched by any other court in the country, and the highly regarded Delaware Supreme Court;

the well established body of case law construing Delaware law, which has developed over the last century and which provides businesses with a greater predictability than most, if not all, other jurisdictions provide; and the responsiveness and efficiency of the Division of Corporations of the Secretary of State of Delaware.

Enhanced Ability to Attract and Retain Directors

The current emphasis on issues of corporate governance brought about by the requirements of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, SEC rules and recent market regulation reforms, among other things, has increased the overall demand for highly qualified independent directors. The Board and the management believe that the resulting corporate environment has engendered increased competition for qualified and experienced independent directors. The Board and management further believe that this increased competitiveness coupled with the increased scrutiny of director actions and the perception of increased liability of independent directors has served to decrease the number of qualified persons willing to serve as independent directors and to cause qualified directors to opt to serve on fewer boards.

SM&A has not, to date, experienced notable difficulty in attracting and retaining experienced, qualified directors. The Board and management do, however, believe that the favorability of the corporate environment offered by Delaware to the interests of prospective directors will figure more prominently in their choice of directorships.

Because of its flexibility and familiarity to prospective directors, Delaware law provides, as noted above, a more favorable environment for directors to serve the best interests of SM&A. Additionally, the enhanced certainty regarding the indemnification and limitation of liability of directors under Delaware law enables corporations organized in Delaware to compete more effectively with other public companies, most of whom are already incorporated in Delaware, and to increase SM&A's ability to retain its current directors and attract and retain new directors.

Enhanced Certainty Regarding Indemnification and Limitation of Liability for Directors

California and Delaware law both permit a corporation to include a provision in its charter which reduces or limits the monetary liability of directors for breaches of fiduciary duties with certain exceptions. The increasing frequency of claims against directors and officers and the amount of time and money required to respond to such claims and related litigation can be a substantial risk for directors and officers. The Board and management of SM&A believe that, in general, Delaware law provides greater protection to directors than California law, and that Delaware case law regarding a corporation's ability to limit director liability is more developed and provides more guidance than California law. Shareholders of SM&A should be aware of and consider that such protection and limitation of liability inure to the benefit of the directors, and the interest of the Board in recommending the reincorporation may therefore be in conflict with the interests of the shareholders. See Significant Differences between the Corporation Laws of California and Delaware Indemnification and Limitation of Liability.

Dissenters' Rights Not Available

Although in some circumstances California law provides shareholders with the right to dissent from certain corporate reorganizations and receive cash for their shares, California law does not permit dissenter's rights in connection with the proposed reincorporation. See Appraisal/Dissenters' Rights.

Anti takeover Implications

Under Delaware law, a corporation may adopt certain measures to mitigate a corporation's vulnerability to unsolicited takeover attempts through amendment of the corporate charter documents or otherwise. In the discharge of its fiduciary obligations to its shareholders, the Board has evaluated SM&A's vulnerability to potential unsolicited bidders and in doing so has carefully considered and may consider in the future certain defensive strategies designed to enhance the Board's ability to negotiate with an unsolicited bidder. These strategies include, but are not limited to, the establishment of a classified board of directors, the elimination of the right to remove a director other than for cause, the elimination of shareholder action by written consent, and the authorization of preferred shares, the rights and preferences of which may be determined by the Board.

Although the Board of SM&A is not aware of any present attempt to acquire control of it, or to obtain representation on its Board, the Board believes that Delaware law would permit it to adopt certain measures that could potentially prevent the following potentially adverse effects of an unsolicited takeover bid on the business of the Company:

may be timed to take advantage of temporarily depressed share prices to the detriment of shareholders; may be designed to foreclose or minimize the possibility of more favorable competing bids of alternative transactions, and may involve the acquisition of only a controlling interest in the Company's shares, without affording all shareholders the opportunity to receive the same economic benefits.

By contrast, in a transaction in which a potential acquiror must negotiate with an independent board, the board can exercise its discretion in planning and timing the transaction to maximize the value of the transaction to the corporation and its shareholders, and take into consideration related matters such as the overall value of the corporation's assets, the recognition of gain or loss on the transaction for tax purposes, the advantages of a tax-free reorganization or the potential impact of future developments in the business on share price among other things.

Certain aspects of the Reincorporation Proposal may be considered to have anti-takeover implications. In particular, Section 203 of the DGCL, which SM&A Delaware does not intend to opt out of, restricts certain business combinations with interested shareholders for three years following the date that a person becomes an interested shareholder, unless the Board approves the business combination. For a detailed discussion of Section 203 of the DGCL and other differences between California and Delaware corporate law that may affect the shareholders, see Significant Differences Between the Corporation Laws of California and Delaware Shareholder Approval of Certain Business Combinations.

Despite the belief of the Board as to the benefits of the Reincorporation Proposal to shareholders of the Company, the effect of certain aspects of the Reincorporation Proposal may be disadvantageous to the extent that it has the effect of discouraging a future takeover attempt which is not approved by SM&A Delaware's Board, but which a majority of the shareholders may deem to be in their best interests or in which shareholders may receive a substantial premium for their shares over the then-current market value or over their cost basis in such shares. As a result of such effects of the Reincorporation Proposal, shareholders who might wish to participate in an unsolicited tender offer may not have an opportunity to do so. In addition, to the extent that provisions of Delaware law enable the Board to resist a takeover or a change in control of SM&A Delaware, such provisions could make it more difficult to dislodge the existing Board and Management.

Mechanics of Reincorporation

The discussion contained herein is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, the Certificate of Incorporation of SM&A Delaware, the Bylaws of SM&A Delaware, and the form of Indemnification Agreement of SM&A Delaware, copies of which are attached hereto as Appendices B, C, D and E, respectively. SM&A California's capital stock consists of 50,000,000 authorized shares of common stock, no par value, of which 19,606,259 shares were issued and outstanding as of April 7, 2006, and 10,000,000 authorized shares of preferred stock, no par value, none of which were outstanding as of April 7, 2006. On the effective date of the reincorporation, SM&A Delaware will have the same number of outstanding shares of common stock that SM&A California had outstanding immediately prior to the effective date of the reincorporation.

SM&A Delaware's capital stock will consist of 50,000,000 authorized shares of common stock, $0.0001 par value per share, and 10,000,000 shares of preferred stock, $0.0001 par value per share, which will be consistent with maintaining adequate capitalization for the current needs of the Company. SM&A Delaware's authorized but unissued shares of common stock and preferred stock will both be available for future issuance.

The Reincorporation Proposal will be affected by merging SM&A California into SM&A Delaware (the Merger). Upon completion of the Merger, SM&A California will cease to exist and SM&A Delaware will continue the business of the Company under the name SM&A. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, a form of which is attached hereto as Appendix B, upon the effective date of the Merger, (1) each outstanding share of SM&A California common stock will automatically be converted into one share of SM&A Delaware common stock, $0.0001 par value; and (2) each outstanding option to purchase SM&A California common stock, including options granted under SM&A California's Second Amended and Restated Equity Incentive Plan and the Amended and Restated Employee Stock Purchase Plan (together, the Stock Plans), if approved by the shareholders, will automatically be assumed by SM&A Delaware and will represent an option to acquire shares of SM&A Delaware common stock on the basis of one share of SM&A Delaware common stock for each one share of SM&A California common stock and at an exercise price equal to the exercise price of the SM&A California option. Each certificate representing issued and outstanding shares of SM&A California common stock will represent the same number of shares of common stock of SM&A Delaware, respectively, into which such shares are converted by virtue of the Merger.

IT WILL NOT BE NECESSARY FOR SHAREHOLDERS OF SM&A CALIFORNIA TO EXCHANGE THEIR EXISTING STOCK CERTIFICATES FOR STOCK CERTIFICATES OF SM&A DELAWARE. HOWEVER, SHAREHOLDERS MAY EXCHANGE THEIR CERTIFICATE IF THEY SO CHOOSE.

The common stock of SM&A California is listed for trading on the NASDAQ National Market, and after the Merger, SM&A Delaware's common stock will continue to be traded on the NASDAQ National Market without interruption, under the same symbol (WINS) used by SM&A California prior to the Merger.

Under California law, the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the Company's common stock is required for approval of the terms of the Reincorporation Proposal. See Vote Required. The Reincorporation Proposal has been approved by SM&A California's Board, which unanimously recommends a vote in favor of such proposal. If approved by the shareholders, it is anticipated that the Reincorporation Proposal will become effective as soon as practicable (the Effective Date). However, pursuant to the Merger Agreement, the Merger may be abandoned or the Merger Agreement may be amended (except that the principal terms may not be amended without shareholder approval) either before or after shareholder approval has been obtained and prior to the Effective Date if, in the opinion of the Board of either SM&A California or SM&A Delaware, circumstances arise which make it inadvisable to proceed.

Company

The Reincorporation Proposal will effect only a change in the legal domicile of SM&A California and other changes of a legal nature, certain of which are described in this Proxy Statement. The reincorporation will not result in any significant change in the name, business, management, fiscal year, accounting, location of the principal executive offices, assets or liabilities of SM&A California. The current directors of SM&A California will continue as directors of SM&A Delaware. All employee benefits and stock options of SM&A California will be assumed and continued by SM&A Delaware, and each option or right to purchase shares of SM&A California Common Stock will automatically be converted into an option or right to purchase the same number of shares of SM&A Delaware Common Stock at the same price per share, upon the same terms, and subject to the same conditions.

Shareholders should note that approval of the Reincorporation Proposal will also constitute approval of the assumption by SM&A Delaware of the Stock Plans and the options and other rights to purchase SM&A California capital stock. SM&A California's other employee benefit arrangements will also be continued by SM&A Delaware upon the terms and subject to the conditions in effect prior to the merger. Prior to the effective date of the merger of SM&A California with and into SM&A Delaware, SM&A California will seek to obtain any requisite consents to the reincorporation merger from parties with whom it may have material contractual arrangements. Assuming such consents are obtained, SM&A California's rights and obligations under such material contractual arrangements will continue and be assumed by SM&A Delaware.

Significant Differences in the Charters and Bylaws of SM&A California and SM&A Delaware

The rights of SM&A's shareholders are currently governed by the entity's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation, its Bylaws and the California General Corporation Law (the CGCL). As a result of the Merger, SM&A California's shareholders will become shareholders of SM&A Delaware.

Table of Contents

With certain exceptions, the provisions of the SM&A Delaware Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws are similar to those of the SM&A California Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws. The Board has purposefully set the proposed SM&A Delaware Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaw provisions at a modest level, commonly maintained by companies incorporated in Delaware and friendly to shareholders. However, the Reincorporation Proposal includes the implementation of certain provisions in the SM&A Delaware Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws which may alter the rights of shareholders and the powers of management and reduce shareholder participation in certain important corporate decisions. These provisions may have anti-takeover implications and are described in detail below.

Approval by SM&A California's shareholders of the Reincorporation Proposal will constitute an approval of the inclusion in the SM&A Delaware Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws of each of the provisions described below. In addition, certain other changes altering the rights of shareholders and powers of management could be implemented in the future by amendment of the Certificate of Incorporation following shareholder approval and certain such changes could be implemented by amendment of the Bylaws of SM&A Delaware without shareholder approval. For a discussion of such changes, see Significant Differences Between the Corporation Laws of California and Delaware. This discussion of the Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws of SM&A Delaware is qualified by reference to Appendices C and D attached to this Proxy Statement, respectively.

Change in Number of Directors

Delaware law permits corporations to provide in their certificate of incorporation that their boards of directors are empowered to change the authorized number of directors by amendment to the bylaws or in the manner provided in the bylaws, unless the number of directors is fixed in the certificate of incorporation, in which case a change in the number of directors may be made only by amendment to the certificate of incorporation. The Bylaws of SM&A Delaware establish a range of five (5) to nine (9) for the number of directors. It further provides that the number of directors may be fixed within this range from time to time by resolution of the Board (and on amendment of the Bylaws, a number outside of this range). Unlike the SM&A California Bylaws, changes in the size of the Board outside of the abovementioned limits can be adopted by amending the SM&A Delaware Bylaws, which can be amended by either the holders of the majority of the outstanding capital stock entitled to vote thereon or by a majority of the Board of Directors then in office.

Under California law, the directors can change the authorized number of directors if the shareholders have adopted a provision in the articles of incorporation or bylaws permitting the directors to fix their number, but only within the bounds of stated minimum and maximum numbers which have been approved by the shareholders. The Bylaws of SM&A California provide for not less than five (5) or more than nine (9) directors and permit the exact number to be fixed within that range through a bylaw amendment duly adopted by the Board or the shareholders. Thus, without shareholder approval, the Board of SM&A California can increase the number of directors to nine (9) but not to any higher number.

NASDAQ corporate governance rules require that the majority of the Board be independent. As a practical matter, it would be difficult for the Board to dramatically increase its size beyond the current range and fill it with qualified, independent directors. If the Reincorporation Proposal is approved, all of the directors of SM&A California will continue to serve as directors of SM&A Delaware following the Merger.

Table of ContentsCumulative Voting

Under a cumulative voting regime, a shareholder is permitted to cast as many votes as there are directors to be elected multiplied by the number of shares registered in such shareholder's name. Such votes may be cast for a single nominee or may be distributed among any two or more nominees. California law permits any shareholder to cumulate his or her votes in the election of directors upon proper notice of his, her or its intention to do so. California corporations that are listed on the American or New York Stock Exchanges or with securities qualified for trading on the NASDAQ National Market may opt to eliminate cumulative voting with the approval of its shareholders. Under Delaware law, cumulative voting is not permitted unless it is expressly authorized in the certificate of incorporation. The Bylaws of SM&A California expressly prohibit cumulative voting and the Certificate of Incorporation of SM&A Delaware will not provide for cumulative voting. The shareholders' rights with respect to cumulative voting will not, therefore, change if the Reincorporation Proposal is approved.

Filling Vacancies on the Board of Directors

Under California law, any vacancy on the board of directors other than one created by removal of a director may be filled by the board. If the number of directors is less than a quorum, a vacancy may be filled by the unanimous written consent of the directors then in office, by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors at a meeting held pursuant to notice or waivers of notice or by a sole remaining director. A vacancy created by removal of a director may be filled only if authorized by a corporation's articles of incorporation or by a bylaw approved by the corporation's shareholders. SM&A California's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws do not authorize directors to fill vacancies created by removal of a director by the shareholders.

Under Delaware law, vacancies and newly created directorships may be filled by a majority of directors then in office, even if less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director, unless otherwise provided in a corporation's certificate of incorporation or bylaws (or unless the certificate of incorporation directs that a particular class of stock is to elect such director(s), in which case a majority of the directors elected by such class, or a sole remaining director so elected, shall fill such vacancy or newly created directorship). The Bylaws of SM&A Delaware provide that any vacancy, including any vacancy created by the removal of a director by the shareholders of SM&A Delaware, may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, even if less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director.

Shareholder Power to Call Special Shareholders Meeting

Under California law and the Bylaws of SM&A California, a special meeting of shareholders may be called by the board of directors, the Chairman of the Board, the President, or the holders of shares entitled to cast not less than ten percent (10%) of the votes at such meeting. California law authorizes charter or bylaw provisions identifying additional persons who may call special meetings, though no such additional persons are identified in the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws of SM&A California.

Under Delaware law, a special meeting of shareholders may be called by the board of directors or by any other person authorized to do so in the certificate of incorporation or the bylaws. The Bylaws of SM&A Delaware effectively eliminate the right of shareholders to call a special meeting. Rather, the right to call a special meeting is limited in the Bylaws of SM&A Delaware to the Board, the Chairman of the Board, the President, or the Chief Executive Officer.

The Board has specifically opted to eliminate the right of shareholders to call a special meeting in order to avoid the unnecessary expense of a shareholders meeting and the distraction to management that might be occasioned by such a meeting where the matter or matters at issue are of minimal interest to the vast majority of the Company's shareholders.

Significant Differences Between the Corporation Laws of California and Delaware

The following provides a general summary of the principal differences between the General Corporation Laws of California and Delaware. It is not an exhaustive description of the differences between the two states' laws as it is impractical to summarize all of such differences in this Proxy Statement. Certain principal differences beyond those discussed in "Significant Differences in the Charters and Bylaws of SM&A California and SM&A Delaware" that could materially affect the rights of shareholders include the following:

Dividends and Repurchase of Shares

California law does not utilize concepts of par value for shares or statutory definitions of capital, surplus and similar concepts. The Company has never paid a cash dividend and it does not anticipate paying cash dividends in the immediate future.

Delaware law permits a corporation, unless otherwise restricted by its certificate of incorporation, to declare and pay dividends out of surplus or, if there is no surplus, out of net profits for the fiscal year in which the dividend is declared and/or for the preceding fiscal year as long as the amount of capital of the corporation is not less than the aggregate amount of the capital represented by the issued and outstanding stock of all classes having a preference upon the distribution of assets. In addition, Delaware law generally provides that a corporation may redeem or repurchase its shares only if such redemption or repurchase would not impair the capital of the corporation. In determining the amount of surplus of a Delaware corporation, the assets of the corporation, including stock of subsidiaries owned by the corporation, must, under certain circumstances, and may, under certain other circumstances, be valued at their fair market value as determined by the board of directors, regardless of their historical book value.

Under California law, a corporation may not make any distribution (including dividends, whether in cash or other property, and including repurchases of its shares) unless either (1) the corporation's retained earnings immediately prior to the proposed distribution equal or exceed the amount of the proposed distribution or, (2) immediately after giving effect to such distribution, the corporation's assets (exclusive of goodwill, capitalized research and development expenses and deferred charges) would be at least equal to 125% of its liabilities (not including deferred taxes, deferred income and other deferred credits), and the corporation's current assets, as defined, would be at least equal to its current liabilities (or 125% of its current liabilities if the average pre-tax and pre-interest earnings for the preceding two fiscal years were less than the average interest expenses for such years). Such tests are applied to California corporations on a consolidated basis. Under California law, there are certain exceptions to the foregoing rules for repurchases of shares in connection with certain rescission actions and certain repurchases pursuant to employee stock plans.

SM&A California currently maintains a share repurchase program. Under California law, repurchase programs are subject to certain restrictions that are not present in Delaware law. Delaware law, however, provides that a corporation may redeem or repurchase its shares only if the capital of the corporation is not impaired and such redemption or repurchase would not impair the capital of the corporation. If SM&A were to reincorporate in Delaware, this share repurchase program might be operated with fewer restrictions than is the case under California law enabling SM&A to extend the program and to thereby return value to SM&A's shareholders.

Table of ContentsClassified Board of Directors

A classified board is a board on which a certain number, but not all, of the directors are elected on a rotating basis each year. California law requires, with an exception applicable to certain publicly-traded companies, that directors be elected annually and, therefore, does not permit the creation of a classified board. Under the exception, a corporation that is listed on the American or New York Stock Exchanges or that have securities qualified for trading on the NASDAQ National Market may create and elect a classified board. By contrast, Delaware law permits, but does not require, the adoption of a classified board of directors, pursuant to which the directors can be divided into as many as three classes with staggered terms of office and with only one class of directors coming up for election each year. SM&A is not proposing to implement a classified board in connection with the implementation of the Reincorporation Proposal.

Removal of Directors

Under California law, any director or the entire board of directors may be removed, with or without cause, with the approval of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote. No individual director, however, may be removed (unless the entire board is removed) if the number of votes cast against the removal would be sufficient to elect the director under cumulative voting.

Under Delaware law, any director or the entire board of directors of a corporation that does not have a classified board of directors or cumulative voting may be removed, with or without cause, by the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote at an election of directors. In the case of a Delaware corporation having cumulative voting, however, if less than the entire board is to be removed, a director may not be removed if the shares voted against such removal would be sufficient to elect the director under cumulative voting. A director of a Delaware corporation with a classified board of directors can be removed only for cause unless the charter documents otherwise provide.

Interested Director Transactions

Under both California and Delaware law, certain contracts or transactions in which one or more of a corporation's directors has an interest are not void or voidable simply because of such interest provided that certain conditions are met, such as obtaining the required approval and fulfilling the requirements of good faith and full disclosure. With certain exceptions, the conditions are similar under California and Delaware law. Under California and Delaware law, (1) after full disclosure of the material facts, either the shareholders or the board of directors must approve any such contract or transaction and, in the case of board approval, the contract or transaction must also be just and reasonable (in California) or fair (in Delaware), or (2) if there was no disclosure, the contract or transaction must have been just and reasonable (in California) or fair in Delaware, as the case may be, as to the corporation at the time it was approved. In the latter case, California law explicitly places the burden of proof on the interested director.

Under California law, to shift the burden of proof on the validity of the contract by shareholder approval, the interested director would not be entitled to vote his or her shares at a shareholder meeting with respect to any action regarding such contract or transaction. To shift the burden of proof on the validity of the contract by Board approval, the contract or transaction must be approved by a majority vote of a quorum of the directors, without counting the vote of any interested directors (except that interested directors may be counted for purposes of establishing a quorum).

Under Delaware law, if Board approval is sought to shift the burden of proof on the validity of the contract, the contract or transaction must be approved by a majority of the disinterested directors (even though less than a majority of a quorum). Therefore, certain transactions that the Board of Directors of SM&A California might not be able to approve because of the number of interested directors could be approved by a majority of the disinterested directors of SM&A Delaware, although less than a majority of a quorum. Neither SM&A California nor SM&A Delaware is aware of any plans to propose any transaction involving directors that could not be so approved under California law but could be so approved under Delaware law.

Table of ContentsShareholder Approval of Certain Business Combinations

Under Section 203 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (Section 203), certain business combinations with interested shareholders of Delaware corporations are prohibited for a period of three years following the date that such person or entity becomes an interested shareholder unless specified conditions are met.

Section 203 prohibits a Delaware corporation from engaging in a business combination with an interested shareholder for three years following the date that such person becomes an interested shareholder. With certain exceptions, an interested shareholder is a person or entity who or which owns, individually or with or through certain other persons or entities, 15% or more of the corporation's outstanding voting stock (including any rights to acquire stock pursuant to an option, warrant, agreement, arrangement or understanding, or upon the exercise of conversion or exchange rights, and stock with respect to which the person has voting rights only), or is an affiliate or associate of the corporation and was the owner of 15% or more of such voting stock at any time within the previous three years.

For purposes of Section 203, the term business combination is defined broadly to include (1) any mergers or consolidations by the corporation or any of its subsidiaries with or caused by the interested shareholder, (2) sales, transfers or other dispositions to or with the interested shareholder (except proportionately with the corporation's other shareholders) of assets of the corporation or a subsidiary equal to ten percent (10%) or more of the aggregate market value of the corporation's consolidated assets or its outstanding stock, (3) the issuance or transfer by the corporation or a subsidiary of stock of the corporation or such subsidiary to the interested shareholder (except for transfers in a conversion or exchange or a pro rata distribution or certain other transactions, none of which increase the interested shareholder's proportionate ownership of any class or series of the corporation's or such subsidiary's stock), or (4) receipt by the interested shareholder (except proportionately as a shareholder), directly or indirectly, of any loans, advances, guarantees, pledges or other financial benefits provided by or through the corporation or a subsidiary.

The three year moratorium imposed on business combinations by Section 203 does not apply if (1) prior to the date on which such shareholder becomes an interested shareholder the board of directors of the subject corporation approves either the business combination or the transaction which resulted in the person or entity becoming an interested shareholder, (2) the interested shareholder owns 85% of the corporation's voting stock upon consummation of the transaction which made him or her a 15% shareholder (excluding from the 85% calculation shares owned by directors who are also officers of the subject corporation and shares held by employee stock plans, which do not permit employees to decide confidentially whether to accept a tender or exchange offer), or (3) on or after the date such person becomes an interested shareholder, the board approves the business combination and it is also approved at a shareholder meeting by 66 2/3% of the voting stock not owned by the interested shareholder.

Because the Company has not adopted a shareholder rights plan (commonly referred to as a poison pill), does not have a classified or staggered board and has charter provisions that allow shareholders to act by written consent, SM&A California is somewhat vulnerable to unsolicited takeover attempts. Opting out of Section 203 of the Delaware General Corporation Law would further minimize the ability of the Board and the management to negotiate takeover bids to achieve maximum value for the corporation and all of its shareholders. The Board believes that an unsolicited takeover attempt may have a negative effect on SM&A and its shareholders. See Anti-takover Implications . Section 203 may further have the effect of preventing a potential acquiror from making a two-tiered bid for the Company in which shareholders might be treated disparately. Transactions approved by the Board can, however, be carefully planned and undertaken at an opportune time to obtain maximum value for the corporation and its shareholders.

Table of Contents

The application of Section 203 to SM&A Delaware will confer upon the Board the power to reject a proposed business combination in certain circumstances, even though a potential acquiror may be offering a substantial premium for SM&A Delaware's shares over the then-current market price. Section 203 should, however, have the added benefit of discouraging certain potential acquirors unwilling to comply with its provisions.

Indemnification and Limitation of Liability

California and Delaware have similar laws permitting a corporation to indemnify, with certain exceptions, its officers, directors, employees and other agents. The laws of both states also permit corporations to adopt charter and bylaw provisions that effectively eliminate the liability of a director to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of the director's fiduciary duty of care. Delaware law does, however, differ to some extent from California law insofar as it is somewhat more lenient approach in allowing corporations to indemnify and limit the liability of corporate agents. Certain of the differences between the limitation of liability and indemnification permitted under California and Delaware law are summarized.

Comparison of Limitation of Liability Compare and Contrast

The Certificate of Incorporation of SM&A Delaware eliminates the liability of directors to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as directors to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware law, as that law exists currently and as it may be amended in the future. Under Delaware law, a director's monetary liability may not be eliminated or limited by a corporation for: (1) breaches of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its shareholders; (2) acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or knowing violations of law; (3) the unlawful payment of dividends or unlawful stock repurchases or redemptions under Section 174 of the DGCL; or (4) transactions in which the director received an improper personal benefit. Under Delaware law, a provision in the charter documents that limits a director's liability for the violation of, or otherwise relieve the corporation or its directors from complying with, federal or state securities laws is prohibited. Such provisions may also not attempt to limit the availability of non-monetary remedies such as injunctive relief or rescission for a violation of federal or state securities laws.

California law does not permit the elimination of monetary liability where such liability is based on: (1) acts or omissions that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing and culpable violation of law, (2) acts or omissions that a director believes to be contrary to the best interests of the corporation or its shareholders or that involve the absence of good faith on the part of the director, (3) any transaction from which a director derived an improper personal benefit, (4) acts or omissions that show a reckless disregard for the director's duty to the corporation or its shareholders in circumstances in which the director was aware, or should have been aware, in the ordinary course of performing a director's duties, of a risk of serious injury to the corporation or its shareholders, (5) acts or omissions that constitute an unexcused pattern of inattention that amounts to an abdication of the director's duty to the corporation or its shareholders, (6) interested transactions between the corporation and a director in which a director has a material financial interest, and (7) liability for improper distributions, loans or guarantees. Therefore, under California law, monetary liability may exist in circumstances where it would be eliminated under Delaware law.

Both the Articles of Incorporation of SM&A California and the Certificate of Incorporation of SM&A Delaware provide for the elimination of the liability of the directors to the fullest extent permissible under California and Delaware law respectively. Because of its general belief that Delaware law provides greater protection to directors than California law and that Delaware case law regarding a corporation's ability to limit director liability is more developed and provides more guidance than California law, SM&A believes that the Reincorporation Proposal and the attendant adoption of the SM&A Delaware Certificate of Incorporation will give the Company greater leverage in attracting and retaining qualified directors and officers. SM&A further believes that the Reincorporation Proposal would benefit the Company by enabling its directors to make decisions that are in the best interest of the Company and its shareholders in a corporate environment in which the likelihood of frivolous shareholder suits against them is decreased.

Indemnification Compared and Contrasted

Indemnification is permitted by both California and Delaware law, provided the requisite standard of conduct is met. California law requires indemnification when the individual has successfully defended the action on the merits, as opposed to Delaware law, which requires indemnification relating to a successful defense on the merits or otherwise.

Delaware law generally permits indemnification of expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts actually and reasonably incurred in the defense or settlement of a direct, derivative or third-party action, provided there is a determination by (1) a majority vote of disinterested directors (even though less than a quorum), (2) a committee comprised of and established by a majority vote of such disinterested directors (even though less than a quorum), (3) independent legal counsel in a written opinion if there are no such directors or such directors so direct, or (4) the shareholders that the person seeking indemnification has satisfied the applicable standard of conduct. Without requisite court approval, however, no indemnification may be made in the defense of any derivative action in which the person is found to be liable in the performance of his or her duty to the corporation.

California law generally permits a corporation to indemnify any director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation for expenses, monetary damages, fines, and settlement amounts to the extent actually and reasonably incurred in the defense or settlement of a derivative or third-party action, provided there is a determination by (1) majority vote of a quorum of disinterested directors, (2) independent legal counsel in a written opinion if such a quorum of directors is not obtainable, (3) shareholders, with the shares owned by the person to be indemnified, if any, not being entitled to vote thereon, or (4) the court in which the proceeding is or was pending upon application made by the corporation, agent or other person rendering services in connection with the defense, whether or not the application by such person is opposed by the corporation, that the person seeking indemnification has satisfied the applicable standard of conduct.

With respect to derivative actions, however, no indemnification may be provided under California law for amounts paid in settling or otherwise disposing of a pending action or expenses incurred in defending a pending action that is settled or otherwise disposed of, or with respect to the defense of any person adjudged to be liable to the corporation in the performance of his or her duty to the corporation and its shareholders without court approval. In addition, by contrast to Delaware law, California law requires indemnification only when the individual being indemnified was successful on the merits in defending any action, claim, issue or matter.

Expenses incurred by an officer or director in defending an action may be paid in advance, under Delaware law and California law, if such director or officer undertakes to repay such amounts if it is ultimately determined that he or she is not entitled to indemnification. In addition, the laws of both states authorize a corporation's purchase of indemnity insurance for the benefit of its officers, directors, employees and agents whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify against the liability covered by the policy. California law permits a California corporation to provide rights to indemnification beyond those provided therein to the extent such additional indemnification is authorized in the corporation's Articles of Incorporation. Thus, if so authorized, rights to indemnification may be provided pursuant to agreements or bylaw provisions which make mandatory the permissive indemnification provided by California law.

SM&A California's Articles of Incorporation permit indemnification beyond that expressly mandated by California law and limit director monetary liability to the extent permitted by California law. SM&A California's Bylaws make indemnification of directors mandatory in cases where SM&A California is permitted by applicable law to indemnify its directors. Similar to SM&A California's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws, the Bylaws and Certificate of Incorporation of SM&A Delaware require indemnification to the maximum extent permissible under applicable law.

If the Reincorporation Proposal is approved, in connection with the reincorporation, SM&A directors and officers would enter into a new form of indemnification agreement with SM&A Delaware, which provides indemnification to the fullest extent permitted by current Delaware law and future Delaware law that expands the permissible scope of indemnification. Such form of Indemnification Agreement is attached as Appendix E hereto.

California and Delaware corporate law, the SM&A California Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws and the SM&A Delaware Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws may permit indemnification for liabilities under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The Board of Directors has been advised that, in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission, indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 may be contrary to public policy and, therefore, may be unenforceable, absent a decision to the contrary by a court of appropriate jurisdiction.

Inspection of Shareholders' List and Books and Records

Both California and Delaware law allow any shareholder to inspect the shareholder list of a corporation, for a purpose reasonably related to such person's interest as a shareholder. This right is unqualified and absolute and includes a right to inspect and copy the list under California law by persons who hold an aggregate of five percent or more of a corporation's voting shares or who hold one percent or more of such shares and have filed a Schedule 14A with the Securities and Exchange Commission. California law also permits a shareholder upon such shareholder's written demand to the corporation to inspect the accounting books and records, and the minutes of board and shareholder proceedings of the corporation for any purpose reasonably related to the shareholder's interest.

Delaware law also permits any shareholder of record, upon compliance with certain procedures, to inspect a list of shareholders and the corporation's other books and records for any proper purpose reasonably related to such person's interest as a shareholder, upon written demand under oath stating the purpose of such inspection. Delaware law, however, contains no provision comparable to the absolute right of inspection provided by California law to certain shareholders.

Approval of Certain Corporate Transactions

Under both California and Delaware law, with certain exceptions, any merger, consolidation or sale of all or substantially all the assets must be approved by the board of directors and by a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote. Under California law, similar board and shareholder approval is also required in connection with certain additional acquisition transactions. See Appraisal/Dissenters Rights.

Class Voting in Certain Corporate Transactions

California law generally differs from corporate law with respect to shareholder approval of any merger, certain sales of all or substantially all the assets of a corporation and certain other transactions. Under California law, such transactions must be approved by a majority of the outstanding shares of each class of stock (without regard to limitations on voting rights). By contrast, Delaware law does not generally require class voting, except in connection with certain amendments to the certificate of incorporation that, among other things, adversely affect a class of stock.

Appraisal/Dissenters Rights

Under both California and Delaware law, a shareholder of a corporation participating in certain major corporate transactions may, under varying circumstances, be entitled to appraisal rights, pursuant to which such shareholder may receive cash in the amount of the fair market value of the shares held by such shareholder (as determined by agreement of the corporation and the shareholder or by a court) in lieu of the consideration such shareholder would otherwise receive in the transaction.

Under Delaware law, such appraisal rights are not available to shareholders (1) with respect to a merger or consolidation by a corporation the shares of which are either listed on a national securities exchange, (2) shares of stock held of record by more than 2,000 holders if such shareholders receive only shares of the surviving corporation or shares of any other corporation, or (3) shareholders of a corporation surviving a merger if no vote of the shareholders of the surviving corporation is required to approve the merger in accordance with Section 251(f) of the DGCL.

California law differs from Delaware law with respect to appraisal rights (which are referred to as dissenters rights under California law) insofar as the former does not provide for such rights for shares listed on a national securities exchange immediately prior to the transaction unless the holders of at least five percent of the outstanding shares claim the rights or transfer of the shares is restricted by the corporation or any law or regulation. Such rights are also generally not available where the shareholders of the corporation or the corporation itself, or both, immediately prior to the reorganization will own immediately after the reorganization, equity securities constituting more than 83.3% of the voting power of the surviving or acquiring corporation or its parent entity (as will be the case in the Merger). Thus, appraisal rights are not available to shareholders of SM&A California under California law with respect to the Reincorporation Proposal.

Dissolution

Under California law, shareholders holding 50% or more of the total voting power may elect to require a corporation's dissolution, with or without the approval of the corporation's board of directors, and this right may not be modified by the articles of incorporation. Shareholders who have not voted in favor of a dissolution may prevent the dissolution by purchasing for cash at fair market value the shares of the parties attempting to initiate the dissolution.

Table of Contents

By contrast, under Delaware law, shareholders holding 100% of the total voting power of the corporation must approve a dissolution unless the board of directors approves the proposal to dissolve. If the dissolution is initiated by the board of directors, it may be approved by the holders of a simple majority of the corporation's shares. Delaware law allows a Delaware corporation to include in its certificate of incorporation a supermajority voting requirement in connection with dissolutions to enable a corporation to prevent a board initiated dissolution scenario. SM&A Delaware's Certificate of Incorporation contains no such supermajority voting requirement, however, and the vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares would be sufficient to approve a dissolution of SM&A Delaware which had previously been approved by its Board of Directors.

Shareholder Derivative Suits

California law provides that a shareholder bringing a derivative action on behalf of a corporation need not have been a shareholder at the time of the transaction in question, provided that certain tests are met. California law also provides that the corporation or the defendant in a derivative suit may make a motion to the court for an order requiring the plaintiff shareholder to furnish a security bond. Delaware law differs from California law insofar as it does not have such a bond requirement. Additionally, under Delaware law, a shareholder may bring a derivative action on behalf of the corporation only if the shareholder was a shareholder of the corporation at the time of the transaction in question or if his or her stock thereafter came to be owned by him or her by operation of law.

Application of the CGCL to Delaware Corporations

Under Section 2115 of the CGCL, certain foreign corporations (i.e., corporations not organized under California law) are subject to a number of key provisions of the CGCL. Such corporations are included in a special category (referred to in this discussion as "quasi-California" corporations) if they have characteristics of ownership and operation which indicate that they have significant contacts with California. These characteristics include the following: (1) more than half of the corporation's outstanding voting securities being held of record by persons or entities domiciled in California, and (2) the average of a "property factor, sales factor and payroll factor" (as defined under California law) exceeds a 50% threshold. Key provisions of the CGCL to which a Delaware corporation would be subject are those relating to the election and removal of directors, cumulative voting, prohibition of classified boards of directors unless certain requirements are met, standard of liability and indemnification of directors, distributions, dividends and repurchases of shares, shareholder meetings, approval of certain corporate transactions, dissenters appraisal rights and inspection of corporate records. See "Significant Differences between the Corporation Laws of California and Delaware."

However, an exemption from Section 2115 is provided for corporations whose shares are listed on the New York Stock Exchange or the American Stock Exchange or whose shares are traded on the NASDAQ National Market are be exempt from the provisions of Section 2115. Because the securities of the Company will continue to be designated as NASDAQ National Market securities after the Merger, SM&A Delaware will be exempt from the provisions of Section 2115 after the reincorporation.

Federal Income Tax Considerations

The following is a discussion of certain federal income tax considerations with respect to the Merger that are generally applicable to holders of SM&A California capital stock who receive SM&A Delaware capital stock in exchange for their SM&A California capital stock in the Merger. This summary is for general information purposes only and does not purport to address all the federal income tax considerations that may be relevant to particular shareholders of SM&A California in light of their particular circumstances or who are subject to special treatment under the federal income tax laws (such as shareholders that are dealers in securities, foreign persons, or shareholders that acquired their shares in connection with a stock option plan or other compensatory transaction). Furthermore, no foreign, state or local tax considerations are addressed herein. This summary is based on current federal income tax law, which is subject to change at any time, possibly with retroactive effect. ALL SHAREHOLDERS OF SM&A CALIFORNIA ARE URGED TO CONSULT THEIR OWN TAX ADVISORS AS TO THE SPECIFIC FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL AND FOREIGN TAX CONSEQUENCES TO THEM OF THE MERGER.

Subject to the limitations, qualifications and exceptions described herein, and assuming the Merger qualifies as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), the following tax consequences generally should result:

- (a) No gain or loss should be recognized by a shareholder of SM&A California who exchanges all of such shareholder's SM&A California capital stock for SM&A Delaware capital stock in the Merger;
- (b) The aggregate tax basis of the SM&A Delaware capital stock received by a shareholder of SM&A California in the Merger should be equal to the aggregate tax basis of SM&A California capital stock surrendered in exchange therefor; and
- (c) The holding period of the SM&A Delaware capital stock received in the Merger should include the period for which the SM&A California capital stock surrendered in exchange therefor was held, provided that the SM&A California capital stock is held as a capital asset at the time of the Merger.

The Company has not requested a ruling from the Internal Revenue Service, nor an opinion from its outside legal counsel, with respect to the federal income tax consequences of the Reincorporation Proposal under the Internal Revenue Code. In any case, such an opinion would neither bind the Internal Revenue Service nor preclude it from asserting a contrary position.

State, local or foreign income tax consequences to shareholders may vary from the federal tax consequences described above.

SM&A should not recognize gain or loss for federal income tax purposes as a result of the Reincorporation Proposal, and SM&A Delaware should succeed, without adjustment, to the federal income tax attributes of SM&A California.

Vote Required

Approval of the Reincorporation Proposal, will also constitute approval of (1) the Merger Agreement, the Certificate of Incorporation of SM&A Delaware, the Bylaws of SM&A Delaware, and the form of Indemnification Agreement of SM&A Delaware, in substantially the form attached as Appendices B, C, D and E, respectively and (2) the assumption of SM&A California's Stock Plans and outstanding stock options by SM&A Delaware will require the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the outstanding common stock of SM&A California.

General

The Board believes that reincorporating SM&A from California to Delaware will enable the Company to benefit from Delaware's predictable and responsive legal and institutional regimes. One such benefit will be the Company's increased ability to attract and retain qualified independent directors and ensure sound corporate governance. In proposing the reincorporation, the Board of Directors has carefully evaluated the Company's anti-takeover profile and balanced the relative rights of its shareholders and management in order to maximize management efficiency and maximize value for SM&A and its shareholders. For the reasons set forth above, the Board of Directors believes that it is in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders for the Company to reincorporate in the state of Delaware.

Proxies, if not revoked, will be voted in favor of the approval of the reincorporation proposal, unless the shareholder specifies otherwise.

Work Performed by Independent Auditors

Audit Committee Approval of Audit and Non-Audit Services

The Audit Committee has adopted procedures for pre-approving all audit and permitted non-audit services provided by the Company's independent auditors. The Audit Committee pre-approves a list of specific services and categories of services, subject to a specified cost level. Part of this approval process includes making a determination of whether non-audit services are consistent with the SEC's rules on auditor independence. The Audit Committee may delegate pre-approval authority to the Chairman of the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee periodically monitors the services rendered and actual fees paid to the independent auditors to ensure such services are within the parameters approved.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

The Board of Directors continues to implement governance practices that will be followed by the Company in order to assure that the Board will have the necessary authority and practices in place to review and evaluate the Company's business operations as needed and to make decisions that are independent of the Company's management. These practices are also intended to align the interest of directors and management with those of the Company's shareholders.

Board Member Attendance

The Board of Directors held nine meetings during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005, and have held three meetings since the end of such fiscal year. All of the incumbent directors attended in excess of 75 percent of the total number of meetings of the Board.

Following most of the regularly scheduled Board meetings in 2005, executive sessions were conducted in which directors in attendance participated. The Company is complying with the National Association of Securities Dealers (the "NASD's") rules which require that only independent directors be present for at least two executive sessions.

The Company expects all incumbent directors to attend Annual Meetings. The Company generally holds a board meeting coincident with the Annual Meeting to minimize travel obligations and facilitate director attendance at the Annual Meeting. Seven of the Company's directors then in office attended the Company's 2005 Annual Meeting.

Committees of the Board of Directors

Following is a description of each Committee of the Board of Directors.

Audit Committee. The Audit Committee assists the Board of Directors in fulfilling its responsibility for oversight of the quality and integrity of the accounting and reporting practices of the Company, the qualifications and independence of the Independent Auditor engaged to prepare or issue an audit report on the financial statements of the Company and such other duties as directed by the Board. The Committee's role includes discussing with management the Company's processes to manage financial risk, and for compliance with significant applicable legal, ethical, and regulatory requirements. The Committee also approves, subject to shareholder approval, the appointment and replacement of the Independent Auditor and is directly responsible for oversight and pre-approval of all audit and non-audit services provided by the Independent Auditor. For the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005 and the current fiscal year, the Committee consisted entirely of independent directors (as defined in Rule 4200(a)(15) of the NASD's marketplace rules) and satisfied the audit committee independence and financial literacy requirements of Nasdaq. The Board has determined that Mr. Untracht satisfied the requirements for an audit committee financial expert under the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Committee held: (i) five meetings during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005 attended by all of the Committee members; and (ii) one meeting since January 1, 2006 attended by all Committee members. The Committee's formal written amended charter dated April 11, 2006 is included as Appendix F to this proxy statement. A copy of the amended charter is also available on the Company's website: www.smawins.com under Investor Relations>Corporate Governance.

Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee provides guidance and periodic monitoring for all corporate compensation, employee benefit, and employee equity programs. The compensation of the Company's chief executive officer and other senior executive officers is determined or recommended to the Board by the Committee. None of the members of the Compensation Committee were, at any time during fiscal 2005 or at any other time, an officer or employee of the Company. The Committee held: (i) three meetings during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005 attended by all Committee members; and (ii) one meeting since January 1, 2006 attended by all Committee members. The Committee's formal written amended charter dated April 11, 2006 is included as Appendix G to this proxy statement. A copy of the amended charter is also available on the Company's website: www.smawins.com under Investor Relations>Corporate Governance.

Governance & Nominating Committee. The Committee's role is to determine the slate of director nominees for election to the Company's Board of Directors, to identify and recommend candidates to fill vacancies occurring between annual shareholder meetings, and to review, evaluate and recommend changes to the Company's corporate governance practices. The director nominees are selected or recommended for Board selection by a majority of the independent directors. During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005, the Committee held six meetings and has held two meetings since the end of such fiscal year. All Committee members attended in excess of 75 percent of these meetings. The Committee's formal written amended charter dated April 12, 2005 may be viewed on the Company's website: www.smawins.com under Investor Relations>Corporate Governance.

Director Nominee Criteria and Process

The Board of Directors is responsible for approving candidates for Board membership. The Board has delegated the screening and recruitment process to the Governance & Nominating Committee. The Governance & Nominating Committee believes that the criteria for director nominees should include ensuring effective corporate governance, supporting the Company's strategies, reflecting highest personal and professional integrity, possessing sound judgment, free from conflicts of interest, having adequate time to devote to Board responsibilities, supporting the successful recruitment of qualified candidates for the Board and representing the best interest of all the Company's shareholders.

The Committee may receive recommendations for Board candidates from various sources, including the Company's directors, management and shareholders. Shareholder proposals for nominations to the Board should be submitted to the Governance & Nominating Committee in care of the Corporate Secretary of the Company at its principal executive office at 4695 MacArthur Court, 8th Floor, Newport Beach, California 92660. To be considered by the Board for nomination at the next succeeding Annual Meeting, nominations must be delivered to the Corporate Secretary no later than January 22, 2007 (see Submission of Shareholder Proposals for the 2007 Proxy Statement).

The Corporate Secretary's office, at the request of the Committee, researches the qualifications of recommended candidates and reports its findings to the Chairman of the Committee.

When a vacancy occurs on the Board, the Committee recommends to the Board a nominee to fill the vacancy. As provided in the Company's By-Laws, the Board elects a new director when a vacancy occurs between Annual Meetings.

Retention of Independent Advisors

Each of the Audit, Compensation, and Governance & Nominating Committees has the authority to retain independent advisors, legal counsel or other experts or consultants it deems appropriate to carry out its responsibilities, with all fees and expenses paid by the Company.

Director Independence

To promote effective corporate governance, a majority of the members of the Company's Board qualify as independent under criteria established by Nasdaq. The Governance & Nominating Committee regularly reviews the independence and qualifications of each member of the Board and its various Committees. Mr. Myers does not participate in any action of the Board relating to any executive or employee compensation plan in which he participates.

The Board has determined that seven of the current directors, Messrs. William C. Bowes, Dwight L. Hanger, J. Christopher Lewis, Joseph B. Reagan, Robert Rodin, John P. Stenbit, and Robert J. Untracht are independent. Mr. Steven S. Myers, an employee of the Company and the Company's Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer is not independent.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Report of the Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee (the Committee) currently consists of Messrs. Bowes, Lewis, and Reagan, none of whom is an employee of the Company. The Board designates the members and the Chairman of the Committee. Currently, the Chairman of the Committee is Dr. Joseph Reagan.

The Committee oversees the general compensation plan of the Company and sets the specific compensation of the Company's chief executive officer, the chief operating officer, and the chief financial officer, (the Senior Executives) and the executive vice presidents, and reviews the chief executive officer's annual compensation plan for levels other than the Senior Executives. The Committee also oversees the development processes for Senior Executives and future Senior Executive candidates. The compensation programs have been designed to ensure that the compensation paid to the Senior Executives is substantially linked to both Company and individual performance. Accordingly, a significant portion of the compensation for which a Senior Executive is eligible is comprised of variable components based upon individual achievement and Company performance measures. In addition, the Committee evaluates and oversees the Company's stock incentive plans.

Executive Compensation Principles

The design and implementation of the Company's executive compensation programs are based on a series of general principles. These principles may be summarized as follows:

Align the interests of management and shareholders to build shareholder value by the encouragement of consistent, long-term Company growth.

Attract and retain key Senior Executives whose abilities are considered essential to the long-term success and competitiveness of the Company.

Support a performance oriented environment that rewards achievement of internal Company goals and recognizes Company performance compared to the performance of similar situated companies;

Motivate key Senior Executives for long-term strategic management and the enhancement of shareholder value through stock option awards.

Table of Contents

Components of Executive Compensation in Fiscal 2005

The Company's Senior Executive compensation package is comprised of the following components:

- Base Salary;
- Incentive Cash Bonus;
- Long-Term Incentives; and
- Benefits and Perquisites.

Base Salary

Base salaries are the fixed component of the Senior Executive's compensation package. Base salary is established for each Senior Executive in accordance with the Company's standard payroll practices for its executive officers and is reflected in the Senior Executives' employment agreements. The Committee annually reviews the employment agreements to ensure appropriateness and increases to base salary are made to reflect Company performance, competitive market increases and individual factors.

Incentive Cash Bonus

Each Senior Executive's incentive cash bonus opportunity is reflected in the Senior Executive's employment agreement and subsequently reviewed annually

Long-Term Incentives

Long-term incentives are provided through stock option grants. During 2005, these grants were pre-defined in each Senior Executive's employment agreement. These option grants are intended to motivate the Senior Executives to manage the business to improve long-term Company performance. Option grants are made with exercise prices equal to the market price of the shares on the date of grant and will be of no value unless the market price of the Company's outstanding common shares appreciates, thereby aligning a substantial part of the Senior Executive's compensation package with the return realized by the shareholders.

During fiscal year 2005, the Committee granted stock options to the Named Executive Officers as set forth in the table entitled "Option Grants in Last Fiscal Year to Named Executive Officers." The committee believes that stock options encourage long-term Company stock ownership, and therefore that such grants are in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders.

Eligible Senior Executives may also participate in the Company's Amended and Restated Employee Stock Purchase Plan (the "ESPP"). Under this program, eligible employees may authorize payroll deductions of up to 15% of their bi-weekly base pay. The amounts are accumulated and, at the end of each quarter are used to purchase shares of the Company's Common Stock at 95% of the fair market value of the Company's Common Stock on the Purchase Date (as defined in the plan)

Benefits and Perquisites

The benefits and perquisites component of executive compensation is generally similar to that which is offered to all of the Company's employees or that are typical in the industry for an executive's position or circumstances.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation

In setting the compensation payable to the chief executive officer, the goal is to provide compensation competitive with other companies in the industry while at the same time making a significant percentage of the chief executive officer's potential earnings subject to consistent, positive, long-term Company performance. In general, the factors utilized in determining the chief executive officer's compensation were similar to those applied to the other executive officers in the manner described in the preceding paragraphs.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

As previously noted, as of December 31, 2005, the members of the Compensation Committee were Messrs. Bowes, Lewis, and Reagan. Mr. Albert S. Nagy also served on the Committee during 2005 prior to retiring from the Board of Directors effective April 12, 2005. None of the members of the Compensation Committee was at any time during fiscal year 2005 or at any other time an officer or employee of the Company. There are no Compensation Committee interlocks between the Company and other entities involving the Company's executive officers and Board members who serve as executive officers or Board members of such other entities.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee (the Committee) oversees the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors and is directly responsible for the compensation, appointment and oversight of the Company's independent auditors. Management is responsible for the preparation, presentation and integrity of the Company's financial statements, and for the procedures designed to assure compliance with accounting standards and applicable laws and regulations. The Company's independent auditors, Ernst & Young LLP (Ernst & Young) are responsible for auditing the Company's financial statements and expressing an opinion as to their conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

The Committee operates pursuant to a charter that can be found on the Company's website at www.smawins.com under Investor Relations>Corporate Governance. Under its written charter, the Committee has the authority to conduct any investigation appropriate to fulfilling its responsibilities, has direct access to the independent auditors as well as anyone in the Company, and has the ability to retain, at the Company's expense, special legal, accounting, or other consultants or experts it deems necessary in the performance of its duties. A copy of the Committee Charter will be provided, without charge, upon request by contacting the Corporate Secretary at SM&A, 4695 MacArthur Court, 8th Floor, Newport Beach, CA 92660.

The Committee is composed of four independent directors. The Board of Directors has made a determination that each member of the Committee is independent and financially literate as required by the Sarbanes-Oxley Act and applicable SEC rules. The Board has also determined that one or more members of the Committee have accounting or related financial management expertise. The Board determined that Mr. Robert J. Untracht is an audit committee financial expert as defined by rules of the SEC. The Committee held five meetings during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005, and has held one meeting since the end of such fiscal year, all of which were attended by all of the Committee members.

In performing its oversight function, the Committee reviewed and discussed with management and the independent auditors, the audited financial statements and the quarterly operating results prior to their issuance. During 2005, management advised the Committee that the financial statements reviewed had been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and reviewed significant accounting and disclosure issues with the Committee. These reviews included discussion with independent auditors of matters required to be discussed pursuant to Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, Communication with Audit Committees, as modified or supplemented. The Committee has received the written disclosures from the independent auditors required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees, as currently in effect and has discussed such independence with the independent auditors. The Committee also reviewed the requirements and the Company's progress in implementing the requirements of Section 404 of Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and related regulations. The Committee also reviews comments on accounting matters from the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The Committee has also considered whether the provision of non-audit services by the independent auditors is compatible with maintaining their independence, and has satisfied itself with respect to the independent auditors independence.

Based on its reviews and discussions, the Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the Board approve the inclusion of the Company's audited financial statements in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

PURPOSE OF THE PLAN

1.1 Purpose. The Company has determined that it is in its best interest to provide incentives to attract and retain employees and to increase employee morale by providing a program through which employees of the Company, and the Company's subsidiaries as the Company's Board of Directors (the Board of Directors or the Board) may from time to time designate (each a Designated Subsidiary, and collectively, Designated Subsidiaries), may acquire a proprietary interest in the Company through the purchase of shares of the Common Stock of the Company (Company Stock). The Plan is hereby established by the Company to permit employees to subscribe for, and purchase directly from the Company, shares of the Company Stock at a discount from the market price and to pay the purchase price in installments by payroll deductions. The Plan is intended to qualify as an employee stock purchase plan under Section 423 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time (the Code). Accordingly, the provisions of the Plan shall be administered, interpreted, and construed in a matter consistent with the requirements of that section of the Code. The Plan is not intended to be an employee benefit plan under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, and therefore is not required to comply with that Act.

PAYROLL DEDUCTIONS

5.1 Participant Election. Upon completion of the Election Notice Form, each Participant shall designate the amount of payroll deductions to be made from his or her paycheck to purchase Company Stock under the Plan. The amount of payroll deductions shall be designated in whole percentages of Compensation, not to exceed 15%. The amount so designated upon the Election Notice Form shall be effective as of the next payroll period and shall continue until terminated or altered in accordance with Section 5.2 below.

5.2 Changes in Election. A Participant may terminate participation in the Plan at any time prior to the close of an Offering Period as provided in Article 8. A Participant may increase or decrease the rate of payroll deductions once during each Offering Period by completing and delivering to the Company's stock purchase coordinator a new Election Notice Form setting forth the desired change. A Participant may also terminate payroll deductions and have accumulated deductions for the Offering Period applied to the purchase of Company Stock as of the next Purchase Date by completing and delivering to the stock purchase coordinator a new Election Notice Form setting forth the desired change. Any change under this Section shall become effective on the next payroll period (to the extent practical under the Company's payroll practices) following the delivery of the new Election Notice Form.

5.3 Participant Accounts. The Company shall establish and maintain a separate account (Account) for each Participant. The amount of each Participant's payroll deductions shall be credited to his or her Account. No interest will be paid or allowed on amounts credited to a Participant's Account. All payroll deductions received by the Company under the Plan are general corporate assets of the Company and may be used by the Company for any corporate purpose. The Company is not obligated to segregate such payroll deductions.

GRANT OF PURCHASE RIGHTS

6.1 Right to Purchase Shares. On each Purchase Date, each Participant shall have the right to purchase at the price determined under Section 6.2 that number of shares (including fractional shares) of Company Stock that can be purchased or issued by the Company based upon that price with the amounts held in his or her Account, subject to the limits set forth in Section 3.3. In the event that there are amounts held in a Participant's Account that are not used to purchase Company Stock, such amounts shall be returned to the Participant, without interest.

6.2 Purchase Price. The purchase price for any Offering Period shall be 95% of the Fair Market Value of Company Stock on the Purchase Date.

6.3 Fair Market Value. Fair Market Value shall be determined as follows:

(a) If the Company Stock is then listed or admitted to trading on the NASDAQ National Market or a stock exchange which reports closing sale prices, the Fair Market Value shall be the closing sale price on the date of valuation on the NASDAQ National Market or principal stock exchange on which the Company Stock is then listed or admitted to trading, or, if no closing sale price is quoted or no sale takes place on such day, then the Fair Market Value shall be the closing sale price of the Company Stock on the NASDAQ National Market or such exchange on the preceding day (prior day) on which a sale occurred.

(b) If the Company Stock is not then listed or admitted to trading on the NASDAQ National Market or a stock exchange which reports closing sale prices, the Fair Market Value shall be the average of the closing bid and asked prices of the Company Stock in the over-the-counter market on the date of valuation.

(c) If neither (a) nor (b) is applicable as of the date of valuation, then the Fair Market Value shall be determined by the Administrator (see Section 7.2) using any reasonable method of valuation, which determination shall be conclusive and binding on all interested parties.

PURCHASE OF STOCK

7.1 Purchase of Company Stock. A Participant who does not, prior to a Purchase Date, notify the Company that such Participant does not want to purchase any shares of Company Stock pursuant to the Plan or that such Participant wants to purchase fewer than the maximum number of shares available for purchase, shall be deemed to elect to purchase the maximum number of shares of Company Stock (including fractional shares) purchasable with the amounts held in such Participant's Account, at the purchase price determined under Section 6.2 above and, on each Purchase Date, the Plan shall purchase such shares on behalf of such Participant. In the event that there are amounts held in a Participant's Account that are not used to purchase Company Stock, all such amounts shall be returned to the Participant, without interest.

The Board or a Committee may, in its discretion, limit the purchase of Company Stock to only whole shares and not fractional shares.

7.2 Delivery of Company Stock.

(a) Company Stock acquired under the Plan shall be issued directly to a contract administrator (the Administrator) engaged by the Company to administer the Plan under Article 9. All Company Stock so issued (Plan Held Stock) shall be held in the name of the Administrator for the benefit of the Plan. The Administrator shall maintain accounts for the benefit of the Participants that shall reflect each Participant's interest in the Plan Held Stock. Such accounts shall reflect the number of shares of Company Stock (including fractional shares) that are being held by the Administrator for the benefit of each Participant.

Table of Contents

(b) For share withdrawals, only whole shares of Company Stock will be issued to a Participant. The time of issuance and delivery of shares may be postponed for such period as may be necessary to comply with the registration requirements under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, the listing requirements of any securities exchange on which the Company Stock may then be listed, or the requirements under other laws or regulations applicable to the issuance or sale of such shares. A payment will be made to a Participant for any fractional shares of Company Stock owned by the Participant. This payment shall be computed using the Fair Market Value of a share of Company Stock on the date the withdrawal is processed by the Company's stock purchase coordinator. For shares of Company Stock sold by a Participant from his or her account maintained by the Administrator, the Participant shall receive credit for all whole and fractional shares at the actual price for which the shares were sold.

WITHDRAWAL

8.1 In Service Withdrawal. At any time prior to the Purchase Date of an Offering Period, a Participant may withdraw the amounts held in his or her Account by executing and delivering to the Company's stock purchase coordinator written notice of withdrawal on the form provided by the Company. In such a case, the entire balance of the Participant's Account shall be paid to the Participant, without interest, as soon as is practicable. Upon such notification, the Participant shall cease to participate in the Plan for the remainder of the Offering Period in which the notice is given. An Employee who has withdrawn under this Section 8.1 at least thirty (30) days prior to the Purchase Date of an Offering Period shall be excluded from participation in the Plan for the remainder of the Offering Period, but may then be reinstated as a participant for a subsequent Offering Period by executing and delivering a new Election Notice Form to the Company's stock purchase coordinator. An Employee who has withdrawn under this Section 8.1 less than thirty (30) days prior to the Purchase Date of an Offering Period shall be excluded from participation in the Plan for the remainder of the Offering Period and for one (1) subsequent Offering Period, but may thereafter be reinstated as a participant for a subsequent Offering Period by executing and delivering a new Election Notice Form to the Company's stock purchase coordinator.

8.2 Termination of Employment. In the event that a Participant's employment with the Company terminates for any reason, the Participant shall cease to participate in the Plan on the date of termination. As soon as is practical following the date of termination, the entire balance of the Participant's Account shall be paid to the Participant, without interest.

PLAN ADMINISTRATION

9.1 Plan Administration.

(a) The authority to control and manage the operation and administration of the Plan shall be vested in the Board of Directors or a committee (Committee) thereof. The Board or the Committee shall have all powers necessary to supervise the administration of the Plan and control its operations.

(c) Any action taken in good faith by the Board or the Committee in the exercise of authority conferred upon it by this Plan shall be conclusive and binding upon a Participant and his beneficiaries. All discretionary powers conferred upon the Board shall be absolute.

9.2 Limitation on Liability. No Employee or member of the Board or Committee shall be subject to any liability with respect to his or her duties under the Plan unless the person acts fraudulently or in bad faith. To the maximum extent permitted by law, the Company shall indemnify each member of the Committee and every other member of the Board, as well as any other Employee with duties under the Plan, against all liabilities and expenses (including any amount paid in settlement or in satisfaction of a judgment) reasonably incurred by the individual in connection with any claims against the individual by reason of the performance of the individual's duties under the Plan. This indemnity shall not apply, however, if: (a) it is determined in the action, lawsuit, or proceeding that the individual is guilty of gross negligence or intentional misconduct in the performance of those duties; or (b) the individual fails to assist the Company in defending against any such claim. The Company shall have the right to select counsel and to control the prosecution or defense of the suit. The Company shall not be obligated to indemnify any individual for any amount incurred through any settlement or compromise of any action unless the Company consents in writing to the settlement or compromise.

COMPANY STOCK

10.1 Limitations on Purchase of Shares. The maximum number of shares of Company Stock that shall be made available for sale under the Plan shall be 1,500,000 shares, subject to adjustment under Section 10.4 below. The shares of Company Stock to be sold to Participants under the Plan will be issued by the Company. If the total number of shares of Company Stock that would otherwise be issuable pursuant to rights granted pursuant to Section 6.1 of the Plan at the Purchase Date exceeds the number of shares then available under the Plan, the Company shall make a pro rata allocation of the shares remaining available in as uniform and equitable manner as is practicable. In such event, the Company shall give written notice of such reduction of the number of shares to each participant affected thereby and any unused payroll deductions shall be returned to such participant if necessary.

10.2 Registration of Company Stock. Shares to be delivered to a Participant under the Plan will be registered in the name of the Participant.

10.3 Changes in Capitalization of the Company. Subject to any required action by the shareholders of the Company, the number of shares of Company Stock covered by each right under the Plan which has not yet been exercised and the number of shares of Company Stock which have been authorized for issuance under the Plan but have not yet been placed under rights or which have been returned to the Plan upon the cancellation of a right, as well as the Purchase Price per share of Company Stock covered by each right under the Plan which has not yet been exercised, shall be proportionately adjusted for any increase or decrease in the number of issued shares of Company Stock resulting from a stock split, stock dividend, spin-off, reorganization, recapitalization, merger, consolidation, exchange of shares or the like. Such adjustment shall be made by the Board of Directors for the Company, whose determination in that respect shall be final, binding and conclusive. Except as expressly provided herein, no issue by the Company of shares of stock of any class, or securities convertible into shares of stock of any class, shall affect, and no adjustment by reason thereof shall be made with respect to, the number or price of shares of Company Stock subject to any right granted hereunder.

10.4 Merger of Company. In the event that the Company at any time proposes to merge into, consolidate with, or enter into any other reorganization pursuant to which the Company is not the surviving entity (including the sale of substantially all of its assets or a reverse merger in which the Company is the surviving entity), then, to the extent permitted by applicable law: (i) any surviving corporation shall assume the rights theretofore granted or substitute for such rights new rights covering the shares of a successor corporation, with appropriate adjustments as to the number and kind of shares and prices, or (ii) the Plan and the rights theretofore granted shall continue in full force and effect. In the event any surviving corporation refuses to assume or continue the Plan, or to substitute similar options for those under the Plan, then the Board of Directors or its committee shall cause written notice of the proposed action to be given to the persons holding rights not less than 10 days prior to the anticipated effective date of the proposed transaction and, concurrent with the effective date of the proposed transaction, such rights shall be exercised automatically in accordance with Section 7.1 as if such effective date were a Purchase Date of the applicable Offering Period unless a Participant withdraws from the Plan as provided in Section 8.1.

MISCELLANEOUS

11.1 Amendment and Termination. The Plan shall terminate on December 31, 2008. Since future conditions affecting the Company cannot be anticipated or foreseen, the Company reserves the right to amend, modify, or terminate the Plan at any time. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no such amendment or termination shall affect rights previously granted, nor may an amendment make any change in any right previously granted which adversely affects the rights of any Participant. In addition, no amendment may be made without prior approval of the shareholders of the Company if such amendment would:

- (a) Increase the number of shares of Company Stock that may be issued under the Plan;
- (b) Materially modify the requirements as to eligibility for participation in the Plan; or
- (c) Materially increase the benefits that accrue to Participants under the Plan.

11.2 Benefits Not Alienable. Benefits under the Plan may not be assigned or alienated, whether voluntarily or involuntarily. Table of Contents

11.3 No Enlargement of Employee Rights. The Plan is strictly a voluntary undertaking on the part of the Company and shall not be deemed to constitute a contract between the Company and any Employee or to be consideration for, or an inducement to, or a condition of, the employment of any Employee. Nothing contained in the Plan shall be deemed to give the right to any Employee to be retained in the employ of the Company or to interfere with the right of the Company to discharge any Employee at any time.

11.4 No Additional Rights. Neither the adoption of the Plan nor the granting of any right to purchase stock hereunder shall affect or restrict in any way the power of the Company to undertake any corporate action otherwise permitted under applicable law. Furthermore, no Employee shall have any rights as a Stockholder with respect to shares to be purchased under the Plan until time at which the Fair Market Value of the Common Stock is determined on the Purchase Date. merged with and into SM&A Delaware (the Merger), the separate existence of SM&A California shall cease and SM&A Delaware shall be, and is sometimes referred to below as, the Surviving Corporation, and the name of the Surviving Corporation shall be SM&A.

1.2 Filing and Effectiveness. The Merger shall become effective upon completion of the following actions:

(a) Adoption and approval of this Agreement and the Merger by the stockholders of each Constituent Corporation in accordance with the applicable requirements of the Delaware General Corporation Law and the California General Corporation Law;

(b) The satisfaction or waiver of all of the conditions precedent to the consummation of the Merger as specified in this Agreement; and

(c) The filing with the Secretary of State of Delaware of an executed Certificate of Merger or an executed counterpart of this Agreement meeting the requirements of the Delaware General Corporation Law.

The date and time when the Merger becomes effective is referred to in this Agreement as the Effective Date of the Merger.

1.3 Effect of the Merger. Upon the Effective Date of the Merger, the separate existence of SM&A California shall cease and SM&A Delaware, as the Surviving Corporation, (a) shall continue to possess all of its assets, rights, powers and property as constituted immediately prior to the Effective Date of the Merger, (b) shall be subject to all actions previously taken by its and SM&A California's Board of Directors, (c) shall succeed, without other transfer, to all of the assets, rights, powers and property of SM&A California in the manner more fully set forth in Section 259 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, (d) shall continue to be subject to all of the debts, liabilities and obligations of SM&A Delaware as constituted immediately prior to the Effective Date of the Merger, and (e) shall succeed, without other transfer, to all of the debts, liabilities and obligations of SM&A California in the same manner as if SM&A Delaware had itself incurred them, all as more fully provided under the applicable provisions of the Delaware General Corporation Law and the California General Corporation Law.

Charter Documents, Directors and Officers

2.1 Certificate of Incorporation. The Certificate of Incorporation of SM&A Delaware as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Date of the Merger shall continue in full force and effect as the Certificate of Incorporation of the Surviving Corporation until duly amended in accordance with the provisions thereof and applicable law.

2.2 Bylaws. The Bylaws of SM&A Delaware as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Date of the Merger shall continue in full force and effect as the Bylaws of the Surviving Corporation until duly amended in accordance with the provisions thereof and applicable law.

otherwise provided by law, the Certificate of Incorporation of the Surviving Corporation or the Bylaws of the Surviving Corporation.

Manner of Conversion of Stock

3.1 SM&A California Common Stock. Upon the Effective Date of the Merger, each one share of SM&A California Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior thereto shall, by virtue of the Merger and without any action by the Constituent Corporations, the holder of such share or any other person, be converted into and exchanged for one fully paid and nonassessable share of Common Stock, $0.0001 par value, of the Surviving Corporation. No fractional share interests of the Surviving Corporation shall be issued. In lieu thereof, each holder of shares of SM&A California shall receive from SM&A Delaware an amount of cash equal to the average closing prices of SM&A California Common Stock as quoted on the Nasdaq National Market for five (5) consecutive trading days ending three (3) business days prior to the closing date of the Merger. Any fractional share interests to which a holder would otherwise be entitled shall be aggregated so that no SM&A California shareholder shall receive cash in an amount greater than the value of one (1) full share of SM&A Delaware Common Stock.

3.2 SM&A California Options, Stock Purchase Rights and Convertible Securities.

(a) Upon the Effective Date of the Merger, the Surviving Corporation shall assume and continue any and all stock option, stock incentive, employee benefit and other equity-based award plans heretofore adopted by SM&A California (the Plans). Each outstanding and unexercised option, other right to purchase, or security convertible into, SM&A California Common Stock (a Right) shall become, subject to the provisions in paragraph (c) hereof, an option, right to purchase, or a security convertible into the Surviving Corporation's Common Stock, respectively, on the basis of one share of the Surviving Corporation's Common Stock, as the case may be, for each one share of SM&A California Common Stock, issuable pursuant to any such Right, on the same terms and conditions and at an exercise price equal to the exercise price applicable to any such SM&A California Right at the Effective Date of the Merger. This paragraph 3.2(a) shall not apply to SM&A California Common Stock. Such Common Stock is subject to paragraph 3.1 hereof.

(b) A number of shares of the Surviving Corporation's Common Stock shall be reserved for issuance upon the exercise or conversion of Rights equal to the number of shares SM&A California Common Stock so reserved immediately prior to the Effective Date of the Merger.

(c) The assumed Rights shall not entitle any holder thereof to a fractional share upon exercise or conversion. In lieu thereof, any fractional share interests to which a holder of an assumed Right (other than an option issued pursuant to SM&A Delaware's Plans) would otherwise be entitled upon exercise or conversion shall be aggregated (but only with other similar Rights which have the same per share terms). To the extent that after such aggregation, the holder would still be entitled to a fractional share with respect thereto upon exercise or conversion, the holder shall be entitled upon the exercise or conversion of all such assumed Rights pursuant to their terms (as modified herein), to one full share of Common Stock or Preferred Stock in lieu of such fractional share. With respect to each class of such similar Rights, no holder will be entitled to more than one full share in lieu of a fractional share upon exercise or conversion.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, with respect to options issued under SM&A California's Plans that are assumed in the Merger, the number of shares of Common Stock to which the holder would be otherwise entitled upon exercise of each such assumed option following the Merger shall be rounded down to the nearest whole number and the exercise price shall be rounded up to the nearest whole cent. In addition, no additional benefits (within the meaning of Section 424(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended) shall be accorded to the optionees pursuant to the assumption of their options.

3.3 SM&A Delaware Common Stock. Upon the Effective Date of the Merger, each share of Common Stock, $0.0001 par value, of SM&A Delaware issued and outstanding immediately prior thereto shall, by virtue of the Merger and without any action by SM&A Delaware, the holder of such shares or any other person, be canceled and returned to the status of authorized but unissued shares.

3.4 Exchange of Certificates. After the Effective Date of the Merger, each holder of an outstanding certificate representing SM&A California Common Stock may, at such holder's option, surrender the same for cancellation to U.S. Stock Transfer Corporation, as exchange agent (the Exchange Agent), and each such holder shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor a certificate or certificates representing the number of shares of the Surviving Corporation's Common Stock into which the surrendered shares were converted as provided herein. Until so surrendered, each outstanding certificate theretofore representing shares of SM&A California capital stock shall be deemed for all purposes to represent the number of whole shares of the appropriate class and series of the Surviving Corporation's capital stock into which such shares of SM&A California capital stock were converted in the Merger.

The registered owner on the books and records of the Surviving Corporation or the Exchange Agent of any such outstanding certificate shall, until such certificate shall have been surrendered for transfer or conversion or otherwise accounted for to the Surviving Corporation or the Exchange Agent, have and be entitled to exercise any voting and other rights with respect to and to receive dividends and other distributions upon the shares of capital stock of the Surviving Corporation represented by such outstanding certificate as provided above.

Each certificate representing capital stock of the Surviving Corporation so issued in the Merger shall bear the same legends, if any, with respect to the restrictions on transferability as the certificates of SM&A California so converted and given in exchange therefor, unless otherwise determined by the Board of Directors of the Surviving Corporation in compliance with applicable laws.

If any certificate for shares of Surviving Corporation's stock is to be issued in a name other than that in which the certificate surrendered in exchange therefor is registered, it shall be a condition of issuance thereof that the certificate so surrendered shall be properly endorsed and otherwise in proper form for transfer, that such transfer otherwise be proper and comply with applicable securities laws and that the person requesting such transfer pay to the Exchange Agent any transfer or other taxes payable by reason of the issuance of such new certificate in a name other than that of the registered holder of the certificate surrendered or establish to the satisfaction of the Surviving Corporation that such tax has been paid or is not payable.

ARTICLE II

MEETINGS OF STOCKHOLDERS

Section 1. Place of Meetings. Meetings of stockholders shall be held either at the principal executive office of the Corporation or at any other place within or without the State of Delaware which may be designated either by the Board or by the written consent of all persons entitled to vote thereat, given either before or after the meeting and filed with the Secretary.

Section 2. Annual Meetings. The annual meetings of the stockholders shall be held on such date and at such time as may be fixed by the Board. At such meetings, directors shall be elected and any other proper business may be transacted.

Such notice shall state the place, date and hour of the meeting and (a) in the case of a special meeting, the general nature of the business to be transacted, and no other business may be transacted, or (b) in the case of the annual meeting, those matters which the Board, at the time of the mailing of the notice, intends to present for action by the stockholders, but, subject to the provisions of applicable law, any proper matter may be presented at the meeting for such action. The notice of any meeting at which directors are to be elected shall include the names of nominees intended at the time of the notice to be presented by management for election.

Notice of a stockholders meeting shall be given either personally or by mail or by other means of written communication, addressed to the stockholder at the address of such stockholder appearing on the books of the Corporation or given by the stockholder to the Corporation for the purpose of notice; or, if no such address appears or is given, at the place where the principal executive office of the Corporation is located or by publication at least once in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the principal executive office is located. Notice by mail shall be deemed to have been given at the time a written notice is deposited in the United States mails, postage prepaid. Any other written notice shall be deemed to have been given at the time it is personally delivered to the recipient or is delivered to a common carrier for transmission to the recipient. Any notice to stockholders may be given by electronic mail or other electronic transmission, in the manner provided by Section 232 of the Delaware General Corporation Law. An affidavit of the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary or of the transfer agent of the Corporation that the notice has been given shall, in the absence of fraud, be prima facie evidence of the giving of such notice. Notice of the time, place and purpose of any meeting of stockholders may be waived in writing, either before or after the meeting, and to the extent permitted by law, will be waived by any stockholder by attendance thereat, in person or by proxy, except when the person objects at the beginning of the meeting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 4, a stockholder shall also comply with all applicable requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended from time to time, and the rules and regulations thereunder with respect to matters set forth in this Section 4.

Section 5. Quorum. A majority of the issued and outstanding stock entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of stockholders. The stockholders present at a duly called or held meeting at which a quorum is present may continue to do business until adjournment, notwithstanding the withdrawal of enough stockholders to have less than a quorum, if any action taken (other than adjournment) is approved by at least a majority of the shares required to constitute a quorum. If, however, such quorum is not present or represented at any meeting of the stockholders, then either (a) the chairman of the meeting or (b) holders of a majority of the shares of stock entitled to vote who are present, in person or in proxy, shall have power to adjourn the meeting to another place (if any), date or time in accordance with Section 6 of this Article.

Section 6. Adjourned Meeting and Notice Thereof. Any stockholders meeting, whether or not a quorum is present, may be adjourned from time to time by the vote of a majority of the shares, the holders of which are either present in person or represented by proxy thereat, but in the absence of a quorum (except as provided in Section 5 of this Article) no other business may be transacted at such meeting.

It shall not be necessary to give any notice of the time and place of the adjourned meeting or of the business to be transacted thereat, other than by announcement at the meeting at which such adjournment is taken; provided, however, when any stockholders meeting is adjourned for more than thirty (30) days or, if after adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting.

Section 7. Voting. The stockholders entitled to vote at any meeting of stockholders shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 8 of this Article, subject to the provisions of Sections 217 and 218 of the General Corporation Law of Delaware (relating to voting rights of fiduciaries, pledgors and joint owners of stock and to voting trusts and other voting agreements). Except as may be otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, each stockholder shall be entitled to one vote for each share of capital stock held by such stockholder. All elections shall be determined by a plurality of the votes cast, and except as otherwise required by law, all other matters shall be determined by a majority of the votes cast affirmatively or negatively.

Section 8. Record Date. The Board may fix, in advance, a record date for the determination of the stockholders entitled to notice of any meeting to vote or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution, or any allotment of rights, or to exercise rights in respect of any other lawful action. The record date so fixed shall be not more than sixty (60) days nor less than ten (10) days prior to the date of the meeting nor more than sixty (60) days prior to any other action. When a record date is so fixed, only stockholders of record on that date are entitled to notice of and to vote at the meeting or to receive the dividend, distribution, or allotment of rights, or to the exercise of the rights, as the case may be, notwithstanding any transfer of shares on the books of the Corporation after the record date. A determination of stockholders of record entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall apply to any adjournment of the meeting unless the Board fixes a new record date for the adjourned meeting. The Board shall fix a new record date if the meeting is adjourned for more than thirty (30) days.

If no record date is fixed by the Board, the record date for determining stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall be at the close of business on the business day next preceding the day on which notice is given or, if notice is waived, at the close of business on the next business day next preceding the day on which the meeting is held. The record date for determining stockholders for any purpose other than set forth in this Section 8 or Section 10 of this Article shall be at the close of business on the day on which the Board adopts the resolution relating thereto, or the sixtieth day prior to the date of such other action, whichever is later.

Section 9. Consent of Absentees. The transactions of any meeting of stockholders, however called and noticed, and wherever held, are as valid as though had at a meeting duly held after regular call and notice, if a quorum is present either in person or by proxy, and if, either before or after the meeting, each of the persons entitled to vote, not present in person or by proxy, signs a written waiver of notice, or a consent to the holding of the meeting or an approval of the minutes thereof. All such waivers, consents or approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meeting. Neither the business to be transacted at nor the purpose of any regular or special meeting of stockholders need be specified in any written waiver of notice, except as provided in the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws.

Section 10. Action Without Meeting. Subject to Section 228 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, any action which, under any provision of the Delaware General Corporation Law, may be taken at any annual or special meeting of stockholders, may be taken without a meeting and without prior notice if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of outstanding shares having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted. Unless a record date for voting purposes be fixed as provided in Section 8 of this Article, the record date for determining stockholders entitled to give consent shall be the day on which the first written consent is given.

Section 11. Proxies. Every person entitled to vote shares has the right to do so either in person or by one or more persons authorized by a written proxy executed by such stockholder and filed with the Secretary. Every proxy duly executed shall continue in full force and effect until revoked by the person executing it prior to the vote pursuant thereto effected by a writing delivered to the Corporation stating that the proxy is revoked or by a subsequent proxy executed by the person executing the prior proxy and presented to the meeting, or by attendance at the meeting and voting in person by the person executing the proxy; provided, however, that no proxy shall be valid after the expiration of eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided in the proxy. The revocability of a proxy that states on its face that it is irrevocable shall be governed by the provisions of Section 212(a) of the Delaware General Corporation Law.

Section 12. Inspectors of Election. In advance of any meeting of stockholders, the Board may appoint any persons, other than nominees for office inspectors of election to act at such meeting and any adjournment thereof. If inspectors of election are not so appointed, or if any persons so appointed fail to appear or refuse to act, the chairman of any such meeting may, and on the request of any stockholder or stockholder's proxy shall, make such appointment at the meeting. The number of inspectors shall be either one or three. If appointed at a meeting on the request of one or more stockholders or proxies, the majority of shares present shall determine whether one or three inspectors are to be appointed.

The duties of such inspectors shall include: determining, and certifying as appropriate, the number of shares outstanding and the voting power of each; the shares represented at the meeting; the existence of a quorum; the authenticity, validity and effect of proxies; receiving votes, ballots or consents; hearing and determining all challenges and questions in any way arising in connection with the right to vote; counting and tabulating all votes or consents; determining when the polls shall close; determining the result; and doing such acts as may be proper to conduct the election or vote with fairness to all stockholders. If there are three inspectors of election, the decision, act or certificate of a majority is effective in all respects as the decision, act or certificate of all.

The Board may delegate the management of the day-to-day operation of the business of the Corporation to a management company or other person provided that the business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed and all corporate powers shall be exercised under the ultimate direction of the Board. Without prejudice to such general powers, but subject to the same limitations, it is hereby expressly declared that the Board shall have the following powers in addition to the other powers enumerated in these Bylaws:

(a) To select and remove all the other officers, agents and employees of the Corporation, prescribe the powers and duties for them as may not be inconsistent with applicable law, with the Certificate of the Corporation or these Bylaws, fix their compensation and require from them security for faithful service.

Section 2. Number of Directors. The authorized number of directors shall be, until changed by amendment of the Bylaws or by a Bylaw duly adopted by the holders of a majority of the outstanding capital stock entitled to vote thereon or a majority of the Board , such number as may from time to time be authorized by resolution of the Board or the stockholders, provided that such number shall not be less than five (5) nor more than nine (9).

Section 3. Election and Term of Office. The directors shall be elected at each annual meeting of the stockholders, but if any such annual meeting is not held or the directors are not elected thereat, the directors may be elected at any special meeting of stockholders held for that purpose. Each director shall hold office until the next annual meeting and until a successor has been elected and qualified.

Section 4. Vacancies. Any director may resign effective upon giving written notice to the Chairman of the Board, the President, the Secretary or the Board, unless the notice specifies a later time for the effectiveness of such resignation. If the resignation is effective at a future time, a successor may be elected to take office when the resignation becomes effective.

Vacancies in the Board may be filled by a majority of the remaining directors, though less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director, and each director so elected shall hold office until the next annual meeting and until such director s successor has been elected and qualified.

A vacancy or vacancies in the Board shall be deemed to exist in the case of the death, resignation or removal of any director, or if the authorized number of directors be increased, or if the stockholders fail, at any annual or special meeting of stockholders at which any director or directors are elected, to elect the full authorized number of directors to be voted for at that meeting.

The Board may declare vacant the office of a director who has been declared of unsound mind by an order of court or convicted of a felony.

The stockholders may elect a director or directors at any time to fill any vacancy or vacancies not filled by the directors. Any such election by written consent requires the consent of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote. If the Board accepts the resignation of a director tendered to take effect at a future time, the Board or the stockholders shall have power to elect a successor to take office when the resignation is to become effective.

No reduction of the authorized number of directors shall have the effect of removing any director prior to the expiration of the director s term of office.

Every act or decision done or made by a majority of the directors present at a meeting duly held at which a quorum is present shall be regarded as the act of the Board, unless a greater number be required by law or by the Certificate. A meeting at which a quorum is initially present may continue to transact business notwithstanding the withdrawal of directors, if any action taken is approved by at least a majority of the required quorum for such meeting.

Section 9. Participation in Meetings by Conference Telephone. Members of the Board may participate in a meeting through use of conference telephone or similar communications equipment, so long as all members participating in such meeting can hear one another.

Section 10. Waiver of Notice. The transactions of any meeting of the Board, however called and noticed or wherever held, are as valid as though had at a meeting duly held after regular call and notice if a quorum be present and if, either before or after the meeting, each of the directors not present signs a written waiver of notice, a consent to holding such a meeting or an approval of the minutes thereof. All such waivers, consents or approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meeting.

Section 15. Committees. The Board may appoint one or more committees, each consisting of two or more directors, and delegate to such committees any of the authority of the Board except with respect to:

(a) Any stockholder of record, in person or by attorney or other agent, shall, upon written demand under oath stating the purpose thereof, have the right during the usual hours for business to inspect for any proper purpose the Corporation's stock ledger, a list of its stockholders, and its other books and records and to make copies or extracts therefrom. A proper purpose shall mean a purpose reasonably related to such person's interest as a stockholder. In every instance where an attorney or other agent is the person who seeks the right to inspection, the demand under oath shall be accompanied by a power of attorney or such other writing which authorizes the attorney or other agent to so act on behalf of the stockholder. The demand under oath shall be directed to the Corporation at its registered office in Delaware or at its principal place of business.

(b) A complete list of stockholders entitled to vote at any meeting of stockholders, arranged in alphabetical order for each class of stock and showing the address of each such stockholder and the number of shares registered in each such stockholder's name, shall be open to the examination of any such stockholder for a period of at least ten (10) days prior to the meeting in the manner provided by law. If any officer, transfer agent or registrar who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed upon a certificate shall have ceased to be such officer, transfer agent or registrar before such certificate is issued, it may be issued by the Corporation with the same effect as if such person were an officer, transfer agent or registrar at the date of issue.

Certificates for shares may be issued prior to full payment under such restrictions and for such purposes as the Board may provide; provided, however, that on any certificate issued to represent any partly paid shares, the total amount of the consideration to be paid therefor and the amount paid thereon shall be stated.

Except as provided in this section, no new certificate for shares shall be issued in lieu of an old one unless the latter is surrendered and cancelled at the same time. The Board may, however, if any certificate for shares is alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, authorize the issuance of a new certificate in lieu thereof, and the Corporation may require that the Corporation be given a bond or other adequate security sufficient to indemnify it against any claim that may be made against it (including expense or liability) on account of the alleged loss, theft or destruction of such certificate or the issuance of such new certificate.

Section 5. Representation of Shares of other Corporations. The President, the Chief Operating Officer, the Chief Executive Officer or any other officer or officers authorized by the Board, the Chief Executive Officer, the President, or the Chief Operating Officer are each authorized to vote, represent and exercise on behalf of the Corporation all rights incident to any and all shares of any other corporation or corporations standing in the name of the Corporation. Section 6. Stock Purchase Plans. The Corporation may adopt and carry out a stock purchase plan or agreement or stock option plan or agreement providing for the issue and sale for such consideration as may be fixed of its unissued shares, or of issued shares acquired or to be acquired, to one or more of the employees or directors of the Corporation or of a subsidiary or to a trustee on their behalf and for the payment for such shares in installments or at one time, and may provide for aiding any such persons in paying for such shares by compensation for services rendered, promissory notes or otherwise.

ARTICLE VI

Section 1. Indemnification. The Corporation shall indemnify its officers and directors, and former officers and directors, for such expenses and liabilities, in such manner, under such circumstances, and to such extent, as required or permitted by the Delaware General Corporation Law, as amended from time to time. The determination of whether any such person is eligible for indemnification under this Section 1 shall be made (a) by a majority vote of the directors who are not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, even though less than a quorum, or (b) if there are no such directors, or if such directors so direct, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (c) by the stockholders; provided, however, that if a Change in Control (as defined below) has occurred and the person seeking indemnification so requests, a determination of whether such person is eligible for indemnification under this Section 1 shall be made in a written opinion rendered by independent legal counsel chosen by the person seeking indemnification and not reasonably objected to by the Board, and such determination shall be binding on the Corporation. The fees and expenses of such independent counsel shall be paid by the Corporation. For such purpose, (i) independent legal counsel shall mean legal counsel other than an attorney, or a firm having associated with it an attorney, who has been retained by or has performed services for the Corporation or the person seeking indemnification within the previous three years; and (ii) a Change in Control shall be deemed to have occurred if:

(i) a majority of the directors of the Corporation shall be persons other than persons (A) who were directors of the Corporation on the date this Section was adopted, (B) for whose election proxies shall have been solicited by the Board or (C) who are then serving as directors appointed by the Board to fill vacancies on the Board caused by newly created directorships or the death or resignation (but not removal) of a director;

(ii) thirty percent (30%) or more of the outstanding shares of voting stock of the Corporation is acquired or beneficially owned (as defined in Rule 13d 3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or any successor rule thereto) by any person (other than the Corporation, a subsidiary of the Corporation or the person seeking indemnification) or group of persons, not including the person seeking indemnification, acting in concert;

(iii) the stockholders of the Corporation approve a definitive agreement or plan to (A) merge or consolidate the Corporation with or into another corporation (other than (1) a merger or consolidation with a subsidiary of the Corporation or (2) a merger in which the Corporation is the surviving corporation and no outstanding voting stock of the Corporation (other than fractional shares) held by stockholders immediately before the merger is converted into cash, securities, or other property), (B) sell or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of the assets of the Corporation (in one transaction or a series of transactions) or (C) liquidate or dissolve the Corporation, unless a majority of the voting stock (or the voting equity interest) of the surviving corporation or of any corporation (or other entity) acquiring all or substantially all of the assets of the Corporation (in the case of a merger, consolidation or disposition of assets) is, immediately following the merger, consolidation or disposition of assets, beneficially owned by the person seeking indemnification or a group of persons, including the person seeking indemnification, acting in concert; or

(iv) the Corporation enters into an agreement in principle or a definitive agreement relating to an event described in clause (i), (ii) or (iii) above which ultimately results in an event described therein, or a tender or exchange offer or proxy contest is commenced which ultimately results in an event described therein.

Section 2. Insurance. The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee, trustee or agent of another corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, against any liability or expense asserted against or incurred by such person in or arising from that capacity, or arising out of his or her status as such, whether or not the Corporation would otherwise have the power or the obligation to indemnify the person against such liability or expense. The Corporation shall not be obligated under these Bylaws to make any payment in connection with any claim made against any person if and to the extent that such person has actually received payment therefor under any insurance policy or policies.

Section 3. Expenses Payable in Advance. Expenses (including attorneys' fees and expenses) incurred by a director or officer, or a former director or officer, in defending, investigating, preparing to defend, or being or preparing to be a witness in, a threatened or pending action, suit, proceeding or claim against him or her, whether civil or criminal, shall be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit, proceeding or claim upon receipt by the Corporation of a request therefor and an undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer, or former director or officer, to repay such amounts if it ultimately shall be determined that he or she is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation.

ARTICLE VII
AMENDMENTS

These Bylaws may be repealed, altered or amended or new Bylaws adopted at any meeting of the stockholders, either annual or special, by the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the stock entitled to vote at such meeting, unless a larger vote is required by these Bylaws or the Certificate of Incorporation. The Board shall also have the authority to repeal, alter or amend these Bylaws or adopt new Bylaws (including, without limitation, the amendment of any Bylaws setting forth the number of directors who shall constitute the whole Board) by unanimous written consent or at any annual, regular, or special meeting of the Board by the affirmative vote of a majority of the whole number of directors, subject to the power of the stockholders to change or repeal such Bylaws.

Appendix E

FORM OF INDEMNIFICATION AGREEMENT

This Indemnification Agreement (the Agreement) is made as of ____, 200____, by and between SM&A, a Delaware corporation (the Company), and____(the Indemnitee).

RECITALS

- A. The Company and Indemnitee recognize the increasing difficulty in obtaining liability insurance for directors, officers and key employees, the significant increases in the cost of such insurance and the general reductions in the coverage of such insurance.
- B. The Company and Indemnitee further recognize the substantial increase in corporate litigation in general, subjecting directors, officers and key employees to expensive litigation risks at the same time as the availability and coverage of liability insurance has been severely limited.
- C. Indemnitee does not regard the current protection available as adequate under the present circumstances, and Indemnitee and agents of the Company may not be willing to continue to serve as agents of the Company without additional protection.
- D. The Company desires to attract and retain the services of highly qualified individuals, such as Indemnitee, and to indemnify its directors, officers and key employees so as to provide them with the maximum protection permitted by law.

AGREEMENT

In consideration of the mutual promises made in this Agreement, and for other good and valuable consideration, receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, the Company and Indemnitee hereby agree as follows:

1. Indemnification.

(a) Third Party Proceedings. The Company shall indemnify Indemnitee if Indemnitee is or was a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit, proceeding, or investigation whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Company) by reason of the fact that Indemnitee is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Company, or any subsidiary of the Company, by reason of any action or inaction on the part of Indemnitee while an officer or director or by reason of the fact that Indemnitee is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement (if such settlement is approved in advance by the Company, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld) actually and reasonably incurred by Indemnitee in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if Indemnitee acted in good faith and in a manner Indemnitee reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe Indemnitee's conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that Indemnitee did not act in good faith and in a manner which Indemnitee reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company, or, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, that Indemnitee had reasonable cause to believe that Indemnitee's conduct was unlawful.

(b) Proceedings By or in the Right of the Company. The Company shall indemnify Indemnitee if Indemnitee was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or proceeding by or in the right of the Company or any subsidiary of the Company to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that Indemnitee is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Company, or any subsidiary of the Company, by reason of any action or inaction on the part of Indemnitee while an officer or director or by reason of the fact that Indemnitee is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees) and, to the fullest extent permitted by law, amounts paid in settlement (if such settlement is approved in advance by the Company, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld), in each case to the extent actually and reasonably incurred by Indemnitee in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if Indemnitee acted in good faith and in a manner Indemnitee reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company and its stockholders, except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which Indemnitee shall have been finally adjudicated by court order or judgment to be liable to the Company in the performance of Indemnitee's duty to the Company and its stockholders unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or proceeding is or was pending shall determine upon application that, in view of all the circumstances of the case, Indemnitee is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which such court shall deem proper.

(c) Mandatory Payment of Expenses. To the extent that Indemnitee has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in Section 1(a) or Section 1(b) or the defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, Indemnitee shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by Indemnitee in connection therewith.

(d) Exceptions. Any other provision herein to the contrary notwithstanding, the Company shall not be obligated pursuant to the terms of this Agreement:

(i) Claims Initiated by Indemnitee. To indemnify or advance expenses to Indemnitee with respect to proceedings or claims initiated or brought voluntarily by Indemnitee and not by way of defense, except with respect to proceedings brought to establish or enforce a right to indemnification under this Agreement or any other statute or law or otherwise as required under Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, but such indemnification or advancement of expenses may be provided by the Company in specific cases if the Board finds it to be appropriate; or

(ii) Claims under Section 16(b). To indemnify Indemnitee for expenses or the payment of profits arising from the purchase and sale by Indemnitee of securities in violation of Section 16(b) of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or any similar successor statute.

2. No Employment Rights. Nothing contained in this Agreement is intended to create in Indemnitee any right to continued employment.

3. Expenses: Indemnification Procedure.

(a) Advancement of Expenses. The Company shall advance all expenses incurred by Indemnitee in connection with the investigation, defense, settlement or appeal of any civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding referred to in Section 1(a) or Section 1(b) hereof (including amounts actually paid in settlement of any such action, suit or proceeding). Indemnitee hereby undertakes to repay such amounts advanced only if, and to the extent that, it shall ultimately be determined that Indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified by the Company as authorized hereby.

(b) Notice/Cooperation by Indemnitee. Indemnitee shall, as a condition precedent to his or her right to be indemnified under this Agreement, give the Company notice in writing as soon as practicable of any claim made against Indemnitee for which indemnification will or could be sought under this Agreement. Notice to the Company shall be directed to the President or the Chief Executive Officer of the Company and shall be given in accordance with the provisions of Section 11(d) below. In addition, Indemnitee shall give the Company such information and cooperation as it may reasonably require and as shall be within Indemnitee's power.

(c) Procedure. Any indemnification and advances provided for in Section 1 and this Section 3 shall be made no later than thirty (30) days after receipt of the written request of Indemnitee. If a claim under this Agreement, under any statute, or under any provision of the Company's Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws providing for indemnification, is not paid in full by the Company within thirty (30) days after a written request for payment thereof has first been received by the Company, Indemnitee may, but need not, at any time thereafter bring an action against the Company to recover the unpaid amount of the claim and, subject to Section 10 of this Agreement, Indemnitee shall also be entitled to be paid for the expenses (including attorneys' fees) of bringing such action. It shall be a defense to any such action (other than an action brought to enforce a claim for expenses incurred in connection with any action, suit or proceeding in advance of its final disposition) that Indemnitee has not met the standards of conduct which make it permissible under applicable law for the Company to indemnify Indemnitee for the amount claimed, but the burden of proving such defense shall be on the Company and Indemnitee shall be entitled to receive interim payments of expenses pursuant to Section 3(a) unless and until such defense may be finally adjudicated by court order or judgment from which no further right of appeal exists. It is the parties' intention that if the Company contests Indemnitee's right to indemnification, the question of Indemnitee's right to indemnification shall be for the court to decide, and neither the failure of the Company (including its Board of Directors, any committee or subgroup of the Board of Directors, independent legal counsel, or its stockholders) to have made a determination that indemnification of Indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because Indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct required by applicable law, nor an actual determination by the Company (including its Board of Directors, any committee or subgroup of the Board of Directors, independent legal counsel, or its stockholders) that Indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct, shall create a presumption that Indemnitee has or has not met the applicable standard of conduct.

(d) Notice to Insurers. If, at the time of the receipt of a notice of a claim pursuant to Section 3(b) hereof, the Company has director and officer liability insurance in effect, the Company shall give prompt notice of the commencement of such proceeding to the insurers in accordance with the procedures set forth in the respective policies. The Company shall thereafter take all necessary or desirable action to cause such insurers to pay, on behalf of the Indemnitee, all amounts payable as a result of such proceeding in accordance with the terms of such policies.

(e) Selection of Counsel. In the event the Company shall be obligated under Section 3(a) hereof to pay the expenses of any proceeding against Indemnitee, the Company, if appropriate, shall be entitled to assume the defense of such proceeding, with counsel approved by Indemnitee, upon the delivery to Indemnitee of written notice of its election so to do. After delivery of such notice, approval of such counsel by Indemnitee and the retention of such counsel by the Company, the Company will not be liable to Indemnitee under this Agreement for any fees of counsel subsequently incurred by Indemnitee with respect to the same proceeding, provided that (i) Indemnitee shall have the right to employ counsel in any such proceeding at Indemnitee's expense; and (ii) if (A) the employment of counsel by Indemnitee has been previously authorized by the Company, (B) Indemnitee shall have reasonably concluded that there may be a conflict of interest between the Company and Indemnitee in the conduct of any such defense or (C) the Company shall not, in fact, have employed counsel to assume the defense of such proceeding, then the fees and expenses of Indemnitee's counsel shall be at the expense of the Company.

4. Additional Indemnification Rights: Nonexclusivity.

(a) Scope. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Company hereby agrees to indemnify the Indemnitee to the fullest extent permitted by law, notwithstanding that such indemnification is not specifically authorized by the other provisions of this Agreement, the Company's Certificate of Incorporation, the Company's Bylaws or by statute. In the event of any change, after the date of this Agreement, in any applicable law, statute, or rule which expands the right of a Delaware corporation to indemnify a member of its board of directors or an officer, such changes shall be deemed to be within the purview of Indemnitee's rights and the Company's obligations under this Agreement. In the event of any change in any applicable law, statute or rule which narrows the right of a Delaware corporation to indemnify a member of its board of directors or an officer, such changes, to the extent not otherwise required by such law, statute or rule to be applied to this Agreement shall have no effect on this Agreement or the parties' rights and obligations hereunder.

(b) Nonexclusivity. The indemnification provided by this Agreement shall not be deemed exclusive of any rights to which Indemnitee may be entitled under the Company's Certificate of Incorporation, its Bylaws, any agreement, any vote of stockholders or disinterested members of the Company's Board of Directors, the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, or otherwise, both as to action in Indemnitee's official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office. The indemnification provided under this Agreement shall continue as to Indemnitee for any action taken or not taken while serving in an indemnified capacity even though he or she may have ceased to serve in any such capacity at the time of any action, suit or other covered proceeding.

5. Partial Indemnification. If Indemnitee is entitled under any provision of this Agreement to indemnification by the Company for some or a portion of the expenses, judgments, fines or penalties actually or reasonably incurred in the investigation, defense, appeal or settlement of any civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding, but not, however, for the total amount thereof, the Company shall nevertheless indemnify Indemnitee for the portion of such expenses, judgments, fines or penalties to which Indemnitee is entitled.

6. Mutual Acknowledgment. Both the Company and Indemnitee acknowledge that in certain instances, Federal law or public policy may override applicable state law and prohibit the Company from indemnifying its directors and officers under this Agreement or otherwise. For example, the Company and Indemnitee acknowledge that the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) has taken the position that indemnification is not permissible for liabilities arising under certain federal securities laws, and federal legislation prohibits indemnification for certain ERISA violations.

7. Officer and Director Liability Insurance. The Board shall, from time to time, make the good faith determination whether or not it is practicable for the Company to obtain and maintain a policy or policies of insurance with reputable insurance companies providing the officers and directors of the Company with coverage for losses from wrongful acts, or to ensure the Company's performance of its indemnification obligations under this Agreement. Among other considerations, the Board will weigh the costs of obtaining such insurance coverage against the protection afforded by such coverage. In all policies of director and officer liability insurance, Indemnitee shall be named as an insured in such a manner as to provide Indemnitee the same rights and benefits as are accorded to the most favorably insured of the Company's directors, if Indemnitee is a director; or of the Company's officers, if Indemnitee is not a director of the Company but is an officer; or of the Company's key employees, if Indemnitee is not an officer or director but is a key employee. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company shall have no obligation to obtain or maintain such insurance if the Board determines in good faith that such insurance is not reasonably available, if the premium costs for such insurance are disproportionate to the amount of coverage provided, if the coverage provided by such insurance is limited by exclusions so as to provide an insufficient benefit, or if Indemnitee is covered by similar insurance maintained by a parent or subsidiary of the Company.

8. Severability. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to require or shall be construed as requiring the Company to do or fail to do any act in violation of applicable law. The Company's inability, pursuant to court order, to perform its obligations under this Agreement shall not constitute a breach of this Agreement. The provisions of this Agreement shall be severable as provided in this Section 8. If this Agreement or any portion hereof shall be invalidated on any ground by any court of competent jurisdiction, then the Company shall nevertheless indemnify Indemnitee to the full extent permitted by any applicable portion of this Agreement that shall not have been invalidated, and the balance of this Agreement not so invalidated shall be enforceable in accordance with its terms.

9. Construction of Certain Phrases.

(a) For purposes of this Agreement, references to the Company shall include, in addition to the resulting corporation, any constituent corporation (including any constituent of a constituent) absorbed in a consolidation or merger which, if its separate existence had continued, would have had power and authority to indemnify its directors, officers, and employees or agents, so that if Indemnitee is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of such constituent corporation, or is or was serving at the request of such constituent corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, Indemnitee shall stand in the same position under the provisions of this Agreement with respect to the resulting or surviving corporation as Indemnitee would have with respect to such constituent corporation if its separate existence had continued.

(b) For purposes of this Agreement, references to other enterprises shall include employee benefit plans; references to fines shall include any excise taxes assessed on Indemnitee with respect to an employee benefit plan; and references to serving at the request of the Company shall include any service as a director, officer, employee or agent of the Company which imposes duties on, or involves services by, such director, officer, employee or agent with respect to an employee benefit plan, its participants, or beneficiaries; and if Indemnitee acted in good faith and in a manner Indemnitee reasonably believed to be in the interest of the participants and beneficiaries of an employee benefit plan, Indemnitee shall be deemed to have acted in a manner not opposed to the best interests of the Company as referred to in this Agreement.

10. Attorneys Fees. In the event that any action is instituted by Indemnitee under this Agreement to enforce or interpret any of the terms hereof, Indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid all court costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by Indemnitee with respect to such action, unless as a part of such action, the court of competent jurisdiction determines that each of the material assertions made by Indemnitee as a basis for such action were not made in good faith or were frivolous. In the event of an action instituted by or in the name of the Company under this Agreement or to enforce or interpret any of the terms of this Agreement, Indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid all court costs and expenses, including attorneys' fees, incurred by Indemnitee in defense of such action (including with respect to Indemnitee's counterclaims and cross-claims made in such action), unless as a part of such action the court determines that each of Indemnitee's material defenses to such action were made in bad faith or were frivolous.

AMENDED AND RESTATED
AUDIT COMMITTEE CHARTER
April 11, 2006

Role

The Audit Committee (the Committee) of the Board of Directors (the Board) of SM&A (the Company) assists the Board in fulfilling its responsibility for oversight of the quality and integrity of the accounting and reporting practices of the Company, the qualifications and independence of the public accounting firm engaged to prepare or issue an audit report on the financial statements of the Company (the Independent Auditor) and such other duties as directed by the Board. The Committee's role includes discussing with management the Company's processes to manage financial risk, and for compliance with significant applicable legal, ethical, and regulatory requirements. The Committee has sole authority over the appointment and replacement of the Independent Auditor and is directly responsible for compensation, retention, and oversight of the Independent Auditor.

Membership

The membership of the Committee shall consist of at least three directors. Each member shall meet the experience and independence requirements of the listing standards of the relevant public stock market and applicable laws and regulations. Each member will be free of any relationship that, in the opinion of the Board, would interfere with his or her individual exercise of independent judgment. Applicable laws and regulations will be followed in evaluating a member's independence. Committee members will not serve simultaneously on the audit committees of more than two other public companies. The Board shall appoint the chairperson.

Operations

The Committee shall meet at least once each quarter. Additional meetings may occur as the Committee or its chair deems advisable. The Committee will cause to be kept adequate minutes of all its proceedings, and will report its actions to the next meeting of the Board. Committee members will be furnished with copies of the minutes of each meeting and any action taken by unanimous consent. The Committee will be governed by the same rules regarding meetings (including meetings by conference telephone or similar communications equipment), action without meetings, notice, waiver of notice, and quorum and voting requirements as are applicable to the Board. The Committee is authorized and empowered to adopt its own rules of procedure not inconsistent with (a) any provision hereof, (b) any provision of the Bylaws of the Company, or (c) the laws of the state of California.

Communications/Reporting

The Independent Auditor shall report directly to the Committee. The Committee is expected to maintain free and open communication with the Independent Auditor and the Company's management. This communication will include periodic separate executive sessions with each of these parties.

Education

The Company is responsible for providing the Committee with educational resources related to accounting principles and procedures, current accounting topics pertinent to the Company and other material as may be requested by the Committee. The Company will assist the Committee in maintaining appropriate financial literacy.

Authority

The Committee will have the resources and authority necessary to discharge its duties and responsibilities, including the authority to retain outside counsel or other experts or consultants, as it deems appropriate. Any communications between the Committee and legal counsel in the course of obtaining legal advice will be considered privileged communications of the Company, and the Committee will take all necessary steps to preserve the privileged nature of those communications.

Table of Contents

Responsibilities

The Committee's specific responsibilities in carrying out its oversight role are delineated in the Audit Committee Responsibilities Calendar. As the compendium of Committee responsibilities, the most recently updated Responsibilities Calendar will be considered to be an addendum to this Charter. The Committee will review and reassess the adequacy of this Charter annually to reflect changes in regulatory requirements, authoritative guidance, and evolving oversight practices and recommend any proposed changes to the Board.

The Committee relies on the expertise and knowledge of management and the Independent Auditor in carrying out its oversight responsibilities. Management of the Company is responsible for determining the Company's financial statements are complete, accurate and in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. The Independent Auditor is responsible for auditing the Company's financial statements. It is not the duty of the Committee to plan or conduct audits, to determine that the financial statements are complete and accurate and are in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, to conduct investigations, or to assure compliance with laws and regulations or the Company's internal policies, procedures and controls.

- c. Compliance with applicable governmental laws, rules and regulations;
- d. Prompt internal reporting of violations of the BC&E Code to an appropriate person or persons identified in this BC&E Code; and
- e. Accountability for adherence to the BC&E Code.

3.0 POLICY

We believe in the free enterprise system. We shall consistently treat our customers, employees, shareholders, suppliers and the community with honesty, dignity, fairness and respect. We will conduct our business with the highest ethical standards.

3.1 Reporting of Risks

The Company is committed to providing quality services that meet or exceed the expectations of our customers. Deficiencies that put the financial security of the Company at risk or, more importantly, threaten the physical well-being of any person, should be reported immediately to management.

3.2 Promoting Health and Safety

The health and safety of the Company's employees is of utmost importance. Our work processes and policies are designed to minimize risk. We all must routinely review and improve workplace conditions to ensure a safe and healthful workplace and report unsafe working conditions to supervisors and management.

3.3 Equal Opportunity and Diversity

We value and respect the diversity of our employees, officers, directors, suppliers, customers and communities. The Company is committed to providing equal opportunity in all of our employment and purchasing practices. Only in valuing diversity and committing to equal opportunity practices will we be able to fully utilize the human and business resources available to us in our pursuit of customer satisfaction. At the same time, we believe that by valuing diversity we enable all to fully realize their potential. 3.5 Protecting Employee Privacy

The Company is committed to providing privacy protection of employee data maintained by the Company. Employee data will be used for the sole purpose of supporting company operations and providing employee benefits. The Company will comply with all local data protection regulations.

The Company has put safeguards in place to ensure that personal data is protected from unauthorized access and disclosure, including limiting access to such data only to those employees with a legitimate business purpose. All employees are responsible for ensuring compliance with this employee privacy policy.

3.6 Protecting the Company's Information

Protecting information about the Company's services, activities, performance or plans is critical to the Company's competitive position and reputation. Good judgment is needed to determine what information can or cannot be disclosed to others. Should there be any question as to whether certain information is confidential, employees should consult their supervisor. To limit the potential for important information being used improperly, employees should use "need to know" guidelines even with other employees of the Company.

The use of confidential Company information for the personal gain of an employee, officer, director or anyone else is contrary to the Company's policies and, in many cases unlawful. Confidential information includes all nonpublic information that might be of use to competitors, or harmful to the Company or its customers, if disclosed.

Buying or selling of the Company's stock based on material nonpublic information is also prohibited. It is unlawful to communicate this information to other persons who may trade in our stock. Material information is defined, as anything a prudent investor should know before investing in a company. This type of information includes, but is not limited to, financial results, new contracts and acquisition plans that have not already been disclosed to the public.

3.7 Avoiding Conflicts of Interest

The best interests of the Company are expected to be foremost in the minds of our employees, officers and directors as they perform their duties. When we become employees of the Company, and receive pay and benefits, we make this commitment. It is wrong to seek any other economic gain by virtue of being an employee, officer or director of the Company. Giving or receiving anything of enough value to influence sound business judgment is prohibited. This also applies to family, friends and business associates. In addition, discussions of future employment with government officials with whom the Company seeks to do business must be approved in advance.

The Company trusts its employees, officers and directors with information about Company activities and with Company funds and property. Use of any of these in a way that conflicts with Company interests is strictly prohibited. Situations or arrangements that may conflict with Company interests must be approved in advance by the employee's respective business group Vice President. We must also take care that our actions cannot be perceived as serving other interests. While mutually beneficial relationships with customers and suppliers are encouraged, we should avoid situations that offer the potential for problems. Examples include having a significant stake in, or serving as a director of, a firm that sells to or purchases from the Company. Employees should also not work for a customer or a supplier. All these examples apply to involvement with our competitors as well.

The extension of loans or credit guarantees to or for the personal benefit of directors, officers and employees shall be prohibited except as permitted by law and the listing standards of any exchange or quotation system on which the Company's shares are listed.

3.8 Proper Use of Company Funds

Employees are personally accountable for any form of Company funds such as credit cards, cash and checks. Those who authorize the use of funds must ensure that the Company has received proper value in return. The Company may be obligated to notify appropriate civil authorities should funds be used for any improper or illegal purpose and will take appropriate disciplinary action in any event.

Some examples include vouchers, bills, financial data, expense reports and performance records.

3.14 Defense Security

3.15 Antitrust

Planning or acting together with any competitor to fix prices or to agree about the nature, extent or means of competition in any market is against company policy and in violation of antitrust laws. Antitrust laws may also in some circumstances prohibit agreements to boycott, to allocate products, territories, or markets, and to limit the production or sale of products. Using illegal or unethical means to obtain competitive information or gain a competitive advantage over a competitor is prohibited.

3.16 International Business

There are several laws that restrict where we can do business, what information or products we can supply to certain countries and what information we can provide to a foreign government (e.g. boycott-related requests or U.S. national security concerns). For these reasons, business entry into any new foreign country must comply with these restrictions.

3.17 Corporate Opportunities

Directors and employees have a duty to the Company to advance its legitimate interest when the opportunity to do so arises.

3.18 Waiver of the Code

Any waiver of this Code may be made only by the independent directors on the Board of Directors, or by an authorized committee of the Board of Directors comprised solely of independent directors and will be disclosed as required by law, the regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission, or the rules and listing standards of any national securities exchange on which the Company's securities may be listed.

3.19 Responsibilities

Each employee, officer and director of the Company is expected to carry out his or her work in accordance with the BC&E Code of the Company. Further, all employees are urged to direct any questions or concerns about the Company's activities or these standards to their supervisors or the human resources department without delay. Any employee who suspects that a violation of the BC&E Code has occurred is obligated to report it, and such employees shall be protected from retaliation. Employees should also be aware that these standards are greater than those that may be required by local law. Adherence to these standards is a condition of employment with the Company. Violations are serious matters and will result in disciplinary action. Managers and supervisors are responsible for distributing copies of the BC&E Code to employees, officer and directors, as well as making them aware of the importance and specific requirements of the policy.
