(c) Exhibits

99.1 Complaint and Compulsory Counterclaim of McKesson HBOC, Inc.

Item 9. Regulation FD Disclosure

McKesson HBOC, Inc. ("McKesson") today filed an action against the New York State Common Retirement Fund, Inc. individually, and as a representative of a class of former HBO & Company ("HBOC") shareholders who exchanged their HBOC shares for McKesson shares in its 1999 merger. In the Complaint, the Company alleges that the exchanged HBOC shares were artificially inflated due to undisclosed accounting improprieties, and that the exchange ratio therefore provided too many shares to former HBOC shareholders. The Company has taken this action to recover the "unjust enrichment" received by those HBOC shareholders who exchanged more than 20,000 shares in the merger. The Company does not allege any wrongdoing by these shareholders. McKesson believes this action is both prudent and necessary to protect the Company's interests, to benefit the current shareholders of the Company, and to enable McKesson to preserve all claims available to it. The Company has itself been sued by most of these same HBOC shareholders who have already benefited from the unfair merger exchange ratio.
