using certain

non-GAAP

financial

measures,

including net

income, net income per

diluted share,

and combined and individual commercial segments operating income (loss), each excluding charges associated with exiting several product lines, reductions in force, cost-cutting measures, closure of locations or disposal of assets, and other gains or losses. A non-GAAP financial measure is defined as a numerical measure of a company s performance that excludes or includes amounts so as to be different than the most directly comparable measure calculated and presented in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles ( GAAP ). Pursuant to the requirements of Regulation G, Harris has included in its press release a reconciliation of all non-GAAP financial measures disclosed in the press release to the most directly comparable GAAP financial measure.

Management of Harris believes that these non-GAAP financial measures provide information that is useful to investors in understanding period-over-period operating results separate and apart from items that may, or could, have a disproportionate positive or negative impact on results in any particular period. Management also believes that these non-GAAP measures enhance the ability of an investor to analyze trends in Harris business and to better understand our performance. In addition, the Company may utilize non-GAAP financial measures to measure operating performance for some management compensation purposes. Any analysis of adjusted results should be used only in conjunction with, and not as a substitute for, results presented in accordance with GAAP.

Items 10.-11. Not applicable.

Item 12. See Item 9 above.
